And should the call be suspended by adjournment or otherwise, the calling of the roll shall be taken up when that order of business is reached, at the point at which it was discontinued, and this order shall be observed until the roll call shall be alphabetically completed, and no bill shall be introduced after the 2d day of March, 1911, except by one of the standing committees of the House.

19. The Clerk shall indorse on every bill the number thereof, the name of the member introducing it, the date of introduction and the several orders taken thereon; and when printed, said several indorsements shall be printed at the head of the bill.

20. When a bill is introduced it shall be read by its title, ordered printed and referred to the proper committee for consideration. It is hereby made the duty of any member introducing a bill proposing an amendment to any statute law of this State, to underscore the word or words comprising the proposed amendment, and no bill shall be printed until such word or words are underscored. All parts of bills which are underscored shall be printed in italics.

21. The Clerk shall, as soon as any bill is printed, place the same in the postoffice boxes of the members; and printed bills shall be furnished to others than public officers and members of the General Assembly and the press only on the written order of the Speaker, the President and the President pro tem. of the Senate, and members of the General Assembly.

22. Amendments to bills may be offered at the conclusion of the second reading, and all amendments to bills, except amendments by striking out, shall be printed when adopted, and shall in like manner be deposited in the postoffice boxes of the members one day before such amended bill shall be read the third time.

RECONSIDERATION.

When a question has been once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for a member of the majority to move for a reconsideration thereof, or give notice that he will make such motion within the time prescribed by this rule, for which time he shall control the motion. But no motion for the reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after a bill, resolution, message, report, amendment or motion, upon which the vote was taken, shall have gone out of the possession of the House; nor shall any motion for reconsideration be in order unless within the next day of actual session of the House: Provided, that should the member giving notice of a motion to reconsider, not make such motion within the time prescribed by the rule, any other member voting with the majority may make such motion within the next succeeding legislative day. Such motion shall take precedence of all other questions, except a motion to adjourn: And, provided, further, that when a bill has passed the House it shall require a constitutional majority to reconsider the vote by which the same was passed: And, provided, also, when a motion to reconsider the vote by which a bill is passed, is made, or a notice is given that such motion will be made within three days of the last legislative day of the session, it will then be in order for any member to move that such motion or notice of motion may be taken up and disposed of.

32. Upon the call of the House for the yeas and nays on any question, the names of the members shall be called in alphabetical order.

33. A motion to strike out the enacting words of a bill shall have the precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be considered equivalent to its rejection.

34. No person shall visit or remain at the Clerk's table while the yeas and nays are being called, and in the performance of their duties, all clerks of the House shall be under the supervision and control of the Speaker.

35. A motion for commitment, until it shall be decided, shall preclude all amendments to the main question.

42. Whenever any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall rise and respectfully address himself to "Mr.

Speaker," and confine himself to the question under debate, and avoid personality; and no motion shall be considered in order unless made from the seat occupied by the member.

44. All questions, except as provided in rules 45 and 51, whether in the Committee of the Whole or in the House, shall be disposed of in the order in which they are moved, except that in filling up blanks the largest sum and the most remote day shall be the first put.

45. The rules of the House shall be observed in all committees as far as may be applicable.

46. When the committee reports a substitute for an original bill, with the recommendation that the substitute pass, it shall be in order to read the substitute a first time at once and order it printed.

48. No member shall speak longer than thirty minutes at one time, nor more than once on the same question, except by leave of the House; but the member who introduces a measure shall, in all cases, have the right to close the debate, and this right shall not be denied him even after the previous question has been ordered, although he may have spoken once on the same subject, provided the member so speaking shall not be allowed more time in all than is permitted by the rules of the House to other members.

49. While the Speaker is putting a question or addressing the House, or when a member is speaking, no person shall walk out of or across the room, or pass between the member speaking and the Chair, or entertain private discourse.

50. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order.

51. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but—
To fix the time to which adjourn.

To adjourn.

A call of the House.

To lay on the table.

The previous question.

To commit.

To postpone to a day certain.

To postpone to a day indefinitely.

Which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are named; and no motion—

To postpone to a day certain.

To commit, or

To postpone indefinitely,

Being decided, shall be again allowed on the same day, or at the same stage of the bill or proposition.

52. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Cushing's Parliamentary Rules and Practice, shall govern the House in all cases in which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the House, or the joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives.

53. If a question be lost by adjournment of the House, and revived on the succeeding day, no member who has spoken on the preceding day shall be permitted to speak again on the same question without leave.

54. Any five members shall have the liberty to dissent from and protest, in respectful language, against any act or resolution which they shall think injurious to the public or any individual, and have the reasons of their dissent entered upon the Journal.

55. Questions shall be distinctly put in this form, viz: "As many as are of the opinion that" (as the case may be) "say 'Aye,' " and, after the affirmative vote is expressed, "As many as are of the contrary opinion say 'No.'" If the Speaker doubt, or if a division is called for, the House shall divide; those in the affirmative shall first arise from their seats, and afterwards those in the negative.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE.

56. In forming a Committee of the Whole House, the Speaker shall leave his chair, and a chairman to preside in the committee shall be appointed by the Speaker.

ADJOURNMENT.

57. The hour at which every motion to adjourn is made shall be entered on the Journal.

Ten o'clock in the morning shall be the standing hour to which the House shall adjourn unless otherwise ordered by a majority vote.

58. A motion to adjourn shall be decided without debate and not be subject to amendment.

DISPENSING WITH, RESCINDING OR CHANGING RULES.

59. No rule shall be dispensed with unless by the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any rule be rescinded or changed without one day's notice being given of the motion thereof; but a new rule, not in conflict with existing rules, may be added, after such notice, by a two-thirds vote of the members-elect, except when such new rule is reported by the Committee on Rules, and in that case such new rule may be adopted by a majority vote.

PREVIOUS QUESTION.

60. The previous question shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments or debate. When it is decided that the main question shall not now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate.

The effect of the main question's being ordered shall be to put an end to all debate, and bring the House to a direct vote, first, upon all amendments reported or pending in the inverse order in which they are offered. After the motion for the previous question has prevailed, it shall not be in order to move for a call of the House unless it shall appear by yeas and nays, as taken on the main question, that no quorum is present; or to move to adjourn prior to a decision of the main question: Provided, if a motion to postpone is pending the only effect of the previous question shall be to bring the House to a vote upon such motion.

61. All resolutions or petitions calling for the appointment of committees, or involving the expenditure of money, and all orders in reference to the appointed employés, or the increase of compensation of employés, of expenditure of moneys for incidental expenses of the session shall be referred to the Appropriation Committee without debate.

Joint Rules of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Forty-Seventh General Assembly.

1. When a message shall be sent from the Senate to the House of Representatives, it shall be announced at the door of the House by the Doorkeeper, and shall be respectfully communicated to the Chair by the person by whom it may be sent.

2. The same ceremony shall be observed when messages shall be sent from the House of Representatives to the Senate.

3. Messages shall be sent by such persons as a sense of property in each house may determine to be proper.

4. In every case of disagreement between the two houses, if either house request a conference, and appoint a committee for that purpose, the other house shall appoint a committee to confer therewith upon the subject of their disagreement. Said committee shall meet at a convenient time to be agreed upon by their chairman, and, having conferred freely, each shall report to its respective house the result of their conference. In case of an agreement the report shall be first made, with the papers referred accompanying it, to the disagreeing house, and there acted upon; and such action shall be immediately reported by the Clerk to the other house, the papers referred accompanying the message. In case of disagreement, the papers shall remain with the house which referred them. The agreeing report of a conference committee shall be made, read and signed in duplicate by all members of the committee, or by a majority of those of each house, one of the duplicates being retained by the committee of each house. Should either house disagree to the report of the committee, such house shall appoint a second committee and request a second conference, which shall be acceded to by the other house before adhering. The motion for a committee of conference, and the report of such committee, shall be in order at any time. When both houses shall have adhered to their disagreement, a bill or resolution is lost.

5. While bills are on their passage between the two houses they shall be accompanied by a message signed by the Secretary or Clerk (as the case may be) respectively.

6. After a bill has passed both houses, it shall be enrolled before it is presented to the Governor.

7. When bills are enrolled, they shall be examined by a joint committee, which shall consist of five members, two from the Senate and three from the House, to be appointed by the Senate and the Speaker of the House respectively. The clerk of the Committee on Engrossed and Enrolled Bills of the respective houses shall act as clerk of the committee whenever their services are required. Said committee shall carefully compare the enrolled bills with the engrossed bills, so passed by both houses, correct any errors which may be discovered in the enrolled bills, and make their report forthwith to their respective houses; the Secretary or Clerk having previously certified on the margin of the roll in which house it originated.

8. After examination and report, each bill shall be signed in the respective houses, first by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and then by the President of the Senate.

9. After a bill shall have been signed by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, it shall be presented by said Joint Committee to the Governor for his approval. The said committee shall report the day of presentation to the Governor to each house, which time shall be carefully entered on the journals of each house.

10. All resolutions and memorials which are to be presented to the Governor shall be previously enrolled, examined, signed and presented to the Joint Committee, reported, and entry made thereof, as provided in case of bills.

11. When a bill or resolution which shall have passed one house is rejected in the other, information thereof shall be given to the house in which the same shall have passed.

12. When the consideration of any bill, memorial, or resolution, which has originated in one house shall be postponed in the other to a day so distant that it shall not be taken up again by the present session, the house in which such bill, memorial or resolution shall have originated shall be forthwith informed of such postponement.

13. When a bill, memorial or resolution which has passed one house is rejected in the other, it shall not again be introduced during the same session, except in the house so rejecting, and after three days' notice and leave of that house.

14. Each house shall transmit to the other all papers on which any bill or resolution shall be founded.

15. While the two houses are acting together upon elections, or on any other matter, the Speaker shall preside, and all questions of order shall be decided by him, subject to an appeal to both houses, as though but one body was in session. A call of members of either house may be had in joint meeting by order of the house in which the call is desired, and to constitute a quorum of the joint assembly, a majority of all the members elected to both houses shall be present and voting.

16. Motions to postpone or adjourn shall be decided by a joint vote of both houses, and yeas and nays upon such motions, if required shall be entered upon the journals of both houses.

17. Upon questions arising requiring the separate decision of either house, the Senate shall withdraw until the decision is made. Provided, that questions upon motions for a call of either house shall not come within the provisions of this rule.

18. Each house shall have the liberty of ordering the printing of bills, messages and reports without the consent of the other.

19. Whenever any message, bill, report or document shall be ordered to be printed by the Senate or House, for the use of both houses, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Senate or Clerk of the House (as the case may be) immediately to report the fact of the passage of such order to the other branch of the General Assembly, together with the number so ordered to be printed in case the same shall exceed 300.

1 Offered by Mr. Gilbert and referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring therein, that there be submitted to the electors of this State for adoption or rejection at the next election of members of the General Assembly a proposition to amend the fourth article of the constitution of this State, as follows:

First. So that Section one (1) of said article may read as follows:

“Section 1. The legislative power shall be vested in the members of a General Assembly and the electors of the State and the same shall be exercised in the manner prescribed by this article. The limitations upon the legislative power expressed or implied in the provisions of this constitution shall be binding upon the consciences of the members of the General Assembly and the electors of the State, but excepting as may be, in this article, be otherwise expressly provided, they shall be the exclusive and final judges of the extent of such limitations and of their force and effect with respect to all laws which, by the terms of this article, become operative by a vote of the electors of the State, or of some portion thereof as hereinafter provided.”

Second. By adding thereto the following sections to be known as Sections thirty-five (35), thirty-six (36), thirty-seven (37), thirty-eight (38), thirty-nine (39), forty (40), forty-one (41), and forty two (42), and which shall read as follows:

“Section 35. The General Assembly may provide by law for the enactment of laws by the electors of the State to be operative in the State generally,

3 or of laws by the electors of the county of Cook to be operative only in the county 4 of Cook, or of laws by the electors of the State outside of the county of Cook to 5 be operative only in the territory of the State outside of the county of Cook, 6 without previous action by the General Assembly or by any of the members 7 thereof: Provided, however, that no bill making such provision shall become a 8 law without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members elected to each 9 House; and, provided, further, that no proposed law shall be submitted, in pur-10 suance of such provision, to a vote of the electors of the State, or of the electors 11 of the county of Cook, or of the electors of the State outside of the county of 12 Cook, as the case may be, unless it shall have been previously submitted to and 13 examined by the judges of the supreme court, and said judges, or a majority of 14 them, shall have made and caused to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State 15 a certificate that, in their opinion, such proposed law, if enacted, will not be in 16 conflict with any provision of this Constitution applicable thereto. The method 17 of submitting such proposed law to the judges of the supreme court and the 18 method of procedure to be observed by them in the examination of the same, and 19 the certifying of their opinion with respect thereto, shall be such as may be pro-20 vided by law, or, in default of such provision by law, by rules to be adopted by 21 the supreme court. The General Assembly may also, by a bill concurred in by 22 two-thirds of the members elected to each House, make provision whereby any 23 law, the enactment of which, by the terms of this article, does not require the 24 concurrence of the majority of the electors of the State, or of any portion there-25 of voting thereon, may be rendered inoperative by a vote of the electors of the 26 State generally, if such law is intended to be operative throughout the State, or 27 by a vote of the electors of the county of Cook, if such law is intended to be 28 operative only in the county of Cook, or by a vote of the electors of the State out-29 side of the county of Cook, if such law is intended to be operative only in the 30 territory of the State outside of the county of Cook."

"Section 36. A law shall be deemed operative only in a given territory 2 within the meaning of this article when it is local to such territory, or to some

3 part thereof, or relates only to the governmental affairs of such territory, or 4 of some part thereof, notwithstanding it may be required that full faith and 5 credit, or other incidental operation, be given to it in the remaining territory 6 of the State or some part thereof."

"Section 37. The date fixed by this Constitution for the election of any ex-2 ecutive or judicial officer may be changed, from time to time, by law, and, for the 3 better accomplishment of the purpose of such change, such law may provide for 4 extending or shortening the term of office of such officer. But no such law shall 5 be operative unless the bill therefor shall be concurred in by the majority of the 6 members elected to each House of the General Assembly and shall be approved 7 by the majority of the electors of the State voting at a general or special elec-8 tion at which the same may be submitted by some provision thereof or by a 9 joint resolution of the General Assembly concurred in by the majority of the 10 members elected to each House."

"Section 38. There may be enacted to be operative only in the county of 2 Cook any law or laws relating to the municipal government of the city of 3 Chicago, or to the municipal corporations situated, in whole or in part, in the 4 City of Chicago, or providing for the consolidation of such municipal corpor-5 ations, or of any two or more of them, either with the municipal government 6 of the city of Chicago or with each other; any law or laws consolidating the 7 municipal government of the county of Cook and the municipal government 8 of the cities, towns and villages situated in the county of Cook, or consolidating 9 any number of said municipal governments, into one or more municipal 10 governments, and conferring upon such consolidated municipal government or 11 governments such powers as may be deemed necessary or expedient; any 12 law or laws abolishing all offices in the county of Cook which may be deemed un-13 necessary, or the functions of which may be performed through other offices; 14 any law or laws consolidating the circuit, superior, criminal, county, probate 15 and other courts in the county of Cook, or any number of said courts, into one

16 or more courts with such organization, jurisdiction, powers, proceedings and 17 practice, and whose orders, judgments and decrees shall be given such force and 18 effect and be reviewed by the supreme court or appellate court in such manner, 19 as such law or laws may prescribe; any law or laws providing such means, method 20 or methods as may be deemed necessary or proper for raising revenue both for 21 the payment of the expenses of the municipal government or governments in the 22 county of Cook and for the payment of the proportionate share of the county of 23 Cook of the expenses of the State government, which proportionate share shall 24 be fixed and determined by a law concurred in by the majority of the members 25 elected to each House from the districts in the county of Cook, and by the ma-26 jority of the members elected to each house from the districts outside of the 27 county of Cook, or, in default of such law, by the Supreme Court; or any law or 28 laws providing for just compensation to persons or to their relatives, for injuries 29 received by such persons. The methods by which any law specified in this sec-30 tion may be enacted are the following:

31 First—Any bill introduced in the General Assembly which, upon its final 32 passage, either in its original form or as amended, receives the votes of the 33 majority of the members elected to each house may, by its terms, be submitted to 34 a vote of the electors residing in the county of Cook at the next general elec-35 tion held in said county, or at any regular election for city officials held in the 36 city of Chicago and special election to be held at the same time in the territory 37 of said county of Cook outside of said city of Chicago, which special election 38 may be directed in said bill to be held for that purpose, and if, at such election, 39 such bill shall be approved by the majority of the electors voting thereat re-40 siding in the county of Cook the same shall become a law.

41 Second—At any time within thirty days after any sine die adjournment of 42 any session of the General Assembly any number of the members of the Gen-43 eral Assembly elected from the districts in the county of Cook equal to one-third 44 of the total number of members elected from said districts may file with the Sec-

45 retary of State a demand in writing that any bill introduced in the General As-46 sembly, either in the form in which the same has been introduced, or in the form 47 in which the same may appear after the adoption by either house or both houses 48 of any amendment or amendments thereto, or in the form in which the same may 49 appear after the making by said members of the General Assembly filing such 50 demand in writing of such amendments thereto or changes therein as they may 51 deem advisable, and which bill shall be attached to such demand in writing, shall 52 be submitted to a vote of the electors residing in the county of Cook, and there-53 upon such bill shall be submitted to a vote of the electors residing in the county of 54 Cook at the next general election to be held in said county, or at any regular 55 election for city officers held in the city of Chicago and special election to be held 56 at the same time in the territory of said county of Cook outside of said city of 57 Chicago, which special election may be directed in said bill to be held for that 58 purpose, and if, at such election, such bill shall be approved by the majority of the 59 electors voting thereat residing in the county of Cook the same shall become a 60 law."

"Section 39. There may be enacted, to be operative only in any specified 2 county of this State, other than the county of Cook, any law or laws relating to 3 the municipal government of any city in any such county or to the municipal 4 corporations situated, in whole or in part, in such city, or providing for the con-5 solidation of such municipal corporations, or of any two or more of them, with 6 the municipal government of such city or with each other; any law or laws con-7 solidating the municipal government of such county and the municipal govern-8 ments of the cities, towns and villages situated in such county, or consolidating 9 any number of said municipal governments, into one or more municipal govern-10 ments and conferring upon such consolidated municipal government or govern-11 ments such powers as may be deemed necessary or expedient; any law or laws 12 abolishing all offices in such county which may be deemed unnecessary or the 13 functions of which may be performed through other offices; a law or laws con-

14 solidating the courts of such county, or any two or more of them, into one or more 15 courts with such organization, jurisdiction, powers, proceedings and practice, 16 and whose orders, judgments and decrees shall be given such force and effect and 17 be reviewed by the Supreme Court or Appellate Court in such manner as such 18 law or laws may prescribe; any law or laws providing such means, method or 19 methods as may be deemed necessary or proper for raising revenue both for the 20 payment of the expenses of the municipal government or governments in the 21 territory of such county and for the payment of the proportionate share of such 22 county of the expenses of the State government, which proportionate share shall 23 be fixed and determined by a law concurred in by the majority of the members 24 elected to each House of the General Assembly, or, in default of such law, by the 25 Supreme Court; or any law or laws providing for just compensation to persons, 26 or to their relatives, for injuries received by such persons. The methods by 27 which any law specified in this section may be enacted are the following:

28 First—Any bill introduced in the General Assembly which, upon its final 29 passage, either in its original form or as amended, receives the votes of the 30 majority of the members elected to each house may, by its terms, be submitted to 31 a vote of the electors of the State residing outside of the county of Cook at the 32 next general election held in such territory, and if, at such election, such bill 33 shall be approved by the majority of the electors voting on the question re-34 siding in the territory of the State outside of the county of Cook and by the 35 majority of the electors voting at the election residing in the county in which 36 the same is to be operative, and, if the same relates to the municipal govern-37 ment of any city, such bill shall be approved by the majority of the electors vot-38 ing at the election residing in said city, the same shall become a law.

39 Second—At any time within thirty days after any sine die adjournment of 40 any session of the General Assembly any number of members of the General As-41 sembly elected from the districts outside of the county of Cook equal to one-third 42 of the total number of members elected from said districts may file with the Sec-
 43 retary of State a demand in writing that any bill introduced in the General As-

44 ssembly, either in the form in which the same has been introduced, or in the form 45 in which the same may appear after the adoption by either house or both houses
 46 of any amendment or amendments thereto, or in the form in which the same may 47 appear after the making by said members of the General Assembly filing such 48 demand in writing of such amendments thereto or changes therein as they may 49 deem advisable, and which bill shall be attached to such demand in writing, shall 50 be submitted to a vote of the electors residing in the territory of the State outside 51 of the county of Cook, and thereupon such bill shall be submitted to a vote of the 52 electors residing in the territory of the State outside of the county of Cook at 53 the next general election held in said territory, and if, at such election, such bill 54 shall be approved by the majority of the electors voting thereat residing in the 55 territory of the State outside of the county of Cook, and by the majority of the 56 electors voting thereat residing in the county in which the same is to be oper-57 ative, and, if the same relates to the municipal government of any city, such bill 58 shall be approved by the majority of the electors voting thereat residing in such 59 city, the same shall become a law."

"Section 40. Any bill which shall have been submitted to a vote of the elec-
 2 tors of the State, or of some portion thereof, in the manner provided in this ar-3 ticle and shall have been concurred in by the number of electors specified in this 4 article as necessary to make the same effective as a law shall become operative as 5 a law without the approval of the Governor, anything in this Constitution con-6 tained to the contrary notwithstanding, and no bill approved by a vote of the 7 majority of the electors of the State, or of some division thereof, voting at the 8 election at which the same is voted on shall be altered, amended or repealed, in 8 whole or in part, unless either such alteration, amendment, or repeal be ap-10 proved by a vote of the majority of the electors of the State, or of such division 11 thereof, voting at the election at which such alteration, amendment or re-12 peal is voted on, or the bill for such alteration, amendment or repeal shall be 13 concurred in by three-fourths of the members elected to each House of the Gen-14 eral Assembly."

“Section 41. Any law enacted in the manner prescribed by Section thirty-eight (38) or Section thirty-nine (39) of this article may be adjudged invalid, in whole or in part, in any judicial proceeding, if, in the opinion of the court in which such proceeding is brought or to which the same is removed for review by appeal or writ of error, the same is in conflict with the Constitution of the United States or with any law enacted or treaty entered into in pursuance thereof, or if, in the opinion of such court, the same is in conflict with either of the following provisions of this Constitution, to-wit: Sections numbered three (3), thirteen (13), fourteen (14) and eighteen (18) of article two (2); section numbered twenty (20) of this article; article seven (7); sections numbered two (2) to four (4), both inclusive, of article eight (8); sections numbered seven (7) and eleven (11) of article nine (9); sections numbered one (1) to four (4), both inclusive, of article ten (10); sections numbered one (1) to fourteen (14), both inclusive, of article eleven (11); the separate section relating to the Illinois Central Railroad Company; the separate section relating to municipal subscriptions to railroads or private corporations; or the separate section relating to convict labor. Excepting as may be otherwise expressly provided by this article, no law adopted in the manner prescribed by Section thirty-eight (38) or Section thirty-nine (38) of this article shall be adjudged invalid, either in whole or in part, on any ground than one thus specified in this section; and no law shall be adjudged invalid in toto because of the invalidity of some portion thereof unless, when the invalid portion is stricken out, no effect can be given to the remaining portion thereof.

“Section 42. The General Assembly may, with respect to any law which, by the terms of this article, may be adjudged invalid, in whole or in part, provide that the same may, prior to the time fixed for the taking effect of the same, be submitted to the supreme court for its opinion as to the validity thereof and may make the taking effect of such act dependent upon the determination of the supreme court as to its validity. In any such case the time fixed for the taking

7 effect of such act shall be not less than six months after the submission of the 8 same to the supreme court for its opinion and it shall be the duty of the su 9 preme court to deliver its opinion, or the opinion of a majority of its judges, 10 upon such act to the Secretary of State within the time thus fixed, and upon the 11 receipt of such opinion it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to make 12 publication of the same. Before the delivery by the supreme court of any such 13 opinion it shall be the duty of the court to set a time and place for a public 14 hearing with respect to the validity of such proposed law and to afford to per 15 sons interested therein such opportunity to be heard as the court may deem 16 necessary to aid it in the preparation of its opinion. The failure of the supreme 17 court to deliver to the Secretary of State its opinion with respect to the validity 18 of any such act prior to the time fixed for the taking effect of the same shall be 19 treated as a determination of the court that such act is in all respects valid and 20 the validity of the same shall not thereafter be questioned in any court of this 21 State, unless such act, or some part thereof, be found in conflict with the Con 22 stitution of the United States or with some law enacted or treaty entered into 23 in pursuance thereof."

1 Introduced by Mr. Tice, February 23, 1911.

2 Read by title, ordered printed and referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the State of Illinois, the Senate

2 concurring therein: That there shall be submitted to the electors of this 3 State for adoption or rejection at the next election of members of the General 4 Assembly a proposition to amend Section 1 and Sections 12 and 13 of Article 5 4, of the Constitution of this State, so that the same may read as follows:

6 Section 1. The legislative authority shall be vested in a General Assembly 7 which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives, both to be elected 8 by the people, but the people reserve to themselves power to propose laws and 9 to enact or reject same at the polls, independent of the General Assembly, and 10 also reserve power, at their own option to approve or reject any act or measure 11 passed by the General Assembly. The first power reserved by the people is the 12 initiative and not more than eight per cent. of the legal voters of this State 13 shall be required to propose any law by initiative petition, and every such peti-14 tion shall include the full text of the law so proposed. Initiative petitions shall 15 be filed with the Secretary of State not less than thirty days before any regular 16 session of the General Assembly, and he shall transmit the same to the General 17 Assembly, as soon as it convenes and organizes. Such initiative measures shall 18 take precedence over all other measures in the General Assembly except appro-19 priation bills, and shall be either enacted or rejected without change or amend-20 ment by the General Assembly within forty days. If any such initiative meas-21 ure shall be enacted by the General Assembly it shall be subject to referendum 22 petition, or may be referred by the General Assembly to the people for adoption

23 or rejection. If it is rejected or if no action is taken upon it by the General 24 Assembly within said forty days, the Secretary of State shall submit it to the 25 people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general election.
 26 The General Assembly may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition 27 and propose a different one on the same subject, and in any such event both measures 28 shall be submitted by the Secretary of State to the people for approval or rejection 29 at the next ensuing regular election. If the conflicting measures so submitted 30 to the people shall be approved by a majority of the votes severally cast for or 31 against the same, the one receiving the highest number of affirmative votes shall 32 thereby become law as to all conflicting provisions. The second power reserved by 33 the people is the referendum, and it may be ordered (except as to laws necessary 34 for the preservation of the public peace, health or safety) as to any measure 35 passed by the General Assembly either by initiative petition or by the General Assembly 36 as other bills are enacted. Not more than five per cent. of the legal voters 37 of the State shall be required to sign and make a valid referendum petition.
 38 But, if it is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health 39 or safety that a law should become effective without delay, such necessity and the 40 facts creating the same shall be stated in one section of the bill, and if upon a ye 41 and no vote in each house two-thirds of all the members of each house shall vote 42 on a separate roll call in favor of the said law going into instant operation for 43 the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, such law shall 44 become operative upon the approval of the Governor. Referendum petitions 45 against measures passed by the General Assembly shall be filed with the Secretary 46 of State within ninety days after the final adjournment of the session of 47 the General Assembly which passed the measure on which the referendum is demanded; 48 and the Secretary of State shall submit and refer such measure to the 49 people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general election, 50 and such measure shall not become effective until approved by the people as 51 herein provided. The veto power of the Governor shall not extend to measures 52 referred to the people. All elections on measures referred to the people

53 shall be had at the next ensuing regular general election. Any measure re-54 ferred to the people shall become a law when it is approved by a majority of the 55 votes cast thereon and not otherwise, and shall take effect from the date of the 56 official declaration of the vote. The style of all initiative measures shall be "Be 57 it enacted by the people of the State of Illinois." This section shall not be con-58 strued to deprive any member of the General Assembly of the right to intro-59 duce any measure. The whole number of votes cast for the State officer having 60 the highest number of votes cast at the regular election last preceding the filing of 61 any petition for the initiative or for the referendum shall be the basis on which the 62 number of legal voters necessary to sign such a petition shall be counted, pro-63 vided that no more than fifty per cent. of the signers shall reside in any one 64 county. All signatures must be verified by the circulators. Petitions and orders 65 for the initiative and referendum shall be filed with the Secretary of State 66 and he and all other officers shall be guided by the general laws and the resolution

 68 This amendment shall be self executing, but legislation may be enacted specially 69 to facilitate its operation.

70 Section 12. Bills may originate in either house, but may be altered, amend-71 ed or rejected by the other; or they may originate in the people as provided in 72 Section 1 of this Article; and on the final passage of all bills the vote shall be 73 by ayes and nays upon each bill separately and shall be entered upon the jour-

78 Section 13. Every bill shall be read at large on three different days, in each 89 Act, unless in case of emergency (which emergency shall be expressed in the pre-90 amble or body of the Act), the General Assembly shall, by a vote of two-thirds of 91 all the members elected to each House, otherwise direct; provided, that laws 92 adopted by referendum shall go into effect as provided for in Section 1 of this 93 Article. Provided, further, that measures against which a referendum petition

A BILL

For an Act providing for a system of probation, for the appointment and compensation of probation officers, and authorizing the suspension of final judgment and the imposition of sentence upon persons found guilty of certain defined crimes and offenses, and legalizing their ultimate discharge without punishment.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
2 represented in the General Assembly: That all courts having criminal and 3 quasi criminal jurisdiction, shall have power to deal in the manner hereinafter 4 provided with all offenders, whether adult or juvenile, brought within the juris-5 diction of said courts, respectively, for any of the offenses hereinafter specified, 6 but that this Act shall not be construed as limiting or repealing an Act entitled, 7 “An Act to regulate the treatment and control of dependent, neglected and de-8 linquent children,” approved April 21, 1899, in force July 1, 1899, or the Acts 9 amendatory thereof, or as restricting the jurisdiction conferred by said Act.

Sec. 2. Any defendant, adult or juvenile, who has never previously been 2 convicted of any crime or misdemeanor, who has entered a plea of guilty or been found guilty by the verdict of a jury or the finding of a court of any of the hereinafter enumerated offenses or crimes, may, after a motion for a new trial has been overruled, and nothing remains to be done by the court except to pronounce sentence, request the judge who presided at his trial, to be admitted to release on probation, according to the provisions of this Act. Power to release on probation, shall, however, be limited to the following offenses:

First—All violations of municipal ordinances.

Second—All misdemeanors, except as hereinafter limited.

Third—The obtaining of money or property by false pretenses, where the value thereof is less than two hundred dollars ($200).

Fourth—Larceny, embezzlement and malicious mischief where the property taken or converted or the injury done does not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) in value.

Fifth—Burglary, where the amount feloniously taken does not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) in value and the place burglarized was a place other than a business house, dwelling or other habitation.

Sixth—Attempt to commit burglary when the place attempted to be burglarized was a place other than a business house, dwelling, or other habitation.

Seventh—Burglary, when the burglar is found in a building other than a business house, dwelling house or other habitation.

Sec. 3. The request or application of a defendant to be admitted to probation, if granted, shall be deemed a waiver and release of all errors in the proceedings had, and also to the right of review of the final judgment and sentence that may thereafter be entered thereon: Provided, however, that the right to review orders with respect to probation may be granted as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 4. Orders granting or refusing release on probation shall be entered of record. Application for release on probation may in the discretion of the court be granted if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court both that there is

4 reasonable ground to expect that the defendant may be reformed and that the in-5 terests of society will be subserved. If such application is granted, the judge 6 granting the same shall thereupon enter an order continuing the cause for a 7 period not exceeding one year, and shall, by such order, fix and specify the terms 8 and conditions of the probation of such defendant as herein provided. A cause 9 continued pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be deemed subject to the 10 jurisdiction of the court in which it is pending, or any judge thereof, for the full 11 period of its continuance, during which time orders may be entered with respect 12 to the conditions of probation, or final sentence imposed without the formal set-13 ting aside of such order of continuance.

Sec. 5. Release on probation shall be upon the following conditions:

2 (1) That the probationer shall not, during the term of his probation, vio-
3 late any criminal law of the State of Illinois, or any ordinance of any munici-4 pality of said State.

5 (2) That if convicted of a felony or misdemeanor he shall not, during the 6 term of his probation, leave the State without the consent of the court (grant-7 ing his application for probation).

8 (3) That he shall make a monthly report of his whereabouts, conduct and em-9 ployment and furnish such other information relating to the conditions of his pro-10 bation, as may from time to time be required by rule or order of court, to the pro-11 bation officer under whose charge he has been placed, and shall appear in person 12 before the court at such time as the court may direct or the rule of court provide.

13 (4) That he shall enter into a bond or recognizance in such sum as the 14 court may direct, with or without sureties, to perform the conditions imposed, 15 which shall run to the People of the State of Illinois and may be sued on by any 16 person thereunto authorized by the court for the use of the parties in interest 17 as the same may appear.

18 And the court may impose any one or more of the following additional con-
19 ditions and no others:

20 (1) That he shall make restitution, in whole or in part, immediately or 21 within the period of probation to the person or persons injured or defrauded.

22 (2) That he shall make contribution for his earnings for the support of 23 those dependent upon him subject to the supervision of the court.

24 (3) That he shall pay the costs of the proceedings, not exceeding one dol-
25 lar per month during the continuance of the probation.

Sec. 6. The court shall have discretionary power to remit such costs as 2 may be imposed, or any portion thereof. Such costs as may be collected shall 3 be transmitted to the county treasurer at such times as may be provided by 4 rules of court.

Sec. 7. At any time during the period of probation, the court may, upon re-2 port by a probation officer or other satisfactory proof of the violation by the pro-3 bationer of any of the conditions of his probation, evoke and terminate the same 4 and issue a warrant for the arrest of the probationer, which warrant shall run 5 throughout the State, and may be served by any probation officer in the State, 6 or by any officer authorized to serve criminal process in any city or county in 7 the State. Upon the probationer being brought before the court for violation 8 of his probation, the court may enter a rule upon the probationer to show cause 9 why his probation should not be terminated and judgment entered, and sentence 10 imposed upon the original conviction.

11 If, upon the probationer being brought before the court, the court shall be 12 of the opinion that the interests of justice do not require the imposition of sen-13 tence, and that said probationer should be recommitted to the care of the pro-14 bation officer, the court may discharge the probationer from arrest, and may 15 recommit him to the care of the probation officer, subject, however, to the maxi-16 mum limitation of the probation period as hereinbefore provided.

17 But if the court shall be of the opinion that the interests of justice require 18 the imposition of sentence the same shall then be imposed. And in computing

19 the period for which he is to be confined, the time between his release upon 20 probation and his return to custody shall not be taken to be any part of the term 21 of his sentence.

Sec. 8. Upon the termination of the probation period, the probation officer shall report the fact to the court and also the conduct of the probationer during the period of probation, and the court may thereupon discharge the probationer from further supervision or extend the probation period, as the circumstances require: Provided, The maximum period of probation herein limited shall not be exceeded.

7 When a probationer is discharged upon the expiration of the probation 8 period, or upon its earlier termination by order of the court, entry of the discharge shall be made in the records of the court, and the probationer shall be 9 entitled to a certified copy thereof.

Sec. 9. Should any probationer found guilty of a misdemeanor or a felony depart or attempt to depart from this State without the prior leave of the court that placed him on probation, such act or attempted act shall, of itself, operate as a termination of his probation and the court shall thereupon enter final judgment and sentence against him, and he may thereupon be proceeded against as a fugitive from justice. When re-arrested and brought before the court, the court entering such final judgment shall have power to set the same aside and proceed in its discretion with respect to such probationer as though such final judgment had never been entered.

Sec. 10. The circuit court of each of the several counties in this State shall appoint a probation officer to act as such for and throughout the county in which he shall be appointed. The circuit court of any county may appoint such number of additional probation officers for such county as the court may deem to be necessary or advisable: Provided, The number of probation officers

6 to be appointed for any county shall in no event exceed one for every fifty 7 thousand inhabitants of such county, the school census preceding any appoint-8 ment to be the basis for the determination of the number of inhabitants of such 9 county. Any circuit court, in any county in which there are five or more pro-10 bation officers, may also, in its discretion, appoint a chief probation officer in 11 addition to the number of probation officers herein provided for. Said proba-12 tion officers may be male or female, shall be of good character, shall possess 13 such other qualifications as may be provided by rules to be adopted by such 14 courts respectively, and may by such rules each be required to give bond in a 15 sum not exceeding Five Thousand ($5,000) Dollars, conditioned for the faith-16 ful discharge of the duties of such probation officer, and otherwise as provided 17 by said rules, such bond to be with such sureties as may be approved by the 18 court. Said probation officers shall, unless sooner removed, serve as such for 19 a period of one year from the date of their appointment and until 20 their successors shall severally be appointed and qualified, shall be 21 subject to the orders of the courts appointing them and remov-22 able in the discretion thereof by an order duly entered of record. Said 23 circuit courts may adopt general rules not inconsistent with the provisions of 24 this Act, and promotive of its letter and spirit, providing, among other things, 25 for the qualifications of probation officers, their duties, and such other matters 26 as may seem expedient. In any city in this State having a population of fifty 27 thousand or less inhabitants, as shown by the preceding school census, in which 28 city there has been or may hereafter be established a municipal or city court, 29 such municipal or city court shall appoint one probation officer for such munic-30 ipal or city court, in which case the number of probation officers to which any 31 county is entitled as above provided, shall be reduced by the number of munic-32 ipal or city courts in said county established for cities having a population of 33 fifty thousand or less inhabitants. The remaining probation officers to which 34 any county may be entitled as aforesaid shall be equally apportioned between 35 the county and the several cities, if any therein that severally have a popula-36 tion of more than fifty thousand inhabitants. Such probation officers so ap-37 portioned to such county shall be appointed by the circuit court of said county, 38 and such probation officers so apportioned to such cities shall be appointed by 39 the municipal or city courts in said several cities. The judges of the circuit 40 court of any county and of the municipal or city courts therein established for 41 cities having a population of more than fifty thousand inhabitants, shall meet 42 as a unit body at such times as they deem proper, and at any such meeting may 43 appoint a chief probation officer to act as such over all the probation officers 44 appointed by any of said courts. Said judges may, at any such meeting, adopt 45 general rules not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, but promotive 46 of its letter and spirit and such other business concerning the subject matter 47 of this Act as to said judges may seem proper. Said judges may, at any such 48 meeting appoint a committee of such number of them as they may determine 49 to exercise the ministerial powers of said entire body of judges and the powers 50 of appointment and removal of the chief probation officer, such committee to 51 report to the entire body of judges at such time as may be required by rules or 52 by specific order.

Sec. 11. Any reputable private person, male or female, who shall be of 2 the age of twenty-five years or upwards, may be appointed a probation officer.
 3 Any probation officer heretofore or hereafter appointed under the provisions of 4 an Act entitled "An Act to regulate the treatment and control of dependents, 5 and neglected and delinquent children," approved April 21, 1899, in force July 6 1, 1899, and the amendments thereto, may be appointed a probation officer and 7 act as such under the provisions of this Act: Provided, however, That his total 8 compensation shall not exceed the maximum amount fixed in this Act.

9 Members of the police force and of any city or village, if specially detailed 10 by their commanding officer to the work, may be appointed probation officers in 11 said city or village, and in case any police officer is so appointed a probation offi-12 cer he shall receive no additional compensation because of such appointment.

13 Volunteer probation officers may be appointed who shall serve without 14 salary, who shall possess the same powers and duties as other probation officers 15 appointed pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

16 Before entering upon his office, each probation officer shall take and sub-17 scribe an oath before the county clerk of his county to support the constitution 18 and laws of the United States and of the State of Illinois and faithfully to per-19 form the duties of his office.

Sec. 12. Probation officers, in the exercise of their official duties, and 2 sheriffs, constables and police officers, may, anywhere within the State, arrest 3 on view any probationer found by them violating any of the conditions of his 4 probation, or the rules and regulations governing the same, and it shall be the 5 duty of the officer making such arrest immediately to take said probationer be-6 fore the court having jurisdiction over him for further order.

Sec. 13. The duties of probation officers shall be:

2 1. To investigate, when required by rule of court or by specific order, the 3 case of any person arrested or subject to trial who may become entitled to in-4 voke or who may have invoked the provisions of this Act, and as accurately and 5 as fully as diligence will enable to ascertain (a) the personal characteristics, 6 habits, associations and previous conduct of such person, (b) the names, rela-7 tionships, ages and conditions of those dependent upon him for support, main-8 tenance and education, and (c) such other and further facts as may aid the court 9 as well in determining the propriety of probation as in fixing the conditions
 10 thereof. To the end that such investigation may be properly made, a probation 11 officer commissioned to investigate shall be afforded full opportunity to confer 12 with the person to be investigated when such person is in custody.

13 2. To report in writing the result of such investigation.

14 3. To preserve complete and accurate records of cases investigated, includ
 15 ing a description of the person investigated sufficient for identification, the ac-16 tion of the court with respect to his case and his probation, the subsequent his-17 tory of such person if he becomes a probationer during the continuance of his 18 probation, which records shall be open to inspection by any judge or by any pro-19 bation officer pursuant to order of court, but shall not be a public record, and its 20 contents shall not be divulged otherwise than as above provided, except upon 21 order of court.

22 4. To make such other investigations and reports as the court may direct 23 or as may be required by rule.

24 5. To take charge of and watch over all persons placed on probation 25 under such regulations and for such terms as may be prescribed by the court, 26 and giving to each probationer full instructions as to the terms of his release 27 upon probation and requiring from him such periodical reports as shall keep the 28 officer informed as to his conduct.

29 6. To perform such other duties as are provided for in this Act or by 30 rules of court and such incidental duties as may be implied from those expressly 31 required.

Sec. 14. It shall be the duty of the chief probation officer appointed as pro-
 2 vided in this Act, to supervise and control the work of all subordinate probation 3 officers (including volunteers) under his jurisdiction and control as herein pro-4 vided, subject to such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the court or 5 judges as herein provided, and to supervise the conduct of probationers to such 6 extent as the court, or said judges and the rules herein provided for may direct.

7 Any chief probation officer shall have authority to suspend any probation 8 officer under his supervision for a period not exceeding thirty days, but may 9 not discharge, and it shall be the duty of such chief probation officer promptly 10 to file charges against any probation officer so suspended by him, with the court

11 or judges appointing such probation officer, and said court or judges shall there-12 upon investigate said charges and may hear evidence, and shall act thereon as 13 the interests of justice and the good of the probation service may require.

14 The records concerning probationers shall be kept in one office under the 15 supervision of the chief probation officer, to whom all such probation officers 16 must report. It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners or 17 supervisors of each county in this State in which a chief probation officer may 18 be appointed, to furnish suitable rooms and accommodations for said probation 19 officer, all probation officers under his jurisdiction and clerical assistants, and 20 for the keeping of said records and such equipment and supplies as may be pro-21 vided by the board of county commissioners or supervisors. The number of 22 such clerical assistants shall be determined by the circuit court or the judges 23 appointing said probation officer as aforesaid. Salaries of said assistants shall 24 be fixed by the board of county commissioners or supervisors.

Sec. 15. The amount of compensation to be paid any probation officer or 2 chief probation officer appointed by any circuit court shall be determined by the 3 board of commissioners or supervisors of the several counties in which said of-4 ficers respectively are appointed, and shall be paid by the county treasurer on 5 the warrant of the county comptroller or other person authorized to issue war-6 rants on the county treasurer; the amount of compensation to be paid to any 7 probation officer appointed by any municipal or city court shall be determined 8 by the city council of the city in which such municipal or city court is situated, 9 and shall be paid out of the city treasury on warrants drawn for that purpose; 10 the compensation to be paid to any chief probation officer appointed jointly by 11 the judges of the circuit court of any county, and the judges of any municipal 12 or city court, as provided in section 10 of this Act, shall be equally apportioned 13 between the county and the cities, the judges of whose courts made such ap-14 pointment as aforesaid, and the amount thereof shall be fixed by said judges

15 and approved by the board of county commissioners or supervisors of such 16 county and by the city councils of the cities for which said chief probation of-17 ficer is appointed as aforesaid: Provided, however, That the compensation 18 paid any chief probation officer in counties of the third class shall not exceed 19 Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) a year; the compensation of each of not more 20 than three assistant probation officers in counties of said class shall not exceed 21 Eighteen Hundred Dollars ($1,800) a year, and the compensation of any other 22 probation officer in counties of said class shall in the case of probation officers 23 of the circuit court be fixed by the county board, and in the case of probation of-24 ficers appointed by a municipal or city court by the city council: And, provided, 25 That the compensation of any chief probation officer in counties of the second 26 class shall not exceed Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200) a year, and the compen-27 sation of any other probation officer in counties of said class shall not exceed 28 Eight Hundred Dollars ($800) a year: And, provided, That in counties of the 29 first class the compensation of any probation officer shall be limited to a per 30 diem of not to exceed Three Dollars ($3) per day for such time only as said of-31 ficer shall be actually engaged in the discharge of his official duties. Probation 32 officers shall, in counties of said first class, be entitled to their necessary traveling 33 and other expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties, but in coun-34 ties of the second and third classes no probation officer shall be entitled to be 35 reimbursed for any traveling expenses unless such officer shall be called upon 36 to go outside of his county, in which case such officer shall be reimbursed for 37 his necessary traveling expenses, and the court having jurisdiction may, by 38 special order duly entered, direct that a probation officer shall be reimbursed 39 for other expenses, incurred in any case pending before said court. All such ex-40 penses after being certified by the presiding judge of the circuit court or the 41 committee of judges provided for in section 10 of this Act and approved by the 42 board of county commissioners or board of supervisors of such county, shall 43 be paid by the county treasurer on warrant by the proper county officer. No

44 probation officer receiving compensation from any public funds under the pro-45 visions of this Act shall receive any compensation, gift or gratuity whatsoever 46 from any person, firm or corporation for doing, or refraining from doing any 47 official act in any way connected with his work as probation officer, or in any way 48 connected with any proceeding then pending or about to be instituted in any 49 court with which said probation officer has to do. Any probation officer receiv-50 ing compensation from any public funds under the provisions of this Act, who 51 shall receive any compensation, gift or gratuity whatever from any person, 52 firm or corporation for doing or refraining from doing any official act in any way 53 connected with his work as probation officer, or in any way connected with any 54 proceeding then pending or about to be instituted in any court with which said 55 probation officer has to do, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and may 56 be punished accordingly and may be immediately removed by the court or 57 judges having the power of removal.

Sec. 16. A defendant who shall have successfully invoked the provisions 2 of this Act may review, by appeal in the same manner, as near as may be, as in 3 case of appeal from the circuit courts in misdemeanors, or writ of error, any 4 order changing, modifying or terminating the probation period. The appellate 5 courts of this State are hereby given jurisdiction finally to hear and determine all 6 such appeals and writs of error, and such courts may affirm, reverse or modify 7 such orders so that the same shall conform to the provisions of this Act, and so 8 that its purposes and the interests of justice and society shall be best sub-9 served.

Sec. 17. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed in any way as 2 depriving any person of the right of trial by jury, or as interfering with, or en-
3 croaching upon, the prerogative of the Governor to grant reprieves, commuta-4 tions and pardons after conviction for all offenses, or with the right of the 5 Board of Pardons to parole offenders after sentence and conviction, as pro-

6 vided in the Act entitled, "An Act to revise the law in relation to the sentence 7 and commitment of persons convicted of crime and providing for a system of 8 parole and to provide compensation for the officers of such system of parole," 9 approved April 21, 1899, in force July 1, 1899, and the amendments thereto.

Sec. 18 The invalidity of any portion of this Act shall not affect the va-2 lidity of any other portion thereof which can be given effect without such invalid 3 part.

4 power to deal in the manner hereinafter provided with all offenders, whether 5 adult or juvenile, brought within the jurisdiction of said courts, respectively 6 for any of the offenses hereinafter specified, but that this Act shall not be con-7 strued as limiting or repealing an Act entitled "An Act to regulate the treat 8 ment and control of dependent, neglected and delinquent children," approved 9 April 21, 1899, in force July 1, 1899, or the Acts amendatory thereof, or as re-10 stricting the jurisdiction conferred by said Act.

Sec. 2. Any defendant, adult or juvenile, who has never previously been 2 convicted of any crime or misdemeanor, who has entered a plea of guilty or 3 been found guilty by the verdict of a jury or the finding of a court of any of 4 the hereinafter enumerated offenses or crimes, may, after a motion for a new 5 trial has been overruled, and nothing remains to be done by the court except to 6 pronounce sentence, request the judge who presided at his trial, to be admit-7 ted to release on probation, according to the provisions of this Act. Power 8 to release on probation, shall, however, be limited to the following offenses:

9 First All violations of municipal ordinances where the offense is also a 10 violation, in whole or in part, of a statute.

11 Second All misdemeanors, except as hereinafter limited.

12 Third—The obtaining of money or property by false pretenses, where the 13 value thereof does not exceed two hundred dollars ($200).

14 Fourth—Larceny, embezzlement and malicious mischief where the property 15 taken or converted or the injury done does not exceed two hundred dollars 16 ($200) in value.

17 Fifth—Burglary, where the amount feloniously taken does not exceed two 18 hundred dollars ($200) in value and the place burglarized was a place other than 19 a business house, dwelling or other habitation.

20 Sixth—Attempt to commit burglary when the place attempted to be bur-21 glarized was a place other than a business house, dwelling, or other habitation.

22 Seventh—Burglary, when the burglar is found in a building other than a 23 business house, dwelling house, or other habitation.

Sec. 3. Orders granting or refusing release on probation shall be entered 2 of record. Application for release on probation may, in the discretion of the 3 court, be granted if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court both that 4 there is reasonable ground to expect that the defendant may be reformed and 5 that the interests of society will be subserved. If such application is granted.
6 the judge granting the same shall thereupon enter an order continuing the cause 7 for a period not exceeding six months in cases of violation of municipal or 8 dinances where the offense is also a violation, in whole or in part, of a statute 9 and not exceeding one year in the case of other offenses enumerated in Section 10 two of this Act, and shall by such order, fix and specify the terms and conditions 11 of the probation of such defendant as herein provided. A cause continued pur-12 suant to the provisions of this Act shall be deemed subject to the jurisdiction of 13 the court in which it is pending, or any judge thereof, for the full period of its 14 continuance, during which time orders may be entered with respect to the con-15 ditions of probation, or final sentence imposed without the formal setting aside 16 of such order of continuance.

Sec. 4. Release on probation shall be upon the following conditions:

2 (1) That the probationer shall not, during the term of his probation, vio-
3 late any criminal law of the State of Illinois, or any ordinance of any municipal-4 ity of said State.

5 (2) That if convicted of a felony or misdemeanor he shall not, during the
7 ing his application for probation).

8 (3) That he shall make a monthly report of his whereabouts, conduct and 9 employment and furnish such other information relating to the conditions of his 10 probation, as may from time to time be required by rule or order of court, to the 11 probation officer under whose charge he has been placed, and shall appear in 12 person before the court at such time as the court may direct or the rule of court 13 provide.

14 (4) That he shall enter into a bond or recognizance in such sum as the court 15 may direct, with or without sureties, to perform the conditions imposed, which 16 shall run to the People of the State of Illinois and may be sued on by any person 17 thereunto authorized by the court for the use of the parties in interest as the same 18 may appear.

19 And the court may impose any one or more of the following additional con-
20 ditions and no others:

21 (1) That he shall make restitution, in whole or in part, immediately or 22 within the period of probation to the person or persons injured or defrauded.

24 those dependent upon him subject to the supervision of the court.

26 lar per month during the continuance of the probation.

Sec. 5. The court shall have discretionary power to remit such costs as 2 may be imposed, or any portion thereof. Such costs as may be collected shall be 3 transmitted to the county treasurer at such times as may be provided by rules 4 of court.

Sec. 6. At any time during the period of probation, the court may, upon re 2 port by a probation officer or other satisfactory proof of the violation by the 3 probationer of any of the conditions of his probation, revoke and terminate the 4 same and issue a warrant for the arrest of the probationer, which warrant shall 5 run throughout the State, and may be served by any probation officer in the 6 State, or by any officer authorized to serve criminal process in any city or county 7 in the State. Upon the probationer being brought before the court for violation 8 of his probation, the court may enter a rule upon the probationer to show 9 cause why his probation should not be terminated and judgment entered, and 10 sentence imposed upon the original conviction and release upon bail shall be al-11 lowed as in other cases.

12 If, upon the probationer being brought before the court, the court shall be of 13 the opinion that the interests of justice do not require the imposition of sen-
14 tence, and that said probationer should be re-committed to the care of the pro-
15 bation officer, the court may discharge the probationer from arrest, and may
17 mum limitation of the probation period as hereinbefore provided.

18 But if the court shall be of the opinion that the interests of justice require 19 the imposition of sentence the same shall then be imposed. And in computing the 20 period for which he is to be confined, the time between his release upon probation 21 and his return to custody shall not be taken to be any part of the term of his 22 sentence.

Sec. 7. Upon the termination of the probation period, the probation officer shall report the fact to the court and also the conduct of the probationer during the period of probation, and the court may thereupon discharge the probationer from further supervision or extend the probation period, as the circumstances require: Provided, the maximum period of probation herein limited shall not be exceeded.

When a probationer is discharged upon the expiration of the probation period, or upon its earlier termination by order of the court, entry of the discharge shall be made in the records of the court, and the probationer shall be entitled to a certified copy thereof.

Sec. 8. Should any probationer found guilty of a misdemeanor or a felony depart from this State without the prior leave of the court that placed him on probation, such Act or attempted Act shall, of itself, operate as a termination of his probation and the court shall thereupon enter judgment terminating such probation and he may thereupon be proceeded against as a fugitive from justice. When re-arrested and brought before the court, the court entering such judgment shall have power to set the same aside and proceed in its discretion with respect to such probationer as though such judgment had never been entered.

Sec. 9. The circuit court of each of the several counties in this State may appoint a probation officer to act as such for and throughout the county in which he shall be appointed. The circuit court of any county may appoint such number of additional probation officers for such county as the court may deem to be necessary or advisable: Provided, the number of probation officers to be appointed for any county shall in no event exceed one for every fifty thousand inhabitants of such county, the school census preceding any appointment to be

9 the basis for the determination of the number of inhabitants of such county; 10 Provided, further, that in no event shall the number of probation officers, in any 11 one county, exceed twenty. Any circuit court, in any county in which there 12 are five or more probation officers, may also, in its discretion, appoint a chief 13 probation officer in addition to the number of probation officers herein provided 14 for. Said probation officers shall be of good character, shall possess such other 15 qualifications as may be provided by rules to be adopted by such courts respec-16 tively, and may by such rules each be required to give bond in a sum not ex-17 ceeding Five Thousand ($5,000) Dollars, conditioned for the faithful discharge 18 of the duties of such probation officer, and otherwise as provided by said rules 19 such bond to be with such sureties as may be approved by the court. Said pro-20 bation officers shall, unless sooner removed, serve as such for a period of one 21 year from the date of their appointment and until their successors shall sev-22 erally be appointed and qualified, shall be subject to the orders of the courts ap-23 pointing them and removable in the discretion thereof by an order duly entered 24 of record. Said circuit courts may adopt general rules not inconsistent with the 25 provisions of this Act, and promotive of its letter and spirit, providing, among 26 other things, for the qualifications of probation officers, their duties, and such 27 other matters as may seem expedient. In any city in this State having a popu-28 lation of fifty thousand or less inhabitants, as shown by the preceding school 29 census, in which city there has been or may hereafter be established a municipal 30 or city court, such municipal or city court shall appoint one probation officer for 31 such municipal or city court, in which case the number of probation officers to 32 which any county is entitled as above provided, shall be reduced by the number of 33 municipal or city courts in said county established for cities having a population 34 of fifty thousand or less inhabitants. The remaining probation officers to which 35 any county may be entitled as aforesaid shall be equally apportioned between 36 the county and the several cities, if any therein that severally have a population

37 of more than fifty thousand inhabitants. Such probation officers so appor-38 tioned to such county shall be appointed by the circuit court of said county, 39 and such probation officers so apportioned to such cities shall be appointed by 40 the municipal or city courts in said several cities. The judges of the circuit 41 court of any county and of the municipal or city courts therein established for 42 cities having a population of more than fifty thousand inhabitants, shall meet 43 as a unit body at such times as they deem proper, and at any such meeting 44 may appoint a chief probation officer to act as such over all the probation of-45 ficers appointed by any of said courts. Said judges may, at any such meet-46 ing adopt general rules not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, but pro-47 motive of its letter and spirit and such other business concerning the subject 48 matter of this Act as to said judges may seem proper. Said judges may, at any 49 such meeting appoint a committee of such number of them as they may deter-50 mine to exercise the ministerial powers of said entire body of judges and 51 the powers of appointment and removal of the chief probation officer, such com-52 mittee to report to the entire body of judges at such time as may be required 53 by rules or by specific order.

Sec. 10. Any reputable private person who shall be of the age of twenty-2 five years or upwards, may be appointed a probation officer.

3 Members of the police force of any city or village, if specially detailed by 4 their commanding officer to the work, may be appointed probation officers in said 5 city or village, and in case any police officer is so appointed a probation officer 6 he shall receive no additional compensation because of such appointment.

7 Before entering upon his office, each probation officer shall take and sub-
 8 scribe an oath before the county clerk of his county to support the constitution 9 and laws of the United States and of the State of Illinois, and faithfully to 10 perform the duties of his office.

Sec. 11. Probation officers, in the exercise of their official duties, and 2 sheriffs, constables and police officers, may, anywhere within the State, arrest on 3 view any probationer found by them violating any of the conditions of his proba-4 tion, and it shall be the duty of the officer making such arrest immediately to 5 take said probationer before the court having jurisdiction over him for further 6 order.

Sec. 12. The duties of probation officers shall be:

2 1. To investigate, when required by rule of court or by specific order, the 3 case of any person who has invoked the provisions of this Act, and as accurately 4 and as fully as diligence will enable to ascertain (a) the personal characteris-5 ties, habits, associations and previous conduct of such person, (b) the names, re-6 lationships, ages and conditions of those dependent upon him for support, main-7 tenance and education, and (c) such other and further facts as may aid the court
8 as well in determining the propriety of probation as in fixing the conditions
9 thereof. To the end that such investigation may be properly made, a probation
10 officer commissioned to investigate shall be afforded full opportunity to confer 11 with the person to be investigated when such person is in custody.

12 2. To report in writing the result of such investigation.

13 3. To preserve complete and accurate records of cases investigated, includ-
14 ing a description of the person investigated, the action of the court with respect 15 to his case and his probation, the subsequent history of such person if he be-16 comes a probationer during the continuance of his probation, which records shall 17 be open to inspection by any judge or by any probation officer pursuant to or-18 der of court, but shall not be a public record, and its contents shall not be 19 divulged otherwise than as above provided, except upon order of court.

20 4. To take charge of and watch over all persons placed on probation under 21 such regulations and for such terms as may be prescribed by the court, and 22 giving to each probationer full instructions as to the terms of his release upon 23 probation and requiring from him such periodical reports as shall keep the officer 24 informed as to his conduct.

25 5. To perform such other duties as are provided for in this Act or by 26 rules of court and such incidental duties as may be implied from those express-27 ly required.

Sec. 13. It shall be the duty of the chief probation officer appointed as pro
2 vided in this Act, to supervise and control the work of all subordinate probation 3 officers under his jurisdiction and control as herein provided, subject to such 4 rules and regulations as may be adopted by the court or judges as herein pro-5 vided, and to supervise the conduct of probationers to such extent as the court, 6 or said judges and the rules herein provided for may direct.

7 Any chief probation officer shall have authority to suspend any probation 8 officer under his supervision for a period not exceeding thirty days, but may not 9 discharge, and it shall be the duty of such chief probation officer promptly to 10 file charges against any probation officer so suspended by him, with the court or 11 judges appointing such probation officer, and said court or judges shall there 12 upon investigate said charges and may hear evidence, and shall act thereon as 13 the interests of justice and the good of the probation service may require.

14 The records concerning probationers shall be kept in one office under the 15 supervision of the chief probation officer, to whom all such probation officers 16 must report. It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners or super-17 visors of each county in this State in which a chief probation officer may be 18 appointed, to furnish suitable rooms and accommodations for said probation of-19 ficer, all probation officers under his jurisdiction and clerical assistants, and for 20 the keeping of said records and such equipment and supplies as may be provided 21 by the board of county commissioners or supervisors. The number of such cleri-

22 cal assistants shall be determined by the circuit court or the judges appointing 23 said probation officer as aforesaid. Salaries of said assistants shall be fixed by 24 the board of county commissioners or supervisors.

Sec. 14. The amount of compensation to be paid any probation officer or 2 chief probation officer appointed by any circuit court shall be determined by the 3 board of commissioners or supervisors of the several counties in which said 4 officers respectively are appointed, and shall be paid by the county treasurer on 5 the warrant of the county comptroller or other person authorized to issue war-6 rants on the county treasurer; the amount of compensation to be paid to any pro-7 bation officer appointed by any municipal or city court shall be determined by the 8 city council of the city in which such municipal or city court is situated, and shall 9 be paid out of the city treasury on warrants drawn for that purpose; the com-10 pensation to be paid to any chief probation officer appointed jointly by the judges 11 of the circuit court of any county, and the judges of any municipal or city court, 12 as provided in Section 10 of this Act, shall be equally apportioned between the 13 county and the cities, the judges of whose courts made such appointment as afore-14 said, and the amount thereof shall be fixed by said judges and approved by the 15 board of county commissioners or supervisors of such county and by the city 16 councils of the cities for which said chief probation officer is appointed as afore-17 said: Provided, however, that the compensation paid any chief probation officer 18 in counties of the third class shall not exceed Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) a 19 year; the compensation of each of not more than three assistant probation offi-20 cers in counties of said class shall not exceed Eighteen Hundred Dollars 21 ($1,800) a year, and the compensation of any other probation officer in counties

25 any chief probation officer in counties of the second class shall not exceed 26 Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200) a year, and the compensation of any other pro-

28 ($800) a year: And, provided, that in counties of the first class the compensa-29 tion of any probation officer shall be limited to a per diem of not to exceed 30 Three Dollars ($3) per day for such time only as said officer shall be actually en-31 gaged in the discharge of his official duties. Probation officers shall, in counties 32 of said first class, be entitled to their necessary traveling and other expenses in-33 curred in the discharge of their official duties, but in counties of the second and 34 third classes no probation officer shall be entitled to be reimbursed for any 35 traveling expenses unless such officer shall be called upon to go outside of his 36 county, in which case such officer shall be reimbursed for his necessary travel-37 ing expenses, and the court having jurisdiction may, by special order duly en-38 tered, direct that a probation officer shall be reimbursed for other expenses, in-39 curred in any case pending before said court. All such expenses after being 40 certified by the presiding judge of the circuit court or the committee of judges 41 provided for in Section 10 of this Act and approved by the board of county com-42 missioners or board of supervisors of such county, shall be paid by the county 43 treasurer on warrant by the proper county officer. No probation officer receiv-44 ing compensation from any public funds under the provisions of this Act shall 54 or about to be instituted in any court with which said probation officer has 55 to do, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished according-56 ly and shall be immediately removed by the court or judges having the power of 57 removal.

Sec. 15. A defendant who shall have successfully invoked the provisions 2 of this Act may review, by appeal in the same manner, as near as may be, as 3 in case of appeal from the circuit courts in misdemeanors, or writ of error, any

8 Act, and so that its purposes and the interests of justice and society shall be best

No motion to set aside a default shall be overruled because of the negligence or want of diligence of any attorney, if the party defaulted shall not appear to have been personally guilty of negligence or want of diligence, and shall, if plaintiff, show by affidavit or otherwise a good cause of action, or, if defendant, shall show a good defense. But the court may, in case of the negligence of the attorney, require such attorney to pay all the costs of the action down to the time such default is vacated.

Sec. 99. TIME OF TAKING DEFAULTS, ETC., MAY BE REGULATED BY RULE.] The time within which defaults may be taken or damages assessed, and the extent of the notices to be given as hereinbefore provided, may be extended or changed by the court by special order in any action or by general rules.

Sec. 100. DAMAGES MAY BE ASSESSED BY MASTER—JUDGMENT.] The chief justice may assign any master to the duty of assessing damages in actions on contracts, express or implied, for the payment of money in cases in which defaults for non-appearance have been entered against the defendants, or any of

5 them, and any master so assigned to such duty may hear the evidence and assess 6 the damages to which the plaintiff may be entitled and may receive, as sufficient 7 evidence of the plaintiff's damages, the affidavit of the plaintiff's claim, if any 8 such affidavit be filed, as well as any other competent evidence, and may enter 9 judgment in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant for the amount of 10 such assessment.

Sec. 101. DUTY OF MASTER TO ASSESS DAMAGES—WHEN ATTENDANCE OF PLAIN-2 TIFF NOT NECESSARY—JUDGES TO ADOPT RULES AND REGULATIONS.] It shall be the 3 duty of every master assigned to such duty, as aforesaid, to assess the damages 4 in every case of default specified in the preceding section when applied to for 5 that purpose, and such damages may be assessed by such master without re-6 quiring the attendance of the plaintiff or his attorney for that purpose when-7 ever, by the terms of this Act, an affidavit of claim may be received as compe-
 8 tent evidence of such damages. It shall be the duty of the judges of the municipi-9 pal court to adopt such rules and regulations pertaining to defaults and the as-10 sessment of damages as will enable parties entitled to such defaults and assess-11 ments to obtain the same without unnecessary delay and, as far as may be prac-12 ticable, without interference with the prompt transaction of the other business 13 of the court.

Sec. 102. CHANGE OF VENUE—WHEN APPLICATION TO BE MADE IN CERTAIN 2 CASES.] Except as may be otherwise in this Act provided no application for 3 a change of venue on account of the prejudice of a judge or judges, master or 4 masters, in any action at law for the recovery of money only or personal property 5 only, when the amount of money or the value of the personal property sought to 6 be recovered does not exceed one hundred dollars ($100), or in any quasi crim-7 inal action, or in any criminal action in which the punishment is by fine or im-8 prisonment otherwise than in the penitentiary, shall be allowed by the municipal 9 court when the applicant names in his application more than three judges from 10 whom such change of venue is desired, nor unless such application for a change 11 of venue is made by petition as may be required by law from time to time in 12 like cases in the circuit courts and such petition is filed at or before the time 13 of the filing or entering by the defendant of his appearance in the action in 14 which such change of venue is asked for, if such action is a civil or quasi 15 criminal action, or at or before the time the defendant is required to plead, 16 if such action is a criminal action.

Sec. 103. GRANTING OF CHANGE OF VENUE NOT TO DELAY TRIAL—PROCEDURE.]

2 In no case shall the granting of any change of venue on account of the preju-3 dice of a judge or judges, master or masters, delay the trial of the action, but the 4 action shall be tried and disposed of at the time set for the trial thereof, or at 5 the time to which the trial thereof may be postponed, before some other judge 6 or master of the court than the one or ones from whom the change of venue has 7 been granted, or in any other district in which the same may be ordered to be 8 tried, and all orders necessary for the setting of such case for trial and for the 9 securing of a speedy trial thereof may be made by the judge or master from 10 whom such change of venue has been obtained.

Sec. 104. WHEN CHANGE OF VENUE MAY BE GRANTED BY STIPULATION.] The

2 parties or any of them to any civil action pending in the municipal court, 3 shall be entitled to a change of venue from any one or more but not exceed-4 ing three of the judges or masters of said municipal court whenever the parties 5 to said action, or their attorneys, shall file a stipulation in writing signed by 6 such parties, or their attorneys, that such change of venue be granted and in 7 such case the trial of the action shall be had before some other judge or mas-8 ter of the court than the one or ones from whom such change of venue has been 9 granted.

Sec. 105. SPECIFICATION OF JUDGE AS INELIGIBLE.] In any civil or quasi 2 criminal action commenced in the municipal court in any district in which 3 there are three or more branches being held at the same time the plaintiff, 4 at the time of the commencement of the action, and the defendant, at the time 5 he enters his appearance, shall have the right to specify by name one of said 6 judges as ineligible for the trial or hearing of the action. Such specifica-7 tions shall be in writing and, if made by the plaintiff, shall be united with 8 his praecipe or be indicated by a note to his bill of complaint and, if made by 9 the defendant, shall be united with his appearance. In a case in which there 10 are several defendants entering separate appearances the right to such speci-11 fication shall belong to the defendant first filing the same. No judge thus 12 specified as ineligible shall in any manner take part in the trial or hearing 13 of such action or in any proceeding therein. Such specification may be in sub-14 stantially the following form:
 15 “Hon. Henry Brown shall be ineligible.”

Sec. 106. OTHER PROCEDURE IN CHANGES OF VENUE.] The rules pertaining 2 to changes of venue, other than those prescribed in the four preceding sec-3 tions, shall conform, as near as may be, to the rules prescribed from time to 4 time by law for similar cases in the circuit courts.

Sec. 107. LIEN OF JUDGMENTS—REGISTERED LAND.] A judgment for money 2 of the municipal court, when the amount due thereon, exclusive of interest and 3 costs, exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000), shall be a lien on the real estate of 4 the person against whom it is obtained situated within the city of Chicago from 5 the time the same is rendered or revived for the period of seven years and no 6 longer: Provided, however, that there shall be no priority of the lien of one 7 judgment of the municipal court over that of another rendered within the same 8 calendar month. But no lien provided for in this or any other section of this 9 Act shall take effect as to registered land until compliance by the person claiming the benefit of such lien or by some person of or under whom he has acquired the claim constituting the lien with the provisions of the laws which may be in force from time to time relating to the registration of land titles, nor shall registered land be affected by any other provision of this Act excepting upon compliance with the said last mentioned laws. Upon the filing in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of any county in this State of a transcript of any such judgment rendered by the municipal court, such judgment shall have a like force and effect, and shall be a lien upon the real estate of the party against whom the same is obtained in such county where filed to the same extent, as if the same had been rendered upon the day on which such transcript is filed by the circuit court of the county where filed and execution may issue thereon out of the circuit court of said county in like manner as out of said municipal court: Provided, however, that such judgment shall not be a lien on real estate for more than the period of seven years from the time the same is rendered or revived.

Sec. 108. HOW ORDERS, JUDGMENTS AND DECREES ENFORCED.] The orders, judgments and decrees of the municipal court, excepting as may be otherwise provided by this Act, shall have the same force, be of the same effect and be executed and enforced in the same manner, as the orders, judgments and decrees of the circuit court of Cook county. In all cases executions issued on judgments of the municipal court, when against lands, tenements, goods and chattels of the defendants within the city of Chicago, shall be directed to the bailiff, or, in case he is disqualified from acting, then to the sheriff of Cook county and shall be a lien upon all the personal property of the defendants situated within the city of Chicago from the time they are delivered to the bailiff or to the sheriff, to the same extent as executions issued out of the circuit court of Cook county when delivered to the sheriff, and may be levied upon the property, real or personal, of the defendants at any place within the city

14 of Chicago to the same extent as executions issued out of the circuit court of 15 Cook county. Executions against the lands and tenements, goods and chattels 16 of the defendants outside of the city of Chicago shall be directed to the sheriff, 17 or in case he is disqualified from acting, to the coroner of the county in which 18 such lands and tenements, goods and chattels are situated, but no execution upon 19 a judgment of the municipal court, when the amount due thereon, exclusive 20 of interest and costs, does not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), shall be a lien 21 on the real estate of the person against whose lands and tenements, goods and 22 chattels the same is issued until the same shall be levied thereon and a certifi-23 cate of such levy filed in the recorder's office of the county in which real 24 estate is situated and, in case of registered land or any estate or interest 25 therein, until a certified transcript of the judgment is filed in the office of the 26 registrar of titles of the county in which such real estate is situated, and a 27 memorial of the same is entered upon the register of the land certificate of title 28 to be affected.

Sec. 109. JUDGMENT EXCEEDING $25 EXCLUSIVE OF COSTS—HOW PROCEEDED 2 UNDER.] Any judgment of the municipal court for the payment of money here-3 tofore or hereafter rendered, when the amount due thereon, exclusive of in-4 terest and costs, exceeds twenty-five dollars ($25), may also be proceeded under 5 in the municipal court by a supplementary proceeding, or creditor's bill, as pro-6 vided by law with respect to judgments of circuit courts.

Sec. 110. PETIT JURORS—HOW PROVIDED FOR AND SUMMONED—HOW PAID.] The 2 petit jurors for the trial of cases in said municipal court shall be provided by 3 the jury commissioners of the county of Cook in the same manner and from the 4 same lists, as near as may be, as petit jurors are provided for the circuit, superior 5 and criminal courts of Cook county. The names of the necessary number of petit 6 jurors required from time to time in said municipal court shall be furnished by 7 said jury commissioners upon demand to the clerk of the municipal court, and 8 the venires for such jurors shall be directed to and served by the sheriff of Cook 9 county at the expense of said county, and the fees of said jurors shall be paid out 10 of the city treasury. The number of petit jurors to be summoned from time to 11 time shall be determined by the chief justice.

Sec. 111. JURY TRIAL TO BE DEMANDED WHEN.] Every action at law, a crim-
 2 inal action or quasi criminal action brought for the recovery of a fine or pen-3 alty for the violation of a municipal ordinance excepted, shall be tried by 4 the court without a jury, unless the plaintiff at the time he commences 5 his action, or the defendant at the time he enters his appearance, shall file with 6 the clerk a demand in writing of a trial by jury, which demand, however, may 7 be withdrawn by the party filing the same at any time before trial. If the de-8 mand be by the plaintiff it shall be embodied in and form a part of his praecipe 9 for a summons or writ, and if it be by the defendant or garnishee, it shall be 10 embodied in and form a part of his appearance in writing.

Sec. 112. JURY TRIAL MANDATORY IN CAPITAL AND PENITENTIARY CASES.] Every 2 criminal action in which the punishment may be death or confinement in the peni-3 tentiary shall, unless the defendant shall enter a plea of guilty, be tried by jury.

Sec. 113. WAIVER OF JURY IN MISDEMEANORS AND QUASI CRIMINAL ACTIONS.]
 2 Every criminal action in which the punishment cannot be death or confinement in 3 the penitentiary, and every quasi criminal action brought to recover a fine or 4 penalty for the violation of a municipal ordinance, shall be tried by jury, unless 5 the defendant shall execute and file with the clerk a waiver in writing of a trial 6 thereof by jury, in which case such action shall be tried by the court without a 7 jury.

Sec. 114. JURORS TO BE INTERROGATED BEFORE IMPANELING.] It shall be the 2 duty of the chief justice of the municipal court to interrogate, or cause to be in-

3 interrogated, all jurors summoned and appearing and to inquire into, or to cause 4 to be inquired into, their qualifications to serve as such jurors, and to reject from 5 service all jurors who do not appear to possess the qualifications required by law 6 and to cause to be summoned in their places, in the manner required by law, per-7 sons competent and qualified to serve as jurors. It shall not be necessary that 8 there be a full panel of twenty-four petit jurors for each branch court, but the 9 chief justice may cause to be impaneled for service in all of said branches as one 10 panel only such number of jurors as may appear to be needed for the trial of ac-11 tions therein to be tried by jury, and the jurors needed, from time to time, in each 12 branch court may be drawn from such joint panel. When the requisite number 13 of jurors have been accepted for service, the chief justice shall cause to be pre-14 pared by the clerk printed or typewritten alphabetical lists of the jurors so ac-15 cepted for service, on which lists the name of each juror shall be followed by a 16 specification of his age, place of birth, occupation, place of residence and place of 17 business or employment, the place of residence and place of business or employ-18 ment, if in a city, to be accompanied by a specification of the street and number 19 or other sufficient designation thereof, and upon the calling of a jury into the 20 jury box a copy of such list shall be submitted for inspection and use during the 21 impaneling of the jury to each party to the action.

Sec. 115. CHALLENGES OF JURORS.] Every person arraigned for any crime
 2 punishable with death or imprisonment in the penitentiary for life shall be ad-3 mitted on his trial to a peremptory challenge of twenty jurors and no more; and 4 every person arraigned for any offense that may be punished by imprisonment 5 for a term exceeding eighteen months shall be admitted to a peremptory chal-6 lenge of ten jurors and in all other criminal trials the defendant shall be al-7 lowed a peremptory challenge of six jurors. The attorney prosecuting on behalf 8 of the people shall be admitted to a peremptory challenge of the same number of 9 jurors that the accused is entitled to. In all actions, other than criminal actions, each party shall be admitted to a peremptory challenge of five jurors and challenges for cause shall be allowed as heretofore.

Sec. 116. EXAMINATION OF JURORS AT TRIAL—REVIEW ON APPEAL OR ERROR.] It shall be the duty of the judge presiding at the trial of any action tried by jury to examine or cause to be examined all jurors called into the jury box with respect to their statutory qualifications to serve as petit jurors in such action and to permit the plaintiff and the defendant to propound to the jurors such pertinent questions as may be necessary for the purpose of ascertaining whether the jurors are biased or prejudiced; but upon appeal or writ of error to review any judgment in any such action tried by jury no ruling of the court pertaining to or connected with the impaneling of the jury, other than one improperly restricting the right of a party to examine the jurors as to bias or prejudice or improperly overruling a challenge by a party of a juror for bias or prejudice, shall be subject to review by the supreme court or appellate court.

Sec. 117. WHEN DEFENDANT RELEASED ON HIS OWN RECOGNIZANCE.] If, in any criminal action in which the punishment is not death or imprisonment in the penitentiary, or in any quasi-criminal action brought by a municipal corporation to recover a fine or penalty for a violation of a municipal ordinance, it shall appear that the defendant is the head of a family residing with the same in the city of Chicago and that such defendant is a poor person who is not able to give bail, it shall be the duty of the court to accept of such defendant, in lieu of bail, his own recognizance; or when, in any such case, the defendant has a known place of residence in the city of Chicago, and it appears probable to the court that the defendant, if released upon his own recognizance, will appear at such time or times as may be required by the court, it shall be the duty of the court to accept of such defendant, in lieu of bail, his own recognizance. Any defendant who, when released upon his own recognizance as aforesaid, shall fail to appear before the court at the time or times required by such recognizance, shall

15 be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be pun-16 ished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment 17 in the county jail for not exceeding six months: Provided, however, that no de- 18 fendant shall be punished as aforesaid when his failure to appear is for a cause 19 which would authorize the court to set aside a forfeiture of his recognizance.
 20 But no defendant shall be released upon his own recognizance under this section 21 when, at the time of his arrest, he shall be in a state of intoxication, or when 22 his release may, in the judgment of the court or officer, result in a breach of the 23 peace.

Sec. 118. PROCEDURE IN EXAMINATION PROCEEDINGS.] When in any examina-2 tion proceeding it appears to the court that an offense has been committed and 3 that there is probable cause to believe the prisoner guilty, the court may either 4 enter an order committing the prisoner to the criminal court of Cook county for 5 trial, or may direct the filing by the state's attorney of an information against 6 such prisoner for such offense, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the state's 7 attorney to forthwith file such information.

Sec. 119. JUDGE PRESIDING AT EXAMINATION NOT TO PRESIDE AT TRIAL WHEN.]
 2 No judge who has presided at an examination proceeding at which the accused 3 person has been committed for trial, or which has resulted in the filing of an in-4 formation against such person, shall, against the objection of such person, preside 5 at the trial of such information.

Sec. 120. FILES AND RECORDS.] The method of keeping the files and records 2 of the municipal court shall be the same, as near as may be, as that prescribed 3 from time to time by law, or by rules adopted by the supreme court, for the keep-4 ing of files and records of circuit courts.

Sec. 121. APPELLATE PROCEDURE.] The orders, judgments and decrees of the 2 municipal court may be reviewed by the supreme court and the appellate courts

3 in the same manner and to the same extent as may be provided by law with re-4 spect to similar orders, judgments and decrees of city courts, or, in the ab-5 sence of any provision of law applicable thereto, in such manner and to such 6 extent as may be provided by rules adopted by the supreme court.

Sec. 122. ADOPTION OF RULES OF PRACTICE.] The judges of said municipal 2 court shall have power to adopt, in addition to the provisions herein contained 3 prescribing the practice in such court, such rules regulating the practice in said 4 court as they may deem necessary or expedient for the proper administration of 5 justice therein and as may not be inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

 6 The adoption of such rules shall be accomplished by an order or orders signed 7 by a majority of said judges, which order or orders when made shall be forthwith 8 spread upon the records of the municipal court and shall be printed in pamphlet 9 form at the expense of the city. The supreme court shall have power, in its dis-10 cretion, to substitute for the rule or rules so adopted by said judges of said mu-11 nicipal court, or for any portion thereof, such other rules as the supreme court 12 may deem necessary and may, in its discretion, of its own motion or otherwise, 13 make any order respecting the rules of said municipal court which it may deem 14 proper. The supreme court and the appellate court, in cases brought to them 15 from the municipal court by appeal or writ of error, shall take judicial notice of 16 the rules of practice from time to time in force in said municipal court.

Sec. 123. PRACTICE WHEN METHOD OF PROCEDURE INSUFFICIENTLY PRESCRIBED.]

2 Whenever the proper method of procedure in any action or proceeding brought 3 in the municipal court shall appear to be insufficiently prescribed by this act the 4 method of procedure heretofore applicable in such action or proceeding shall be 5 applied, as near as may be, consistently with the provisions of this act and the 6 spirit thereof, until otherwise prescribed by law or by such rules as may be adopt-7 ed by the supreme court. Whenever it is brought to the attention of the supreme 8 court that the method of procedure, or any portion of the method of procedure,

9 in the municipal court in any action or proceeding which may be brought in said 10 municipal court, is not sufficiently prescribed by this act and that the methods of 11 procedure, or any portion thereof, heretofore applicable to such action or pro-12 ceeding are not suitable to secure to the respective parties a prompt and expe-13 ditionous determination of said action or proceeding according to the very right 14 and justice of the case, the supreme court shall have power to adopt such rule or 15 rules regulating the method of procedure in such action or proceeding as, in the 16 opinion of the supreme court, will be calculated to secure to the parties such 17 prompt and expeditious and proper determination of the action or proceeding, 18 and, whenever it shall appear to the supreme court that any provision of this act 19 regulating the practice in said municipal court is not sufficiently explicit or is 20 obscure or in contradiction to other provisions of this act, or that the same can-21 not be given effect without serious injustice and inconvenience to parties to ac-22 tions, the supreme court may, by a rule or rules to be adopted by said supreme 23 court, substitute for such provision such new provision as, in its judgment, will 24 not be obscure or in contradiction to other provisions of this act, or unjust or in-25 convenient to the parties to actions, and will be in harmony with the general 26 spirit and intention of this act.

Sec. 124. CERTIFYING QUESTIONS TO SUPREME COURT—FORM OF CERTIFICATE.]

2 Whenever any question shall arise in the municipal court in respect to the 3 construction of this act, or any portion thereof, or any question pertaining to 4 the practice or mode of procedure in said court, or to the powers or duties of the 5 judges or other officers of said court, with respect to which question the judges 6 of said court differ in opinion, it shall be the duty of the chief justice to certify 7 such question to the supreme court, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the 8 supreme court to determine such question with all convenient speed and to cause 9 its decision to be certified to said chief justice. Whenever the chief justice 10 shall certify any such question to the supreme court he shall accompany his 25 Dated Chicago, Illinois, this 17th day of February, 1908.

Sec. 125. PRIMARY PURPOSES OF ESTABLISHMENT OF MUNICIPAL COURT—DUTY OF

2 SUPREME COURT.] The primary purpose of the establishment of the municipal 3 court is to secure the prompt and proper determination of civil actions in 4 which the sum or value in controversy does not exceed five hundred dollars 5 ($500), actions of forcible detainer, actions brought to recover fines or penalties 6 for the violation of municipal ordinances, criminal actions, peace proceed-7 ings, search warrant proceedings and examination proceedings, and the 8 time devoted by said court to the exercise of its jurisdiction in cases other 9 than those hereinbefore in this section particularly specified shall be such only as 10 may be so devoted without interference with the accomplishment of its primary 11 purpose as above declared. It shall be the duty of the supreme court to enforce 12 strict compliance by the municipal court with the provisions of this section.

Sec. 126. SUPREME COURT TO EXERCISE SUPERINTENDENCE—ANNUAL INVESTIGA-

2 TION.] The supreme court shall have power and it shall be its duty to exercise 3 a general superintendence over said municipal court and over the judges and of-4 ficers thereof in respect to the management of the business of said court and 5 the discharge by said judges and officers of the duties of their respective offices.
6 Whenever it shall come to the knowledge of the supreme court that the judges 7 or officers of said municipal court, or any one or more of them, are exceeding their 8 powers or are proceeding irregularly in the exercise of their powers or in the 9 performance of their duties, it shall be the duty of the supreme court, and the 10 supreme court shall have full power, to make and enforce any order which the 11 court may deem necessary to correct such excess or irregularity. It shall also 12 be the duty of the supreme court to cause to be made, at least once in each year, 13 and by such agents as the supreme court may select for that purpose, a thorough 14 investigation into the administration of justice in said municipal court and into 15 the management of the business thereof. The agents so selected shall have 16 power, subject to the supervision of the supreme court, to summon witnesses, 17 compel their attendance, administer oaths to them and require them to testify, 18 and, upon the conclusion of such investigation, shall make report, in writing, of 19 the same and of the result thereof, together with the evidence taken by them, to 20 the supreme court, and thereupon the supreme court shall take such action with 21 respect thereto as the court may deem advisable. The agents so appointed shall 22 receive for their services such compensation as the supreme court may deem just 23 and reasonable and the same, together with all other expenses of such investi-24 gation, and report, which may be allowed by the court, shall be paid out of the 25 city treasury of the city of Chicago upon the certificate of the chief justice of 26 the supreme court.

 90 neys the court may, in its discretion, cause an additional carbon copy of such 91 transcript to be furnished to the defendants and may make such order with re-92 spect to the use thereof as the court may deem proper. In case of the conviction 93 of the defendant the fees for such transcript and carbon copies and for the at-94 tendance of the court stenographer shall be taxed as costs in the action against 95 such defendant, to be collected as other costs in the action: Provided, however, 96 that the court may, in its discretion, as hereinafter provided, remit the whole or 97 any portion of such costs.

98 Ninth—TRANSCRIPTS FROM STENOGRAPHIC NOTES IN OTHER CRIMINAL ACTIONS.]
 99 For transcribing from stenographic notes proceedings in court in criminal ac-100 tions in which the punishment may not be death or confinement in the peniten-101 tiary, and furnishing the original to the presiding judge, one carbon copy thereof 102 to the state's attorney and one carbon copy thereof to the defendant, eight (8) 103 cents for each one hundred (100) words of the original copy thereof, and when 104 more than two (2) carbon copies are furnished an additional charge shall be made 105 at the rate of two (2) cents for each one hundred (100) words of each additional 106 carbon copy. No transcript of the proceedings shall be made in any such action 107 prior to the entry of final judgment, excepting by the direction of the presiding 108 judge or of the defendant, and in either case the fees therefor shall only be 109 taxed against the defendant in case of his final conviction. When the proceedings 110 are transcribed by the direction of the defendant prior to the entry of final judg-111 ment, he shall pay the fees therefor in advance; but in case of his acquittal or

112 discharge he shall, upon application to the court therefor, be entitled to an order 113 for the repayment to him, out of the funds of the stenographic and typewriting 114 department, of the amount so paid: Provided, however, that upon the convic-115 tion of any defendant and the suing out by him of a writ of error in a case in 116 which a transcript of the stenographic notes of the proceedings shall not have 117 been previously made, it shall be the duty of the court, upon the application of 118 the defendant and upon proof that he is a poor person within the meaning of 119 this act, to cause to be furnished to such defendant such transcript, together with 120 a carbon copy thereof without payment therefor in advance, the fees therefor to 121 be taxed as costs against such defendant in case of the affirmance of the judgment 122 of conviction, or the dismissal of the writ of error.

Sec. 149. [USE TO BE MADE OF ORIGINAL AND CARBON COPIES.] When any deposi-2 tion, proceeding before a master of the municipal court or a master in chancery, 3 or proceeding in court, provided for by clauses fifth, sixth and seventh of the 4 preceding section, is transcribed from stenographic notes or taken down directly 5 upon a typewriter, the original copy of the deposition shall be returned into the 6 proper court, the original copy of the proceedings, including the taking of testi-

Sec. 150. FEES OF WITNESSES.] The fees of each witness for attending the 2 municipal court in any action pending therein shall be one dollar and fifty cents 3 ($1.50) for each day's necessary attendance, and, in addition thereto, when the 4 witness does not reside in Cook county, an additional sum equal to two dollars 5 ($2) for each ten (10) miles or fraction thereof between the residence of the 6 witness and the place where the court is held, the distance in each case mentioned in this section to be estimated by the distance of necessary travel by the route most convenient for the witness.

Sec. 151. HOW WITNESSES' FEES PAID.]. The fees, including mileage, of witnesses in civil and quasi criminal actions, other than those to recover fines or penalties for the violation of municipal ordinances, or those instituted by the People of the State of Illinois, or in the name of any state, county or municipal officer in his official capacity, shall be paid in the first instance by the party calling the witness and each witness whose witness fees have been paid as aforesaid by the party by whom he has been called or who, not having been paid as aforesaid, intends to claim his witness fees, shall, at the demand of the party calling such witness, make his affidavit showing the number of days of necessary attendance and in case he does not reside in Cook county, also the number of miles of necessary travel and deliver the same to the party calling such witness to be filed by such party with the clerk. But no witness in any such case shall be entitled to demand payment of his fees or mileage in advance of the giving of his testimony: Provided, however, that when any witness is a poor person, the court may, in its discretion, require the fees or mileage, or both, of such witness to be paid in advance by the party calling such witness. The fees and mileage of a witness in a criminal action, when such witness resides outside of Cook county, shall be paid out of the county treasury of Cook county on the certificate of the clerk of the municipal court: Provided, however, that, to entitle such witness to payment as aforesaid he shall make affidavit of the distance traveled; that it was the usually traveled and most direct route, of the number of days' actual attendance, and that such attendance was at the instance of the state's attorney, or the accused or his attorney, to which shall be added the certificate of the judge that the amount is reasonable and that he was a material witness in the action.

Sec. 152. PEOPLE, MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS, ETC., NOT TO PAY COSTS.] No costs 2 or fees of any kind or character in any action or proceeding in the municipal 3 court shall be required to be paid by the People of the State of Illinois, or by 4 any municipal corporation, or by any State, county or municipal officer insti-5 tuting or defending any action or proceeding in his official capacity, but in every 6 such case, if final judgment is entered against the opposite party to the action, 7 and such opposite party is not a municipal corporation, or a State, county or 8 municipal officer suing or defending in his official capacity, all the costs of the 9 action may, in the discretion of the court, be awarded against such opposite 10 party and may be collected by execution or otherwise, and, when so collected, 11 shall be paid over to or retained by the proper officers to be accounted for, or 12 otherwise disposed of, by them as other costs collected by them, such costs to be 13 taxed at the rates fixed by this act for like services in like actions or proceedings 14 in which the People of the State of Illinois, or any municipal corporation, or any 15 State, county or municipal officer is not a party.

Sec. 153. WHEN ADVANCE COSTS NOT REQUIRED OF DEFENDANT—JUDGMENT FOR 2 costs.] Excepting as may be otherwise expressly provided by this act, no ad-

 5 recover a fine or penalty for the violation of a municipal ordinance, or in any 6 quasi criminal action instituted by the People of the State of Illinois, or in the 7 name of any State, county or municipal officer in his official capacity, but in 8 every such case, if final judgment is entered against the defendant, all the costs 9 of the action may, in the discretion of the court, be awarded against such oppo-10 site party and may be collected by execution or otherwise, and, when so collected, 11 shall be paid over to or retained by the proper officers to be accounted for or 12 otherwise disposed of by them as other costs collected by them, such costs to be 13 taxed at the rates fixe^d by this act.

Sec. 154. WHEN DEFENDANT ENTITLED TO REPAYMENT.] In any civil action brought by the People of the State of Illinois or by any county or other municipal corporation or by any State, county or municipal officer in his official capacity the defendant, in case final judgment is entered in his favor, shall be entitled to repayment by all the officers of court, including court stenographers, of fees or costs paid by him to such officers in such action.

Sec. 155. COSTS REMITTED WHEN.] The municipal court may, in its discretion, order that any part or the whole of the costs in any criminal or quasi criminal action, other than a qui tam action or other action brought in the name or for the benefit of a private individual to recover a statutory penalty, be remitted, in which case the costs ordered to be remitted shall not be taxed against the defendant in case of his conviction.

Sec. 156. PLAINTIFF'S TAXABLE COSTS FOR PREPARING PAPERS.] The plaintiff shall be entitled to have taxed as costs in his favor as compensation for the preparation of the papers to be filed by him as hereinbefore provided for the following sums:

First—PRAECIPE—STATEMENT—DISTRESS WARRANT, ETC.—AFFIDAVIT—INTERROGATORIES.] For each praecipe, statement of claim or affidavit of claim, distress warrant and inventory, or interrogatories to garnishee, fifty (50) cents.

Third—ATTACHMENT OR REPLEVIN BOND.] For each bond in attachment or replevin, one dollar ($1).

Sec. 157. PLAINTIFF'S TAXABLE COSTS FOR PREPARING AND SERVING COPIES.] The plaintiff shall be entitled to have taxed as costs in his favor, as compensation for the preparation and service of the copies of papers to be served by him as hereinbefore provided for, for each copy of praecipe, statement of claim, affi-

5 davit of claim, distress warrant and inventory, affidavit in attachment or re-6 plevin, or bond in attachment or replevin, or interrogatories to garnishee, the 7 sum of twenty-five (25) cents.

Sec. 158. DEFENDANT'S TAXABLE COSTS FOR PREPARING PAPERS.] The defend-2 ant shall be entitled to have taxed as costs in his favor, as compensation for 3 the preparation of the papers to be filed by him as hereinbefore provided for, 4 the following sums:

5 First—APPEARANCE AND SPECIFICATIONS OF DEFENSE.] For each appearance or 6 specification of defense or defenses, fifty (50) cents.

7 Second—ABATEMENT—AFFIDAVIT.] For each motion and affidavit in abate-8 ment, affidavit of merits, or affidavit denying ground of attachment, one dollar 9 ($1).

Sec. 159. DEFENDANT'S TAXABLE COSTS FOR PREPARING AND SERVING COPIES.]
 2 The defendant shall be entitled to have taxed as costs in his favor as compen-3 sation for the preparation and service of the copies of the papers required to be 4 served, as hereinbefore provided for, for each appearance, specification of de-5 fense or defenses, motion and affidavit in abatement, affidavit of merits, or 6 affidavit denying the ground of attachment, twenty-five (25) cents.

Sec. 160. PARTY'S STENOGRAPHER'S FEES.] Either party to a civil or quasi 2 criminal action, other than one brought by the People of the State of Illinois, 3 or by a municipal corporation or by any State, county or municipal officer in-4 stituting an action in his official capacity, who shall have ordered and paid for 5 the transcribing of proceedings in court, as hereinbefore provided, shall be en-6 titled to have taxed as costs in his favor and against the opposite party the 7 amount so paid: Provided, however, that no such costs shall be taxed in favor 8 of any plaintiff recovering judgment in any action at law brought for the re-9 covery of money or personal property, when the amount of money or the value

10 of the personal property recovered by him, or the amount so recovered, to-11 gether with any set-off or counter-claim of the defendant defeated, shall not ex-12 ceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), exclusive of costs; nor shall any such costs 13 be taxed in favor of any defendant recovering judgment in any such action un-14 less the plaintiff's claim defeated by such defendant, when the defendant recov-15 ers costs only, or the plaintiff's claim defeated by such defendant, together with 16 the amount in money or personal property recovered by such defendant, when 17 the defendant recovers money or personal property in addition to costs, exceeds 18 one thousand dollars ($1,000); and Provided, further, that no such costs shall be 19 taxed against any poor person whose financial circumstances are such as to make 20 the payment of such costs unduly burdensome or oppressive, when it appears to 21 the satisfaction of the court that such action was prosecuted or defended by 22 such person in good faith. In civil actions other than actions for the recovery of 23 money or personal property, the allowance of costs to either party for moneys 24 paid for the transcribing of proceedings in court shall be in the discretion of the 25 court, such discretion to be exercised, as near as may be, in a manner which 26 will not make costs in actions involving small amounts of property unduly bur-27 densome to either of the parties. In any civil or quasi criminal action brought 28 by the People of the State of Illinois, or by or against any municipal corporation, 29 or by or against any State, county or municipal officer instituting or defending 30 an action in his official capacity, the other party to the action, upon the entry of 31 final judgment in his favor, if he shall have paid for the transcribing of the 32 proceedings, or of any portion thereof, shall, upon application to the court there-33 for, be entitled to an order for the repayment to him out of the funds of the 34 stenographic and typewriting department of the amount so paid.

Sec. 161. COSTS FOR PREPARING REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS.] The party preparing

2 and tendering to a judge for settlement and signature a report of proceedings 3 shall be allowed to have taxed as costs in his favor therefor, in addition to the 4 fees, if any, paid by such party to the stenographic and typewriting department

5 for a transcript of the stenographic notes of the proceedings, such sum, not less 6 than five dollars ($5) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25), as the court may 7 deem reasonable and just, the amount so to be allowed to be endorsed upon such 8 report by the judge at the time of signing the same: Provided, however, that 9 no such costs shall be taxed unless such report shall be used in the prosecution 10 of an appeal or writ of error.

Sec. 162. COSTS FOR SERVING SUMMONS, ETC., BY PERSON NOT OFFICER.] The 2 party procuring the service of any summons, subpoena, garnishee summons, 3 citation or order of court when the same is not served by any officer authorized 4 by this act to serve the same, shall be entitled to have taxed as costs in his 5 favor one-half the fees which would be payable if the same were served by such 6 officer.

Sec. 163. COSTS OF GARNISHEE.] Every person summoned as a garnishee, if 2 it appear to the satisfaction of the court that he has truly disclosed all of the 3 lands, tenements, goods, chattels, moneys, choses in action, credits and effects, 4 if any, in his hands belonging to the defendant in the attachment, shall be al-5 lowed out of such lands, tenements, goods and chattels, moneys, choses in action 6 and effects, if any, or, if there be none such, then as costs to be taxed in his 7 favor against the plaintiff, the following:

8 First—PREPARING AND SERVING COPIES OF ANSWERS TO INTERROGATORIES.] For 9 preparing and serving copies of answers to interrogatories in an action of at-10 tachment, one dollar ($1).

11 Second—NECESSARY ATTENDANCE.] For necessary attendance for each day or 12 fractional day, one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50).

13 Third—WITNESSES' FEES, ETC.] For the fees and mileage of necessary wit-14 nesses the same fees and mileage as are allowed other parties to actions in said 15 court.

Sec. 164. SECURITY FOR COSTS—FORM.] In every action in the municipal

2 court, when the plaintiff or person for whose use the action is to be commenced 3 shall not be a resident of this State, the plaintiff or person for whose use the 4 action is to be commenced shall, before he institutes such action, file or cause to 5 be filed with the clerk security for costs substantially in the following form:

6 IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT OF CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

7 John Doe
8 v. Richard Roe. } Contract. No. 17.

9 SECURITY FOR COSTS.

10 I, William Doe, do hereby enter myself as security for all costs which may 11 accrue in the above entitled action.

12 Dated January 10, 1908.

13 WILLIAM DOE.

Sec. 165. SIGNING AND EFFECT OF SECURITY.] Such instrument shall be sign-2 ed by some responsible person being a resident of this State, to be approved 3 by the clerk, and shall bind such person to pay all costs which may accrue in 4 such action, either to the opposite party, or to any of the officers of the court in 5 which the action is commenced, or to which it is removed by a change of venue, or 6 appeal or writ of error.

Sec. 166. FAILURE TO FILE SECURITY—RIGHT TO SECURITY NOT WAIVED.] If any 2 such action shall be commenced without filing such instrument in writing, the 3 court, on motion, shall dismiss the same and the attorney of the plaintiff shall 4 pay all the costs accruing thereon, unless the security for costs shall be filed 5 within such time as shall be allowed by the court, and when so filed it shall relate 6 back to the commencement of the action. The right to require security for costs 7 in any such case shall not be deemed waived by any proceeding in the action.

Sec. 167. CASH DEPOSIT IN LIEU OF SECURITY—FORM OF CERTIFICATE.] In lieu

2 of the filing of security for costs, as provided for in the preceding three sections, 3 the party required to give security may deposit with the clerk the sum of twenty-4 five dollars ($25) as such security and may thereafter make such further depos-5 its of cash as such security, from time to time, as the court may deem reason-6 able, and in case judgment is rendered against the plaintiff or person for whose 7 use the action is commenced, such deposit or deposits shall be applied, under the 8 direction of the court, towards the payment of the costs recovered by the de-9 fendant, and such other costs as the plaintiff, or person for whose use the action 10 is commenced, may be required to pay. Upon the deposit of any sum as cash 11 security, the clerk shall issue to the person making the same a certificate of de-12 posit in substantially the following form:

14 John Doe
 v.
 15 Richard Roe. } Contract. No. 17.

16 CERTIFICATE OF DEPOSIT.

17 This is to certify that the undersigned, clerk of the municipal court of 18 Chicago, Illinois, has this day received from John Doe, the plaintiff in the above 19 entitled action, twenty-five dollars ($25) as security for costs.

20 Dated January 10, 1908.

Sec. 168. PARTY BECOMING NON-RESIDENT.] If, at any time after the com-

2 mencement of any action by a resident of this State, he shall become a non-3 resident, it shall be the duty of the court, on motion of the defendant or any 4 officer of the court, to rule the plaintiff, on or before the day in such rule named, 5 to give security for the payment of costs in such action. If such plaintiff shall 6 neglect or refuse, on or before the day in such rule named, to file an instrument

7 in writing of some responsible person, being a resident of this State, whereby 8 he shall bind himself to pay all costs which have accrued or may accrue in such 9 action, or to make a cash deposit in lieu thereof, the court shall, on motion, dis-10 miss the action.

Sec. 169. SUCCESSFUL PARTY TO RECOVER COSTS—EXCEPTIONS.] In every action 2 at law or special proceeding in the municipal court the party finally successful 3 therein shall recover all his costs of the action from the unsuccessful party, with 4 the following exceptions:

5 First—COSTS ORDERED PAID DURING PENDENCY OF ACTION.] The court may, in 6 its discretion, during the pendency of an action, order the payment of costs by 7 one party to the other party or to an officer of the court, or may otherwise im-8 pose the payment of such costs, as hereinbefore provided, and the costs paid in 9 pursuance of such order shall not be recovered by the party paying the same.

10 Second—COSTS OF APPEAL OR WRIT OF ERROR TO ABIDE EVENT WHEN.] When, 11 upon the prosecution of any appeal or writ of error, any order, judgment or 12 decree is reversed, in whole or in part, or modified, and the cause is remanded 13 for a further hearing, the costs incurred by the party prosecuting such appeal 14 or writ of error shall abide the final event of the action and shall only be recov-15 ered by the party prosecuting such appeal or writ of error in case the final judg-16 ment or decree rendered in the action shall be in his favor, and then only to such 17 extent as the municipal court may deem equitable and just.

18 Third—ACTIONS IN NAME OF PEOPLE, MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS, ETC.] In any 19 action or proceeding commenced for and on behalf of the people of this State, or 20 the Governor thereof, or for or on behalf of any county or other municipal cor-21 poration in this State, or in the name of any person for the use of the people 22 of this State or any county or municipal corporation, no costs shall be recovered 23 by the opposite party. In case the plaintiff shall be finally successful in any 24 such action, there shall be taxed against the defendant and collected as a part of the judgment or decree all the costs of the action which would be payable to the officers of the court, if such action were one between individuals suing or defending in their individual capacities, and the costs so collected shall be paid to the proper officers, but in case the defendant shall be finally successful in such action, no costs of any kind shall be taxed or paid, and the defendant shall be repaid by all the officers of the court all costs paid by him to such officers.

Fourth—ACTIONS AGAINST MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS.] In any action or proceeding brought by any person or corporation against any county or other municipal corporation, the plaintiff, if finally successful, shall not recover any judgment for costs against the defendant but all costs paid by the plaintiff to the officers of the court in such action shall be refunded to the plaintiff by order of the court in which the action is determined. In case the defendant shall be finally successful, there shall be taxed against the plaintiff and collected as a part of the judgment all the costs of the action which would have been payable by the defendant to the officers of the court if the defendant were an individual defending in his individual capacity, and the costs so collected shall be paid to the proper officers.

Fifth—ACTIONS IN EQUITY.] In actions in equity it shall be in the discretion of the court to award costs or not, and the court in any such action may apportion the costs thereof among the parties thereto in such manner as may seem equitable and just.

Sixth—JURY COSTS WHEN ACTION NOT TRIED BY JURY.] When either party to an action shall have filed a demand in writing of a trial by jury and shall have paid the costs therefor, and such action shall be disposed of without a trial by jury, the party having paid such costs shall not recover the same from the opposite party.

Seventh—POOR PERSONS.] When the party against whom a final judgment or decree may be rendered is a poor person whose financial circumstances, as made to appear to the court, are such that the payment of costs would be un-

54 duly burdensome or oppressive, and it shall appear to the satisfaction of the 55 court that the action was commenced and prosecuted, or defended, as the case may 56 be, by such person in good faith, no judgment for costs shall be rendered against 57 such poor person.

Sec. 170. PARTY TO FILE BILL OF COSTS — VERIFICATION—FORM OF BILL OF 2 costs.] Within ten days after the entry of any final order, judgment or decree 3 awarding costs, and before the issuance of any execution thereon, the party to 4 whom costs are awarded by such final order, judgment or decree shall file with 5 the clerk a bill of his costs in the action. Such bill shall specify the court in 6 which the action is pending, and the title, classification and number of the action, 7 and shall thereafter set forth each item of costs to which such party may claim 8 to be entitled, whether the same was paid or accrued in the municipal court or 9 in a court of appellate jurisdiction. Such bill shall be verified by the affidavit of 10 such party or his attorney. The following form of bill of costs shall be deemed 11 sufficient and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other bills of 12 costs may be properly framed:

Sec. 171. CLERK TO TAX COSTS ACCORDING TO BILL—EXCEPTION.] The clerk 2 shall tax the costs as set forth in such bill of costs unless, from an inspection there-3 of, it shall appear to the clerk that the items therein are in excess of the amounts 4 provided by law, or unless the clerk shall have reason to believe that any item or 5 items therein are fictitious, in which case the clerk shall notify such party of his 6 refusal to tax such bill of costs.

Sec. 172. APPLICATION TO COURT.] Whenever the clerk shall refuse to tax a 2 bill of costs filed as aforesaid, or any item therein, the party having filed such 3 bill may, upon notice to the opposite party, apply to the court for an order that 4 the same may be taxed. and the court, upon a hearing of such application, shall 5 make such order as justice may require.

Sec. 173. RETAXING COSTS.] Any party against whom any bill of costs is 2 taxed as aforesaid may, upon notice to the opposite party, move the court to re-3 tax the costs, and, upon the hearing of such motion, the court may make such 4 order as justice may require.

Sec. 174. AMOUNT OF COSTS NOT TO BE SPECIFIED IN JUDGMENT, ETC.] It shall 2 be unnecessary in any order, judgment or decree to specify the amount of the costs which may be awarded against the party against whom an order, judgment or decree is rendered, but it shall be sufficient that the costs be taxed as aforesaid and upon the issuance of execution the amount thereof shall be inserted in the execution. In every such case, as well as upon supplementary or other proceedings to enforce the order, judgment or decree, the taxation of the costs by the clerk shall be deemed and taken as a part of such order, judgment or decree.

Sec. 175. COSTS NOT RECOVERABLE BY OPPOSITE PARTY—HOW COLLECTED.] Costs to be paid by either party to any officer of the court or to the stenographic and typewriting department, and not recoverable by the opposite party, shall be taxed by the clerk and the clerk shall issue a fee bill and execution therefor, or the payment of the same may be enforced by attachment, or in such other manner as may be provided by this Act.

Sec. 176. POOR PERSONS.] In any action or proceeding in the municipal court the court may, in its discretion, order that an advance payment of costs may be waived in favor of any poor person whose financial circumstances, as made to appear to the court, are such that such advance payment would be unduly burdensome and oppressive.

10 superintendence of the business of such court or courts and he shall assign the 11 judges of such court or courts to duty in the different counties of the circuit, 12 or, in Cook county, to the different branches of the court of which he is business 13 manager, and it shall be the duty of each judge to attend and serve in any county 14 or branch court to which he may be so assigned. Such business manager 15 shall superintend the preparation of the calendars of actions for trial or hear-16 ing and shall make such classification and distribution of the same upon differ-17 ent calendars as he shall deem proper and expedient. He shall also perform 18 such judicial work as he may be able to perform consistently with the proper dis-19 charge of his duties as such business manager. Any attorney at law author-20 ized to practice in the courts of record of this State, desirous of presenting 21 any application to a court of which there are two or more branches for any 22 order pertaining to an injunction, a receivership, an action of habeas corpus, 23 an action of mandamus, an action of quo warranto, or to any other action in 24 which prompt attention by the court may appear to be especially important, 25 may apply to such business manager, if there be such business manager, to 26 assign a judge to the hearing of such application, and said business manager 27 shall thereupon assign some one of the judges of said court to the hearing of 28 such application and fix a time therefor, and such application shall thereupon 29 be heard at the time so fixed and by the judge so assigned to the duty of hear-30 ing the same. Such business manager shall have such other powers and per-31 form such other duties, not inconsistent with law, as may be prescribed by the 32 judges of the supreme court.

Sec. 21. ADDITIONAL BRANCH APPELLATE COURTS.] Whenever it shall be made 2 to appear to the supreme court that the business of any appellate court, of 3 which one branch has already been organized, is such that the judges assigned 4 to duty therein cannot finally determine and dispose of the actions therein 5 pending within four months after the filing therein of the authenticated records 6 of the inferior courts, it shall be the duty of the supreme court to forthwith 7 designate and assign to duty in such appellate court three judges of the cir-8 cuit court and the three additional judges so designated and assigned shall, as 9 soon as practicable, meet, organize and constitute an additional branch of the 10 appellate court to which they shall have been assigned to duty, and the additional 11 branch court so organized shall proceed to hear and determine, according to 12 law and justice and the rules of said appellate court, all such cases and mat-13 ters as shall or may be docketed and pending for hearing and determination 14 in said court not exceeding one-third in number thereof, as said appellate court 15 may, by order, designate and assign to said additional branch court. Said ad-16 ditional branch court shall be known as the additional branch of said appellate 17 court, and shall have the same powers and shall proceed in the same manner 18 as is prescribed by law with respect to branch appellate courts, and the terms 19 of office of the judges thereof shall be the same as the terms of office of the 20 judges of other branch appellate courts. Any such additional branch appellate 21 court may be discontinued by order of the supreme court, whenever it shall 22 be made to appear to the supreme court that the business of such appellate 23 court has become so reduced in volume that the actions therein pending can be 24 readily and properly disposed of by such court and one branch court within 25 four months after the filing therein of the authenticated records of the inferior 26 courts.

Sec. 22. ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES TO DUTY IN OTHER COURTS.] The chief jus-2 tice of the Supreme Court shall have power, and it shall be his duty, to assign 3 judges of circuit courts, city courts and county courts, and judges of the su-

4 perior court of Cook county, to the duty of holding any courts outside of their 5 respective circuits, cities or counties which they are authorized by law to hold, 6 whenever such assignments may appear to said chief justice to be expedient 7 and conducive to a prompt and speedy disposition of the business of the courts 8 to which such assignments are made, provided such assignments shall not ap-9 pear to seriously interfere with the prompt and speedy disposition of the busi-10 ness of the courts of the circuits, cities or counties in and for which the 11 judges so assigned may have been elected; and it shall be the duty of every 12 judge so assigned to attend in the court designated by said chief justice and to 13 hold such court during such time as said chief justice may direct. Nothing 14 herein contained, however, shall be construed as prohibiting any judge of a cir-15 cuit court, city court, county court or the superior court of Cook county, with-16 out such assignment by the chief justice, from holding any court which he may 17 be authorized by law to hold outside of the circuit, city or county in and for 18 which he may be elected, whenever he may be requested so to do by any judge 19 of said court and whenever the holding of such court will not seriously inter-20 fere with the prompt and speedy disposition of the business of the courts of 21 the circuit, city or county in and for which he may be elected.

Sec. 67. WORK MAY BE EXTENDED TO OTHER COURTS—WORK FOR ATTORNEYS.]

2 The said respective judges may, by rules and regulations, extend the work of 5 courts of record within their respective circuits or within the county of Cook, 6 as the case may be, in which case the costs and charges in this Act pro-7 vided for the work of said stenographic and typewriting department shall be 8 made applicable to such other courts, and may, and, when practicable, shall 9 likewise provide for the performance by such stenographic and typewriting

 6 or its business, that the same shall be furnished with all the most modern ap-

 8 to actions and their attorneys and all other persons entitled to the services of 9 any such stenographic and type-writing department, shall be served thereby 6 an attorney at law.

Sec. 101. LICENSE TO PRACTICE NECESSARY—QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED.] No

6 nois, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of attorney at 7 law to the best of my ability.

Sec. 103. ROLL OF ATTORNEYS.] It shall be the duty of the clerk of the 2 Supreme Court to make and keep a roll or record, stating at the head thereof 3 that the persons whose names are therein written have been regularly licensed 4 and admitted to practice as attorneys at law within this State, and that they 5 have duly taken the oath of office as prescribed by law, which shall be certified 6 and endorsed on the said license.

Sec. 104. PREVIOUSLY LICENSED ATTORNEYS PERMITTED TO PRACTICE.] All per-2 sons heretofore regularly admitted and licensed to practice as attorneys and 3 counselors at law in this State who may be still living and whose names have 4 not been stricken from the roll of attorneys and counselors at law shall con-5 tinue, subject to the provisions of this Act, to be permitted to practice as

7 the superior court of Cook county shall, for like cause, have power to suspend 8 any attorney at law from practice in such circuit court or superior court of 11 court to review such order, such review to be made in accordance with such rules 12 as may be prescribed therefor by the supreme court.

Sec. 106. NOTICE OF PROCEEDINGS TO BE GIVEN—RESULT OF STRIKING FROM

2 ROLL.] Every attorney at law, before his name is stricken off the roll, shall

2 Whenever any attorney at law shall have in his possession any documents, 3 papers, money or property of any kind which he shall have obtained by virtue 4 and by means of the relation of attorney at law and client theretofore existing 5 between him and any person and shall refuse to deliver or pay over the same 6 to such person after demand in writing made therefor, such person may apply

8 a place of business, or, if such attorney at law resides or maintains a place of 9 business in Cook county, such application may also be made to the superior 10 court of Cook county, for an order requiring such attorney at law to deliver 11 or pay over to such person such documents, papers, money or other property, 12 and such court shall have full power, upon such application being made, to inquire 13 in a summary manner into any controversy which may exist between such per-14 son and such attorney at law respecting such documents, papers, money or 16 may require; and if, upon such application, it shall appear that such attorney

19 behalf of, or other advances made to or on account of, such person, the court 20 may fix the amount of such compensation, expenditures and advances and may 21 require the payment of the same by such person as a condition to the delivery 22 or paying over of such documents, papers, money or other property. If upon 23 any such application, it shall appear that such attorney at law has made a 24 manifestly unjust and exorbitant demand upon such person for compensation 25 or reimbursement for expenditures or advances as a condition to the delivery or 26 paying over of such documents, papers, money or other property, or has other-27 wise acted unjustly and vexatiously, the court may require such attorney at law 28 to reimburse such person for the reasonable costs and expenses, including at-29 torneys' fees, of such application. The method of procedure upon any such 30 application may be substantially the same as in an action in equity, excepting 31 that such application shall take precedence over the ordinary business of the 32 court and shall be determined speedily and without formality. Any order made 33 upon such application may be enforced in the same manner as a decree in equity 34 and shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court upon appeal or writ 35 of error in the same manner and to the same extent as a decree in equity.

 5 at the request of such attorney at law, the fees which are specified by this 6 Act for such services and which such officer is required to collect and account 7 for, such officer or court stenographer to whom such fees are payable may, upon 8 reasonable notice in writing to such attorney at law, apply to the circuit court 9 of the county in which such attorney at law resides or maintains an office for 10 the transaction of business, and obtain a rule upon such attorney at law for the 11 payment of such fees, and upon non-compliance with such rule such attorney 12 at law may be punished as for a contempt of court, or may be suspended by 13 such court from practice as an attorney at law in the courts of this State until 14 such fees are paid.

Sec. 109. ATTORNEYS, ETC., LIABLE TO ARREST WHEN.] All attorneys at law, judges, clerks and sheriffs and all other officers of the several courts within this State shall be liable to be arrested and held to bail and shall be subject to the same legal process, and may be prosecuted in all respects and proceeded against in the same courts and in the same manner, as other persons are, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, nevertheless, that said judges or attorneys, clerks, sheriffs and other officers of said courts shall be privileged from arrest while attending court and whilst going to and returning from court.

Sec. 110. PARTIES MAY PROSECUTE OR DEFEND IN PERSON.] Plaintiffs shall have the liberty of prosecuting and defendants of defending in their own proper persons.

Sec. 111. ATTORNEYS OF OTHER STATES.] When any attorney at law residing in any other state or territory may desire to practice law in this State, such attorney at law shall be allowed to practice in the several courts of this State upon the same terms and in the same manner that attorneys at law residing in this State now or hereafter may be admitted to practice law in such other state or territory.

Sec. 112. WHEN JUDGES AND OTHER OFFICERS MAY NOT PRACTICE.] No person who holds a commission as a justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois, or as a judge of any circuit court or of the superior court of Cook county, shall be permitted to practice, directly or indirectly, as an attorney at law in any court in this State, nor shall any judge of any city court, county court or probate court be permitted to practice in the court of which he is commissioned or appointed judge; and it shall be unlawful for any county judge, probate judge, county clerk, probate clerk, deputy county clerk or deputy probate clerk, to make accounts current or reports for any executor, administrator, guardian or conservator upon which said court

11 shall have to act judicially; nor shall any coroner, sheriff or 12 deputy sheriff be permitted to practice as aforesaid in the county in which he 13 is commissioned or appointed; nor shall any clerk or deputy clerk of a court of 14 record be permitted to practice as an attorney at law in the court of which 15 he is such clerk or deputy clerk, and no person shall be permitted or suffered 16 to enter his name on the roll or record to be kept aforesaid by the clerk of 17 the Supreme Court, or do any official act appertaining to the office of an attor-18 ney at law, until he has taken the oath hereinbefore required, and the person 19 administering such oath shall certify the same on the license, which certificate 20 shall be a sufficient voucher to the clerk of the Supreme Court to enter or in-21 sert, or permit to be entered or inserted, on the roll of attorneys at law, the 22 name of the person of whom such certificate is made.

Sec. 113. LIEN UPON DOCUMENTS AND PAPERS.] Every attorney at law shall 2 have a lien upon all documents, papers, money or other property in his pos-

 4 client on account of services rendered or expenditures made as an attorney at 5 law for and on behalf of such client.

Sec. 114. LIEN UPON JUDGMENTS AND DECREES.] Every attorney at law 2 shall have a lien upon every judgment or decree for money obtained by him for 3 his client to the extent of whatever may be due him from his client on account 4 of services rendered or expenses incurred in and about the procuring of such 5 judgment or decree.

Sec. 115. LIEN UPON CAUSE OF ACTION.] Every attorney at law employed 2 to prosecute any action at law or in equity, and who, in pursuance of such 3 employment, shall have instituted and prosecuted such action in good faith

 6 which may concern the proper administration of justice in such court or the 7 proper management of the business thereof. Such complaint shall be in writing 8 and shall be addressed to the court to which the complaint is made and shall 9 be filed with the clerk thereof, who shall bring the same forthwith to the atten-

 13 or chief justice but shall consist of several judges, to the attention of such judge 14 as may be presiding in such court, or in case there are several branches of said 15 court being held at the same time, to the attention of the judge of such court 16 senior in age, whose duty it shall be to cause the same to be heard either by a

17 all other needful regulations, not hereby prescribed, for the holding of such 18 elections. When more than one rule is to be voted upon each rule shall be 19 voted upon separately. Whenever, at any election so held, a majority of the 20 votes cast shall be in favor of the rescinding of such rule or rules the same

 9 ants or any of them, judgment shall be rendered in favor of the plaintiff or plain-10 tiffs and the person so joined as defendant and against the other defendant or 11 defendants accordingly; but in such case the person so joined as defendant as 12 aforesaid shall not be permitted to receive any benefit from the judgment so 13 recovered until he shall have paid to the plaintiff or plaintiffs his equitable 14 share of the expense, including attorney's fees, incurred by the plaintiff or 15 plaintiffs in the prosecution of the action and also just compensation to the 16 plaintiff or plaintiffs for his or their personal services therein, such equitable 17 share to be fixed and determined by the court in which the judgment is re-18 covered and such payment to be made within such time as may be fixed there-19 for by the court. The praecipe and statement of claim in a case provided 20 for in this section may be in substantially the form prescribed in section two 21 hundred fifty two (252) of this Act.

Sec. 158. PERSONS IN INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY MAY BE JOINED WITH PERSONS IN 2 REPRESENTATIVE CAPACITY—HOW JUDGMENTS ENFORCED.] In any action, whether at 3 law or in equity, persons suing in their own right may be joined as plaintiffs with 4 persons suing as executors, administrators or in any other representative capac-5 ity, and parties defending in their own right may be joined as defendants with 6 parties defending as executors, administrators or in any other representative 7 capacity, and in all such cases the orders and judgments of the court shall be 8 enforced against the parties suing or defending in a representative capacity in 9 due course of administration or as may be otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 159. ACTIONS BY CO-PARTNERS.] Any two or more persons claiming 2 as co-partners may sue in their firm name, either with or without a specification 3 of the names of the co-partners, but in any such case the plaintiffs, upon de-4 mand in writing of any defendant, shall file in the action a statement verified 5 by affidavit of the names and places of residence of all the persons constituting 6 the co-partnership, and in every such case any judgment entered in the action 7 against the co-partnership may be enforced not only against the property of 8 the co-partnership, but also against the co-partners individually, to the same 9 extent as if the action had been commenced in the individual names of the co-10 partners.

Sec. 160. ACTIONS AGAINST CO-PARTNERS.] Any two or more persons liable 2 as co-partners may be sued by their firm name, either with or without a speci-
 3 fication of the names of the co-partners. When persons are sued as co-partners 4 by their firm name they shall appear individually in their own names. Any 5 judgment rendered in any such action may be enforced not only against the 6 property of the co-partnership within this State, but also against any person 7 individually who has been duly served with the summons as a co-partner or 8 who has entered an appearance in the action.

Sec. 161. ASSIGNEE OF CHOSE IN ACTION.] The assignee and the equitable 2 and bona fide owner of any chose in action not negotiable, heretofore or here-3 after assigned, may sue thereon in his own name in an action at law, but in 4 such case he shall make the assignor a party defendant, if the assignor reside 5 or may be found within this State, and shall set forth the date when he acquired 6 title. In every such case there shall be allowed to the defendant, other than the 7 assignor, not only all just credits, deductions and set-offs of which he could 8 avail himself were the plaintiff the original owner of such chose in action, but 9 also such credits, deductions and set-offs as have accrued to him before notice to 10 him of such assignment.

Sec. 162. PROCEDURE IN CASE OF NON-JOINDER OF PROPER PARTIES.] Whenever

2 in any action, whether at law or in equity, the plaintiff shall fail to join as 3 plaintiffs or defendants all the persons who ought to have been joined as plain-5 tiffs or defendants, as the case may be, the court may, upon motion of any de-6 fendant made prior to the trial or hearing of the action, require the plaintiff 7 to join all such necessary parties as plaintiffs or defendants, as the case may be: 8 Provided, however, that no such order shall be made when there is a substantial 9 dispute between the parties as to who are necessary parties to the action, but, 10 in such case, if the plaintiff shall refuse to join as parties any person or per- 11 sons claimed by such defendant to be necessary parties and, upon the trial or 12 hearing of the action, it shall appear that such person or persons are neces- 13 sary parties to the action, the court may dismiss the action at the cost of the 14 plaintiff. The objection of the non-joinder of proper parties shall be deemed 15 waived by the defendant unless the same is made before the calling of the action 16 for trial, unless the fact that proper parties are not joined shall have come 17 to the knowledge of the defendant after the calling of the case for trial; but 18 the court may, of its own motion, at any stage of the proceedings make an 19 order requiring the joinder as a plaintiff or defendant of any person, who, in 20 the opinion of the court, ought to be made a party to the action and may en- 21 force compliance with such order in such manner as the court may deem just 22 and right. Whenever any new party defendant is added, unless his appear- 23 ance is entered, a summons shall be issued and served, or a notice published, 24 as the case may be, in the same manner, as near as may be, as in case of an 25 original summons.

Sec. 163. ACTION COMMENCED IN NAME OF OR AGAINST WRONG PERSON—PRO-

2 CEDURE.] When an action has been commenced in the name of the wrong per-3 son as plaintiff or against the wrong person as defendant, or when it is doubt-4 ful whether it has been commenced in the name of the right plaintiff or against

5 the right defendant, the court, if satisfied that it has been so commenced 6 through a bona fide mistake, and that it is necessary for the determination of 7 the real matter in dispute so to do, may order any other person to be substi-8 tuted or added as plaintiff or defendant upon such terms as may be just, and in 9 such case the time elapsing between the commencement of the action and the 10 substitution or addition of a party plaintiff or defendant shall not be counted 11 as any part of the period fixed by any statute of limitations which may be re-12 lied upon as a defense by any defendant or defendants.

Sec. 164. PROCEDURE IN CASE OF MISJOINDER.] No action shall be defeated 2 by reason of the misjoinder of any persons either as plaintiffs or defendants, 3 but when all the parties who are proper parties to the action are before the 4 court, the court shall render such judgment as between such proper parties as 5 the facts in the case may require.

Sec. 165. ACTION PROSECUTED BY GUARDIAN, CONSERVATOR OR NEXT FRIEND.]
 2 An infant, a lunatic or other person under disability, may commence and prose-3 cute an action by his guardian, or conservator, or by a next friend. No pre-4 vious leave of the court shall be necessary for the commencement or prosecution 5 of an action by a next friend on behalf of an infant, a lunatic or other person 6 under disability, but after the commencement of any such action such next 7 friend shall be subject to the direction and control of the court in which the 8 action is pending and may be removed by the court, whenever the court shall 9 see fit.

Sec. 166. SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES.] Upon the death of any individual party 2 to an action, or upon the death, resignation or removal of any person who is a 3 party to an action in a representative capacity, the legal representatives or 4 heirs, or both, of such individual party, or the successor or successors in office 5 of such person who is a party in a representative capacity, may, by leave of 6 court, be substituted in his place and may, if necessary, be summoned in such 7 manner and required to appear at such time as the court may direct.

Sec. 167. OTHER ORDERS AS TO PARTIES.] Any other order as to the parties 2 to an action may be made by the court which has been heretofore allowable 3 and may not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, or which the court 4 may deem conducive to the final determination of the action upon its merits.

Sec. 168. JOINDER OF CAUSES OF ACTION ALLOWABLE TO WHAT EXTENT.] Ex-
2 cepting as may be otherwise expressly provided in this Act the plaintiff may 3 unite in the same action, or the defendant may unite in the same set-off, 4 counter-claim or cross bill, as many distinct causes of action, whether of a legal 5 or equitable nature, as, in his opinion, may be conveniently and expeditiously 6 litigated in one action, subject to the right of any defendant or plaintiff, as 7 the case may be, to apply to the court, as hereinafter provided, for a division 8 of the action, set-off, counter-claim or cross-bill into separate actions or for 9 separate trials of any such causes of action as, in the opinion of the court, can 10 not be conveniently and expeditiously tried and disposed of jointly with the 11 other causes of action.

Sec. 169. CLAIMS JOINED IN ACTION AT LAW TO AFFECT ALL PARTIES—EXCEP-

2 TIONS.] In actions at law only such claims may be joined as may be in favor 3 of all the plaintiffs and against all the defendants, or in favor of all the defend-4 ants and against all the plaintiffs, with the following exceptions:

5 First.—CLAIMS BY OR AGAINST HUSBAND OR WIFE.] Claims by or against hus-6 band and wife jointly may be joined with claims by or against either of them 7 separately.

8 Second.—CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF SAME OCCURRENCE OR TRANSACTION.] Claims 9 in respect of or arising out of the same occurrence or transaction, or series of 10 occurrences or transactions, upon the trial of which a common question of law 11 or fact will arise, may be joined, although such claims are several claims in fa-12 vor of one or more only of several parties on one side against one or more only 13 of several parties on the other side.

14 Third.—CLAIMS AGAINST PRINCIPALS AND SURETIES.] Claims against a por-15 tion of the parties as principals, the other parties on the same side being sure-16 ties, may be joined, although one or more of such sureties may be such as to 17 only a portion of the claims.

18 Fourth.—OTHER CLAIMS.] Other claims, though not in favor of all the par-19 ties on one side or against all the parties on the other side, may be joined in the 20 same action at law, whenever, in the opinion of the court, such joinder may 21 be conducive to a speedy and convenient trial and disposition of all the claims 22 sought to be litigated in the action

Sec. 170. JOINDER OF CLAIMS IN ACTIONS AT LAW FOR RECOVERY OF LAND.] No

2 claim shall be joined with an action for the recovery of land, unless it be one 3 for mesne profits or arrears of rent in respect to the premises claimed or some 4 part thereof, or for damages for breach of some contract under which the same 5 or some part thereof is held, or for some wrong or injury to the premises 6 claimed, or to some part thereof.

Sec. 171. JOINDER OF CLAIMS IN ACTION AT LAW FOR RECOVERY OF PERSONAL

 4 as an administrator, executor, guardian, conservator, trustee, or other legal 5 representative, excepting that a claim by or against an administrator, executor, 6 guardian, conservator or trustee may be joined with a claim by or against him 7 which is alleged to arise with reference to the estate in respect of which he sues 8 or is sued as such administrator, executor, guardian, conservator or trustee.

Sec. 173. PROCEDURE WHEN CLAIMS IMPROPERLY JOINED.] When any party 2 to an action shall object to the court that claims have been improperly joined 3 therein, the court, if it be of the opinion that such objection is well founded, 4 shall not on that account dismiss the action, but may either require the action, 5 set-off, counter-claim or cross-bill to be limited to such of the claims as may be 6 properly joined, or may direct separate trials of claims which can not be con-7 veniently tried together, or it may order that the action be divided into as 8 many separate actions as the case may require. Upon the making of an order 9 for the division of an action, the respective parties shall reform their respec-10 tive papers by preparing and filing in lieu thereof as many distinct sets of 11 papers as there are distinct claims which, in the opinion of the court, must be 12 litigated separately, and thereupon all parties to the original action who have 13 either appeared therein or have been duly served with process or notified by 14 publication of notice therein, and who are made parties defendant to the sep-15 arate actions, shall be required to file their respective appearances and speci-16 fications of defenses or other pleadings in such separate actions in like manner as if they had been served with process or notified by publication of notice issued or published thereunder, and thereafter such separate actions shall be prosecuted in all respects as if they had been separately commenced in the first instance; but in all such cases the plaintiff or plaintiffs in each separate action shall be required to pay to the clerk of the court, at the time of the filing of his or their papers in the action, the plaintiff's or plaintiffs' costs for the commencement of the action together with the costs payable by the defendants at the time of the entry of their appearances in said separate action. In any case provided for by this section the time elapsing between the commencement of the original action and the commencement of the separate actions shall not be counted as any part of the period fixed by any statute of limitations which may be relied upon as a defense by any defendant or defendants.

3 that any person employed for the service of any summons, citation or other 4 writ, is not a person of good character, or that he has so misconducted himself 9 other day.

Sec. 217. FORTHCOMING BOND--FORM.] The officer serving a writ of attach-4 like bond with security to be approved by the officer levying the writ of at-5 tachment in a sum sufficient to cover the claim sworn to in behalf of the plain-6 tiff, with all interest, damages and costs of the action, conditioned that the 7 defendant will pay the plaintiff the amount of the judgment and costs which 8 may be rendered against him in that action on a final trial, within ninety days 9 after such judgment shall be rendered. Such bond shall be taken by the sheriff 10 or other officer who shall return the same, together with a copy thereof, to 11 the court in which the action is brought, and shall also deliver a copy thereof 12 to the plaintiff in the attachment action. Such bond may be in substantially 13 the following form:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

John Doe
v.
Richard Roe. } Attachment. No. 28.

BOND TO PAY JUDGMENT.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we, RICHARD ROE, as principal, and HENRY ROE, as surety, are held and firmly bound unto the People of the State of Illinois in the penal sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000), for the payment of which well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

WITNESS our hands and seals this 12th day of February, 1908.

The condition of this obligation is such that whereas on the 10th day of February, 1908, a certain writ of attachment issued out of the circuit court of Cook county, Illinois, on the application of John Doe, as plaintiff, against the estate of said Richard Roe, defendant, directed to the sheriff of Cook county, Illinois, to execute, by virtue of which said writ the said sheriff, Henry Brown, has attached certain property as property of said Richard Roe.

And whereas, the said Richard Roe, in whose possession the said property was found, is desirous of a return of the property so attached according to the provisions of the statute:

Now, if the said Richard Roe shall pay to the said John Doe the amount of the judgment and costs, if any, which may be rendered against him, the said Richard Roe, in the action in which said writ of attachment has issued, on a final trial, within ninety days after such judgment shall be rendered, then this obligation is to be void; otherwise the same is to be and remain in full force and effect.

RICHARD ROE. (Seal.)

Approved February 12, 1908.

HENRY ROE. (Seal.)

JAMES BROWN, Sheriff.

Sec. 219. RECOGNIZANCE TO PAY JUDGMENT.] In lieu of giving the bond provided for in the preceding section a recognizance may be taken in open court and entered of record with like condition, in which case the court shall approve the security and the recognizance made to the plaintiff, and upon a forfeiture of such recognizance judgment may be rendered and execution issued as in other cases of recognizances. When any such bond mentioned in the preceding section shall have been taken or any recognizance provided for in this section shall

8 have been entered into, the attachment shall be dissolved and the property taken 9 restored, and all previous proceedings, either against the sheriff or against the 10 garnishees, set aside and the action shall proceed as if the defendant had been 11 duly served with a summons.

Sec. 220. FAILURE OF SHERIFF TO RETURN BOND, ETC.] If the sheriff or 2 other officer shall fail to return a bond taken in any attachment action by virtue 3 of the provisions of this Act, or shall have neglected to take one when he ought 4 to have done so in any attachment issued under any of the provisions of this 5 Act, the plaintiff in the judgment may cause a rule to be entered, at any time 6 within ten days after the time fixed in the writ of attachment for the appear-7 ance of the defendant, requiring the said sheriff or other officer to return the 8 said bond, or in case no bond has been taken, to show cause why such bond 9 was not taken. If the said sheriff or other officer shall not return the said 0 bond within one day thereafter or show legal and sufficient cause why the said 1 bond had not been taken, judgment shall be entered up against him for the 2 amount of the plaintiff's claim with the costs of the action and execution may 3 thereupon issue against such sheriff or other officer for the same whenever judg-4 ment shall have been entered against the defendant in the attachment.

Sec. 221. EXCEPTION BY PLAINTIFF TO BOND.] The plaintiff in an attachment 2 action may at any time within thirty days after notice of the return of any 3 bond by the sheriff or other officer except to the sufficiency thereof, reasonable 4 notice of such exception having been given to the sheriff or other officer who 5 took the same, and, if, upon the hearing, the court shall adjudge such security 6 insufficient, such sheriff or other officer shall be subject to the same judgment and 7 recovery and have the same liberty of defense as if he had been made defend-8 ant in the attachment, unless good and sufficient security shall be given within 8 such time as may be directed by the court and execution may issue thereupon 0 as in other cases of judgment. Whenever the judgment of the plaintiff, or any 11 part thereof, shall be paid or satisfied by any such sheriff or other offi-12 cer, he shall have the same remedy against the defendant for the amount so 13 paid by him as is now provided by law for bail against their principal, where 14 a judgment is paid or satisfied by them.

Sec. 222. WHEN PLAINTIFF MAY SUE ON BOND.] If the plaintiff shall not 2 except to the bond taken by the sheriff or other officer as aforesaid, or the ex-3 ceptions are not sustained and such bond shall be forfeited, the plaintiff in the 4 attachment may bring action thereon in his own name the same as if such bond 5 had been assigned to him and judgment shall be given for the plaintiff against 6 the obligors in the bond for the value of the property, or, if the property is 7 greater than the amount due upon the execution, then for the amount due and 8 the costs of the action.

Sec. 223. SUSTENANCE OF LIVE STOCK—COMPENSATION.] When any sheriff 2 or other officer shall serve an attachment on horses, cattle or live stock, and 3 the same shall not be immediately replevied or restored to the debtor, such 4 officer shall provide sufficient sustenance for the support of such live stock until 5 the same shall be sold or discharged from such attachment. He shall receive 6 therefor a reasonable compensation to be ascertained and determined by the 7 court out of which the attachment issued and charged in the fee bill of such 8 officer and the same shall be collectible as part of the costs.

Sec. 224. DISPOSITION OF PERISHABLE PROPERTY.] When any goods and chat-2 tels shall be levied on by virtue of any attachment and the sheriff or other 3 officer in whose custody such goods and chattels are shall be of opinion that the 4 same are of a perishable nature and in danger of immediate waste or decay, 5 such sheriff or other officer shall summon three respectable freeholders of his 6 county, who shall examine the goods and chattels so levied on and if said free-7 holders shall, on oath or affirmation, certify that in their opinion they are of a 8 perishable nature and in danger of immediate waste and decay, then such goods

9 and chattels shall be sold at public vendue by the sheriff or other officer, he 10 having first advertised such sale at the court house and two other public places 11 in his county at least ten days before the sale: Provided, such property may 12 be sold upon such notice less than ten days as the examiners shall certify will 13 be for the best interest of the parties concerned. The money arising from such 14 sale shall be liable to the judgment obtained upon such attachment and depos-15 ited in the hands of the clerk of the court to which the process shall be return-16 able there to abide the event of such action.

Sec. 225. SHARES OF STOCK—HOW LEVIED ON—SUBSEQUENT ASSIGNMENT.] The 2 shares of stock or interest of a stockholder in any corporation may be levied 3 on under a writ of attachment, but, in all cases where such shares of stock or 4 interest have been sold or pledged in good faith for a valuable consideration 5 and the certificate thereof has been delivered upon such sale or pledge, such 6 shares of stock or interest shall not be sold on the execution issued in such 7 attachment action against the vendor or pledgor excepting for the excess of the 8 value thereof over and above the sum for which the same may have been 9 pledged and the certificate thereof delivered. Such writ of attachment may be 10 levied by leaving an attested copy thereof with the clerk, treasurer or cashier of 11 the company, if there is any such officer, otherwise with any officer or person 12 having the custody of the books and papers of the corporation; and the prop-13 erty shall be considered as seized on attachment when the copy is left and shall 14 be sold under the execution issued in such attachment action in like manner 15 as goods and chattels. No assignment, transfer or pledge of any such shares 16 of stock made by the judgment debtor after an attested copy of the writ of 17 attachment is left with the clerk, treasurer, cashier or other officer of the com-18 pany as aforesaid, shall be of any validity as against such writ of attachment.

Sec. 226. WRIT OF REPLEVIN—HOW EXECUTED.] A writ of replevin, in addi-2 tion to being served upon the defendant in the manner hereinbefore provided,

3 shall be executed by the officer by seizing the personal property therein de-4 scribed and delivering the same to the plaintiff in the action, or to his agent.

Sec. 227. PROPERTY NOT DELIVERED—CITATION—ORDER FOR DELIVERY—FORMS.]

2 When it appears by the return of the officer that demand has been made upon 3 the defendant for the property described in the writ of replevin, but that such 4 property or any portion thereof has not been delivered by the defendant to 5 the officer or otherwise taken, the plaintiff, if he believe the property not so 6 delivered to have been in the possession or under the control of said defendant 7 at the time of such demand, may apply to the court for, and obtain, as a matter 8 of course, a citation to the defendant requiring him to appear before the court 9 at a time and place specified in such citation to be examined respecting such 10 property; and if it shall appear that such property is in the possession or un-11 der the control of the defendant, the court may make an order requiring the 12 defendant to forthwith deliver the same, or cause the same to be delivered, to 13 the officer to be received by the officer subject to the final judgment in the action 14 and may enforce compliance with such order by attachment of the defendant 15 and the punishment of the defendant as for a civil contempt of court or by 16 other appropriate process. Such citation may be served by any officer or person 17 authorized by this Act to serve a summons and such service may be made by 18 delivering to the defendant a copy of such citation, together with a copy of 19 the plaintiff's application, and informing the defendant of the contents of such 20 copy of the citation at least two (2) days prior to the day fixed therein for 21 the appearance of the defendant, which day shall be not less than three (3) 22 nor more than ten (10) days after the date thereof. The following forms of 23 application and citation under this section shall be deemed sufficient and shall 24 be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other applications and citations 25 may be properly framed:

That said sheriff returned said writ on the 17th day of February, 1908, with his return indorsed thereon showing that demand had been made upon the defendant for the property described in said writ of replevin, but that said black and white cow had not been delivered by the defendant to the sheriff or otherwise taken.

3. That plaintiff verily believes that said black and white cow was in the possession or under the control of said defendant at the time of the demand made upon the defendant by the sheriff as aforesaid.

12 the officer, or otherwise, deliver or cause to be delivered such property to any

 3 substantial compliance with the provisions of this act, the court may, on motion 4 of any party to the action or of its own motion, rule the party filing the same 5 to reform the same in such manner as to obviate all objections thereto and in 6 case of non-compliance with such rule may order the same to be taken off the 7 file or may make such other order in the action as justice may require.

Sec. 280. BILLS OF PARTICULARS—WHEN DEMANDABLE—PURPOSE AND NATURE
 2 OF.] Any party to an action at law shall be entitled to a bill of particulars of 3 the claim or claims, counterclaim or counterclaims, or defense or defenses 4 of the opposite party whenever, in the opinion of the court, such bill of particu-

8 First—APPLICATION TO BE ACCOMPANIED BY AFFIDAVIT.] Every application 9 for a bill of particulars shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the individual

30 Fourth—WHEN PURPOSE OF BILL OF PARTICULARS IS TO LIMIT PARTY'S EVIDENCE 31 OR COMPEL DISCLOSURE OF EVIDENCE.] No order for a bill of particulars shall be 6 in writing of a trial by jury. When, in any such action, the damages are assessed 7 by the court and the action is on a contract, express or implied, for the payment 8 of money, the court may receive, as sufficient evidence for that purpose, an affi-9 davit or affidavits, provided the same shall show the nature of the plaintiff's 10 demand and the amount due him from the defendant after allowing to the de-

11 fendant all his just credits, deductions and set-offs, and, in any such case in 12 which any such affidavit or affidavits have been filed, the court may assess such 13 damages of its own motion and without the necessity of application therefor by 14 the plaintiff, but damages shall not be assessed against any party whose ap-15 pearance has been entered, except upon notice in writing to such party or his 16 attorney served before four o'clock P. M., of the day preceding that on which 17 such damages are proposed to be assessed, or upon its being satisfactorily made 18 to appear to the court that the service of such notice has been impracticable: 19 Provided, however, that in actions of attachment in which the defendant has 20 been notified by publication only and has not entered his appearance, judgment 21 shall not be rendered against him for a greater sum than appears, by the affi-22 davit of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, to have been due at the time of ob-23 taining the attachment, with interest, damage and costs.

Sec. 285. SETTING ASIDE DEFAULTS.] The court may, in its discretion, either 2 before final judgment or within sixty days thereafter, set aside any default upon 3 such terms and conditions as shall be deemed reasonable. No motion to set 4 aside a default shall be overruled because of the negligence or want of diligence 5 of any attorney, if the party defaulted shall not appear to have been personally 6 guilty of negligence or want of diligence, and shall, if plaintiff, show by affi-7 davit or otherwise a good cause of action, or, if defendant, shall show a good 8 defense. But the court may, in case of the negligence of the attorney, require 9 such attorney to pay all the costs of the action down to the time such default is 10 vacated.

Sec. 286. TIME OF TAKING DEFAULTS, ETC., MAY BE REGULATED BY RULE.] The 2 time within which defaults may be taken or damages assessed, and the extent of 3 the notices to be given as hereinbefore provided may be extended or changed by 4 the court by special order in any action or by general rules.

Sec. 287. PAPERS TO BE INSPECTED BEFORE ENTRY OF DEFAULT.] It shall be

2 the duty of every judge before entering a default against any defendant or 3 garnishee to ascertain, or cause to be ascertained, from an inspection of the 4 necessary papers, or otherwise, that such defendant or garnishee has been duly 5 served with summons or otherwise duly notified of the pendency of the action 6 and that he is in default.

Sec. 288. DEFAULTS MAY BE ENTERED AND DAMAGES ASSESSED BY MASTER IN

2 CHANCERY—FORM.] It shall be competent for any master in chancery to enter a 3 default in any action pending in the court of which he is master, when the plain-4 tiff is entitled to such default for non-appearance of the defendant, and to hear 5 the evidence and assess the damages to which the plaintiff may be entitled, and 6 the master may receive as sufficient evidence the affidavit of the plaintiff's claim 7 in any action on a contract, express or implied, for the payment of money, and 8 upon the certificate of such default and assessment of damages, the court may 9 enter judgment in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant for the 10 amount of such assessment. Such certificate may be in substantially the follow-11 ing form:

12 IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

13 John Doe

14 Richard Roe. }

15 MASTER'S CERTIFICATE OF DEFAULT AND ASSESSMENT OF DAMAGES.

16 The undersigned, master in chancery, hereby certifies that the plaintiff in 17 the above entitled action is entitled to judgment by default against the defend-18 ant and that the plaintiff's damages should be assessed at five hundred dollars 19 ($500).

20 Chicago, Illinois, February 17, 1908.

21 GEORGE THOMAS,
22 Master in Chancery.

Sec. 289. DUTY OF MASTER TO ASSESS DAMAGES—NO COSTS ALLOWED—WHEN AT-

2 TENDANCE OF PLAINTIFF NOT NECESSARY.] It shall be the duty of every master in 3 chancery to assess the damages in every case of default specified in the preced-4 ing section when applied to for that purpose, but no costs shall be payable there-5 for, and such damages may be assessed by the master without requiring the at-6 tendance of the plaintiff, or his attorney, for that purpose whenever, by the 7 terms of this act, an affidavit of claim may be received as competent evidence 8 of such damages.

4 First—WHEN JUDGE IS PARTY OR DISQUALIFIED, ETC.] When the judge is a 5 party to or interested in the action or his testimony is material to either of 6 the parties to the action, or he is related to or shall have been counsel for 7 either party in regard to the matter in controversy. In any such case a change 8 may be awarded by the court with or without the application of either party.

9 Second—PREJUDICE OF JUDGE OR INHABITANTS OF COUNTY.] When either 10 party shall fear that he will not receive a fair trial in the court in which the 11 action is pending because the inhabitants of the county are, or the judge is, pre-12 judiced against him, or the adverse party has an undue influence over the minds 13 of the inhabitants. In any such case the venue shall not be changed except 14 upon application as hereinafter provided, or by consent of the parties.

15 Third—WHEN CONDITION OF BUSINESS PREVENTS TRIAL IN SIX MONTHS.] 16 When, on account of the amount of business for disposition in the court in which 17 the action is pending, a trial or hearing thereof cannot, in the opinion of the 19 or proceeding. In any such case the change of venue may be granted upon 20 the motion of either party and the order of the court granting the same shall 21 be final and conclusive,

22 Fourth—WHEN CONVENIENCE REQUIRES.] Whenever, in the opinion of the 23 court, taking into account all the circumstances of the case, the action can be 24 tried and disposed of with greater convenience and justice to the parties, the 25 witnesses and the other persons engaged therein, than in the court in which 26 such action is pending. In such case the change of venue may be granted on mo-27 tion of either party and the order of the court granting the same shall be final 28 and conclusive.

Sec. 297. TO WHAT COURT GRANTED—COURT OF SEVERAL JUDGES.] When such 2 change of venue is granted it may be to some other court of record of compe-3 tent jurisdiction in the same county, or in some other convenient county to 4 which there is no valid objection: Provided, that when the action is pending

5 in a court of which there are several judges and the only causes for a change 6 of venue apply to one or more but not to all of the judges of such court, the 7 action may be tried before some one of the judges of such court to whom the 8 causes do not apply, and in such case the application for the change of venue 9 shall not be permitted to operate to delay the trial of the action, but the same 10 shall be tried as speedily as if no change of venue had been applied for; and pro- 11 vided, further, that when a change of venue is granted because, on account of the 12 amount of business for disposition in the court in which the action is pending, 13 a trial or hearing thereof cannot, in the opinion of the court, be had therein 14 within six months after the commencement of such action, it shall only 15 be granted to some court of competent jurisdiction in the same county. Any 16 court shall be deemed a court of competent jurisdiction within the meaning of 17 this Act which is authorized by law to try and dispose of causes transferred 18 to it by changes of venue.

Sec. 298. APPLICATION TO BE MADE BY PETITION.] Every application for 2 such change of venue on account of the prejudice of the judge, or of the inhab-3 itants of the county in which the action is pending, shall be by petition, setting 4 forth the cause of the application and praying a change of venue, which peti-5 tion shall be verified by the affidavit of the applicant: Provided, however, 6 that when all the parties to the action stipulate that a change of venue be 7 granted no petition or specification of the cause of the application shall be 8 necessary.

Sec. 299. REQUISITES OF PETITION WHERE CAUSE IS PREJUDICE OF INHABIT-2 ANTS—SUPPORTING AFFIDAVITS—CONTROVERTING PETITION.] If the cause for the 3 change of venue is the prejudice of the inhabitants of the county or the undue 4 influence of the adverse party over their minds, the petition shall set forth the 5 facts upon which the petitioner founds his belief, and shall be supported by the 6 affidavits of at least two other reputable persons resident of the county. The 7 adverse party may controvert the petition by counter affidavits and the court 8 may grant or deny the petition as shall appear to be according to the right of 9 the case.

Sec. 300. TO WHAT COURT APPLICATION MADE—NOTICE.] The application
 2 shall be made to the court in which the action is pending, reasonable notice 3 thereof having been given to the adverse party or his attorney.

Sec. 301. NOTICE WHEN APPLICATION MADE AFTER THIRTY DAYS.] No appli-2 tion for a change of venue, when the cause is the prejudice of the judge or of 3 the inhabitants of the county in which the action is pending, shall be allowed 4 upon an application made after the lapse of thirty (30) days from the com-5 mencement of the action, unless the party applying shall have given to the 6 opposite party ten (10) days' previous notice of his intention to make such 7 application, except where the causes have arisen or come to the knowledge of 8 the applicant within less than ten (10) days before the making of the 9 application.

Sec. 302. WHEN APPLICATION NOT GRANTED AFTER LAPSE OF THIRTY DAYS.]
 2 No change of venue, when the cause is the prejudice of the judge or of the 3 inhabitants of the county in which the action or proceeding is pending, shall be 4 granted upon an application after the lapse of thirty (30) days from the com-5 mencement of the action, unless the party making the application shall show 6 that the causes for which the change is asked have arisen or come to his knowl-7 edge since the lapse of said thirty (30) days.

Sec. 303. ONLY ONE CHANGE OF VENUE TO EACH PARTY.] Neither party shall 2 have more than one change of venue.

Sec. 304. CONSENT OF CO-PLAINTIFFS OR CO-DEFENDANTS REQUIRED WHEN—2 EXCEPTION IN CONDEMNATION PROCEEDINGS.] When there are two or more plain-

3 tiffs or defendants, a change of venue shall not be granted unless the applica-4 tion is made by or with the consent of all the parties plaintiff or defendant, as 5 the case may be: Provided, that in an action of eminent domain, when the ap-6 plication is by or against all the owners of any parcel of property to be con-7 demned, a change of venue may be made of so much of the action as affects 8 them, if it can be done without prejudice to the other defendants or plaintiffs 9 in such action.

Sec. 305. EQUITABLE TERMS AND CONDITIONS.] The order for a change of 2 venue may be made subject to such equitable terms and conditions as safety 3 to the rights of the parties may seem to require and the court in its discre-4 tion may prescribe.

Sec. 306. CLERK TO TRANSMIT RECORD—HOW RECORD MADE UP.] In every 2 such case of change of venue the clerk of the court from which the change is 3 granted shall, as soon as may be practicable, prepare and transmit to the clerk

 5 tion, which shall consist of the following:

6 First—ORIGINAL PAPERS—EXCEPTION.] All original papers filed in the action 7 certified to by the clerk as such original papers: Provided, however, that when 8 a change of venue is granted in an action of eminent domain on behalf of a 9 part of the defendants, in lieu of transmitting the original papers certified to 10 as aforesaid, the clerk shall transmit certified copies of such of the original 11 papers as pertain to that portion of the action with respect to which the venue 12 is changed.

13 Second—ENTRIES IN REGISTER AND MINUTE BOOK.] An attested copy of the 14 entries pertaining to the action in the register and minute book.

15 Third—ORDERS ENTERED IN FULL.] All orders in the action entered in full 16 upon the record duly certified.

Sec. 307. CLERK TO FILE RECORD—ACTION TO PROCEED.] The clerk of the court

2 to which the change of venue is granted shall file the record transmitted to him 3 and docket the action, and such action shall be proceeded with and determined 4 in all things, as well before as after judgment, as if it were one of which such 5 court had original jurisdiction.

Sec. 308. WHEN GRANTED IN CRIMINAL ACTION.] A change of venue in any

2 criminal action may be had in any one of the following cases:

3 First—PREJUDICE OF JUDGE OR INHABITANTS.] When any defendant in any 4 indictment or information in any court of this State shall fear that he will 5 not receive a fair and impartial trial in the court in which the action is pend-6 ing because the judge of the court is, or the inhabitants of the county in which 7 the action is pending are, prejudiced against him; in which case the court shall 8 award a change of venue upon the application of the defendant as hereinafter 9 provided.

10 Second—TO SECURE SPEEDY TRIAL.] Whenever, in the opinion of the court, 11 the speedy trial and disposition of the action will be promoted by the granting 12 of such change of venue. In such case the change of venue may be ordered by 13 the court either upon its own motion or upon the application of the defendant 14 or of the State's attorney.

Sec. 309. TO WHAT COURT GRANTED—COURT OF SEVERAL JUDGES—WHEN TO

2 COURT OF SAME COUNTY.] When a change of venue is granted it may be to some 3 other court of record of competent jurisdiction in the same county or in some 4 other convenient county to which there is no valid objection: Provided, that 5 when the action is pending in a court of which there are several judges and 6 the cause for the change applies only to a judge of said court holding the court 7 at the time of trial, the action may be tried by any other of the judges of said 8 court to whom the cause alleged does not apply; and provided, further, that 9 when a change of venue is granted because, in the opinion of the court, the 10 speedy trial and disposition of the action will be promoted thereby, it shall only 11 be granted to some court of competent jurisdiction in the same county. Any 12 court shall be deemed a court of competent jurisdiction within the meaning of 13 this Act which is authorized by law to try and to dispose of cases transferred 14 to it by changes of venue, but no such change of venue shall be granted to 15 any city court or municipal court, unless it shall appear from the indictment 16 or information that the offense with which the defendant is charged was com-17 mitted within the city in and for which such city court or municipal court is 18 established.

Sec. 310. APPLICATION TO BE MADE BY PETITION.] Every application for a 2 change of venue made on account of the prejudice of the judge, or on account 3 of the prejudice of the inhabitants of the county, shall be by petition setting 4 forth the cause of the application and praying for a change of venue, which 5 petition shall be verified by the affidavit of the defendant. In all other cases 6 the application shall be made by motion, either of the State's attorney or of 7 the defendants, and the order of the court granting such change shall be final 8 and conclusive.

Sec. 311. WHEN AFFIDAVITS TO ACCOMPANY PETITION—WHEN VENUE NOT 2 TO BE CHANGED FROM COUNTY.] When the cause for a change of venue is the 3 prejudice of the judge, or any two or more of them, the petition shall be ac-4 companied by the affidavits of at least two reputable persons, residents of the 5 county and not of kin or counsel to the applicant, stating that they believe 6 the judge, or any two or more of them, as the case may be, are so prejudiced 7 against the applicant that he cannot have a fair and impartial trial, and there-8 upon the action may be tried by any other of the judges of the court in which the 9 same is pending and the venue shall not be changed from the county in which 10 the indictment is found in such case.

Sec. 312. REQUISITES OF PETITION WHEN CAUSE IS PREJUDICE OF INHABITANTS.]

2 When the cause for the change of venue is the prejudice of the inhabitants of 3 the county against the defendant, his petition shall set forth the facts on which 4 he founds his belief and the attorney on behalf of the people may deny the 5 facts stated in the petition and support his denial by counter affidavits; and 6 the court may grant or deny the petition as shall appear to be according to the 7 right of the case.

Sec. 313. TO WHAT COURT APPLICATION TO BE MADE—NOTICE.] The applica-

2 tion shall be made to the court in which the action is pending after reasonable 3 notice of the application has been given to the State's attorney.

Sec. 314. NOTICE WHEN APPLICATION MADE AFTER THIRTY DAYS.] No appli-

2 cation for a change of venue made after the lapse of thirty (30) days from the 3 returning of the indictment or the filing of the information shall be allowed 4 when made on account of the prejudice of the judge or on account of the pre-5 judice of the inhabitants, unless the applicant shall have given to the State's 6 attorney at least ten (10) days' previous notice of his intention to make such 7 application, except where the cause has arisen or come to the knowledge of the 8 applicant within less than ten (10) days before the making of the application.

Sec. 315. WHEN APPLICATION NOT GRANTED AFTER LAPSE OF THIRTY DAYS.]

2 No change of venue on account of the prejudice of the judge or on account of 3 the prejudice of the inhabitants of the county shall be granted after the lapse 4 of thirty (30) days after the returning of the indictment or the filing of the 5 information, unless the applicant shall show that the causes for which 6 a change of venue is asked have arisen or come to his knowledge since the 7 lapse of such thirty (30) days.

Sec. 316. ONLY ONE CHANGE TO SAME DEFENDANT.] No more than one change

2 of venue shall be granted to the same defendant.

Sec. 317. CLERK TO TRANSMIT RECORD—HOW RECORD MADE UP.] In every case

2 of change of venue in a criminal action the clerk of the court from which the 3 change is granted shall, as soon as may be practicable, prepare and transmit to 4 the clerk of the court to which the change is granted the record of the action, 5 which record shall consist of the following:

6 First—ORIGINAL PAPERS.] All original papers filed in the action duly cer-

 23 real estate may be commenced at any time during the existence of the adverse 24 claims to or clouds upon such title.

25 Sixth—OTHER ACTION.] Every other action shall be commenced within five 26 years after the cause of action accrues, excepting that an action to obtain relief

 28 any time within five years after the discovery by the plaintiff of such fraud or 29 mistake, and that an action to enforce a constructive trust or resulting trust 30 may be commenced at any time within five years after actual knowledge by the 31 plaintiff of the facts constituting the constructive trust or resulting trust.

Sec. 344. SET-OFF OR COUNTER-CLAIM MAY BE ASSERTED THOUGH BARRED.] A 2 defendant may assert a set-off or counter-claim barred by the statute of limita-3 tions while held and owned by him to any action, the cause of which was owned 4 by the plaintiff or person under whom he claims before such set-off or counter-5 claim was so barred and not otherwise: Provided, that this section shall not 6 affect the rights of a bona fide assignee of a negotiable instrument assigned 7 before due.

Sec. 345. ABSENCE FROM STATE DEDUCTED—EXCEPTIONS.] If, when the cause
 2 of action accrues against a person, he is out of the State, the action may be com-

3 menced within the time herein limited after his coming into or return to the 4 State; and if, after the cause of action accrues, he departs from and resides 5 out of the State, the time of his absence is no part of the time limited for 6 the commencement of the action. But the foregoing provision of this section 7 shall not apply to any case where, at the time the cause of action accrued or 8 shall accrue, neither the party against nor in favor of whom the same accrued 9 or shall accrue were or are residents of this State.

Sec. 346. EXTENSION OF TIME IN CASE OF DEATH OR INSANITY.] If a person 2 entitled to bring an action die or become insane before the expiration of the 2 entitled to bring an action mentioned in either of the nine preceding sections 3 is, at the time the cause of action accrues, within the age of twenty-one years, 4 or within the age of eighteen years, if a female, or is insane or imprisoned on 5 a criminal charge, he or she may bring the action within two years after the 6 disability is removed.

Sec. 349. FRAUDULENT CONCEALMENT OF CAUSE OF ACTION.] If a person liable 2 to an action fraudulently conceals the cause of action from the knowledge of the 3 person entitled thereto, or if the facts constituting the cause of action, at the 4 time it arises, be unknown to the person entitled to such action, the time of such 3 fraudulent concealment or ignorance of the facts constituting the cause of 6 action shall not be part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

Sec. 350. WHEN ACTION STAYED TIME DOES NOT RUN.] When the commence-2 ment of an action is stayed by injunction, order of a judge or court, or statutory 3 prohibition, the time of the continuance of the injunction or prohibition is not 4 part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

Sec. 351. FURTHER TIME GIVEN IN CASE OF REVERSAL, ETC.] If, in any action 2 at law, judgment be given for the plaintiff and the same be reversed upon 3 writ of error or appeal, or if a verdict pass for the plaintiff and judgment be 4 given against him, or if any action at law or in equity shall be dismissed for 5 want of prosecution, then, if the time limited for bringing such action, shall 6 have expired during the pendency thereof, the plaintiff or his heirs, executors 7 or administrators, as the case may be, may commence a new action within one 8 year after such judgment reversed or given against the plaintiff, or after the 9 dismissal of the action for want of prosecution, as the case may be, and not 10 after.

Sec. 352. AMENDMENT NOT BARRED BY LAPSE OF TIME WHEN.] Whenever an 2 action at law or in equity shall have been commenced within the period fixed 3 by this Act therefor the same shall not be defeated by reason of any amend-4 ment of any kind or character made in any paper or pleading filed in such ac-5 tion after the lapse of the period fixed by this Act for the commencement of 6 such action, provided it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that such 7 amendment is made in good faith and for the purpose of enabling the plaintiff 8 to maintain his action for the claim for which it was intended to be brought, and 9 that the application of the statute of limitations to such amendment would 10 work a manifest denial of justice.

Sec. 353. DELAY LESS THAN LIMITATION PERIOD NOT TO BAR ACTION IN EQUITY.]

2 No action in equity shall be dismissed on account of any delay in the bringing 3 of the same less than the period hereinbefore fixed for the bringing of such ac-

2 which the party charged was not usually and publicly resident within this State 3 shall be included within the time of limitation.

Sec. 360. WHEN TIME OF PENDENCY OF PRIOR INDICTMENT, ETC., NOT RECK-2 ONED.] When an indictment, information, complaint or action is quashed or the 3 proceedings on such indictment, information, complaint, or action are set aside 4 or reversed on writ of error, the time during the pendency of such indictment, 5 information, complaint or action so quashed, set aside or reversed, shall not 6 be reckoned within the time limited by this Act so as to bar any new indict-7 ment, information, complaint or action for the same offense.

Sec. 361. WHEN PROSECUTION DEEMED INSTITUTED.] A prosecution shall be 2 deemed instituted within the meaning of this Act upon the filing in a court of 3 competent jurisdiction of a complaint under oath charging the defendant with 4 the offense for which such prosecution is instituted, or upon the filing in a court 5 of competent jurisdiction of an information as provided for in this Act charg-6 ing him with the offense for which such prosecution is instituted.

 13 tract and shall serve a copy of such affidavit upon the adverse party.

Sec. 373. PARTY TO PERMIT INSPECTION OF ORIGINAL CONTRACT WHEN—PEN-2 ALTY FOR REFUSAL.] A plaintiff or a defendant in an action at law brought for 3 the recovery of money and having in his possession or under his control the 4 original of any contract upon which his action or defense is founded, shall per-

 8 that such inspection was wrongfully and vexatiously refused, may require the 9 party so refusing to pay the opposite party the sum of five dollars ($5) as the 10 costs of making the application aforesaid and may enforce such payment by 11 attachment.

Sec. 374. INTERROGATORIES TO BE ANSWERED BY ADVERSE PARTY, ETC., BEFORE 2 TRIAL—PROCEDURE.] Before the trial or final hearing of any action at law or in 3 equity, other than a criminal or quasi criminal action, interrogatories may be 4 filed to be answered by any party to such action or any person for whose im-5 mediate benefit the same is prosecuted or defended, or by the directors, officers, 6 superintendents or managing agents of any corporation which is a party to the 7 record in such action, at the instance of the adverse party, or, in case there be 8 more than one adverse party, at the instance of any one or more of them, in 9 the manner and under the circumstances and conditions hereinafter provided.

Sec. 375. AFFIDAVIT OF CAUSE OF ACTION OR DEFENSE.] No such interroga-2 tories shall be filed or required to be answered by the party proposed to be

3 interrogated, or by the directors, officers, superintendents or managing agents 4 of any corporation which is a party unless the same, if filed by the plaintiff 5 or one of the plaintiffs, are accompanied by an affidavit of such plaintiff, or of 6 his attorney or agent, upon information and belief, showing that such plaintiff 7 has a good cause of action and setting forth the facts constituting such cause 8 of action, or, if filed by the defendant or one of the defendants, unless the same 9 are accompanied by an affidavit of such defendant, or of his attorney or agent, 10 upon information and belief, showing that he has a good defense to such action,

 16 devisee, no such affidavit shall be necessary if the party so suing or defending 17 shall, under oath, say that he has no personal knowledge respecting the facts 18 in such case, or some portion thereof, specifying the portion, and that the 19 answering of such interrogatories is necessary to enable such party to proper-20 ly prosecute or defend the action. In an action in equity the affidavit provided 21 for in this section need not be filed by the plaintiff when the bill of complaint 22 sets forth a good cause of action and is verified by an affidavit upon informa-23 tion and belief, nor by the defendant when the answer sets forth a good de-24 fense and is verified by an affidavit upon information and belief.

Sec. 376. WHEN INTERROGATORIES TO BE FILED AS MATTER OF COURSE.] Any 2 party to such action shall, before the trial or final hearing thereof, be permit-3 ted, as a matter of course and without leave of court, upon complying with 4 the provisions of the preceding section, to file such number of interrogatories, 5 not exceeding twelve, as he may deem necessary, to be answered by any ad-6 verse party to the action, or person for whose immediate benefit such action 7 is prosecuted or defended, or by the directors, officers, superintendents or 8 managing agents of any corporation which is an adverse party to the record 9 in such action. The court may also, in its discretion, upon like compliance 10 with the provisions of said section permit any party to file such number of 11 interrogatories exceeding twelve and not exceeding twenty-five in an action at 12 law, or fifty in an action in equity, as the court may deem necessary to enable 13 the party proposing to file the same to properly prosecute or defend the action; 14 but leave to file such number of interrogatories exceeding twelve and not ex-15 ceeding twenty-five or fifty, as the case may be, shall in no case be granted un-16 less the party asking leave shall have served a notice in writing of his applica-17 tion for such leave, together with a copy of the interrogatories proposed to be 18 filed and a copy of the affidavit provided for in the preceding section, before 19 twelve o'clock noon of the day preceding such application, upon the party 20 proposed to be interrogated or upon the party whose directors, officers, super-21 intendents or managing agents are proposed to be interrogated.

Sec. 377. FORM OF INTERROGATORIES.] The first two interrogatories filed 2 in any action shall be as follows:

- 3 1. What is your name, age, occupation and place of residence?
- 4 2. Are you one of the parties to this action or person for whose immedi-
 5 ate benefit such action is prosecuted or defended? If so, are you a party 6 plaintiff, or a party defendant, or a person for whose immediate benefit such 7 action is prosecuted or defended? (If the person proposed to be interrogated 8 is not a party to the action, or a person for whose immediate benefit such ac-9 tion is prosecuted or defended, such second question shall be as follows: Are 10 you a director, officer, superintendent or managing agent of one of the parties 11 to this action and, if so, of which party and what office or position do you hold 12 with respect to such party and how long have you held such office or position?)

13 Interrogatories after the first and second shall be directed to and for the 14 sole purpose of ascertaining the ultimate facts involved in such action and 15 such evidentiary facts as may be directly pertinent to such ultimate facts, and 16 which will be relied upon either by the plaintiff to establish his cause of action 17 or by the defendant to establish his defense, and shall not be directed to or for 18 the purpose of ascertaining the evidence, or the names or places of residence of 19 the witnesses, which or who may be relied upon by the party interrogated to 20 establish his cause of action or defense. No interrogatories shall be filed other 21 than such as the party or person proposed to be interrogated might be required 22 to answer if called as a witness upon the trial or hearing of such action, nor shall 23 any interrogatory be so framed as, in the opinion of the court, to require an 24 answer of unusual length or impose upon the party interrogated unreasonable 25 labor.

Sec. 378. COPIES OF INTERROGATORIES TO BE ATTACHED TO COPY OF SUMMONS.]

2 If the plaintiff shall, at the time of commencing his action, file interroga-3 tories as above provided for, he shall prepare a copy thereof for each party 4 proposed to be interrogated, or whose directors, officers, superintendents or 5 managing agents are proposed to be interrogated, and shall also file the affi-6 davit hereinbefore provided for and prepare a copy of such affidavit for each 7 party proposed to be interrogated, or whose directors, officers, superintendents 8 or managing agents are proposed to be interrogated, and one copy of such inter-9 rogatories and one copy of such affidavit shall be attached to the copy of the 10 summons to be served upon such party or corporation and such copies shall 11 thereupon be served with such copy of the summons upon such defendant by the 12 officer or other person by whom such summons is served: Provided, however, that 13 no such affidavit need be filed nor any copy thereof served when the bill of 14 complaint or the answer of the defendant, as the case may be, in an action in 15 equity is verified by affidavit as hereinbefore provided.

Sec. 379. NOTICE AND COPY OF INTERROGATORIES TO BE SERVED.] A party

2 filing interrogatories without leave of court at any time after the commence-

3 ment of the action shall give notice thereof, accompanied by a copy of such 4 interrogatories and a copy of the affidavit hereinbefore provided for, to the 5 adverse party proposed to be interrogated, or whose directors, officers, super-6 intendents or managing agents are proposed to be interrogated: Provided, 7 however, that no such copy of an affidavit need be served in an action in equity 8 in which the bill of complaint or answer, as the case may be, shall have been 9 verified by affidavit as hereinbefore provided.

Sec. 380. INTERROGATORIES MAY BE SUPPRESSED WHEN.] Upon the filing of 2 any interrogatories the court may, upon the application of the party or person 3 proposed to be interrogated, or upon the application of the corporation whose 4 directors, officers, superintendents or managing agents are proposed to be inter-5 rogated, and upon reasonable notice in writing to the party filing such inter-6 rogatories, suppress the same or any one or more of them when, in the opinion 7 of the court, any such interrogatory or interrogatories is or are improper.

Sec. 381. ANSWERS TO BE UNDER OATH—NOT TO BE CONCLUSIVE.] Interroga-2 tories filed in accordance with the preceding provisions of this section and not 3 suppressed as hereinbefore provided shall be answered under oath by the party 4 or person to whom the same are directed, and shall be competent evidence 5 upon the trial or hearing of the action as against the party interrogated, or as 6 against the corporation whose directors, officers, superintendents, or managing 7 agents, or one of them, are or is interrogated, but the party filing such inter-8 rogatories shall not be concluded by the answers thereto if he shall elect to in-9 troduce the same or any or either of them upon the trial or final hearing of the 10 action, nor shall any corporation which is a party be concluded by the answers 11 to interrogatories given by any director, officer, superintendent or managing 12 agents of such corporation, but any answer so given may be contradicted by 13 such corporation by any competent evidence.

Sec. 382. WHEN ANSWERS TO BE FILED.] Answers to the interrogatories 2 hereinbefore provided for shall be filed within five days after the service of the 3 same upon the party proposed to be interrogated or upon the party whose di-4 rectors, officers, superintendents or managing agents are proposed to be 5 interrogated, when the same are filed without leave of court, or within five 6 days after the entry of the order granting leave to file the same, if they are 7 filed by virtue of such order of court, unless the court, by general rule or other-8 wise, shall extend the time for the filing of the same: Provided, however, that 9 such answers need not be filed in any case until the expiration of the time 10 within which the defendant is required to file his specification of defense or 11 defenses.

Sec. 383. INTERROGATORIES TO BE ANSWERED FULLY, ETC.—PROCEDURE.] Inter-2 rogatories filed as hereinbefore provided for shall be answered fully, com-3 pletely and without evasion by the party, or by the directors, officers, superin-4 tendents or managing agents of the party, to whom they are directed. The 5 court, upon notice in writing to the party having answered the interrogatories 6 or to the party whose directors, officers, superintendents or managing agents, 7 or any one or more of them, have answered the interrogatories, may, if, in the 8 opinion of the court, any person so interrogated shall not have answered any 9 interrogatory or interrogatories thus propounded to him fully, completely and 10 without evasion, or if such person shall have failed to make any answer to any 11 one or more of such interrogatories, require such person to appear in open 12 court, or before some officer designated by the court, and there answer all such 13 interrogatories as such person might be required to answer if called as a wit-14 ness upon the hearing of such action, or as the court may deem necessary or 15 proper for the due administration of justice in such action.

Sec. 384. ADDITIONAL INTERROGATORIES.] Leave may be given to either 2 party to file additional interrogatories when interrogatories previously filed

3 have been answered, if, in the opinion of the court, the answering of such ad-4 ditional interrogatories will tend to promote justice: Provided, however, that 5 no more than twenty-five interrogatories in all in an action at law, or fifty in-6 terrogatories in all in an action in equity, shall be allowed to be propounded 7 to any one person.

Sec. 385. COPIES OF ANSWERS TO BE SERVED.] Whenever answers to inter-2 rogatories have been filed the party filing the same shall, within twenty-four 3 hours thereafter, serve a copy thereof upon the adverse party filing such in-4 terrogatories, or his attorney, together with a notice in writing of the filing of 5 such answers.

Sec. 386. INTERROGATORIES TO DIRECTORS, ETC.—HOW ANSWERED.] When in-2 terrogatories are filed to be answered by the directors, officers, superintendents 3 or managing agents of a corporation which is a party to the record, it shall 4 not be necessary for all of such directors, officers, superintendents or manag-5 ing agents, in the first instance, to answer the same, but it shall be the duty 6 of such corporation to cause suitable investigation to be made concerning the 7 facts as to which inquiry is made by such interrogatories, and to cause such 8 interrogatories to be answered by such of its directors, officers, superintend-9 ents or managing agents, if any, as may appear to have sufficient knowledge 10 as to such facts to properly answer such interrogatories.

Sec. 387. PROCEDURE WHEN INTERROGATORIES NOT ANSWERED FULLY.] When-

2 action or proceeding by or against any surviving partner or partners, joint 3 contractor, or joint contractors, no adverse party or person adversely in-4 terested in the event thereof shall, by virtue of the preceding sections, be 5 rendered a competent witness to testify to any admission or conversation by 6 any deceased partner or joint contractor, unless some one or more of the sur-7 viving partners or joint contractors were also present at the time of such 8 admission or conversation, and in every action or proceeding a party to the 9 same who has contracted with an agent of the adverse party—the agent hav-10 ing since died—shall not be a competent witness as to any admission or con-11 versation between himself and such agent, unless such admission or conversa-12 tion with the said deceased agent was had or made in the presence of a 13 surviving agent or agents of such adverse party, and then only except where 14 the conditions are such that under the provisions of the preceding and subse-15 quent sections of this Act he would have been permitted to testify, if the de-16 ceased person had been a principal and not an agent.

Sec. 411. RULE AS TO HUSBAND OR WIFE.] No husband or wife shall, by vir-

2 tue of either of the preceding sections of this Act, be rendered competent to 3 testify for or against the other as to any transaction or conversation occur-4 ring during the marriage, whether called as a witness during the existence of 5 the marriage or after its dissolution, except in cases where the wife would, if 6 unmarried, be plaintiff or defendant, or where the cause of action grows out 7 of a personal wrong or injury done by one to the other, or grows out of the 8 neglect of the husband to furnish the wife with a suitable support; and ex-9 cept in actions where the litigation shall be concerning the separate property 10 of the wife, and actions for divorce; and except also in actions upon policies 11 of insurance of property, so far as relates to the amount and value of the 12 property alleged to be injured or destroyed, or in actions against carriers, so

13 far as relates to the loss of property and the amount and value thereof, or 14 in all matters of business transactions where the transaction was had and 15 conducted by such married woman as the agent of her husband, in all of 16 which cases the husband and wife may testify for or against each other in 17 the same manner as other parties may, under the provisions of this Act: 18 Provided, that nothing in this section contained shall be construed to author-19 ize or permit any such husband or wife to testify to any admission or conver-20 sation with the other, whether made by him to her or by her to him, or by either 21 to third persons, except in actions or proceedings between such husband and 22 wife.

Sec. 412. CONFESSION TO CLERGYMAN NOT TO BE DISCLOSED—WHEN.] A cler-2 gyman or other minister of any religion shall not be allowed to disclose a con-3 fession made to him, in his professional character, in the course of discipline, 4 enjoined by the rules or practice of the religious body to which he belongs.

Sec. 413. INFORMATION ACQUIRED BY PHYSICIAN NOT TO BE DISCLOSED—WHEN.]
 2 A person duly authorized to practice physic or surgery shall not be allowed 3 to disclose any information which he acquired in attending a patient in a 4 professional capacity and which was necessary to enable him to act in that 5 capacity.

Sec. 414. COMMUNICATION OF CLIENT TO ATTORNEY NOT TO BE DISCLOSED WHEN 2 —ATTORNEY'S CLERK, ETC., NOT ALLOWED TO DISCLOSE COMMUNICATION.] An attor-3 ney at law shall not be allowed to disclose a communication made by his client 4 to him or his advice given thereon in the course of his professional employ-5 ment, nor shall any clerk, stenographer or other person employed by such 6 attorney at law be allowed to disclose any such communication or advice given 7 thereon.

Sec. 415. EXCEPTIONS TO LAST THREE SECTIONS—WAIVER OF PROVISIONS.] The

2 last three sections shall apply to any examination of a person as a witness, 3 unless the provisions thereof are expressly waived upon the trial or exam-4 ination by the person confessing, the patient or the client; but a physician or 5 surgeon may, upon a trial or examination, disclose any information as to the 6 mental or physical condition of a patient who is deceased which he acquired 7 in attending such patient professionally, except confidential communications 8 and such facts as would tend to disgrace the memory of the patient, when 9 the provision hereinbefore contained prohibiting the disclosure of such infor-10 mation has been expressly waived on such trial or examination by the per-11 sonal representatives of the deceased patient, or, if the validity of the last will 12 and testament of such deceased patient is in question, by the executor or exe-13 cutors named in such will, or the surviving heirs, widow or any heir at law 14 or any of the next of kin of such deceased person, or any other party in in-15 terest; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to disqualify an attor-16 ney in the probate of a will heretofore executed or offered for probate, or here-17 after to be executed or offered for probate, from becoming a witness as to 18 its preparation and execution in case such attorney is one of the subscribing 19 witnesses thereto.

Sec. 416. BOOK ACCOUNTS.] When, in any civil action or proceeding, the 2 claim or defense is founded on a book account any party or interested per-3 son may testify to his account book, and the items therein contained; that the 4 same is a book of original entries and that the entries therein were made by 5 himself and are true and just; or that the same were made by a deceased 6 person, or by a disinterested person and non-resident of the State at the time 7 of the trial and were made by such deceased person or non-resident person in 8 the usual course of trade and of his duty to or employment by the party so 9 testifying; and thereupon the said account book and entries shall be admitted 10 as evidence in the action.

Sec. 417. ADVERSE PARTY, DIRECTORS, ETC., EXAMINED AS IF UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION—WHEN RE-EXAMINATION ALLOWED.] Any party to any civil action or proceeding may compel any adverse party or person for whose benefit such action or proceeding is brought, or the directors, officers, superintendents or managing agents of any corporation which is an adverse party to the record in such action, to testify as a witness or witnesses at the trial or hearing of such action, or by depositions taken as other depositions are by law required to be taken, as if under cross-examination, and for that purpose such adverse party or the directors, officers, superintendents or managing agents of a corporation which is an adverse party to the record, may be compelled, in the same manner and subject to the same rules for examination as any other witness, to testify; but the party calling for such examination shall not be concluded thereby but may rebut the testimony thus given by counter-testimony. In case such cross-examination is had by the taking of a deposition, such adverse party may, as a part of the same deposition, be re-examined in his own behalf, or such directors, officers, superintendents or managing agents may be re-examined in behalf of the corporation of whom they are such directors, officers, superintendents or managing agents. In case such cross-examination is had in open court no such re-examination shall be allowed, but such adverse party may thereafter be called as a witness in his own behalf or such directors, officers, superintendents or managing agents may be called and examined as witnesses in behalf of such corporation.

Sec. 418. CALLING OF WITNESS NOT TO GIVE CREDIT—HOW CREDIT OF WITNESS DETERMINED—CROSS-EXAMINATION NOT TO BE LIMITED—LEADING QUESTIONS—ANSWERS NOT RESPONSIVE.] No party calling or examining any witness upon the trial or hearing, or at the taking of a deposition to be read in evidence upon the trial or hearing, of any action or proceeding at law or in equity, shall be held to give credit to, or be in any manner bound by, the testimony of such witness to any greater extent than if such witness had been called or examined by the

8 adverse party; but the testimony given by every witness called or examined 9 as aforesaid shall be given such credit and such credit only as the court, if 10 the case be tried by the court without a jury, or the jury, if the case be tried 11 by jury, shall, under all the circumstances disclosed by the evidence, deem 12 such testimony justly entitled to. When any party shall call and examine any 13 witness the opposite party shall be at liberty, during the cross-examination, to 14 examine such witness upon all matters bearing upon the issues between the 15 parties, regardless of whether the witness shall have testified regarding such 16 matters upon his direct examination. The right of any party to propound lead-17 ing questions to any witness shall not be dependent upon which party shall 18 have first called upon the witness to testify, but shall be determined by the 19 presiding judge, if such witness testifies in open court, from the appearance 20 of the witness upon the witness stand, his manner of testifying and all the 21 circumstances disclosed by the evidence, or, if such testimony is given by depo-22 sition, it shall be determined by the presiding judge from the deposition itself.
 23 No testimony given by any witness, when such testimony is competent evi-24 dence under the issues in the action in which the same is given, shall be re-25 jected, stricken out or deemed incompetent because of the answer or answers 26 of such witness not being responsive to the question or questions propounded 27 to him, unless the same is objected to by the party propounding such question 28 or questions.

Sec. 419. INCOMPETENT WITNESS NOT MADE COMPETENT BY RELEASE, ETC.] In 2 any civil action, or proceeding, no person who would, if a party thereto, be 3 incompetent to testify therein under the provisions of the preceding sections, 4 or any of them, shall become competent by reason of any assignment or release 5 of his claim, made for the purpose of allowing such person to testify.

Sec. 420. ACT NOT TO AFFECT SETTLEMENT OF ESTATES, ETC.] Nothing in this 2 Act contained shall in any manner affect the laws now existing relating to the 3 settlement of the estates of deceased persons, infants, idiots, lunatics, dis-4 tracted persons or habitual drunkards having conservators, or to the acknowl-5 edgment or proof of deeds and other conveyances relating to real estate, in 6 order to entitle the same to be recorded, or to the attestation of the execution 7 of last wills and testaments, or of any other instrument required by law to 8 be attested.

Sec. 421. PRODUCTION OF BOOKS AND WRITINGS.] The several courts shall 2 have power, in any action pending before them, upon motion and good and 3 sufficient cause shown, and reasonable notice thereof given, to require the par-4 ties, or either of them, to produce books or writings in their possession or 5 power which contain evidence pertinent to the issue.

Sec. 422. PAPERS, ETC., OF COURTS—HOW PROVEN.] The papers, entries and 2 records of courts may be proved by a copy thereof certified under the hand 3 of the clerk of the court having the custody thereof, and the seal of the court, 4 or by the judge of the court, if there be no clerk.

Sec. 423. PAPERS, ETC., OF CITIES, ETC.—HOW PROVEN.] The papers, entries, 2 records and ordinances, or parts thereof, of any city, village, town or county, 3 may be proved by a copy thereof, certified under the hand of the clerk or the 4 keeper thereof, and the corporate seal, if there be any; if not, under his hand 5 and private seal.

Sec. 424. PAPERS, ETC., OF CORPORATIONS, ETC.—HOW PROVEN.] The papers, 2 entries and records of any corporation or incorporated association may be 3 proved by a copy thereof certified under the hand of the secretary, clerk, cash-4 ier or other keeper of the same. If the corporation or incorporated association 5 has a seal, the name shall be affixed to such certificate.

Sec. 425. CERTIFICATE OF CLERK, ETC.—WHAT TO CONTAIN.] The certificate
 2 of any such clerk of a court, city, village, town, county, or secretary, clerk,

3 cashier or other keeper of any such papers, entries, records or ordinances, 4 shall, excepting as may be otherwise provided by this Act, contain a state-5 ment that such person is the keeper of the same, and, if there is no seal, shall 6 so state.

Sec. 426. PROCEEDINGS, ETC., OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.] The proceedings 2 and judgments before justices of the peace may be proved by a certified copy 3 thereof, under the hand and private seal of the justice before whom such pro-4 ceeding or judgment is had, or his successor, having the custody of the same.
 5 When such certified copy is to be used as evidence in any county other than 6 that in which the justice so certifying resides, the certificate of the county 7 clerk shall be annexed, certifying that the justice before whom the proceeding 8 or judgment was had was, at the time such proceeding or judgment was had, 9 a justice of the peace, duly commissioned, and if the certificate is by a suc-10 cessor, that he was such successor at the time of making such certificate.

Sec. 427. EXAMINED COPIES.] Any such papers, entries, records and ordi-2 nances may be proved by copies examined and sworn to by credible witnesses.

Sec. 428. PENALTY FOR FALSE CERTIFICATE.] If any such officer, clerk, sec-2 retary, cashier, justice of the peace, or other person authorized to certify 3 copies of any papers, entries, records or ordinances, shall knowingly make a 4 false certificate, he shall be punishable in the same manner as if he were 5 guilty of perjury.

Sec. 429. CERTIFICATE OF REGISTER OF LAND OFFICE, ETC.] The official certifi-2 cate of any register or receiver of any land office of the United States, to any 3 fact or matter on record in his office, shall be received in evidence in any 4 court in this State, and shall be competent to prove the fact so certified.
 5 The certificate of any such register, of the entry or purchase of any tract of 6 land within his district, shall be deemed and taken to be evidence of title in 7 the party who made such entry or purchase, or his heirs or assigns, and shall 8 enable such party, his heirs or assigns, to recover or protect the possession 9 of the land described in such certificate, in any action of ejectment or forcible 10 entry and detainer, unless a better legal and paramount title be exhibited for 11 the same. And the signature of such register or receiver may be proved by 12 a certificate of the Secretary of State, under his seal, that such signature is 13 genuine.

Sec. 430. PATENT FOR LAND BETTER EVIDENCE THAN CERTIFICATE.] A patent 2 for land shall be deemed and considered a better legal and paramount title 3 in the patentee, his heirs or assigns, than the official certificate of any register 4 of a land office of the United States, of the entry or purchase of the same land.

Sec. 431. CERTIFIED COPY OF RECORDED PATENT.] In all cases where any 2 lands or lots have been or may be sold by this State or any of the officers 3 thereof, under the authority of any law of this State, whereof the patent 4 shall be issued by the Governor, under the seal of this State, and in case said 5 patent has been or shall purport to be recorded in the recorder's office of 6 the county where the lands or lots are situated, and said patent shall be lost, 7 or out of the power of the party desiring to use the same to produce in evi-8 dence, a copy of the record of said patent, certified by the recorder of said 9 county, may be read in evidence in place of said original patent; which copy 10 certified as aforesaid, shall be prima facie evidence of the issuing of said pat-11 ent, and of the contents thereof. The provisions of this section shall apply to 12 deeds executed by the trustees of the Illinois and Michigan canal, and to pat-13 ents for land issued or granted by the United States.

Sec. 432. COPIES OF BOOKS AND ENTRIES OF SALES—CERTIFICATES OF PURCHASE—2 PATENT PARAMOUNT TO CERTIFICATE—SWAMP AND OVERFLOWED LANDS.] Copies of 3 the books and entries of the sale of all lands or lots heretofore or that here-4 after may be sold by this State or any of the officers thereof under any law of 5 this State, certified to be true and correct copies of such books and entries by 6 the proper person or officer in whose custody said books and entries may prop-7 erly be, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in said books and 8 entries. The certificate of such officer of the purchase of or issuing of a patent 9 for any tract of land sold by this State or any agent of the same, shall be 10 deemed and taken as evidence of title in the party certified to have made such 11 purchase or obtained such patent, his heirs or assigns, unless a better and para-12 mount title is exhibited for the same. The patent for land shall be deemed a 13 better and paramount title in the patentee, his heirs, and assigns, than such 14 certificate, and when any swamp and overflowed lands and lots heretofore have 15 been or hereafter may be sold under any law of this State by any proper person 16 or officer of the county in which said lands lie, copies of the books and entries 17 of the sales of such swamp and overflowed lands and lots certified to be true 18 and correct copies of such books and entries by the proper person or officer in 19 whose custody such books and entries may properly be, shall be prima facie 20 evidence of the facts stated in such books and entries. The certificate of such 21 officer of the sale or entry of any tract or tracts of such swamp and overflowed 22 land or lots and of the execution of a deed for the same, giving the date of 23 such sale or entry, the date of the execution of the deed, the name of the pur-24 chaser and description of the land, under the seal of his office may, if the 25 original deed be lost, or it be out of the power of the party wishing to use the 26 same to produce it in evidence, and such original deed has never been recorded, 27 be read in evidence in place of said original deed, and shall be prima facie evi-28 dence of the execution and delivery of a proper deed for such land and shall 29 be deemed and taken as evidence of title in the person certified to have made 30 such entry or purchase, his heirs and assigns, until a better and paramount 31 title is exhibited for the same. And whenever it shall appear that the original 32 deed made upon any entry or sale of such swamp or overflowed lands is lost, 33 or not in the power of the party wishing to use the same to produce in evidence,

34 and the same has never been recorded as aforesaid and that the books and 35 original entries of sale of such swamp or overflowed lands or lots have also 36 been lost or destroyed, and the clerk of the county court or other proper officer 37 shall have made return of such sales and entries to the auditor of public ac-38 counts, according to law, a certified copy of such return by the auditor, under 39 his seal of office, may be used in evidence with the like force and effect as 40 hereinbefore provided: Provided, that the party applying to the auditor for 41 such certificate shall pay a fee of one dollar for each certificate.

Sec. 433. DEPOSITION OF RESIDENT WITNESS IN ACTION TRIED WITHOUT A JURY.]

2 When the testimony of any witness residing or being within this State shall be 3 necessary in any action in equity, or in any action at law, other than a crim-4 inal action or one in which one of the parties has filed a demand in writing of 5 a trial by jury, the party wishing to use the same may cause the deposition of 6 such witness to be taken before any clerk of a court, master in chancery, notary 7 public, or court stenographer authorized by this Act to take depositions, with-8 out a commission or filing interrogatories for such purpose on giving to the 9 adverse party, or his attorney, ten days' notice of the time and place of taking 10 the same, and one day in addition thereto (Sundays inclusive) for every fifty 11 miles' travel from the place of holding the court to the place where such de-12 position is to be taken. If the party entitled to notice and his attorney reside 13 in the county where the deposition is to be taken, five days' notice shall be 14 sufficient.

Sec. 434. DEPOSITIONS OF RESIDENT WITNESSES IN ACTIONS TRIED BY JURY.] It

2 shall also be lawful to take the depositions of witnesses residing in this State 3 to be read in actions at law to be tried by jury, other than criminal actions, in 4 like manner and upon like notice as is above provided in all cases where the 5 witnesses reside in different counties from that in which the court is held, or 6 are about to depart from the State, or are in custody on legal process, or are 7 unable to attend such court on account of advanced age, sickness or other 8 bodily infirmity: Provided, however, that in all such cases, excepting where the 9 witnesses are unable to attend court on account of advanced age, sickness or 10 other bodily infirmity, such depositions, unless the parties otherwise agree, 11 shall be taken only at some county seat.

Sec. 435. DEPOSITIONS OF RESIDENT AND NON-RESIDENT WITNESSES UPON WRIT-
2 TEN INTERROGATORIES.] When the testimony of any witness residing within this 3 State more than one hundred miles from the place of holding the court, or not 4 residing in this State, or who is engaged in the military or naval service of 5 this State or of the United States and is out of the State, shall be necessary in 6 any action or proceeding, other than a criminal action, pending in any court 7 of record in this State, it shall be lawful for the party wishing to use the same, 8 on giving to the adverse party or his attorney ten days' previous notice, to-9 gether with a copy of the interrogatories to be put to such witness, to sue out 10 from the proper clerk's office a dedimus potestatem or commission under the 11 seal of the court, directed to any competent or disinterested person as com-12 missioner, or to any clerk of a court of record, master in chancery, notary 13 public, justice of the peace or court stenographer authorized by this Act to 14 take depositions, of the county in which such witness may reside, or in case it 15 is to take the testimony of a person engaged in such military or naval service, 16 to any commissioned officer in the military or naval service of this State or of 17 the United States, authorizing and requiring him to cause such witness to 18 come before him at such time and place as he may designate and appoint and 19 faithfully to take his deposition upon all such interrogatories as may be en-20 closed with or attached to said commission, both on the part of the plaintiff and 21 defendant, and none others; and to certify the same when thus taken, together 22 with the said commission and interrogatories, into the court in which such cause 23 shall be pending with the least possible delay.

Sec. 436. NOTICE TO ADVERSE PARTY.] When the deposition of any witness 2 is desired to be taken under the provisions of this Act and the adverse party 3 is not a resident of the county in which the action is pending, or is in default 4 and no attorney has appeared for him in such action, upon the filing of an 5 affidavit of such fact and stating the place of residence of such adverse party, 6 if known, or that upon diligent inquiry his place of residence cannot be ob-7 tained, the notice required by this Act may be given by sending a copy thereof 8 by mail, postage paid, addressed to such party at his place of residence if 9 known, or, if not known, by posting a copy of such notice at the door of the 10 court house where the action is pending, or publishing the same in the nearest 11 newspaper, and when interrogatories are required, filing a copy thereof with 12 the clerk of the court ten days before the time of suing out such commission.

Sec. 437. ORAL INTERROGATORIES.] When a party shall desire to take the 2 evidence of a non-resident witness or of a witness residing within this State 3 more than one hundred miles from the place of holding the court, to be used in 4 any action pending in this State, the party desiring the same, or, when notice 5 shall have been given that a commission to take the testimony of any such 6 witness will be applied for, the opposite party, upon giving the other three 7 days' notice in writing of his election so to do, may have a commission directed 8 in the same manner as provided in the next but one preceding section of this 9 Act to take such evidence upon interrogatories to be propounded to the witness 10 orally, upon the taking of which each party may appear before the commis-11 sioner, in person or by attorney, and interrogate the witness. The party de-12 siring such testimony shall give to the other the following notice of the time 13 and place of taking the same, to-wit: ten days and one day in addition thereto 14 (Sundays included) for every one hundred miles travel from the place of hold-15 ing the court to the place where such deposition is to be taken.

Sec. 438. NON-ATTENDANCE OF PARTY GIVING NOTICE—PENALTY.] When a 2 party to an action shall give the opposite party notice to take a deposition upon 3 oral interrogatories, and shall fail to take the same accordingly, unless such 4 failure be on account of the non-attendance of the witness, not occasioned by 5 the fault of the party giving the notice or some other unavoidable cause, the 6 party notified, if he shall attend himself or by attorney, agreeably to the notice, 7 shall be entitled to five dollars ($5) per day for each day he may attend under 8 such notice, and to six (6) cents per mile for every mile that he shall neces-9 sarily travel in going to and returning from the place designated to take the 10 deposition, to be allowed by order of the court where the action is pending 11 and the payment of the same to be enforced by execution or by attachment of 12 the party against whom the same is allowed in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 439. METHOD OF TAKING DEPOSITIONS.] Previous to the examination of 2 any witness whose deposition is about to be taken as aforesaid, he or she shall 3 be sworn (or affirmed) by the person or persons authorized to take the same, 4 to testify the truth in relation to the matter in controversy so far as he or she 5 may be interrogated; whereupon the person authorized to take the deposition 6 shall proceed to examine such witness upon all such interrogatories as may 7 be enclosed with or attached to any such commission as aforesaid, and which are 8 directed to be put to such witness, or where the testimony is taken upon oral 9 interrogatories upon all such interrogatories as may be directed to be put by 10 either party litigant, and, if such interrogatories are enclosed with any such 11 commission, shall cause the same, together with the answers of the witnesses 12 thereto, to be reduced to writing in the order in which they shall be proposed 13 and answered and signed by such witness after which it shall be the duty of 14 the person taking such deposition to annex at the foot thereof a certificate 15 subscribed by himself stating that it was sworn to and signed by the deponent 16 and the time and place when and where the same was taken. If such deposi-17 tion is taken upon oral interrogatories the person authorized to take the depo-18 sition may, and, at the request of either of the parties, shall, cause such inter-19 rogatories, together with the answers of the witness thereto, either to be taken

20 down in type-writing by a competent typewriter, or to be taken down by a 21 competent stenographer and thereafter transcribed by such stenographer from 22 his or her stenographic notes, and when so taken down, or taken down and 23 transcribed, as the case may be, shall cause the same to be signed by the wit-24 ness and shall thereupon annex at the foot thereof the certificate hereinbefore 25 in this section provided for: Provided, however, that when any such deposition 26 so taken down in typewriting or stenographically shall be taken before the 27 clerk of any court of record, master in chancery, or court stenographer author-28 ized by this Act to take depositions, the signature of the witness thereto shall 29 be unnecessary and the officer taking the deposition shall annex at the foot 30 thereof a certificate subscribed by himself stating that the deposition was 31 taken down in typewriting, or taken down stenographically and correctly 32 transcribed from the stenographic notes thereof, and giving the time and 33 place when and where the same was taken. Every such deposition when thus 34 taken, subscribed and certified, and copies of all exhibits produced to the said 35 person taking the deposition, as aforesaid, or which shall be proved or referred 36 to by any witness, together with the commission and interrogatories, if any, 37 shall be enclosed, sealed up and directed to the clerk of the court in which the 38 action shall be pending with the names of the parties litigant endorsed thereon: 39 Provided, that when any deposition shall be taken as aforesaid by any officer 40 out of the State such return shall be accompanied by a certificate of his official 41 character under the great seal of the state or under the seal of the proper court 42 of record of the county or city wherein such deposition shall be taken. When-43 ever any deposition shall be taken down in typewriting, or taken down steno-44 graphically and transcribed, to be used in any action pending in a court of 45 record of this State, in addition to the original copy thereof there shall be made 46 and delivered to each party to the action, who may have entered a separate ap-47 pearance, a carbon copy thereof.

Sec. 440. DEPOSITION UNSEALED—OPENING AND FILING.] Every deposition 2 that shall be returned to the court unsealed or the seal of which shall be broken 3 previous to the receipt by the clerk to whom it is directed, shall, if objection be 4 made thereto in proper time, be regarded by the court as informal and in-5 sufficient: Provided, however, that in any such case the same may nevertheless 6 be read in evidence if the party proposing to read the same in evidence shall 7 prove to the satisfaction of the court that such deposition was properly taken 8 and certified and that the same has been in no manner changed or altered 9 since the same was so certified. Upon the receipt of any deposition by the clerk 10 of the court to which the same has been returned it shall be his duty to open 11 and file the same.

Sec. 441. PARTY, ETC., NOT TO DICTATE DEPOSITION, ETC.] The party, his at-2 torney, or any person who shall in anywise be interested in the event of the 3 action, shall not be permitted to dictate, write or draw up any deposition 4 which may at any time be taken under this Act or be present during the taking 5 of any deposition by written interrogatories; and every deposition so dictated, 6 written up or drawn up, or during the taking of which any such party, his at-7 torney or any person so interested is present, when the same is taken upon 8 written interrogatories as aforesaid, shall be rejected by the court as informal 9 and insufficient.

Sec. 442. DEPOSITION TO BE COMPETENT EVIDENCE.] Every examination and 2 deposition which shall be taken and returned according to the provisions of 3 this Act may be read as good and competent evidence in the action in which 4 it shall be taken, or in any other action between the same parties or their 5 privies involving the same issues, as if such witness had been present and ex-

Sec. 443. WHEN FURTHER EXAMINATION ALLOWED.] If it shall appear to 2 the satisfaction of the court that any witness has not given full or proper

3 answers to the interrogatories or cross-interrogatories accompanying the com-4 mission to take his testimony, or that a further examination ought to be al-5 lowed to either party for the ends of justice, the court may allow another 6 commission to issue to the same or other commissioner to further examine the 7 witness in such manner and upon such conditions and notice as the court shall 8 direct.

Sec. 444. COMPELLING ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES WHEN ACTION PENDING

2 IN THIS STATE.] Every officer authorized by this Act to take depositions 3 and who may at any time be required to take a deposition in any cause

 5 to issue subpoenas, if necessary, to compel the attendance of all such witnesses 6 as shall be named in the commission, or by the parties litigant when no com-7 mission is necessary, in the same manner as witnesses are directed to be sub-8 poenaed in other actions, and when any witness shall wilfully neglect or refuse 9 to obey any such subpoena, or shall refuse to testify or to subscribe his 10 deposition when correctly taken, the officer issuing such subpoena shall at once 11 report in writing the facts of such wilful refusal or neglect, accompanying the 12 same with copy of the commission or other authority received by him, together 13 with a copy of the subpoena and return of service thereof, to the court in which 14 such action is pending, and thereupon such court shall have power to issue 15 an attachment against such offending witness, returnable forthwith, and, upon 16 the return of such attachment, shall hear and determine the matter in a sum-17 mary way, and if it appear to the court that the neglect or refusal of such 18 witness to appear or testify, or to subscribe such deposition as aforesaid, is 19 wilful and without lawful excuse, the court may punish such witness by fine or im-20 prisonment in the county jail, or both, as the nature of the case may require, 21 as is now or as may hereafter be lawful for the court to do in cases of contempt 22 of court.

Sec. 445. COMPELLING ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES WHEN DEPOSITIONS FOR USE

2 IN FOREIGN COURTS.] Whenever any clerk of a court, master in chancery, or court

4 or authorized by any commission or other authority issued out of any court 5 of record in any other state, territory or country to take any deposition or 6 depositions he shall have power to issue subpoenas, if necessary, to compel the 7 attendance of witnesses in like manner as if such depositions were taken in an 8 action pending in a court of record of this State, and when he shall be 9 unable to secure the attendance of any witness named in such commission, or 10 any witness named in such commission shall wilfully neglect or refuse to tes-11 tify before such clerk, master in chancery, or court stenographer, or to sub-12 scribe his deposition when correctly taken, such clerk, master in chancery or 13 court stenographer may report in writing the facts of his being unable to 14 secure the attendance of such witness, or of such wilful refusal or neglect, as 15 the case may be, accompanying the same with a copy of the commission or other 16 authority received by him, to the circuit court of the county in which said 17 deposition is desired to be or has been taken, or been attempted to be taken, 18 and, upon such notice to such witness as such court may deem reasonable, may 19 apply to such court for an order requiring such witness to attend and testify be-20 fore such clerk, master in chancery or court stenographer at such time and 21 place as may be specified in such order, and the court may make any order 22 which the court may deem necessary to compel such witness to attend before 23 such clerk, master in chancery or court stenographer and to answer all proper 24 questions which may be propounded to him under and in pursuance of such 25 commission and may enforce compliance with such order by issuing an attach-26 ment against the offending witness and punishing such witness by fine or 27 imprisonment in the county jail, or by both, as the nature of the case may re-28 quire, as is now or as may hereafter be lawful for the court to do in cases of 29 contempt of court.

Sec. 446. COURT MAY SHORTEN NOTICE, ETC.] The court in which any action 2 other than a criminal action, is pending may at any time, in its discretion, 3 whenever, in its judgment, such course seems proper and expedient, order the 4 deposition of any witness to be taken in such action upon shorter notice than 5 that hereinbefore provided for, or it may, in its order, fix the time and place 6 of the taking of such deposition and specify the officer before whom the same 7 is to be taken, and any deposition so taken may be read in evidence with the 8 same effect as if it had been taken in accordance with the notice hereinbefore 9 specified.

Sec. 447. FEES—CROSS-EXAMINATION.] The party on whose behalf any dep-2 osition is taken shall pay the fees of the officer for the taking of the same in 3 typewriting, or taking the same stenographically and transcribing the same, 4 as the case may be, together with the fees of such officer for a carbon copy 5 thereof for such party and a carbon copy thereof for the opposite party, 6 which fees shall be taxed as costs in the action: Provided, however, that when 7 the transcript of the cross-examination of any witness shall exceed in length 8 the transcript of the direct examination of such witness by more than two 9 thousand (2,000) words the fees of the officer for said excess over and above 10 said two thousand (2,000) words shall be paid by the party cross-examining 11 such witness and the same may be taxed as costs in his favor. In case of the 12 refusal of the party cross-examining the witness to pay for such excess the 13 cross-examination of such witness, to the extent of such excess, shall be omitted 14 from the transcript of such deposition, unless the party on whose behalf the 15 deposition is taken shall elect himself to pay the said fees, the same to be taxed 16 as costs in his favor, and such deposition may be read in evidence with the same 17 effect as if the transcript thereof contained all of such cross-examination.

Sec. 448. FEES PAYABLE IN ADVANCE—ATTACHMENT.] The fees for the tak-
 2 ing of any deposition before any clerk of a court, master in chancery or court

3 stenographer, including the fees for the transcript and carbon copies thereof, 4 shall be payable in advance, so far as the same may be estimated, and at all 5 events upon the completion of the typewriting or transcribing of the same.
 6 The court in which the action or proceeding is pending, as evidence in which 7 any deposition is taken before any officer mentioned in this section, may com-8 pel the payment of the fees hereinbefore provided for by attachment of the 9 party liable for such fees, and the court before the clerk, a master in chancery 10 or a court stenographer of which any deposition is taken for use in any other 11 court of this State, or in a court of any other state, territory or country, may 12 compel the payment of the fees for the taking of such deposition by attach-13 ment of the party liable for such fees.

Sec. 449. ORAL EVIDENCE UPON MOTIONS, ETC.] Whenever, in any action, 2 evidence shall be necessary concerning any fact in support of or in opposition 3 to any interlocutory or other motion or application other than an application 4 for a change of venue, the court may, in its discretion, require such evidence to 5 be presented by the oral examination of witnesses in open court or otherwise, 6 and may make all necessary orders for such oral examination.

Sec. 450. ORAL TESTIMONY IN EQUITY.] On the trial of every action in equity 2 oral testimony shall be taken when desired by either party.

Sec. 451. EVIDENCE IN REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS IN TRIAL BY COURT TO BE COM-2 PETENT UPON NEW TRIAL OR HEARING.] Whenever, in any action at law or in 3 equity tried by the court without a jury in which the evidence heard by the court 4 is preserved in a report of the proceedings settled and signed by the presiding 5 judge, the judgment or decree of the court is, upon appeal or writ of error, 6 reversed and the cause remanded to the court of original jurisdiction for a new 7 trial or hearing, entitling either of the parties to the introduction of evidence, 8 the evidence preserved in such report shall, as a matter of course, and without 9 any order of court therefor, be deemed and taken as a part of the evidence in-

10 introduced upon such new trial or hearing, and the respective parties shall be 11 at liberty to supplement the same by such further evidence as they may deem 12 necessary or proper and as may be competent and material and either party 13 shall be at liberty to subpoena and require the attendance of any witness at-14 tending on the former trial for the purpose of further examination or cross-15 examination. In case, after such new trial or hearing, either party shall 16 require the settlement and signature by the presiding judge of a report of the 17 proceedings, such report shall contain no portion of the evidence or other pro-18 ceedings contained in the former report, but such former report shall, as a 19 matter of course, and without any order of court, be treated and considered as 20 a part of the record for the purposes of a subsequent appeal or writ of error.

Sec. 452. EVIDENCE IN REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS IN TRIAL BY JURY MAY BE READ
 2 UPON NEW TRIAL.] Whenever, in any action at law or in equity tried by jury 3 in which the evidence introduced upon such trial is preserved in a report of the 4 proceedings settled and signed by the presiding judge, the judgment or decree 5 entered in such action is, upon appeal or writ of error, reversed and the cause 6 remanded for a new trial by jury, both parties to the action, whether such new 7 trial shall be by jury or without a jury, shall be at liberty to read from such 8 report of the proceedings of the former trial the testimony of any witness, 9 who testified upon such former trial in lieu of recalling and examining such 10 witness.

Sec. 453. PERPETUATION OF TESTIMONY.] In all cases hereafter, where any 2 person shall desire to perpetuate the remembrance of any fact, matter or thing, 3 which may relate to the boundaries or improvements of land—name or former 4 name of water courses—the name or former name of any portion or district 5 or county—regarding the ancient customs, laws and usages of the inhabitants 6 of any part of this country, so far as the same may relate to the future settle-7 ment of the land claims, or touching the marriage or pedigree of any person

8 or persons, or any other matter or thing necessary to the security of any es-9 tate, real, personal or mixed, or any private right whatever, it shall be 10 lawful for such person, upon filing a petition supported by affidavit, in the 11 circuit court of the proper county, setting forth, briefly and substantially, his 12 interest, claim or title in or to the subject concerning which he desires to per-13 petuate evidence, the fact intended to be established, and the names of all 14 other persons interested or supposed to be interested therein, and whether 15 there are any persons interested therein whose names are unknown to the 16 petitioner, and the name of the witness proposed to be examined, to sue out 17 from such court a dedimus potestatem or commission, directed to any compe-18 tent and disinterested person as commissioner, or to any judge, commissioner 19 of deeds, master in chancery, notary public, clerk of a court, or justice of the 20 peace in the county in which such witness resides, or in which the testimony is 21 to be taken, authorizing him or them to take the deposition of such witness.

Sec. 454. PETITION TO BE DOCKETED AS ACTION IN EQUITY.] Such petition 2 shall be docketed by the clerk as other actions in equity, the petitioner being 3 designated as plaintiff, and the persons stated to be interested, as aforesaid, as 4 defendants—the parties whose names are unknown being designated as “un-5 known owners.”

Sec. 455. SEVERAL COMMISSIONS MAY ISSUE.] Several commissions may be 2 issued, upon the same petition, to different commissioners, or officers, either 3 within or without this State, to take the testimony of different witnesses, or 4 witnesses residing in different places, or the same commissioners or officers 5 may proceed from place to place to take the same.

Sec. 456. NOTICE TO PARTIES INTERESTED.] Before taking the testimony of 2 a witness, the person suing out such commission shall give to each and every 3 person known to be interested in the subject matter of such testimony, or his 4 attorney, or, if a minor, his guardian, or, if he has no guardian, or if his

5 guardian is interested, to such guardian ad litem as shall be appointed by the 6 court, or to his or her conservator, if he or she has one, two weeks' notice, in 7 writing, of the time and place when and where the testimony will be taken, 8 which notice shall state when and where the petition was filed, the names of 9 the parties and witnesses mentioned in the petition, and a short statement of 10 the subject matter concerning which the testimony is to be taken.

Sec. 457. NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENT PARTIES—UNKNOWN OWNERS.] Notice to 2 non-resident parties, or such as cannot be found so as to be personally served, 3 and to unknown owners, may be given in the same manner as is provided for 4 notifying non-resident parties in suing out a commission to take testimony in 5 an action pending.

Sec. 458. COURT MAY PRESCRIBE NOTICE.] When, in the opinion of the court, 2 no sufficient provision is made by law for giving notice to parties adversely 3 interested, the court may order such reasonable notice to be given as it shall 4 deem proper.

Sec. 459. PERSONS INTERESTED MAY ATTEND—CROSS-EXAMINATION, ETC.] Ev-2 ery person who may think himself interested in the subject of a deposition 3 about to be taken, may attend, by himself or his attorney, at the time and place 4 of taking such testimony, and may examine and cross-examine such deponent; 5 and all such questions as may be proposed, together with the answers thereto 6 by the witness, shall be reduced to writing in the English language, as near 7 as possible in the exact words of such deponent, which said questions and an-8 swers, when reduced to writing as aforesaid, shall be distinctly read over to 9 the witness, and, if found to be correct, shall be signed by him in the presence of 10 the commissioner or officer before whom the same is taken, who shall there-11 upon administer an oath or affirmation to such witness, as to the truth of the 12 deposition so taken as aforesaid, and shall annex at the foot thereof a certifi-13 cate, subscribed by such commissioner or officer, stating that it was sworn to 14 and signed by the deponent, and the time and place when and where the same 15 was taken; and all such depositions, when thus taken, shall be carefully sealed 16 up, and transmitted to the clerk of the circuit court of the county from which 17 such dedimus shall have been issued, within thirty days from the time of tak-18 ing the same; who shall thereupon enter the same at large upon the records in 19 his office, and shall certify on the back of such deposition that the same has been 20 duly recorded, and return it to the person for whose benefit it shall have been 21 taken.

Sec. 460. DEPOSITIONS COMPETENT EVIDENCE WHEN.] All depositions taken 2 under the provisions of the seven preceding sections, or a certified copy of the 3 record thereof, may be used as evidence in any action to which the same may 4 relate, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions and objections 5 as if it had been originally taken in the action or proceedings in which it is 6 sought to be used; and parties notified as "unknown owners," in the manner 7 hereinbefore provided, shall be bound to the same extent as other parties.

Sec. 461. INTERPRETERS.] Interpreters may be sworn to truly interpret 2 when necessary.

Sec. 462. TESTIMONY TAKEN BY COMMISSIONS OF SURVEYORS.] All testimony 2 that has been or may hereafter be taken by commissions of surveyors for the 3 establishing of original corners of land, shall be filed with their report to court, 4 and may be read as evidence in all actions in reference to said corners here-5 after.

Sec. 463. PROOF OF TITLE OF ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD LANDS.] Whenever it
2 shall become necessary, in any legal proceeding, to prove the title of the Illinois 3 Central Railroad Company, or of the trustees of said railroad company, or of 4 any person claiming title through or under said company or trustees, to any 5 of the lands granted by the State to said railroad company under the provi-

 10 the general land office as being a true abstract from the original list of selec-11 tions by said company, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of title in the 12 said railroad or the trustees thereof, as the case may be, to the lands em-13 braced in such list; and the record in the proper county (or a duly certified 14 copy thereof by the custodian of such record), of the map or profile of said 15 railroad or branches, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of the line of 16 location of said railroad or its branches in such county.

Sec. 464. COMMISSION OF TRUSTEES.] A copy of the commission issued by 2 the Governor or by the president of said railroad company to any successor 3 of any of the original trustees (or any of their successors) named in said Act

 5 the State, or by the commissioner of the land department of said railroad 6 company or its president, under the common seal of said company, as the

Sec. 477. ACTION AGAINST GARNISHEE.] The plaintiff in the action of attach-

 3 this section, in case he shall be of opinion that the garnishee is indebted to the 4 defendant in the attachment in a sum exceeding the amount exempt by law from

Richard Roe.

June 2, 1908.
Before Hon. John Jones, Judge.

This day the court, having jurisdiction of the subject-matter of this action and of the person of the defendant by service of summons and the appearance of the defendant, and of the person of the garnishee, Henry Jones, by service of garnishee summons and the appearance of said garnishee, it is considered by the court in accordance with the answer of said garnishee, that the defendant, Richard Roe, for the use of the plaintiff, John Doe, have and recover of the garnishee, Henry Jones, the sum of two hundred dollars ($200), less the costs of the said garnishee, Henry Jones, to be taxed herein by the clerk, the amount so recovered, when paid, to be applied upon the judgment herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, so far as may be necessary for the payment of the said judgment and the balance, if any, to be paid to the defendant. Richard Roe.

NOTE.

In case the judgment of an intervener is to be paid out of the amount paid by the garnishee, the foregoing form may be changed so that after the words "to be applied" it will read as follows: "first, upon the judgment herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant; second, upon the judgment in favor of the intervener, George Thomas, and third, the balance, if any, to the defendant."

In case the amount paid by the garnishee is to be divided pro rata among a number of judgment creditors or other claimants, said form may be varied from accordingly.

DEFAULT AGAINST GARNISHEE—JUDGMENT—FORM.] When any garnishee, having been duly served with a garnishee summons and a copy of the interrogatories, fails to file his appearance together with an answer to such interrogatories on or before the day specified therefor in this act the plaintiff, in lieu of applying to the court for a citation as hereinbefore provided to such garnishee, shall be entitled, at his election, to the entry of a default against such garnishee. Upon such default being entered the court shall hear the evidence offered by the plaintiff and enter judgment against the garnishee for such amount, if any, as may appear from the evidence to be due from such garnishee to the defendant in the attachment, but no such judgment shall be entered until the plaintiff in the action of attachment shall first have obtained judgment in such action against the defendant. The moneys collected upon any such judgment shall be applied, first, to the payment of the costs and expenses of the action, including attorney's fees; second, to the payment of the judgment in favor of the plaintiff; third, to the payment of the judgments of intervening creditors, if any; and fourth, the balance to the defendant: Provided, however, that when, in accordance with the provisions of this act, there are several judgment creditors entitled to participate pro rata in the moneys so collected the same, after the payment of the costs and expenses of the action, including attorney's fees, shall be divided accordingly. Such judgment may be in substantially the following form:

 2 any garnishee refuses or neglects to deliver any goods, chattels, choses in action 3 or effects in his hands when thereto lawfully required by the court or officer hav-

 5 attached and punished as for a contempt, or the court may enter up judgment for 6 the amount of the plaintiff's judgment and award execution thereon against the 7 garnishee.

Sec. 494. GARNISHEE MAY RECEIVE GOODS IN PAYMENT WHEN.] Nothing con-

3 any judgment that has been or hereafter may be rendered, writs of attachment 4 may be issued in aid thereof against any one of or all the persons named in such 5 summons upon the terms provided in this act; and the parties in such writs of at-6 tachment may be brought in by notice as in other cases of attachment when per-

2 OTHERS.] When several joint debtors are sued and any one or more of them shall 3 not be served with process the pendency of such action, or the recovery of a judg-4 ment against the parties served, shall be no bar to a recovery on the original 5 cause of action against such as are not served in any action which may be 6 brought against them in any other place than in the county where the first action 7 was brought: Provided, however, that the plaintiff shall not be permitted to ob-8 tain more than one satisfaction of his claim.

Sec. 500. JUDGMENT IN ACTION TO REVIVE JUDGMENT.] If, in any action to re-2 vive a judgment, the defendant is defaulted or appears and makes defense and 3 judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff, it shall be that the judgment be re-4 vived, in whole or in part, as the case may be, in which case the judgment shall 5 specify the amount due thereon. If the judgment be in favor of the defendant, 6 it shall be that he recover from the plaintiff his costs.

Sec. 501. PROCEDURE IN ACTIONS OF ATTACHMENT.] In actions of attach-2 ment, in addition to the rules hereinbefore prescribed, the following rules shall 3 prevail:

4 First—INSUFFICIENCIES IN AFFIDAVIT, ETC.—HOW CORRECTED.] No writ of at-5 tachment shall be quashed, nor the property taken thereon restored, nor any 6 garnishee discharged, nor any bond by him given cancelled, nor any rule entered 7 against the sheriff discharged on account of any insufficiency of the original 8 affidavit, writ of attachment or attachment bond, if the plaintiff, or some cred-9 ible person for him shall cause a legal and sufficient affidavit or attachment bond 10 to be filed or the writ to be amended, as the case may be, in such time and manner 11 as the court shall direct; and in that event the action shall proceed as if such pro-12 ceedings had originally been sufficient.

13 Second—OTHER MATTERS REGULATED BY RULES.] In all other matters with 14 respect to which no provision is made by this act the court shall proceed in ac-15 cordance with such rules, not inconsistent with law, as may be adopted by the 16 court or by the supreme court, or, in the absence of such rules, in accordance, as 17 near as may be, with the provisions of law in force at the time of the taking 18 effect of this act.

Sec. 502. PROCEDURE IN ACTIONS OF ATTACHMENT OF WATER CRAFT.] In actions

2 of attachment of water craft the court, in matters not provided for by this act, 3 shall proceed in accordance with such rules as may be adopted by the court or 6 tion to attachments of boats, vessels, and rafts," approved March 25, 1874, and 7 in force July 1, 1874.

Sec. 503. PROCEDURE IN ACTIONS OF REPLEVIN.] In actions of replevin in ad-

2 dition to the rules hereinbefore prescribed, the following rules shall prevail:

3 First—WHEN PROPERTY NOT DELIVERED TO PLAINTIFF.] When the property 4 specified in the writ has not been found by the officer or delivered to the plaintiff 5 and no forthcoming bond has been executed by the defendant, and the de-6 fendant is served with the writ or enters his appearance, the plaintiff may pro-7 ceed with the trial of the action and if, upon the trial, he shall establish his right 8 to the property replevied, he shall be entitled to judgment against the defendant 9 for the value thereof or of his interest therein and for such damages as he shall 10 have sustained by reason of the wrongful taking and detention of the property.

11 Second—WHAT JUDGMENT MAY BE RENDERED AGAINST PLAINTIFF.] If the 12 property has been delivered to the plaintiff and not returned to the defendant and 13 the plaintiff fails to prosecute his action with effect or suffers a non-suit or discon-14 tinuance, or if the right of property is adjudged against him, judgment shall 15 be given for a return of the property and damages for the use thereof from the 16 time it was taken until the return thereof shall be made, unless the plaintiff shall 17 in the meantime have become entitled to the possession of the property, when 18 judgment may be given against him for costs and such damages as the defendant 19 shall have sustained; or, if the property was held for the payment of any money, 20 the judgment may be in the alternative that the plaintiff pay the amount for 21 which the same is rightfully held with proper damages within a given time or 22 make return of the property.

23 Third—JUDGMENT FOR PLAINTIFF.] If judgment be given for the plaintiff 24 and the property has been delivered to him and not returned to the defendant.
 25 the plaintiff shall recover damages for the detention of the property while the 26 same was wrongfully detained by the defendant.

27 Fourth—ASSESSMENT OF DAMAGES.] In either case provided for in the two 28 preceding clauses of this section, if the action be tried by a jury, the damages 29 may be assessed by such jury, but if the plaintiff make default or the judgment 30 be given for the defendant without a trial, or if the action be tried by the court 31 without a jury, the damages may be assessed by the court.

32 Fifth—ACTION ON REPLEVIN BOND.] If, at any time, the conditions of the 33 bond required by this act to be given by the plaintiff at the time of the commence-34 ment of his action shall be broken, any person having suffered damages by 35 reason of the breach thereof may, in the name of the People of the State of 36 Illinois for his own use, sue and maintain an action on such bond for the recov-37 ery of all such damages and costs as may have been sustained by him in conse-38 quence of the breach of such condition.

39 Sixth—PROCEDURE WHEN MERITS NOT DETERMINED.] When the merits of the 40 action have not been determined upon the trial thereof the defendant in the 41 action upon the replevin bond may, in his specification of defense or defenses, 42 set up that fact and his title to the property in dispute in said action of replevin.

43 Seventh—PROCEDURE WHEN PROPERTY RETAINED BY OR RETURNED TO DEFEND-44 ANT.] When the defendant has retained the property or the same has been re-45 turned to him by the giving of a delivery bond as hereinbefore provided, the 46 court shall render such judgment as may appear to be necessary to secure to 47 the parties their respective rights as ascertained by the finding of the court, 48 the verdict of the jury or otherwise.

49 Eighth—RECEIVER.] The court may, whenever, in its opinion, the rights of 50 the parties will be better protected thereby, order the property in controversy 51 placed in the hands of a custodian or receiver, pending the final determination 52 of the action.

Sec. 504. PROCEDURE IN TRIALS OF RIGHT OF PROPERTY.] In actions for the 2 trial of the right of property, in addition to the rules elsewhere in this act pre-3 scribed, the following rules shall prevail:

4 First—SERVICE OF SUMMONS—HOW MADE—EFFECT OF JUDGMENT.] When the 5 action is brought to recover property levied upon by virtue of any execution or 6 writ of attachment and the plaintiff or plaintiffs in the execution or writ of at-7 tachment are not residents of the county in which the action is brought, service 8 of the summons upon such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be made by delivering a 9 copy of the summons, praecipe and statement of claim to the sheriff or other offi-10 cer by whom the execution or writ of attachment has been levied, whose duty it 11 shall be to transmit the same by registered letter, or otherwise cause the same to 12 be delivered, to the attorney or one of the attorneys of record of such plaintiff or 13 plaintiffs, or, if there be no such attorney of record, such sheriff or other officer 14 shall transmit such copy of the summons, praecipe and statement of claim by 15 registered letter, or otherwise cause the same to be delivered, to one of the plain-16 tiffs in the execution or writ of attachment, and such sheriff or other officer shall 17 thereupon be relieved from all responsibility for the defense of such action, and 18 the judgment in such case, if the same be in favor of the plaintiff, shall be a com-19 plete indemnity to such sheriff or other officer for restoring to such plaintiff any 20 property required by the judgment in such action to be restored to the plaintiff, 21 or, if it be in favor of the defendant, it shall be a complete indemnity to the 22 sheriff or other officer from all liability to the plaintiff in the action for selling 23 the property under the execution by virtue of which the same was seized, or un-24 der the execution issued in the action under the writ of attachment in which 25 such property was seized.

26 Second—JUDGMENTS WHICH MAY BE ENTERED WHEN PROPERTY LEVIED UPON UN-27 DER EXECUTION.] If, upon the trial of the action, when the same is brought to 28 recover property levied upon by virtue of an execution or writ of attachment, the jury, if the action be tried by jury, or the court, if the trial be by the court without a jury, finds that the property in controversy belongs to the plaintiff, when the plaintiff is any person other than a defendant in the execution or writ of attachment, or that such property is exempt from such execution or attachment, judgment shall be entered in favor of the plaintiff against the defendants that the plaintiff have and recover from the defendants the possession of the property, together with the costs of the action, such costs to be paid by the plaintiffs in the execution or attachment. If the jury or the court, as the case may be, finds that the property does not belong to the plaintiff, or is not exempt from execution or attachment, as the case may be, judgment shall be entered in favor of the defendants and against the plaintiff for the costs of the action and an order shall be entered that the sheriff or other officer proceed in the manner provided by law to subject the property to the payment of the execution already issued, or thereafter to be issued, as the case may be.

Third—JUDGMENT WHEN PROPERTY TAKEN FOR TAX, ETC.] When the action is brought to recover property which has been taken for any tax, assessment or fine levied by virtue of any law of this State, then, in such case, if the jury, or the court, as the case may be, finds that the same was not lawfully subject to be taken for such tax, assessment or fine, judgment shall be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant that the plaintiff recover possession of the property from the defendant, but no costs shall be recovered by the plaintiff from the defendant unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the seizure of the property by the defendant was made in bad faith. If it shall appear from the verdict of the jury or the finding of the court that the property taken was subject to be taken for the tax, assessment or fine, judgment shall be entered in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff for the costs of the action and an order shall be made that the officer proceed to subject the property to the payment of such tax, assessment or fine in the manner provided by law.

57 Fourth—JUDGMENT WHEN ACTION BROUGHT TO RECOVER REPLEVIED PROPERTY.]
 58 When the action is brought to recover property held by virtue of a writ of re-59 plevin issued in an action then pending brought against a person other than the 60 plaintiff, then and in such case, if the jury, or the court, as the case may be, finds 61 that the plaintiff is entitled to recover possession of the property, judgment shall 62 be entered in his favor that he recover such possession and the costs of the 63 action from the defendant, but if the jury, or the court, as the case may be, finds 64 that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover possession of the property, judg-65 ment shall be entered in favor of the defendants and against the plaintiff for the 66 costs of the action.

 Sec. 505. PROCEDURE IN ACTIONS OF FORCIBLE DETAINER.] In actions of forei-2 ble detainer, in addition to the rules otherwise prescribed in this act, the follow-3 ing rules shall prevail:

4 First—JUDGMENTS WHICH MAY BE ENTERED.] If no rent or damages are 5 claimed by the plaintiff and it shall appear on the trial that the plaintiff is en-6 titled to the possession of the whole of the premises claimed, he shall have judg-7 ment for the possession thereof and for his costs; but if it shall appear that he 8 is entitled to the possession of only a part of the premises claimed the judg-9 ment shall be in his favor for that part only and for costs and for the residue 10 judgment shall be in favor of the defendant; or, if the plaintiff is non-suited, 11 or it appears that the plaintiff is not entitled to possession of any portion of 12 the premises claimed, judgment shall be in favor of the defendant for the costs.
 13 If the plaintiff also claims rent or damages and he shall be found entitled there-14 to he shall have judgment for the amount to which he is so found entitled, but if 15 he is found not entitled to rent or damages judgment shall be given in favor of 16 the defendant as to such claim for rent or damages.

17 Second—JOINDER OF PARTIES, ETC.] Whenever there shall have been one lease 18 for the whole of certain premises and the possession thereof at the commencement of the action shall be divided in severalty among persons with, or other than, the lessee, in one or more portions or parcels, separately or severally held or occupied, all or so many of such persons, with the lessee, as the plaintiff may elect, may be joined as defendants in one action and the recovery against them with costs shall be several according as their actual holdings shall respectively be found to be.

Third—DISMISSAL BY PLAINTIFF, ETC.] The plaintiff may at any time dismiss his action as to any one or more of the defendants and the jury or court may find any one or more of the defendants guilty and the others not guilty, and the court shall thereupon render judgment according to such finding.

Fourth—WRIT OF RESTITUTION.] No writ of restitution shall be issued in any case until the expiration of five days after the entry of judgment.

Sec. 506. PROCEDURE IN ACTIONS OF DISTRESS FOR RENT.] In actions of distress for rent, in addition to the rules otherwise prescribed in this act the following rules shall prevail:

First—TRIAL—SET-OFF—FORCE OF JUDGMENT, ETC.] After the commencement of the action it shall proceed, as near as may be, in the same manner as an action of attachment. The defendant may avail himself of any set-off or other defense which would have been proper if the action had been for the rent in any form of action and with like effect. If the plaintiff succeeds in his action judgment shall be given in his favor for the amount which shall appear to be due him. When the defendant has been served with the summons and appears in the action the judgment shall have the same force and effect as in an action in which a summons has been served upon the defendant and execution may be issued thereon not only against the property distrained but also against the other property of the defendant; but the property distrained, if the same has not been replevied or released from seizure, shall be first sold. When publication of notice shall have been made as provided in this act, but the defendant is not served with

17 process and does not appear, judgment by default may be entered and the plain-18 tiff may recover the amount due him for rent at the time of issuing the dis-19 tress warrant and a special execution shall issue against the property distrained, 20 but no execution shall issue against any other property of the defendant. If the 21 judgment is in favor of the defendant he shall recover costs and have judgment 22 for the return of the property distrained, unless the same has been replevied or 23 released from such distress. And if a set-off is interposed and it appears that a 24 balance is due from the plaintiff to the defendant judgment shall be rendered 25 for the defendant for the amount thereof.

26 Second—RELEASE OF PROPERTY.] When any distress warrant has been levied 27 the person whose property is distrained may release the same by entering into 28 bond in double the amount of rent claimed payable to the landlord with suffi-29 cient sureties, to be approved by the person making the levy, if the bond is ten-30 dered before the filing of a copy of the warrant as provided in this act, or, if 31 after, by the court before which the action is pending, conditioned to pay what-32 ever judgment the landlord may recover in the action with costs of the action.
33 If the bond is taken before the filing of the copy of the distress warrant such bond 34 shall be filed therewith, and if taken after the filing of a copy of the distress war-35 rant, it shall be filed with the clerk of the court in which the action is pending.

36 Third—PERISHABLE PROPERTY.] If any property distrained is of a perishable 37 nature and in danger of immediate waste or decay, and the same is not replevied 38 or bonded, the landlord, or his agent or attorney, may, upon giv-39 ing notice to the defendant or his attorney, if either can be found in the 40 county, or, if neither can be found, without any notice, apply to the court in 41 which the action is pending, describing the property and showing that the same 42 is so in danger and, if the court is satisfied that the property is of a perishable 43 nature and in danger of immediate waste and decay, and if the defendant or his 44 attorney is not served with notice, or does not appear, that he cannot be found 45 in the county, the court may enter an order directing the person having posses-

46 sion of the property to make a sale thereof upon such time and such notice, 47 terms and conditions as the court shall think to the best interest of the parties 48 concerned. Money arising from such sale shall be deposited with the clerk of the 49 court in which the action is pending there to abide the event of the action.

Sec. 507. AFFIDAVIT OF CLAIM AND AFFIDAVIT OF MERITS.] Whenever in any 2 action at law on a contract, express or implied, for the payment of money the 3 plaintiff files with his statement of claim an affidavit showing the nature of his 4 demand and the amount due him from the defendant after allowing to the de-5 fendant all his just credits, deductions and set-offs, if any, the plaintiff shall be 6 entitled to a judgment as in case of default unless the defendant, or his agent 7 or attorney, if the defendant is not an executor or administrator defending on 8 behalf of an estate, or the conservator of an idiot, habitual drunkard, lunatic 9 or distracted person, or the guardian of a minor, defending in behalf of his ward, 10 shall file with the specification of his defense or defenses an affidavit stating 11 that he has a good defense or defenses to such action upon the merits to the 12 whole, or a portion of the plaintiff's demand and setting forth the facts con-13 stituting such defense or defenses, and, if the same be to a portion of the de-14 mand, specifying the amount according to the best of his judgment and belief.

Sec. 508. WHEN PLAINTIFF MAY TAKE JUDGMENT AS TO PART AND PROSECUTE
 2 AS TO RESIDUE.] Whenever in any action at law on a contract, express or im-3 plied, for the payment of money the defendant shall admit a portion of the 4 plaintiff's claim, or shall not make affidavit of a good defense to all of the 5 plaintiff's claim when such affidavit of a good defense is required by the terms 6 of this act, the plaintiff shall be entitled to have judgment entered in his favor 7 for the part so admitted or not denied, as the case may be, and to further prose-8 cute his action against the defendant for the balance of his claim.

Sec. 509. AFFIDAVITS OF CLAIM AND MERITS TO PRESENT ALL ISSUES.] When-2 ever in any action at law the plaintiff shall file an affidavit of claim and the de-

3 defendant an affidavit of defense, as provided in the two preceding sections, such 4 affidavits shall be deemed to present all the issues between the parties in the 5 action, and upon the trial of the action the plaintiff shall not be permitted to 6 assert any claim or the defendant any defense not set forth in their respective 7 affidavits: Provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall be 8 construed as prohibiting either party from amending his affidavit by leave of 9 court.

Sec. 510. MATTERS NOT NECESSARY TO BE PROVEN UNLESS PROOF EXPRESSLY DE-2 MANDIED.] It shall be unnecessary for any party to an action at law or in equity 3 to make proof upon the trial or hearing thereof of either of the following facts, 4 unless proof thereof shall be expressly demanded by some other party to the 5 action:

6 First—CORPORATE EXISTENCE.] That a party to the action, named therein as 7 a corporation, is such corporation.

8 Second—CO-PARTNERSHIP—JOINT OBLIGATION.] That a party to the action, 9 named therein as a co-partnership, is such co-partnership, or, if the names of 10 the members of such co-partnership are specified in the praecipe, statement of 11 claim, counter-claim or other paper, that the names of such co-partners are as 12 so specified, or that persons suing as joint payees or obligees are such joint 13 payees or obligees, or that their names are truly set forth in the plaintiff's 14 praecipe, the defendant's counter-claim, or the intervener's claim, as the case 15 may be, or other paper filed by such party.

16 Third—GENUINENESS OF WRITING.] That any written instrument or in-17 dorsement thereon, which is mentioned or described in any paper filed and is 18 offered in evidence upon the trial of the action, and the signature or signatures 19 to such instrument or indorsement are genuine.

20 Fourth—REPRESENTATIVE CAPACITY.] That any party to the action who sues 21 or is sued as an executor, administrator, guardian, conservator, trustee or other 22 legal representative, or as a public officer, is such executor administrator, 23 guardian, conservator, trustee or other legal representative or public officer.

24 Fifth—WIDOW, SURVIVING HUSBAND OR NEXT OF KIN.] That a person named 25 in any statement of claim, specification of defense or counter-claim, as a widow, 26 surviving husband, descendant, next of kin or other relative of a deceased person, 27 is such widow, surviving husband, descendant, next of kin or other relative, or 28 that the said relatives of such deceased person are other than those specified in 29 such statement of claim, specification of defense or counter-claim.

30 Sixth—OWNERSHIP OR OPERATION PROPERTY, ETC.] That a party from whom 31 damages are claimed in a statement of claim or counter-claim on account of an 32 injury to the person or property of the plaintiff, or of the plaintiff's testate 33 or intestate, or husband, wife, or other relative, was at the time of the alleged in-34 jury, if such injury and the approximate time thereof be shown by the evidence, 35 the owner or in possession or control of or operating the car, engine, machine, ap-36 pliance, fixture, railroad, factory, building, premises or other property, by, upon 37 or by means of which such injury occurred.

38 Seventh—POSSESSION OF REAL ESTATE IN ACTION TO RECOVER POSSESSION.] That 39 a defendant in an action of forcible detainer or ejectment is in possession of the 40 premises the possession of which is sought to be recovered.

41 Eighth—OTHER FACTS.] Any other fact with respect to which the court in 42 which the action is pending, or the supreme court, may, by rule, provide that 43 proof shall be unnecessary unless the same be demanded.

Sec. 511. DEMAND NOT ALLOWED UNLESS, ETC.] No demand provided for in 2 the preceding section shall be allowed by the court unless the party making the 3 same shall satisfy the court, by his own oath or the oath of some other person 4 cognizant of the facts or otherwise, that such demand is made in good faith and 5 that there is a bona fide and substantial dispute between the parties with re-6 spect to the fact, proof of which is so demanded.

Sec. 512. DETERMINATION OF POINT OF LAW AT OR BEFORE TRIAL.] Whenever, 2 in any action at law, any party thereto shall allege that there is a point of law 3 involved therein the determination of which will dispense with any further trial, 4 or with the trial of some substantial issue in the action, or will materially 5 shorten the trial thereof, and shall file a statement, verified by affidavit, of the 6 facts upon which such point of law arises, and it shall be made to appear to the 7 satisfaction of the court, by the admissions of the opposite party or otherwise, 8 that the facts so set forth are not, in any substantial particular, disputed, or 9 whenever the parties shall consent that any point of law arising in the action 10 shall be determined by the court prior to the trial thereof, or whenever the court 11 is satisfied there is any point of law involved in the action the determination of 12 which prior to the trial will be conducive to a more speedy and satisfactory 13 determination of the action, the court may, in its discretion, hear and dispose 14 of such point of law and enter such order with respect thereto as the court may 15 deem just and right. Whenever the determination of such point of law is such 16 as to finally dispose of the action, the court may enter the final judgment such 17 determination may require. Whenever such determination is not such as to 18 finally dispose of the action the court may enter such determination in the form 19 of an interlocutory order, which order shall be subject to review by appeal 20 in such manner as may be consistent with the rules prescribed by this act re-21 specting appeals from interlocutory orders.

Sec. 513. WHEN JUDGMENT OF COURT MAY BE TAKEN AS TO EFFECT OF UNDIS-
 2 PUTED FACTS.] Whenever it shall be made to appear to the court by the admis-3 sions of the parties or otherwise that there is no substantial dispute between 4 the parties to an action at law respecting the facts which are necessary to the 5 final determination of their respective rights and liabilities, in whole or in part, 6 the court may, without the trial of the issues by the court or by a jury, render 7 such judgment or judgments in the action as such undisputed facts may require.

Sec. 514. EVIDENCE TO BE LIMITED TO DISPUTED FACTS.] Before the hearing of 2 any evidence in a civil action the court shall ascertain from an inspection of the 3 papers in the action, or otherwise, the facts which are not in dispute between 4 the parties either by being admitted or not being denied in the manner in this act 5 required, or by being expressly admitted by the parties at the trial, and shall 6 cause such facts to be stated to the jury, if the case be tried by jury, and shall 7 not permit the introduction of any evidence to prove the facts so admitted, but 8 shall confine the evidence to the facts actually in dispute between the parties. For 9 the purpose of ascertaining such undisputed facts the court may require the re-10 spective parties to state the same in writing or otherwise, and whenever it shall 11 appear to the satisfaction of the court that any party to any such action has 12 willfully refused to admit any material fact known by such party to be undis-13 puted, the court may cause to be taxed as costs against such party and in favor 14 of the opposite party such sum, not exceeding fifty dollars ($50), as the court 15 may deem just and equitable, and may enforce the payment thereof by attach-16 ment or otherwise.

Sec. 515. IMMEDIATE TRIAL FOR DEFENDANT ABOUT TO DEPART STATE OR NON-2 RESIDENT.] When any defendant against whom any action at law has been brought 3 shall make it appear to the satisfaction of the court that at the time of the com-4 mencement of such action he was about to depart from the state and be absent 5 therefrom such length of time that he could not conveniently attend the trial of 6 the action at the time the same would occur in due course, or when any non-resi-7 dent of this state, while temporarily within this state, is served with process in 8 any action brought against him, such defendant may, upon the entry of his appear-9 ance, whether such appearance be entered before or on the day on which he is 10 required to appear, and upon notice to the plaintiff, demand an immediate trial 11 of such action and such immediate trial shall thereupon be had unless the plain-12 tiff shall, by affidavit or otherwise, establish good and sufficient ground for the 13 postponement of the trial: Provided, however, that the defendant shall not be 14 entitled to any such immediate trial in any action at law on a contract in which 15 he shall have filed a demand in writing of a trial by jury.

Sec. 516. SETTING CASE FOR TRIAL FOR NON-RESIDENT OF COUNTY.] When any 2 plaintiff or any defendant in any action shall be a non-resident of this state or 3 shall reside in this state in a county other than that in which such action is 4 brought and such plaintiff or defendant shall make it appear to the satisfaction 5 of the court that his presence at the trial of the action will be to his advantage 6 and that he desires to be present at such trial, the court in which the action is 7 pending shall, upon the application of such party and upon notice to the other 8 party or parties to the action, cause such action to be set for trial upon a day 9 certain to be fixed by the court and such action shall be tried, or the trial there-10 of shall be commenced, upon the day so fixed, unless good and sufficient ground 11 for the postponement of such trial shall be made to appear to the court: Pro 12 vided, however, that no party to an action on a contract shall be entitled to an 13 order setting such action down for trial upon a day certain if he shall have filed 14 in such action a demand in writing of a trial by jury.

Sec. 517. EQUITABLE RELIEF IN ACTIONS AT LAW.] Whenever in any action 2 at law it shall appear to the court that equitable relief is necessary to enable 3 the plaintiff to maintain his action or the defendant to make his defense, or to 4 enable the plaintiff or the defendant to obtain full and complete relief respecting 5 the matter or matters in controversy, and that the facts proven entitle the 6 plaintiff or the defendant, as the case may be, to such equitable relief, the court 7 shall enter such judgment as may be necessary to award such party such equit-8 able relief, and to that end the court, upon the trial of an action at law, shall per-9 mit proof of all facts which are pertinent to the ascertainment of the real merits 10 of the controversy between the parties. If the action be on trial before a jury the 11 court may either withdraw the case from the consideration of the jury and enter 12 such judgment as the equities of the case may require, or it may submit the 13 issues as to such equitable relief, together with the other issues in the case, to 14 the jury, and enter such judgment as the verdict of the jury, when approved 15 by the court, may require. In all matters in which there is any conflict or var-16 iance between the rules of law and the rules of equity with reference to the 17 same matter, the rules of equity shall prevail. The purpose of this section is to 18 secure to the parties to every action at law a decision of the same according to 19 the very right and justice thereof as the same may appear from the evidence and 20 it shall be liberally construed to accomplish such purpose.

Sec. 518. ADJUSTMENT OF RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF JUDGMENT DEFEND-

2 ANTS.] Whenever any judgment for money is rendered against two or more 3 persons jointly, the court, upon the application of any one or more of such judg-4 ment defendants, may, either upon the evidence already heard upon the trial 5 of the issues, if such trial has been had, or upon such evidence as may be of-6 fered by the parties, if the judgment has been entered upon default, or in such 7 other manner as the court may deem just and right, determine the respective 8 liabilities to each other of all of such judgment defendants in the following 9 manner:

10 First—PRINCIPAL AND SURETY.] If such judgment defendants sustain to 11 each other the relation of principal and surety, the court may require the prin-12 cipal to pay the judgment or to reimburse the surety for any payment or pay-13 ments made by him on account thereof.

14 Second—JOINT OBLIGATIONS.] If the action be a contract action, and such 15 judgment defendants, or two or more of them, are principals, the court may 16 require each of them so liable as principals to pay his proportion of the judg-17 ment, or to contribute his proper proportion towards the reimbursement of any 18 other judgment defendant who shall have paid more than his proper proportion 19 of the judgment.

20 Third—TORTS OTHER THAN WILFUL INJURY.] If the action be for a tort other 21 than an injury wilfully inflicted, the court may apportion the payment of the 22 judgment between the judgment defendants in such manner as a court may, under 23 all the circumstances disclosed by the evidence, deem just and equitable, it being 24 the intention hereof that the damages arising out of a tort, other than an injury 25 wilfully inflicted, shall be apportioned among the parties guilty of such tort ac-26 cording to the respective degrees of the responsibilities of such parties for the 27 commission of the same.

Sec. 519. ADJUSTMENT NOT TO AFFECT RIGHTS OF PLAINTIFF.] The adjust-2 ment of the rights of judgment defendants as between each other provided for in 3 the preceding section shall in no manner affect the right of the plaintiff to an 4 immediate enforcement of his judgment against any or either of the parties 5 against whom the same has been rendered.

Sec. 520. CONSOLIDATION OF ACTIONS.] Whenever there are pending in the 2 same court two or more actions at law for the recovery of money or personal 3 property involving questions of law or fact common to all of said actions, the 4 court may, on motion of any party to either of said actions, or of its own mo-5 tion, order that said actions or any of them be consolidated and tried and dis-6 posed of as one action, if, in the opinion of the court, such consolidation will 7 promote the prompt and proper determination of the actions so consolidated.

Sec. 521. REFERENCES TO MASTERS.] In any action at law there may be a 2 reference to a master in chancery for the purpose of determining such matters 3 as are specified in the division of this act especially dealing with proceedings 4 before masters.

Sec. 522. PROOF OF MATTERS OF DEFENSE OCCURRING AFTER FILING SPECIFICATION 2 OF DEFENSE.] Whenever in any action at law, other than a criminal action, after 3 the filing by the defendant of his specification of defense or defenses, any facts 4 shall arise which the defendant may conceive to constitute a defense to the plain-5 tiff's claim, in whole or in part, the defendant may, before the trial, serve upon

6 the plaintiff notice in writing that such facts will be relied upon by the defendant 7 at the trial as a defense, in whole or in part, to the plaintiff's claim, and there-8 upon such facts may be proven by the defendant at the trial and the judgment in 9 such case shall be such as the facts proven at the trial may require.

Sec. 523. POSTPONEMENTS OF TRIALS.] With respect to applications for post-2 ponements of trials or hearings the following rules shall prevail:

3 First—ABSENCE OF MATERIAL EVIDENCE.] When the postponement is applied 4 for on account of the absence of material evidence, the court may require that 5 the motion be supported by the affidavit of the party so applying, or his author-6 ized agent, showing that due diligence has been used to obtain such evidence, or 7 the want of time to obtain it, and of what particular fact or facts the same con-8 sists, and if the evidence consists of the testimony of a witness, his place of resi-9 dence, or, if his place of residence is not known, showing that due diligence has 10 been used to ascertain the same and that, if further time be given, such evidence 11 can be procured. The court may permit an additional affidavit to be filed to 12 supply any necessary averment which has been omitted from the original affi-13 davit.

14 Second—WHEN EVIDENCE IMMATERIAL OR AFFIDAVIT ADMITTED.] Should the 15 court be satisfied that the evidence specified in the affidavit or affidavits filed in 16 support of the motion would not be material on the trial or hearing of the action 17 or if the other party will admit the affidavit in evidence, the trial or hearing of 18 the action shall not be postponed unless the court shall be of opinion that the giving 19 in open court of the testimony proposed to be obtained is necessary to a proper 20 decision of the action upon the merits.

21 Third—EFFECT OF ADMISSION OF AFFIDAVIT.] When the affidavit is concern-22 ing the evidence of a witness the party admitting such affidavit shall be held to 23 admit only that if the absent witness were present he would testify as alleged in 24 the affidavit and such admission shall have no greater force or effect than if such 25 absent witness were present and testified as alleged in the affidavit, leaving it to 26 the party admitting such affidavit to controvert the statements contained there-27 in or to impeach said witness, the same as if such witness were present and ex-28 amined in open court.

29 Fourth—DEFENDANT IN MILITARY SERVICE.] It shall be a sufficient cause for 30 postponement of the trial or hearing of any action in time of war or insurrection 31 that the defendant is in the military service of the United States, or of this 32 state, if it shall be made to appear to the court, by affidavit, that the presence 33 of the defendant is in any degree necessary for a full and fair defense of the 34 action.

35 Fifth—PARTY OR ATTORNEY MEMBER OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY.] In any action
 36 pending at any time when the General Assembly is in session, it shall be a suf-37 ficient cause for a postponement of the trial or hearing if it shall appear to the 38 court by affidavit that any party applying for such postponement, or any attor-39 ney, solicitor or counsel of such party, is a member of either house of the Gen-40 eral Assembly and in actual attendance on the sessions of the same, and that the 41 attendance of such party, attorney, solicitor or counsel in court is necessary to 42 a fair and proper trial or hearing of such action: Provided, however, that this 43 clause shall not apply to any case of application for a postponement by reason 44 of the absence of any attorney or solicitor or counsel who shall not have been 45 actually employed in such action prior to the commencement of such session of the 46 General Assembly, nor to the practice in the supreme court or in the appellate 47 court.

48 Sixth—TO WHAT TIME POSTPONEMENT MADE.] When any trial or hearing is 49 postponed on account of the absence of material evidence, such postponement 50 shall be until such time as may appear to be reasonably necessary to enable the 51 party applying for a postponement to procure such evidence.

52 Seventh—POSTPONEMENT IN TIME OF WAR.] When a postponement is allowed 53 in time of war or insurrection because the defendant is in the military service of 54 the United States or of this state, the postponement shall be until such time as 55 such war or insurrection ceases or until the service of the defendant therein 56 shall have terminated and such time thereafter as may appear to be reasonably 57 necessary to enable the defendant to be present at the trial or hearing of the 58 action.

59 Eighth—WHEN PARTY OR ATTORNEY MEMBER OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY.] When 60 any postponement is had on account of any party, attorney, solicitor or counsel 61 being a member of either house of the General Assembly and in actual attend-62 ance on the sessions thereof, such postponement shall be until ten days or more 63 after the adjournment of the General Assembly.

64 Ninth—WHEN SEVERAL COURTS IN SESSION AT SAME TIME.] When there is 65 more than one court of record, or more than one branch of the same court of 66 record, in session at the same time in any county for the trial, hearing and final 67 determination of actions, the court may allow such postponements of trials on 68 account of the actual engagement of the attorneys of the respective parties in 69 trials of other actions as may appear to be necessary to prevent injustice and 70 facilitate the transaction of the business of the court.

Sec. 524. JURY TRIAL TO BE DEMANDED WHEN.] Every action at law, a crim-
 2 inal action or a quasi criminal action brought for the recovery of a fine or pen-3 alty for the violation of a municipal ordinance excepted, shall be tried by the 4 court without a jury unless the plaintiff at the time he commences his action, or 5 the defendant at the time he enters his appearance, shall file with the clerk of the 6 court in which such action is commenced, a demand in writing of a trial by jury, 7 which demand, however, may be withdrawn by the party filing the same at any 8 time before trial. If the demand be by the plaintiff it shall be embodied in and 9 form a part of his praecipe for a summons or writ, or, in an action of manda-10 mus, it shall be contained in a note at the foot of the petition, and, if it be by 11 the defendant or garnishee, it shall be embodied in and form a part of his ap-12 pearance in writing.

Sec. 525. JURY TRIAL MANDATORY IN CAPITAL AND PENITENTIARY CASES.] Every 2 criminal action in which the punishment may be death or confinement in the pen-3 itentiary shall, unless the defendant shall enter a plea of guilty, be tried by jury.

Sec. 526. WAIVER OF JURY IN MISDEMEANORS AND QUASI CRIMINAL ACTIONS.]
 2 Every criminal action in which the punishment cannot be death or confinement 3 in the penitentiary, and every quasi criminal action brought to recover a fine or 4 penalty for the violation of a municipal ordinance, shall be tried by jury, unless 5 the defendant shall execute and file with the clerk of the court in which such ac-6 tion is commenced a waiver in writing of a trial thereof by jury, in which case 7 such action shall be tried by the court without a jury.

Sec. 527. JURORS TO BE INTERROGATED BEFORE IMPANELING.] It shall be the 2 duty of the judge presiding in any court or branch court in which a panel of 3 jurors is summoned for service to interrogate, or cause to be interrogated, all 4 jurors so summoned and appearing and to inquire into, or cause to be inquired 5 into, their qualifications to serve as such jurors, and to reject from service all 6 jurors who do not appear to possess the qualifications required by law and to 7 cause to be summoned in their places, in the manner required by law. persons 8 competent and qualified to serve as jurors. When there are several branches of 9 the same court being held at the same time for the trial of actions by jury, it 10 shall not be necessary that there be a full panel of twenty-four petit jurors for 11 each branch court, but the judges of such branch courts may cause to be impan-12 eled for service in all of said branches, as one panel, only such number of jurors 13 as may appear to be needed for the trial of actions therein to be tried by jury, 14 and the jurors needed, from time to time, in each branch court may be drawn 15 from such joint panel. When jurors are to be impaneled as one panel for service 16 in several branch courts, as aforesaid, the duty of interrogating, or causing to 17 be interrogated, such jurors and of inquiring into or causing to be inquired into 18 their qualifications, may be performed by any one of the judges of such branch

19 courts. When the requisite number of jurors have been accepted for service in 20 such court, branch court or branch courts, the judge or judges shall cause to be 21 prepared by the clerk printed or typewritten alphabetical lists of the jurors so 22 accepted for service, on which lists the name of each juror shall be followed by 23 a specification of his age, place of birth, occupation, place of residence and place 24 of business or employment, the place of residence and place of business or em-25 ployment, if in a city, to be accompanied by a specification of the street and num-26 ber or other sufficient designation thereof, and upon the calling of any jury into 27 the jury box a copy of such list shall be submitted for inspection and use, during 28 the impaneling of the jury, to each party to the action.

Sec. 528. CHALLENGES OF JURORS.] Every person arraigned for any crime
 2 punishable with death or imprisonment in the penitentiary for life shall be ad-
 3 mitted on his trial to a peremptory challenge of twenty jurors and no more; and 4 every person arraigned for any offense that may be punished by imprisonment
 5 for a term exceeding eighteen months shall be admitted to a peremptory challenge 6 of ten jurors and in all other criminal trials the defendant shall be allowed a per-7 emptory challenge of six jurors. The attorney prosecuting on behalf of the peo-8 ple shall be admitted to a peremptory challenge of the same number of jurors 9 that the accused is entitled to. In all actions, other than criminal actions, each 10 party shall be admitted to a peremptory challenge of five jurors and challenges 11 for cause shall be allowed as heretofore.

Sec. 529. EXAMINATION OF JURORS AT TRIAL—REVIEW ON APPEAL OF ERROR.]
 2 It shall be the duty of the judge presiding at the trial of any action tried by jury 3 to examine, or cause to be examined, all jurors called into the jury box with re-4 spect to their statutory qualifications to serve as petit jurors in such action and to 5 permit the plaintiff and the defendant to propound to the jurors such pertinent 6 questions as may be necessary for the purpose of ascertaining whether the jurors 7 are biased or prejudiced: but upon appeal or writ of error to review any judg-

8 ment in any such action tried by jury no ruling of the court pertaining to or con-9 nected with the impaneling of the jury, other than one improperly restricting the 10 right of a party to examine a juror as to bias or prejudice, or improperly over-11 ruling a challenge by a party of a juror for bias or prejudice, shall be subject to 12 review by the supreme court or appellate court.

Sec. 530. JURORS TO BE JUDGES OF FACTS, OR LAW AND FACTS WHEN—OATH.]

2 In cases other than criminal cases juries shall be judges of the facts only and 3 shall be sworn or affirmed to well and truly try the matters in issue and a true 4 verdict render according to the evidence. In criminal cases juries shall be judges 5 of both the law and the fact and shall be sworn or affirmed to well and truly try 6 the matters in issue and a true verdict render according to the law and the evi-7 dence. Such oath shall be in substantially the following form:

8 You and each of you do solemnly swear (or affirm), that you will well and 9 truly try the matters in issue in this action and a true verdict render according 10 to the evidence (or, according to the law and the evidence).

Sec. 531. JURORS MAY TAKE NOTES OF EVIDENCE WHEN—INSPECTION OF PREM-

2 ISES, ETC.] In all trials by jury the court, in its discretion, may permit the jury 3 to take such notes of the evidence introduced before them as the court, under all 4 the circumstances of the case, may deem necessary or proper to enable the jury 5 to return a proper verdict, and the court in any action tried by jury may also, 6 in its discretion, permit the jury to personally inspect any premises, building, ma-7 chinery, or implements concerning which testimony is introduced before the jury, 8 whenever, in the opinion of the court, such inspection will aid the jury in return-9 ing a proper verdict. Whenever, during the course of any trial by jury, the court 10 shall direct the inspection by the jury of any premises, building, machinery or im-11 plements, as aforesaid, the court may order the owner of any such premises, build-12 ing, machinery or implements to permit such inspection and may enforce com-13 pliance with such order: Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall 14 authorize inspection of any premises or building occupied as a residence without 15 the consent of the person residing therein.

Sec. 532. ORDER OF ARGUMENT TO JURY.] In every action, other than a crim-2 inal action, the right to open and close the argument to the jury in a case where 3 there is no intervention shall be with the plaintiff, unless the defendant shall 4 have the affirmative of all the issues before the jury, in which case it shall be with 5 the defendant. In a case where there is an intervention the order of argument, 6 when the plaintiff has the right to open and close, shall be, first, the opening ar-7 gument of the plaintiff; second, the argument of the intervenor; third, the argu-8 ment of the defendant, and, fourth, the closing argument for the plaintiff, and 9 where the defendant has the opening and close the order of the argument shall 10 be, first, the opening argument of the defendant; second, the argument of the in-11 tervener; third, the argument of the plaintiff, and, fourth, the closing argument 12 of the defendant. When there are several defendants or groups of defendants, or 13 several intervenors or groups of intervenors, each of which defendants or inter-14 venors, or groups of defendants or intervenors, are represented by different at-15 torneys, the order, as between themselves, of their arguments to the jury shall be 16 determined by the presiding judge.

Sec. 533. EXPRESSION OF OPINION BY ATTORNEY IN CRIMINAL ACTION PROHIBIT-2 ED—PENALTY.] In the argument of any criminal action before a jury neither the 3 state's attorney nor other attorney conducting the prosecution or assisting there-4 in, nor any attorney representing the defendant, shall be permitted to express his 5 opinion respecting the guilt or innocence of the defendant. A violation of this 6 section shall be deemed a contempt of court and shall be punished by the court 7 imposing upon the offending person, in the presence of the jury, a fine not ex-8 ceeding one hundred dollars ($100), and in case of such violation, it shall be the 9 further duty of the court to instruct the jury to wholly disregard any opinion so 10 expressed.

Sec. 534. DENUNCIATION AND ABUSE OF PARTIES AND WITNESSES PROHIBITED—

2 PENALTY.] In the argument of any case, civil, criminal or quasi criminal, to a 3 jury, no attorney shall be permitted to indulge in the use of denunciation or 4 abusive epithets towards parties to the action or towards witnesses who may 5 have testified upon the trial. A violation of this section shall be deemed a con-6 tempt of court and shall be punished by the court by imposing upon the offend-7 ing person, in the presence of the jury, a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars 8 ($25), and in case of such violation it shall be the further duty of the court to 9 instruct the jury to wholly disregard such denunciation or abusive epithets.

Sec. 535. CHARGING THE JURY—ORAL CHARGE—REQUESTS TO CHARGE — OBJEC-

2 TIONS TO BE POINTED OUT—ADDITIONAL CHARGE—WRITTEN INSTRUCTIONS.] In trials 3 by jury the court may charge the jury both as to the law and the facts (a) 4 in all actions at law for the recovery of money only, excepting actions for breach 5 of promise of marriage and tort actions, (b) in all actions at law for the recov-6 ery of real or personal property, and (c) in all actions of mandamus, actions 7 of quo warranto and eminent domain actions; and in all other cases the court 8 shall charge the jury as to the law only, and with respect to such charge the 9 following rules shall prevail:

10 First—ORAL OR WRITTEN CHARGE.] The charge may, in the discretion of the 11 court, be given orally or in writing.

12 Second—ORAL CHARGE TO BE TAKEN DOWN STENOGRAPHICALLY, ETC., WHEN.]

13 When the charge is given orally it shall, at the request of either party, be taken 14 down in shorthand and a transcript thereof shall be made and shall be signed by 15 the judge and filed in the cause in which such charge is given.

16 Third—REQUESTS TO CHARGE.] In case the judge charges the jury orally 17 either party shall have the right, at any time before the commencement of the 18 closing argument to the jury, to present in writing to the judge requests to charge 19 containing such propositions as such party may claim to be propositions of law applicable to the case and may wish to have embodied in the judge's charge to the jury, and it shall be the duty of the judge to examine the requests so presented and to embody in his charge every proposition therein which the judge may hold to be a correct proposition of law applicable to the case. When either party presents to the judge any such request or requests in writing, he shall at the same time deliver to the opposite party a copy thereof.

Fourth—REQUESTS TO BE SEPARATE, ETC.] Every such request to charge shall be separate and distinct and shall be confined to the statement of a single proposition of law claimed to be applicable to the case.

Fifth—REQUESTS TO BE MARKED AND FILED.] Every such request to charge shall be marked by the judge by indorsing his initials thereon and after the conclusion of the giving of the charge such requests shall be filed by the clerk among the papers in the case.

Sixth—SUFFICIENT IF CHARGE REQUESTED IS GIVEN IN EQUIVALENT WORDS.] It shall not be necessary for the judge in an oral charge to the jury to give any proposition of law requested by a party to be embodied in the charge, and which the judge approves, in the exact language in which it is stated by such party in such request, but it shall be sufficient if such proposition is stated by the judge to the jury in language substantially equivalent to the language used by such party in such request, or language correctly informing the jury with respect to such proposition of law and making the same applicable to the decision of the case.

Seventh—OBJECTIONS TO BE POINTED OUT SPECIFICALLY.] Upon the conclusion of an oral charge, and before the jury retire, each party shall point out to the court specifically every objection which such party may wish to make to the charge, and the court may thereupon further charge the jury for the purpose of correcting any error in the charge as given, or of adding thereto any further instructions as to the law of the case which the court may deem proper to be submitted to the jury, which subsequent or additional charge may be objected to by either party in the same manner as the previous charge: Provided however,

49 that it shall not be necessary for either party to point out to the court any failure 50 to embody in the charge any proposition contained in any request to charge pre-51 sented in writing to the judge as hereinbefore provided: And, provided, further, 52 that in a criminal action the failure of the defendant or his attorney to point out 53 an objection to the charge shall not preclude him from obtaining relief, upon a 54 motion for a new trial in the court of original jurisdiction or upon a writ of 55 error in the supreme court, from any substantial error in the charge by which 56 injustice has resulted to the defendant or by which the defendant has been de-57 prived of his right to a fair and impartial trial.

58 Eighth—CORRECTION TO BE POINTED OUT WHEN.] Whenever any objection is 59 made to an oral charge, or to any portion thereof, the court may require the 60 party so objecting to specifically point out the correction sought to be made.

61 Ninth—TIME FOR STATING OBJECTIONS.] Upon the conclusion of an oral 62 charge the court shall allow the respective parties such reasonable time, not less 63 than twenty minutes each, as they may require to enable them to properly present 64 and state their objections thereto, and the court shall hear first the objections 65 on behalf of the plaintiff and thereafter those on behalf of the defendant. At 66 the request of either party the court shall hear the objections to the charge 67 out of the presence of the jury.

68 Tenth—FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS ASKED BY JURY.] If, after an oral charge is 69 given and the jury have retired, they return into court for further instructions, 70 the court may give such additional charge as the court may deem necessary, but 71 the charge shall be given only in the presence of the parties or of their attorneys, 72 and whenever such additional charge is given it shall be taken down in short-73 hand, transcribed, signed and filed, and it may be objected to in the manner here-74 inbefore provided for with respect to the original charge.

75 Eleventh—CHARGE TO BE ORAL UNLESS, ETC.] The charge to the jury shall, in 76 all cases, be oral unless the judge, at or before the calling of the action for trial, 77 shall have announced that the instructions to the jury shall be given in writing.

78 Twelfth—PROPOSITIONS WHEN CHARGE IS IN WRITING.] When the judge elects 79 to charge the jury in writing each party shall be at liberty to present to the judge, 80 for his approval or disapproval, such propositions in writing as such party may 81 wish to give to the jury as a part of the instructions: Provided, however, that 82 such propositions shall be presented to the judge and a copy thereof given to the 83 opposite party prior to the commencement of the closing argument to the jury.

84 Thirteenth—ENDORSEMENTS ON MARGIN.] When, in case the charge is given 85 in writing, instructions are asked which the judge cannot give, he shall, on the 86 margin thereof, write the word "refused," and upon the margin of such as he 87 approves he shall write the word "given," and he shall in no case, after instruc-88 tions in writing are given, qualify, modify or in any manner explain the same to 89 the jury otherwise than in writing.

90 Fourteenth—OBJECTIONS TO WRITTEN INSTRUCTIONS TO BE STATED.] When in-91 structions are given in writing each party shall, before the reading thereof by 92 the court to the jury, be afforded an opportunity to examine the same and shall 93 state to the court his objections thereto and may be required by the judge to point 94 out such objections specifically.

Sec. 536. PROCEDURE ON MOTION TO DIRECT VERDICT.] Whenever, in any action 2 tried by jury, a motion shall be made that the court direct the jury to return a 3 specified verdict and the court shall be of the opinion that such motion should be 4 sustained, the court, before allowing the motion and directing the verdict, shall, 5 upon the motion of either party, particularly specify the grounds of the allow-6 ance of such motion and, if the same be allowed on account of any defect in proof, 7 the court shall specify particularly such defect and shall allow such defect to 8 be supplied, if the same can be supplied conveniently, and, if the same be not sup-9 plied and the verdict be so directed, the judgment of the court shall not be af-10 firmed upon appeal or writ of error excepting for the defect so pointed out, un-11 less, upon the whole case, the supreme court or the appellate court, as the case

12 may be, shall be of the opinion there could be no proof supplied which would 13 justify any different verdict.

Sec. 537. COURT MAY ORDER NON-SUIT, WHEN.] Whenever, upon the trial of 2 an action tried by jury, the court shall be of the opinion that the evidence intro-3 duced by the plaintiff is insufficient to support a verdict in his favor, the court 4 may, in its discretion, whenever it thinks justice will be promoted thereby, 5 order that the plaintiff be non-suited instead of directing a verdict in favor of 6 the defendant.

Sec. 538. VERDICT—REDUCING TO FORM—CORRECTING.] It shall be sufficient 2 for the jury to pronounce their verdict by their foreman in open court without 3 reducing the same to writing and the clerk shall enter the same in form under 4 the direction of the court. Whenever the jury return a verdict in writing and 5 the same appears to be defective, either in form or substance, the court may 6 correct the same so that the same shall express the real intention of the jury.

Sec. 539. GENERAL AND SPECIAL VERDICT.] In any action, other than a crim-2 inal action, the jury may render, in their discretion, either a general or a special 3 verdict; and in any case in which they render a general verdict they may be re-4 quired by the court, and must be so required at the request of any party to the 5 action, to find specially upon any material question or questions of ultimate fact 6 which shall be stated to them in writing, which question or questions of ultimate 7 fact shall be submitted by the party requesting the same to the adverse party be-8 fore the commencement of the argument to the jury. When a special finding of 9 ultimate fact is inconsistent with the general verdict the former shall control the 10 latter and the court may render judgment accordingly.

Sec. 540. SEPARATION OF JURORS BEFORE RETIREMENT DISCRETIONARY—TREAT-2 MENT OF JURORS WHEN KEPT TOGETHER.] Hereafter the separation of jurors in 3 any action, civil, quasi criminal or criminal, during the progress of the trial and 4 before they retire to consider of their verdict, shall be within the discretion of 5 the judge presiding at the trial. It shall be the duty of the presiding judge, in 6 all cases in which the jurors are required to be kept together during the pro-7 gress of a trial, to see that they are humanely treated and furnished with proper 8 food and accommodations for sleep, rest and recreation, the expense thereof to 9 be paid out of the county treasury.

Sec. 541. OATH TO OFFICER ATTENDING JURY UNNECESSARY.] It shall be un-2 necessary hereafter to administer any oath to any officer who is to attend any 3 jury in any action, civil, criminal or quasi criminal, when they retire to consider 4 of their verdict, but every officer so attending any jury when they retire to con-5 sider of their verdict shall be bound by his official oath to keep the jury together 6 and not suffer others to speak to them, excepting for the purpose of supplying 7 them with food as hereinafter provided, until they shall have agreed upon their 8 verdict, excepting as may otherwise be directed by the court.

Sec. 542. JURORS TO BE SUPPLIED WITH FOOD, ETC.—SLEEP AND REST.] During 2 the retirement of the jury to consider of their verdict they shall, unless the court 3 shall otherwise so expressly direct, be supplied, at proper times, by the officer 4 or officers attending them, with food and drink, intoxicating liquors excepted, and 5 with proper accommodations for sleep and rest during the hours usually devoted 6 thereto, and during the hours devoted to such sleep and rest the jurors may be 7 separated from each other to such extent as the officer or officers in charge of 8 the jury may deem necessary or proper, or as the court may direct, due care be-9 ing taken to prevent others speaking to them during their retirement.

Sec. 543. SEALED VERDICTS.] The court may, in its discretion, direct the jury 2 in any action, civil, criminal or quasi criminal, other than a capital case, in case 3 they shall agree upon their verdict while the court is not in actual session for 4 the trial of actions, to write out, sign and seal up their verdict and deliver the 5 same to their foreman to be returned by such foreman into court in such manner 6 as the court may direct. Upon the signing and sealing up of any such verdict

 7 the jury may separate and appear in court at the time so directed. Any verdict 8 so signed and sealed up and returned into court shall be as valid and binding 9 as if the same had been rendered by the jury in open court in the first instance: 10 Provided, however, that, in any criminal action in which the punishment may be 11 confinement in the penitentiary, no such separation of the jury after the sign-12 ing and sealing up of their verdict shall be allowed, if the defendant, at the time 13 the jury retire, shall expressly object thereto. When the jury are allowed to sep-14 arate after the signing and sealing up of their verdict the right of either party 15 to poll the jury shall not be exercised.

Sec. 544. COURT MAY ALLOW JURORS USE OF TRANSCRIPT OF EVIDENCE.] When-2 ever the proceedings in any action tried by jury, whether civil, criminal or quasi 3 criminal, have been taken down stenographically by a court stenographer and 4 have been transcribed before the jury shall have agreed upon their verdict, the 5 court may, in its discretion, at the request of the jury, permit the jury the use 6 of such transcript.

Sec. 545. WHAT PAPERS JURY MAY TAKE.] Papers, other than depositions 2 read in evidence, may be taken by the jury when they retire, and depositions 3 read in evidence may also be so taken when the jury is allowed to use a transcript 4 of the stenographic notes of the evidence as provided in the preceding section.

Sec. 546. MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL — NOTICE AND COPIES OF AFFIDAVITS TO BE 2 SERVED—ORAL EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES—ENTRY OF JUDGMENT DELAYED.] Every 3 motion for a new trial in a case tried by jury shall be in writing and shall be filed 4 with the clerk and notice of the filing of the same shall be given to the adverse 5 party together with copies of all affidavits, if any, which are to be read in ev-
 6 idence in support thereof. It shall be unnecessary in any motion for a new trial

7 to specify the grounds therefor. When any affidavit is filed in support of a mo-8 tion for a new trial the court, upon the hearing of the motion, may, in its discre-9 tion, require the party making the affidavit to attend in person and to testify in 10 open court. A motion for a new trial may be entered at any time before final 11 judgment and no final judgment shall, without the consent of the parties, be en-12 tered upon the verdict of a jury within five days after the rendition of such ver-13 dict, nor, in case of the entry of a motion for a new trial, until the disposition 14 of such motion.

Sec. 547. PROPOSITIONS OF LAW OR MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL UNNECESSARY IN AC-2 TION TRIED BY COURT.] In any action tried by the court without a jury it shall be 3 unnecessary for either party to present to the court any propositions to be held 4 as law in the decision of the case, or to move for a new trial.

Sec. 548. MOTION IN ARREST NOT ALLOWED.] No motion in arrest of judgment 2 shall be hereafter allowed in any civil or quasi criminal action.

Sec. 549. WHEN NON-SUIT TO BE CLAIMED.] Every person desirous of suffer-2 ing a non-suit shall be barred therefrom, unless he do so before the jury retire 3 from the bar, or, if the action is tried by the court without a jury, before the ac-4 tion is submitted for final decision.

Sec. 550. ACTION NOT TO BE DISMISSED FOR MISTAKE IN FORM.] No action at 2 law shall be dismissed because of any mistake in the form in which the same 3 is brought, nor because the same should have been brought as an action in 4 equity, unless the same shall have been so brought in bad faith; but the court 5 shall order all mistakes in form corrected, and, if the action should have been 6 brought as an action in equity, and the same can not be as conveniently and 7 satisfactorily disposed of as an action at law, the court shall order the proper 8 pleadings to be filed and shall proceed to the final disposition of the action as 9 if the same had been brought in the proper form in the first instance.

Sec. 551. ORDER OF PRECEDENCE IN DISPOSITION OF ACTIONS AT LAW.] In the

2 disposition of actions at law, other than criminal actions, the following order of 3 precedence shall be observed, as nearly as may be found practicable consistently 4 with other provisions of this act:

5 First—ACTIONS IN NAME OF PEOPLE BY ATTORNEY GENERAL OR STATE'S ATTOR-6 NEY.] Actions brought in the name of the People of the State of Illinois or in 7 the name of the State of Illinois, by the Attorney General or state's attorney, 8 shall take precedence over all other actions.

9 Second—MANDAMUS, QUO WARRANTO, CERTIORARI.] Actions of mandamus, ac-10 tions of quo warranto and actions of certiorari shall take precedence over all 11 other actions than those specified in Clause First above.

12 Third—FORCIBLE DETAINER.] Actions of forcible detainer shall take preced-13 ence over all other actions than those specified in Clauses First and Second 14 above.

15 Fourth—TRIAL OF RIGHT OF PROPERTY, ATTACHMENT, REPLEVIN, ETC.] Actions 16 for the trial of the right of property, actions of attachment in which personal 17 property has been levied upon under the writs and actions of replevin in which 18 personal property has been replevied under the writs, shall take precedence over 19 all other actions than those specified in Clauses First, Second and Third above.

20 Fifth—DAY TO BE SET APART FOR TRIAL OF ACTIONS WITHOUT JURY.] In every 21 court the business of which is sufficient to occupy the time of two or more 22 judges during the entire year, one day in each week shall be set apart for the 23 trial of actions at law to be tried without a jury, and such number of judges, 24 when practicable, shall be assigned to the trial of such actions as may be neces-25 sary to secure the disposition on such day, of all such actions as may be noted 26 for trial, and upon such day actions in which the amount claimed by the plain-27 tiff does not exceed five hundred dollars ($500) shall take precedence over all 28 actions in which the amount claimed by the plaintiff exceeds five hundred dollars 29 ($500), it being the intention hereof that every such action involving not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) shall be disposed of with the least practicable inconvenience and delay to the parties thereto.

Sec. 552. PROCEDURE NOT OTHERWISE PROVIDED FOR.] In all matters not provided for by this act the procedure in actions at law shall be such as may be prescribed by such rules as may be adopted by the respective courts in the manner authorized by this act, and, where no provision is made by this act or by such rules, then as nearly in accordance with the methods of procedure heretofore prevailing in this state in actions at law as may be consistent with the general spirit and intention of this act.

4 action shall be the petition of the plaintiff, the exceptions, demurrer and answer 5 thereto by the defendant, and the exceptions and demurrer by the plaintiff to 6 the answer of the defendant.

Sec. 554. REQUISITES OF PETITION.] The petition shall specify the court in

2 which the action is brought, the names of the parties thereto, and the classi-3 fication and number of the action, and shall contain an introduction 4 stating that the plaintiff brings his action of mandamus against the 5 defendant and thereafter, as concisely as may be, a narrative of the material 6 facts, matters and circumstances on which the plaintiff relies for relief, such 7 narrative to be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively and each para-8 graph to contain, as nearly as may be, a separate and distinct matter or allega-9 tion. Its language shall be as brief and concise as is consistent with the under-10 standing by the court of the case intended to be stated by the plaintiff and to that 11 end it shall be liberally construed in favor of the plaintiff. It shall be complete 12 in itself and shall contain no reference to any exhibit, but when any paper, docu-13 ment or record of any kind is material to the statement of the plaintiff's case 14 the substance thereof, or of the portion thereof which is material to the plain-15 tiff's case, shall be stated or the entire paper, document or record shall be 16 embodied in a paragraph of the petition. It shall pray specifically, but, as far 17 as may be practicable, by the use of abbreviated forms the meaning of which may 18 be readily understood by the court, for the relief which the plaintiff may con-19 ceive himself entitled to and also for general relief and the prayer shall be 20 divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively each praying separate relief.
 21 It shall be verified by the affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, that the 22 same is true in substance and in fact, excepting such matters as are therein 23 stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and that, as to such matters so 24 alleged, the plaintiff, or his agent or attorney, as the case may be, believes it 25 to be true. It shall contain no prayer for process, but such process shall be 26 issued or such notice shall be given to the defendants as may be required by the 27 plaintiff by a note at the foot of the petition.

Sec. 555. SUMMONS—WHEN APPEARANCE REQUIRED.] The summons in an 2 action of mandamus shall require the appearance of the defendant on some 3 Monday not less than five (5) nor more than thirty (30) days after the date there-4 of: Provided, however, that the court, by special order as provided in section 5 one hundred seventy-seven (177) of this act, may provide for an earlier date 6 for such appearance.

Sec. 556. EXCEPTIONS TO PETITION.] Exceptions may be filed by the de-2 fendant to allegations of a petition which are scandalous or impertinent. The 3 form of such exceptions shall be the same, as near as may be, as that provided 4 in this act for exceptions to bills of complaint in equity and the proceedings 5 thereon shall likewise be the same, as near as may be, as in cases of exceptions 6 to such bills of complaint.

Sec. 557. DEMURRER TO PETITION.] If the defendant conceives the petition 2 to be insufficient in law he may file a demurrer to the same, either without filing 3 exceptions thereto or after such exceptions have been filed and the judgment of 4 the court has been taken thereon. Such demurrer shall be general and the form 5 thereof, after the specification of the court in which the action is pending and the 6 title, classification and number of the action, shall be "the defendant demurs 7 to the petition," or words substantially equivalent thereto.

Sec. 558. ANSWER TO PETITION.] If the defendant does not except or de-2 mur to the petition, or if his exceptions or demurrer thereto be overruled, he 3 shall file an answer thereto. Every answer shall state that the defendant answers 4 the petition, or so much of the petition as the defendant elects to answer, and 5 shall answer fully all the allegations of the petition, excepting such as are not 6 required to be answered by reason of exceptions or demurrer thereto allowed.

7 It shall contain not only the defendant's answer to the several paragraphs of 8 the petition, but thereafter such statement of his case as he may deem it neces-9 sary or advisable to make, and such answer shall also be divided into para-10 graphs numbered consecutively, each paragraph containing, as nearly as may be, 11 a separate and distinct allegation; and such answer shall be full and explicit 12 and distinct to each separate paragraph of the petition in the same order as 13 numbered in the petition before it enters upon any statement of the defend-14 ant's case. When the answer admits or denies any entire paragraph of the 15 petition, it shall state the number of the paragraph so admitted or denied with-16 out repeating the language of such paragraph or any portion thereof. When 17 it admits a portion of a paragraph and denies the residue, it shall set forth that 18 it admits a portion thereof, setting forth the portion admitted, and denies the resi-19 due, or that it denies a portion thereof, setting forth the portion denied, and 20 admits the residue. Every answer shall be verified by the affidavit of the de-21 fendant, or, in case there are several defendants, by the affidavit of any one or 22 more of them cognizant of the facts, in substantially the same form as the affi-23 davit required to be made by the plaintiff in verifying his petition.

Sec. 559. EXCEPTIONS TO ANSWER.] Exceptions may be filed by the plain-
 2 tiff to an answer for scandal or impertinence. The form of such exceptions 3 shall be the same, as near as may be, as that prescribed by this act for exceptions 4 taken to an answer in equity for the like cause.

Sec. 560. DEMURRER TO ANSWER.] If the plaintiff does not except to the 2 answer, or if he file exceptions thereto and the judgment of the court has been 3 taken thereon, he may file a demurrer thereto, such demurrer to be in a form 4 similar, as nearly as may be, to a demurrer to the petition.

Sec. 561. WHEN CAUSE AT ISSUE.] If the plaintiff does not except or demur 2 to the answer, or if his exceptions or demurrer thereto be overruled, in whole or 3 in part, and the plaintiff do not amend his petition, the cause shall be deemed at 4 issue and shall stand for trial.

Sec. 562. TRIAL UPON PETITION AND ANSWER.] When the action shall be at 2 issue the same may, upon the application of the plaintiff, be set for trial upon 3 the petition and answer, in which case the answer shall be taken as true. If 4 the action be not set for trial upon petition and answer the court shall proceed 5 to the trial of the issues in the same manner as in other actions at law, excepting 6 as may be hereinafter provided.

Sec. 563. TIME FOR EXCEPTING, DEMURRING OR ANSWERING.] The time within 2 which the defendant shall be required to except, demur to or answer the petition 3 shall be five days after the entry of his appearance, and the time within which 4 the plaintiff may except or demur to an answer shall be five days after the 5 filing of the same, but the court, whenever, in its judgment, such course is neces-6 sary or proper, may either diminish or enlarge such time.

Sec. 564. JUDGMENT.] The judgment in an action of mandamus, if for the 2 defendant, shall be that the defendant go hence without day and recover of the 3 plaintiff his costs, but if for the plaintiff it shall be that the defendant shall per-4 form such act as the facts, either admitted by the pleadings, or established by the 5 finding of the court or by the verdict of the jury, shall entitle the plaintiff to 6 have performed by the defendant.

Sec. 565. WRIT OF MANDAMUS UNNECESSARY.] No writ of mandamus shall 2 be necessary to enforce any judgment entered in favor of the plaintiff in an 3 action of mandamus, but the defendant shall be bound to take notice of the 4 judgment and to perform the same within such time as may be fixed by the 5 court for such performance, without further notice, and for failure so to do may 6 be punished as for a civil contempt of court.

Sec. 566. MANDAMUS TO BE ALLOWED WHEN SUITABLE REMEDY.] The action of 2 mandamus may be maintained in all cases in which it has been allowed hitherto 3 and in every other case in which it may furnish a suitable remedy to the plain-4 tiff with respect to the relief to which he may appear to be entitled, and no 5 judgment in an action for mandamus, if the same appears to do justice between 6 the parties thereto, shall be reversed because of any supposed impropriety in the 7 form of the action.

Sec. 567. PLAINTIFF MAY BE COMPELLED TO DO EQUITY.] The court, as a con-2 dition to the granting of relief to the plaintiff, may require of him the perform-3 ance of any act to the performance of which the defendant, on his part, in 4 equity and justice may appear to be entitled.

Sec. 568. EQUITABLE RELIEF MAY BE GRANTED TO PLAINTIFF.] In any action
 2 of mandamus the court may grant to the plaintiff any equitable or other relief 3 to which the plaintiff may appear, from the pleadings or proofs, to be entitled 4 as against the defendant and which may be necessary or proper to the attain-5 ment of a full and complete measure of justice between the parties respecting the 6 matters in controversy between them.

Sec. 569. MODE OF TRIAL.] Every action of mandamus shall be tried by the 2 court without a jury, unless the plaintiff at the time he commences his action, 3 or the defendant at the time he enters his appearance, shall file with the clerk 4 of the court in which such action is commenced a demand in writing of a trial 5 thereof by jury, which demand, however, may be withdrawn by the party filing 6 the same at any time before trial. If the demand be by the plaintiff it may be 7 set forth in a note annexed to his petition, and if it be by the defendant it shall 8 be embodied in and form a part of his appearance in writing.

Sec. 570. REFERENCE TO A MASTER.] When, in any action of mandamus to 2 be tried without a jury, there shall be an issue of fact, the court may, in its discretion, refer it to a master in chancery to take the evidence and report the same to the court, and in such case the master's report with the evidence accompanying the same shall constitute a part of the record of the action for the purposes of an appeal or writ of error. The method of procedure before the master in such case shall be the same, as near as may be, as in an action in equity.

Sec. 571. MANDAMUS TO TEST VALIDITY OF LAW OR ORDINANCE.] Any citizen of this State may maintain in the supreme court, or in any other court of competent jurisdiction, an action of mandamus for the determination of the question whether any act passed by the General Assembly of this State and published, or about to be published, as, or purporting to be, a law of this State, or any ordinance adopted by the city council, board of trustees or other competent body of any municipal corporation of this State and published, or about to be published, as, or purporting to be, an ordinance of such municipal corporation, is or is not, in whole or in part, a valid law or ordinance, as the case may be. Such action may be commenced as well before as after the time fixed for the taking effect of such act or ordinance. The mode of procedure in any such action shall be substantially as follows:

First—SECRETARY OF STATE OR CLERK OF MUNICIPAL CORPORATION TO BE DEFENDANT.] When such action concerns the validity of an act of the General Assembly, the same shall be brought against the Secretary of State as the sole defendant, and when the action concerns the validity of an ordinance of a municipal corporation, the same shall be brought against the clerk of such corporation as the sole defendant.

Second—FRAME OF PETITION.] The petition shall specify the court in which the action is brought, the names of the parties thereto and the classification and number of the action, and shall contain an introduction stating that the plaintiff brings his action of mandamus against the defendant and shall thereafter set forth, (a) that the plaintiff is a citizen of this State; (b) the passage

24 or adoption of the act of the General Assembly or of the ordinance of the muni-25 cipal corporation, the validity of which, in whole or in part, is questioned, the 26 same to be either set forth in full or so described that the same may be readily 27 identified; (c) that the plaintiff believes such act of the General Assembly or or-28 dinance to be invalid, either in whole or in part, and, if in part, specifying the 29 part, either because the same is one which, or some specified part of which 30 the General Assembly or the municipal corporation had no power to 31 pass or adopt, or because the same was not passed or adopted in 32 the manner required by the constitution or by law, in which latter case the 33 particulars in which the constitution or law was disregarded are to be speci-34 fied; and (d) that the plaintiff brings the action in good faith and for no 35 other purpose than to enable the plaintiff and the other people of this State to 36 know whether such act of the General Assembly, or ordinance of such municipi-37 pal corporation, is or is not valid, in whole or in part. It shall pray that the 38 defendant be commanded to cancel, in such manner as the court may direct, the 39 act or ordinance, or so much thereof as may be adjudged invalid, and also for 40 general relief. It shall be verified by the affidavit of the plaintiff that the same 41 is true to the best of the plaintiff's knowledge, information and belief. It shall 42 contain no prayer for process, but such process shall be issued as may be re-43 quired by the plaintiff by a note at the foot of the petition, or by an order of court.

44 Third—SUMMONS AND OTHER PROCEEDINGS.] The summons shall be issued 45 and served and the other proceedings, excepting as herein otherwise provided, 46 shall be had, as near as may be, in accordance with the provisions of this act 47 pertaining to other actions of mandamus.

48 Fourth—APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT WHEN ACT OR ORDINANCE HELD INVALID.] 49 When such action is brought in any court other than the supreme court and 50 such act or ordinance is held by such court to be invalid and the defendant is 51 commanded to cancel the same in whole or in part, the court shall, in its judg-52 ment, allow an appeal to the defendant to the supreme court and it shall be the duty of the defendant to prosecute such appeal and the judgment of the court shall not be enforced until the final determination of such appeal.

Fifth—EFFECT OF JUDGMENT WHEN ACT OR ORDINANCE HELD VALID.] In case the action is brought in a court other than the supreme court and the judgment of the court is in favor of the validity of such act or ordinance, or of so much thereof as is alleged to be invalid, such judgment shall not be given force or effect in any other action unless an appeal be prosecuted therefrom to the supreme court and such judgment be by the supreme court affirmed.

Sixth—NOTICE OF PROCEEDING IN SUPREME COURT—OPPORTUNITY TO BE HEARD.] When any such action is pending in the supreme court, whether the same be brought there originally or whether it be brought there by appeal, the court may, in its discretion, cause suitable notice to be published of the pendency of action and the purpose thereof, and may afford to persons not parties to the action such opportunity to be heard as the court may deem necessary to a full and complete hearing and a just and proper determination thereof.

Seventh—ACTION TO HAVE PRECEDENCE.] Any action so brought shall take precedence over every other action excepting one of the same character in the court in which the same is brought or pending by appeal or otherwise, and shall be determined as speedily as may be consistent with a full hearing and a proper determination thereof.

Eighth—EFFECT OF JUDGMENT OF SUPREME COURT.] A judgment of the supreme court the effect of which is to determine that any such act or ordinance is invalid, in whole or in part, shall be final and conclusive as to all contracts made, acts done or rights or liabilities accruing thereunder subsequent to the entry of such judgment, and such act or ordinance, or so much thereof as is held to be invalid, shall thenceforth be deemed and held to be null, void and of no effect as to such contracts, acts, rights and liabilities, but such judgment shall be without prejudice to any subsequent adjudication by the supreme court respecting any contract made, act done, or right or liability accrued prior to the entry of such judgment.

Sec. 572. FORM OF PETITION.] The following form of petition provided for by the preceding section shall be deemed sufficient and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other petitions may be properly framed:

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF ILLINOIS.

John Doe,
v.
James A. Rose, as Secretary of State. } Mandamus. No. 25.

PETITION FOR MANDAMUS.

The plaintiff brings this his action of mandamus against the defendant and says:

1. Plaintiff is a citizen of the State of Illinois.
2. The General Assembly of the State of Illinois, at a session held in the year 1910, passed an act entitled (here insert title of act), which act was approved by the Governor of the State, and, if valid, took effect July 1, 1910, the same being in the words and figures following, to-wit:

3. Plaintiff believes that said act is invalid because the same is one which the General Assembly had no power to pass.

4. Plaintiff brings this action in good faith and for no other purpose than to enable the plaintiff and the other people of this State to know whether said act is or is not a valid law.

Wherefore plaintiff prays as follows:

First—That the defendant may be required to cancel said act in such manner as the court may direct.

Second—For general relief.

By WILLIAM SMITH,
His Attorney.

John Doe on his oath says that the foregoing petition is true to the best of his knowledge, information and belief.

JOHN DOE,
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of August, 1910.
JOHN SMITH,
Clerk.

NOTE.

The clerk will issue a summons to the defendant requiring the appearance of the defendant on such date as may be ordered by the court.

38 (If the validity of only part of an act is questioned, or if an ordinance is 39 brought in question, in whole or in part, the above form may be varied from 40 accordingly.)

Sec. 573. SUPREME COURT TO ENTERTAIN JURISDICTION IN ALL CASES.] Here-2 after it shall be the duty of the supreme court to entertain jurisdiction in every 3 action of mandamus brought in said court, when the petition of the plaintiff 4 states a case entitling the plaintiff to the relief proper to be given in such 5 action.

Sec. 574. PRACTICE IN SUPREME COURT.] The practice in the supreme court 2 in actions of mandamus shall be the same, as near as may be, as is prescribed by 3 this act for courts of original jurisdiction, excepting that neither party shall be 4 entitled to a trial by jury as a matter of right. When evidence is to be taken 5 upon any question of fact, it may be taken before any master in chancery or other 6 officer designated by the court or agreed upon by the parties.

Sec. 575. OTHER MATTERS TO BE REGULATED BY RULES.] All matters of prac-2 tice in the action of mandamus not provided for by this act, whether in courts of 3 original jurisdiction or in the supreme court, shall be regulated by rules to be 4 adopted from time to time by the supreme court, or, in default of such rules, 5 they shall be regulated by the rules heretofore in force in reference to such 6 matters so far as may be practicable consistently with the general spirit and in-7 tention of this act.

Sec. 576. SUPREME COURT MAY CHANGE PLEADINGS.] The supreme court 2 shall have power, by any rule or rules, to change the method of pleading in 3 actions of mandamus in such manner and to such extent as the court may deem 4 proper and expedient.

Sec. 578. HOW ACTION COMMENCED.] Every action of quo warranto shall

Sec. 579. SUMMONS—WHEN APPEARANCE REQUIRED.] The summons in an action of quo warranto shall require the appearance of the defendant on some Monday not less than five (5) nor more than thirty (30) days after the date thereof: Provided, however, that the court, by special order, as provided in section one hundred seventy-seven (177) of this act, may provide for an earlier date for such appearance.

8 abuse thereof, unless the court is of the opinion that the public good demands 9 such judgment, the court may fine the person or corporation found guilty in 10 any sum not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each offense.

Sec. 586. WHEN ACTION MAY BE INSTITUTED.] The action of certiorari 2 may be instituted to bring before the court the record of the proceedings of an in-

Sec. 587. WHO MAY BE PLAINTIFF.] The plaintiff in such action may be 2 any person who may have a legal interest in the proceedings sought to be re-

 3 commencement of the action.

Sec. 589. HOW ACTION COMMENCED.] Such action shall be commenced by the 2 filing by the plaintiff in the proper court of a petition setting forth the nature of 3 the plaintiff's case and the relief sought for. It shall specify the court in which 4 the action is pending, the names of the parties thereto and the classification and 5 number of the action. It shall contain an introduction stating that the plain-6 tiff brings his action of certiorari against the defendant or defendants, and 7 thereafter a narrative of the material facts, matters and circumstances on which 8 the plaintiff relies, such narrative to be divided into paragraphs numbered con-9 secutively, and each paragraph to contain, as nearly as may be, a separate and 10 distinct allegation. Its language shall be as brief and concise as is consistent 11 with the understanding by the court of the case intended to be stated by the 12 plaintiff and to that end it shall be liberally construed in the plaintiff's favor.

 13 It shall be complete in itself and shall contain no reference to any exhibits, but 14 when any paper, document or record of any kind is material to the statement 15 of the plaintiff's case the substance thereof, or of the portion thereof which is 16 material to the plaintiff's case, shall be stated, or the entire paper, document or 17 record shall be embodied, in a paragraph of the petition. It shall pray specific-18 ally, but, as far as may be practicable, by the use of abbreviated forms the mean-19 ing of which may be readily understood by the court, for the relief to which the 20 plaintiff may conceive himself entitled and also for general relief and the prayer 21 shall be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively, each praying separate 22 relief, but it shall contain no prayer for process, but such process shall be issued, 23 or such notice shall be given to the defendants, as may be required by the plain-24 tiff by a note at the foot thereof.

Sec. 590. SUMMONS.] Upon the filing of the petition the clerk, when so 2 directed by the plaintiff, shall issue a summons to the defendants, which sum-3 mons shall be in the same form, as near as may be, as other summonses in actions 4 at law and the same shall be served in the same manner as is provided by this 5 act as to summonses in other actions at law.

Sec. 591. TIME FOR APPEARANCE OF DEFENDANTS—DEFAULT.] Upon such sum-2 mons being served upon the defendants they shall be bound to enter their ap-

 5 fault may be entered against them and the court may make an order requiring 6 them to certify to the court the record of the proceedings mentioned in the petition

7 within such time as may be specified in the order and may enforce compliance 8 with such order by attachment or other appropriate proceeding.

Sec. 592. APPEARANCE IN WRITING—MOTION TO DISMISS—ANSWER.] Upon the 2 appearance of the defendants they shall be required to file their appearances in 3 writing together with either first, a motion to dismiss the petition, or second, an 4 answer to the petition.

Sec. 593. EFFECT OF MOTION TO DISMISS.] A motion by the defendant or de-2 fendants to dismiss the petition shall bring before the court the sufficiency of 3 such petition in point of law.

Sec. 594. PROCEDURE UPON MOTION TO DISMISS.] If the motion to dismiss the 2 petition be found by the court to be well taken, the court shall dismiss the peti-3 tion, unless the plaintiff shall so amend the same that the same shall be suf-4 ficient in law. If, upon such motion, the petition is adjudged sufficient or an 5 amended petition is filed which the court deems to be sufficient, or, in case the 6 defendant does not elect to file a motion to dismiss the petition, the defendant 7 shall file an answer thereto.

Sec. 595. ANSWER.] Every answer shall specify the court in which the 2 action is pending, the title, classification and number thereof, and shall state 3 that the defendant answers the petition. It shall be divided into paragraphs 4 numbered consecutively, each paragraph containing, as nearly as may be, a sep-

6 sought to be reviewed and any matters, in addition to such record, upon which 7 the defendant or defendants rely as a defense to the action.

Sec. 596. FINAL JUDGMENT.] If, upon the inspection of the record as set 2 forth in the answer of the defendant, the court is of the opinion that the 3 defendants have not exceeded their jurisdiction or proceeded irregularly, the 4 court shall dismiss the petition at the cost of the petitioners. If the court, upon 5 inspection of the record of the proceedings, is of the opinion that the defendants 6 have exceeded their jurisdiction or proceeded irregularly, the court shall enter 7 an order quashing the proceedings, unless the defendants shall set forth in their 8 answer and shall establish by proof facts and circumstances which satisfy the 9 court that no injustice has been done to the plaintiff by the proceedings, or that 10 great public detriment and inconvenience might result from the quashing there-11 of, in which case the court shall dismiss the petition.

Sec. 601. DESCRIPTION OF PREMISES AND INTEREST—RECOVERY OF PART.] The

 6 claim; but the plaintiff, in any case, may recover such part, share or interest in 7 the premises as he shall appear on the trial to be entitled to.

 2 in the same action and several parties may be named as plaintiffs jointly as 3 to one claim and separately as to others.

Sec. 604. TENANT TO NOTIFY LANDLORD—PENALTY.] Every tenant who shall 2 at any time be sued in ejectment by any person other than his landlord shall 3 forthwith give notice thereof to his landlord, or to his agent or attorney, under 5 value thereof, to be recovered by such landlord by any action at law in any 6 court having cognizance thereof.

Sec. 605. LANDLORD MAY BE ADMITTED AS DEFENDANT.] The landlord whose 2 tenant is sued in ejectment may, upon his own motion or that of the plaintiff, 3 be made defendant in such action upon such terms as may be ordered by the 3 before commencing the action.

Sec. 607. EFFECT OF DEFENSE OF NOT GUILTY.] The specification of the 2 defense of not guilty shall not put in issue the possession of the premises by 3 the defendant or that he claims title or interest in the premises.

Sec. 608. WHAT PLAINTIFF NEED NOT PROVE.] It shall not be necessary in 2 any case for the plaintiff to prove that the defendant was in possession of the 2 an objection to a recovery, in any action of ejectment, that any one of several 3 plaintiffs does not prove any interest in the premises claimed, but those en-4 titled shall have judgment according to their rights for the whole or such part 5 or portion as he or they might have recovered, if he or they had brought the 6 action in his or their name or names only.

Sec. 612. JUDGMENT IN SEVERAL ACTION.] If the action is several and the 2 plaintiff is entitled to recover, he shall recover against all who are in joint 3 possession or claim title, whether they have pleaded separately or jointly.

Sec. 613. PLAINTIFFS TO HAVE JUDGMENT ACCORDING TO PROOF.] When the action is against several defendants, if it shall appear on the trial that any of them occupy or claim some right, title or interest in distinct parcels in severalty or jointly, judgment shall not on that account be given against the plaintiff, but if the plaintiff shall establish the legal vested interest, whether in possession or in reversion, claimed by him in all of such parcels, or in any or either of them, he shall be entitled to judgment in his favor with respect to each of such parcels in which he shall have established a legal and vested interest, and against each of the defendants as against whom he shall have established such legal vested interest.

Sec. 614. VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF—HOW RENDERED.] In the following cases the verdict, if it be in favor of the plaintiff or plaintiffs, shall be rendered as follows:

Second—FOR ONE AND AGAINST ANOTHER PLAINTIFF.] If it appear that one or more of the plaintiffs have a right to recover possession of the premises and that one or more have not such right, the verdict shall specify for which plaintiff the jury find and as to which plaintiff they find for the defendant.

Third—AGAINST DEFENDANTS IN POSSESSION OR CLAIMING TITLE.] If the verdict be for any plaintiff and there be several defendants the verdict shall be rendered against such of them as were in possession of the premises, or as claimed title thereto, at the commencement of the action.

Fourth—FOR ALL OF PREMISES CLAIMED.] If the verdict be for all the premises claimed as specified in the plaintiff's statement of claim, it shall in that respect be for such premises generally.

Fifth—FOR PART OF PREMISES CLAIMED.] If the verdict be for a part of the premises described in the plaintiff's statement of claim, the verdict shall

20 particularly specify such part as the same shall have been proved, with the 21 same certainty hereinbefore required in the description of the premises 22 claimed.

23 Sixth—FOR UNDIVIDED SHARE, ETC.] If the verdict be for an undivided 24 share or interest in the premises claimed, it shall specify such share or interest; 25 and if for an undivided share in a part of the premises claimed, it shall specify 26 such share and shall describe such part of the premises as hereinbefore required.

27 Seventh—ESTATE TO BE SPECIFIED.] The verdict shall also specify the estate 28 which shall have been established at the trial, by the plaintiff in whose favor 29 it shall be rendered, whether such estate be in fee, or for his own life, or for the 30 life of another, stating such lives, or whether it be for a term of years, and speci-31 fying the duration of such term, or if it be an estate in reversion it shall so 32 specify, and shall describe the previous estate.

Sec. 615. VERDICT FOR DEFENDANTT—HOW RENDERED.] If the verdict in any 2 such action be in favor of the defendant or in favor of any one or more of 3 several defendants, it shall be rendered as follows:

4 First—FOR DEFENDANT GENERALLY.] If it appears that the plaintiff is neither 5 entitled to recover possession nor establish title as against the defendant, or 6 any one or more of several defendants, and no specification of title is filed by 7 the defendant or any defendant, the verdict shall be for the defendant or defend-8 ants generally.

9 Second—WHEN DEFENDANT FILES SPECIFICATION OF TITLE.] If the defend-10 ant, or any one or more of several defendants, has filed a specification of title 11 and it be shown on the trial that such defendant has a right to recover the 12 possession of the premises, or of some part thereof, or is entitled to have a 13 title established to the same, or to some portion thereof, the verdict as to such 14 defendant shall be in the form, as near as may be, as is above prescribed with 15 respect to a similar verdict in favor of the plaintiff, or some one or more of 16 several plaintiffs.

Sec. 616. JUDGMENT WHEN PLAINTIFF'S TITLE EXPIRES.] If the right or 2 title of a plaintiff in an action of ejectment expire after the commencement of 3 the action but before trial, the finding or verdict shall be returned according 4 to the fact, and such verdict shall assess the damages of the plaintiff by reason 5 of the withholding of the premises by the defendant and judgment shall be 6 entered on such finding that the plaintiff recover such damages and that as to 7 the premises claimed the defendant go thereof without day.

Sec. 617. WHAT THE JUDGMENT SHALL BE.] In cases where no other pro-2 vision is made the judgment in the action, if the plaintiff prevail, shall be that 3 the plaintiff recover the possession of the premises, or that his title be estab-4 lished according to the verdict of the jury, if there was such verdict, or the 5 finding of the court, if the case is tried without a jury; or, if the judgment be 6 by default, according to the description thereof in the plaintiff's statement of 7 claim with costs to be taxed. If the defendant prevail, the judgment shall be that 8 the defendant go thereof without day, unless the defendant shall have filed a 9 specification of title and there shall have been a verdict or finding in his favor 10 with respect to such title, in which case the judgment shall be that his title be 11 established accordingly.

Sec. 618. DAMAGES IN FAVOR OF PARTY RECOVERING.] The plaintiff recover-2 ing judgment in ejectment in any of the cases in which such action may be 3 maintained shall also be entitled to recover damages against the defendant 4 for the rents and profits of the premises recovered, unless it shall appear that 5 the defendant was not in possession of the premises so recovered, and when any 6 defendant shall recover judgment in ejectment establishing title to the premises 7 or any part thereof, he also shall be entitled to recover damages against the 8 plaintiff for the rents and profits of the premises recovered, if it shall appear 9 that the plaintiff was in possession of the premises recovered and that the de-10 fendant was entitled to the possession thereof.

Sec. 619. JUDGMENT CONCLUSIVE.] Every judgment in the action of ejectment shall be conclusive as to the title established in such action upon the party against whom the same is rendered and against all persons claiming from, through or under such party by title accruing after the commencement of such action, or by any title accruing prior to the commencement of such action when the instrument evidencing the same is not, prior to the commencement of such action, filed for record in the office of the recorder of the county in which such premises are situated.

Sec. 620. WRIT OF POSSESSION—FORM.] The plaintiff recovering judgment entitling him to possession of the premises shall be entitled to a writ of possession which may be in substantially the following form:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

5	John Doe	} Ejectment. No. 50.
	v.
6	Richard Roe

WRIT OF POSSESSION.

The People of the State of Illinois—GREETING to the Sheriff of Cook County:

We hereby command you that without delay you deliver to John Doe, the plaintiff in the above entitled action, possession of the premises recovered by him by the judgment rendered in said action on the 17th day of March, 1908, from the defendant, Richard Roe, with the appurtenances, to-wit: (here describe premises recovered as described in judgment), and that you certify to our said circuit court in what manner you shall have executed this writ. (If there be costs to be collected the proper clause may be here inserted or a separate execution may be issued therefor.)

Witness John Smith, clerk of our said circuit court and the seal thereof at Chicago, Illinois, this 24th day of February, 1908.

JOHN SMITH, Clerk.

Sec. 621. ACTION FOR MESNE PROFITS.] Any person recovering any judgment in ejectment may, at any time within one year after the entry thereof, bring his action against the defendant in the judgment to recover for the mesne profits received by such defendant since he entered into possession of the premises, subject to the restrictions hereinafter contained.

Sec. 622. HOW ACTION PROSECUTED.] Such action shall be brought and 2 prosecuted in the manner provided in this act for the bringing and prosecution 3 of an action to recover money only upon a contract, express or implied, other 4 than a contract in writing.

Sec. 623. SETTING OFF IMPROVEMENTS.] In any such action the defendant 2 shall have the same right to set off any improvements made on the premises, to 3 the amount of the plaintiff's claim, as is now or shall hereafter be allowed by 4 law; and in estimating the plaintiff's damages, the value of the use by the defend-5 ant of any improvements made by him shall not be allowed to the plaintiff.

Sec. 624. EXEMPTION OF EVICTED PERSON.] Every person who may here-
 2 after be evicted from any land for which he can show a plain, clear and con-3 nected title, in law or in equity, deduced from the record of some public office, 4 without actual notice of an adverse title in like manner derived from record, 5 shall be exempt and free from all and every species of action, writ or prosecu-6 tion for or on account of any rents, or profits, or damages, which shall have 7 been done, accrued or incurred at any time prior to receipt of actual notice of 8 the adverse claim by which the eviction may be effected, provided such person 9 obtained peaceable possession of the land.

Sec. 625. NOTICE OF ADVERSE CLAIM—HOW GIVEN.] Notice of any adverse 2 claim or title to the land, within the meaning of this chapter, shall have been 3 given by bringing a suit, either in law or equity, for the same, by the one or 4 the other of the parties, and may hereafter be given by bringing a suit, as 5 aforesaid, or by delivering an attested copy of the entry, survey or patent from 6 which he derives his title or claim, or leaving any such copy with the party or 7 his wife: Provided, however, that notice given by the delivery of an attested 8 copy, as aforesaid, shall be void, unless suit is brought within one year there-9 after: Provided, that in no case shall the proprietor of the better title be 10 obliged to pay to the occupying claimant, for improvements made after notice, 11 more than what is equal to the rents and profits aforesaid.

Sec. 626. UPON WHOM NOTICE BINDING.] Notice to any occupying claimant 2 shall bind all those claiming from, by or through such occupying claimant, to 3 the extent of such claim.

Sec. 627. REFERENCE TO MASTER—MASTER'S REPORT.] The court which shall 2 pronounce and give judgment of eviction, either in law or equity, in any case 3 provided for in the three next preceding sections, shall enter an order referring 4 it to a master in chancery of such court to hear the evidence and state an ac-5 count between the plaintiff and the defendant in the judgment as to the rents, 6 issues and profits and the improvements upon the premises specified in such 7 judgment and to ascertain and report to the court the following:

8 First—PRIOR LASTING IMPROVEMENTS.] The value of all such lasting and 9 valuable improvements which shall have been made upon the premises prior to 10 the receipt of the notice specified in the three next preceding sections.

14 Second—DAMAGES FOR WASTE, ETC.] All damages the land may have sus-12 tained by the commission of any kind of waste or deduction of soil by cultiva-13 tion or otherwise during the occupancy of the person evicted prior to the re-14 ceipt of such notice.

15 Third—SUBSEQUENT LASTING IMPROVEMENTS.] The value of all such neces-16 sary and lasting improvements as shall have been made on the premises after 17 the receipt of such notice.

18 Fourth—RENTS AND PROFITS.] The amount of the rents and profits arising 19 from the whole of the improvements on the premises subsequent to the receipt 20 of such notice.

21 Fifth.—VALUE OF LANDS.] The value of the lands in dispute exclusive of 22 any improvements that shall have been made thereon.

Sec. 628. ACTION OF COURT UPON REPORT.] Upon the coming in of such master's report and the approval of the same, the court shall charge the person recovering judgment with the items specified in Clause First and Clause Third of the preceding section and shall charge the person evicted with the items specified in Clause Second and Clause Fourth of said section. If, upon such accounting, the balance be against the party recovering judgment in ejectment and such balance shall exceed the value of the premises, exclusive of any improvements that shall have been made thereon, and the party recovering the judgment in ejectment will transfer or convey his title to the premises to the opposite party, judgment shall be entered in his favor and against such opposite party for such value of the premises, exclusive of improvements, but in case the party recovering the judgment in ejectment shall not elect to transfer or convey his title to the premises to the opposite party, as aforesaid, or in case the balance in favor of such opposite party shall not exceed the value of the premises, exclusive of any improvements that shall have been made thereon, judgment shall be entered in favor of such opposite party and against the party recovering the judgment in ejectment for the amount of the balance aforesaid. Whenever any judgment for any such balance shall be rendered against the party against whom a judgment of eviction has been rendered, the judgment for such balance may be stayed for a period of one year after the entry thereof upon the party against whom the same is rendered giving a bond in such sum and with such security as may be required by the court, conditioned for the payment of the amount of such judgment within one year after the date thereof to the party entitled to such payment.

Sec. 629. INJUNCTION AGAINST WASTE—RECEIVER.] The court in which any action of ejectment is brought against any person in possession and receiving the rents, issues and profits of the premises sought to be recovered may, on the application of the plaintiff, enter an injunction order restraining such person in

5 possession from committing waste during the pendency of the action and may 6 also, on the application of the plaintiff, enter an order appointing a receiver of 7 the rents, issues and profits of such premises during the pendency of the action, 8 but no such order shall be entered without notice to such party in possession, 9 or without proof to the satisfaction of the court that there is probable ground 10 to believe that the plaintiff may recover in the action of ejectment; nor shall any 11 receiver be appointed to collect the rents, issues or profits of such portion of 12 the premises as may be occupied by the defendant as a homestead.

 5 action may be prosecuted by any person on behalf of another person so imprison-

Sec. 631. HOW ACTION COMMENCED—REQUISITES OF PETITION.] The action
 2 shall be commenced by the filing by the plaintiff with the clerk of the proper 3 court of a petition signed by the person for whose relief it is intended, or by 4 some person in his behalf, and verified by affidavit. It shall specify the court 5 in which the action is commenced, the name of the plaintiff, who shall be the 6 person for whose relief the action is commenced, or some other person acting in 7 his behalf, and the name of the defendant, who shall be the person charged with 8 the imprisonment or restraint, and the classification and number of the action.
 9 It shall recite that the plaintiff brings his action of habeas corpus against the 10 defendant and thereafter contain a narrative setting forth in substance the fol-11 lowing:

12 First—RESTRAINT, ETC.] That the person in whose behalf the writ of habeas 13 corpus is applied for is restrained of his liberty and the place where, naming all 14 the parties if they are known, or describing them, if they are not known.

15 Second—CAUSE OF RESTRAINT.] The cause or pretense of the restraint ac-16 cording to the knowledge and belief of the plaintiff, and that such person is not 17 committed or detained by virtue of any process, judgment, decree or execution 18 either—

19 a—By virtue of process of any court or judge of the United States in a case 20 where such court or judge has exclusive jurisdiction; or,

21 b—By virtue of a final judgment or decree of any competent court of civil 22 or criminal jurisdiction, or of any execution issued upon such judgment or de-23 cree, unless the time during which such party may be legally restrained has ex-24 pired; or,

25 c—For any treason or other crime committed in any other state or territory

27 the United States, to be delivered up to the executive power of such state or

29 Third—COPY OF WARRANT, ETC.] If the commitment or restraint is by virtue 30 of any warrant or writ of process, a copy of the same shall be embodied in the 31 petition, or it shall be averred that by reason of such prisoner being removed 32 or concealed before application, a demand of such copy could not be made, or 33 that such demand was made and the legal fees therefor tendered to the officer or 34 person having such prisoner in his custody and that such copy was refused.

 Sec. 632. NARRATIVE OF PETITION TO BE DIVIDED INTO PARAGRAPHS.] The nar-2 rative in the petition shall be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively, 3 each paragraph to contain, as nearly as may be, a separate and distinct matter or 6 and to that end it shall be liberally construed in the plaintiff's favor. It shall be

Sec. 633. COPY OF COMMITMENT TO BE FURNISHED PETITIONER.] Any sheriff

Sec. 634. WHEN WRIT TO BE AWARDED—PENALTY.] When the petition is pre-

 4 bail nor otherwise relieved, the court shall forthwith award a writ of habeas cor-
 5 pus. Any judge empowered to order writs of habeas corpus who shall corruptly

10 The People of the State of Illinois—GREETING to Richard Roe, sheriff of Cook 11 county:

12 You are hereby commanded to have the body of John Doe, by you impris-

 17 mediately after being served with this writ to be dealt with according to law; 18 and have you then and there this writ with a return thereon of your doings in 19 the premises.

20 Witness John Smith, clerk of said circuit court and the seal thereof at Chi-21 cago, aforesaid, this 10th day of February, 1908.

BY THE HABEAS CORPUS ACT.

Sec. 636. ENDORSEMENT ON WRIT.] To the intent that no officer or person 2 to whom such writ is directed may pretend ignorance thereof every such writ 3 shall be endorsed with these words: "By the Habeas Corpus Act."

Sec. 637. SUBPOENAS.] When the party has been committed upon a crim-2 inal charge, unless the court or judge deem it unnecessary, a subpoena shall also 3 be issued to summon the witnesses whose names have been endorsed upon the 4 warrant of commitment to appear before such court at the time and place when 5 and where such habeas corpus is returnable, and in case such subpoena is issued 6 to a sheriff or other officer it shall be his duty to serve the same, if it be possible, 7 in time to enable such witnesses to attend.

Sec. 638. SERVICE OF WRIT.] Service of a writ of habeas corpus shall be 2 made by delivering the same, together with a copy of the plaintiff's petition, to 3 the person to whom it is directed, or to any of his under officers who may be at 4 the place where the prisoner is detained; or, if he cannot be found, or has not 5 the person imprisoned or restrained in custody, the service may be made upon 6 any person who has him in custody with the same effect as though he had been 7 made a defendant therein.

Sec. 639. BY WHOM WRIT MAY BE SERVED.] A writ of habeas corpus may be 2 served by any sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner or deputy coroner of the county in 3 which such service is had, or by any bailiff or deputy bailiff of any court of rec-4 ord in such county, or by any person over the age of eighteen years, not a party 5 to the action. When service or execution of any writ of habeas corpus is made 6 by any sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner, deputy coroner, bailiff or deputy bailiff, 7 proof of such service may be made by the return of such officer endorsed upon 8 a copy of such writ and signed by him. When service of any writ of habeas cor-9 pus is made by any person other than a sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner, deputy 10 coroner, bailiff or deputy bailiff, proof of such service shall be made by the affi-11 davit of the person making such service endorsed on a copy of such writ or at-12 tached thereto, which affidavit shall state the name, place of residence, age and 13 occupation of the person making such service and the fact that he is not a party 14 to the action and shall set forth the date, place and manner of such service.

Sec. 640. WHEN EXPENSES TO BE TENDERED OFFICER.] When the person con-
2 fined or restrained is in the custody of a civil officer, the court granting the writ 3 shall certify thereon the sum to be paid for the expense of bringing him from 4 the place of imprisonment, not exceeding ten cents per mile, and the officer shall 5 not be bound to obey it unless the sum so certified is paid or tendered to him 6 and security is given to pay the charges of carrying him back if he should be 7 remanded: Provided, however, that if such court shall be satisfied that the 8 person so confined or restrained is a poor person and unable to pay such ex-9 pense, then such court shall cause a certificate thereof to be endorsed on such 10 writ, and in such case no tender or payment of expenses need be made or secur-11 ity given, as aforesaid, but the officer shall be bound to obey such writ.

Sec. 641. RETURN.] The officer or person upon whom such writ is served 2 shall state in his return plainly and unequivocally the following:

3 First—AS TO CUSTODY OR CONTROL OF PARTY.] Whether he has or has not 4 the party in his custody or control or under his restraint, and if he has not, 5 whether he has had the party in his custody or control or under his restraint at 6 any and what time prior or subsequent to the date of the writ.

7 Second—AUTHORITY FOR RESTRAINT.] If he has the party in his custody or 8 control or under his restraint, the authority and true cause of such imprison-9 ment or restraint, setting forth the same at large.

10 Third—COPY OF WRIT, ETC.] If the party is detained by virtue of any writ, 11 warrant or other written authority, a copy thereof shall be annexed to the re-12 turn and the original shall be produced and exhibited on the return of the writ 13 to the court before whom the same is returnable.

14 Fourth.—TRANSFER OF CUSTODY—RETURN TO BE SIGNED, ETC.] If the person 15 upon whom the writ is served has had the party in his custody or control or 16 under his restraint at any time prior or subsequent to the date of the writ, but 17 has transferred such custody or restraint to another, the return shall state 18 particularly to whom, at what time, for what cause and by what authority such 19 transfer took place. The return shall be signed by the person making the 20 same and, except where such person is a sworn public officer and makes the re-21 turn in his official capacity, it shall be verified by oath.

Sec. 642. OFFICER TO PRODUCE BODY UNLESS, ETC.] The officer or person 2 making the return shall, at the same time, bring the body of the party, if in his 3 custody or power or under his restraint, according to the command of the writ.
 4 unless prevented by the sickness or infirmity of the party.

Sec. 643. PROCEDURE WHEN PARTY IS SICK OR INFIRM.] When, from the sickness or infirmity of the party, he cannot without danger be brought to the place appointed for the return of the writ, that fact shall be stated in the return, and, if it is proved to the satisfaction of the court, the judge thereof may proceed to the jail or other place where the party is confined and there make his examination, or he may adjourn the same to such other time or make such other order in the case as law and justice require.

Sec. 644. REFUSAL TO OBEY WRIT—PENALTY.] If the officer or person upon whom such writ is served refuses or neglects to obey the same, by producing the party named in the writ and making a full and explicit return thereto, within the time required by this act and no sufficient excuse is shown for such refusal or neglect, the court before whom the writ is returnable, upon proof of the service thereof, shall enforce obedience by attachment as for contempt, and the officer or person so refusing or neglecting shall forfeit to the party aforesaid a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) and be incapable of holding office.

Sec. 645. WRIT MAY ISSUE WITH ATTACHMENT.] The court may also, at the same time or afterwards, issue a writ to the sheriff or other person to whom such attachment is directed, commanding him to bring forthwith before the court the party for whose benefit the writ was allowed, who shall thereafter remain in the custody of such sheriff or other person until he is discharged, bailed or remanded, as the court shall direct.

Sec. 646. WRIT MAY REQUIRE OFFICER TO TAKE PARTY RESTRAINED.] Whenever it shall appear by the complaint or by affidavit that any one is illegally held in custody or restraint, and that there is good reason to believe that such person will be taken out of the jurisdiction of the court before whom the application for a habeas corpus is made, or will suffer some irreparable injury before

6 compliance with the writ can be enforced, such court may cause the writ to be 7 directed to the sheriff or other proper officer, commanding him to take the 8 prisoner thus held in custody or restraint and forthwith bring him before the 9 court to be dealt with according to law. The court may also, if the same be 10 deemed necessary, insert in the writ a command for the apprehension of the 11 person charged with causing the illegal restraint. The officer shall execute the 12 writ by bringing the person therein named before the court and the like return 13 and proceedings shall be required and had as in other writs of habeas corpus.

Sec. 647. PROCEDURE UPON RETURN OF WRIT.] Upon the return of a writ of 2 habeas corpus the court shall, without delay, proceed to examine the cause of 3 the imprisonment or restraint, but the examination may be postponed from 4 time to time, when such course is necessary to a proper hearing and disposition 5 of the matter by the court. But no such postponement shall be made unless the 6 same be necessary for the purpose aforesaid.

Sec. 648. DENIAL OF FACTS STATED IN RETURN—EVIDENCE.] The party im-
 2 prisoned or restrained may deny any of the material facts set forth in the return 3 and may allege any other fact that may be material in the case, which denial 4 or allegation shall be on oath; and the court shall proceed in a summary way 5 to examine the cause of the imprisonment or restraint, hear the evidence pro-6 duced by any person interested or authorized to appear, both in support of such 7 imprisonment or restraint and against it, and thereupon shall dispose of the 8 party as the case may require.

Sec. 649. RETURN AMENDABLE.] The return, as well as any denial or alle-2 gation, may be amended at any time by leave of court

Sec. 650. BAIL.] The court may, in its discretion, pending the final de-2 termination of the proceedings, admit to bail the person imprisoned.

Sec. 651. WHAT ARE CAUSES FOR DISCHARGE.] If it appear that the prisoner

2 is in custody by virtue of process from any court legally constituted he can 3 be discharged only for some one or more of the following causes:

Sec. 657. WHEN NEW COMMITMENT MAY BE MADE.] In all cases where the 3 court that there is sufficient legal cause for the commitment of the prisoner, al-4 though such commitment may have been informally made or without due au-5 thority, or the process may have been executed by a person not duly author-6 ized, the court shall make a new commitment in proper form and direct it to 7 the proper officer or admit the party to bail, if the case is bailable. The court 8 shall also, when necessary, take the recognizance of all the material witnesses 9 against the prisoner as in other cases. The recognizance shall be in the form 10 provided by law and returned as other recognizances. If any judge shall neglect 11 or refuse to bind any such prisoner or witness by recognizance, or to return a 12 recognizance when taken as aforesaid, he shall be deemed guilty of a misde-

Sec. 658. ORDER REMANDING—SECOND WRIT.] When any prisoner brought

 3 court to cause an order to be entered of record so remanding the prisoner and 4 it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court to forthwith make out and deliver 5 to the sheriff or other person to whose custody the prisoner shall be remanded 6 a certified copy of such order. If such prisoner shall obtain a second writ of 7 habeas corpus it shall be the duty of such sheriff or other person to whom the 8 same shall be directed to return therewith the certified copy of the order afore-

 4 in the warrant of commitment with a criminal offense; but the said court shall, 5 on the return of such writ, have power only to admit such prisoner to bail 6 where the offense is bailable by law, or remand him to prison where the offense

 5 or an information be filed against him for the same offense, nor unless by the 6 legal order or process of the court wherein he is bound by recognizance to ap-

2 ETC.] When any prisoner has been remanded after a hearing in a habeas corpus 3 action, or his application for a writ of habeas corpus has been denied, no court

4 other than the supreme court shall discharge him under a second writ of habeas 5 corpus excepting for matters occurring subsequent to the previous order remand-6 ing him or denying his application for such writ.

 2 ing that another has been discharged by a final order of a competent court on a 4 again for the same cause which was shown on the return of such writ, shall for-5 feit five hundred dollars ($500) for the first offense and one thousand dollars 6 ($1,000) for every subsequent offense.

Sec. 663. WHEN UNLAWFUL TO REMOVE PRISONER FROM COUNTY.] To prevent 2 any person from avoiding or delaying his trial, it shall not be lawful to remove 3 any prisoner on habeas corpus under this act out of the county in which he is 4 confined, except it be to convey him into the county where the offense with which 5 he stands charged is properly cognizable: Provided, however, that this section 6 shall not apply to writs of habeas corpus issued out of the supreme court.

Sec. 664. WHEN PRISONER MAY BE REMOVED—PENALTY.] Any person being 2 committed to any prison or in the custody of any sheriff or other officer or per-3 son for any criminal or supposed criminal matter, shall not be removed therefrom 4 into any other prison or custody, unless it shall be by habeas corpus or some other 5 legal writ, or when it is expressly allowed by law. If any person shall remove or 6 cause to be removed any prisoner so committed except as above provided he shall 7 forfeit to the party aggrieved a sum not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300).

Sec. 665. AVOIDANCE OF WRIT—PENALTY.] Any one having a person in his 2 custody or under his restraint, power or control for whose relief a writ of 3 habeas corpus is issued who, with intent to avoid the effect of such writ, shall 4 transfer such person to the custody, or place him under the control, of another, or 5 shall conceal him or change the place of his confinement, with intent to avoid the 6 operation of such writ or with intent to remove him out of the state, shall forfeit 7 for every such offense one thousand dollars ($1,000) and may be imprisoned not 8 less than one year nor more than five years. In any prosecution for the penalty 9 incurred under this section it shall not be necessary to show that the writ of 10 habeas corpus had issued at the time of the removal, transfer or concealment 11 therein mentioned, if it shall be proven that the act therein forbidden was done 12 with the intent to avoid the operation of such writ.

Sec. 666. PECUNIARY FORFEITURE TO INURE TO WHOM.] All pecuniary for-2 feitures incurred under this act shall inure to the use of the party for whose ben-3 efit the writ of habeas corpus issued and shall be sued for and recovered with costs 4 by the attorney general or state's attorney in the name of the state by an action 5 at law; and the amount, when recovered, shall, without any deduction, be paid to 6 the party entitled thereto. The recovery of the said penalties shall be no bar to 7 a civil action for damages.

Sec. 667. HABEAS CORPUS AD TESTIFICANDUM.] The several courts having au-2 thority to issue writs of habeas corpus may issue the same when necessary to 3 bring before them any prisoner to testify, or to be surrendered in discharge of 4 bail, or for trial upon any criminal charge pending in the same court; and the 5 writ may run into any county in the state and there be executed and returned by 6 any officer to whom it is directed.

Sec. 668. PRISONER TO BE RETURNED WHEN.] After any such pris-2 oner shall have given his testimony or been surrendered or his 3 bail discharged, or he has been tried for the crime with which he 4 is charged, he shall be returned to the jail or place of confinement whence 5 he was taken for the purpose aforesaid: Provided, that, if such prisoner is 6 convicted of a crime punishable with death or imprisonment in the penitentiary, 7 he may be punished accordingly; but in any case where the prisoner shall have 8 been taken from the penitentiary and his punishment is by imprisonment, the 9 time of such imprisonment shall not commence to run until the expiration or his 10 time of service under any former sentence.

Sec. 669. DISCHARGE FROM IMPRISONMENT FOR CONTEMPT.] Any person im-
2 prisoned for any contempt of court for the non-performance of any order or de-3 cree for the payment of money shall be entitled to a writ of habeas corpus, and, 4 if it shall appear, on full examination of such person and such witnesses and 5 other evidence as may be adduced, that he is unable to comply with such order 6 or decree or to endure the confinement and that all persons interested in the 7 order or decree have had reasonable notice of the time and place of trial, the 8 court or judge may discharge him from imprisonment; but no such discharge 9 shall operate to release the lien of such order or decree, but the same may be 10 enforced against the property of such person by execution.

Sec. 670. NO APPEAL FROM ORDER REFUSING WRIT, ETC.—NEW APPLICATION TO 2 SUPREME COURT.] No appeal shall lie from an order of any court refusing to 3 grant a writ of habeas corpus or refusing to discharge a person brought before 4 the court by such writ, or refusing to change the custody of any minor child or 5 person under guardianship or conservatorship, but any person aggrieved by any 6 such order may make a new application for a writ of habeas corpus to the su-7 preme court, which shall proceed to hear and dispose of such application accord-8 ing to the right and justice of the case.

Sec. 671. WHEN AND HOW ORDER OF DISCHARGE REVIEWABLE.] An order en-2 tered in a habeas corpus action discharging any person from imprisonment or 3 restraint, or changing the custody of any minor child or person under guardian-

 4 this state in a criminal action such person shall be remanded to the custody of the 5 proper officer pending the determination of such appeal: Provided, however, 6 that the court shall have power to admit such person to bail pending such appeal 7 and, in case of a person imprisoned for an offense not punishable by death or 8 confinement in the penitentiary, the court may, in its discretion, release such 9 person pending such appeal upon his own recognizance, and, provided farther, 10 that when the person ordered discharged is imprisoned in any penitentiary of this 11 state, or in any work-house in any county of this state, he shall not be required

12 to perform any labor in such penitentiary or work-house pending the determina-

18 child, or of any person under guardianship or conservatorship, the court shall 19 make such order in the premises as, in its judgment, may be necessary to secure

Sec. 687. TRIAL—SETTING ASIDE FORFEITURE.] If the defendant shall appear and interpose a defense the action shall be tried in the same manner as other actions of a like nature. After any such recognizance shall be declared forfeited as aforesaid and before judgment the court may, in its discretion, set aside such forfeiture upon the principal in the recognizance being brought or coming into open court and showing to the court by affidavit that he was unable to appear in court or surrender himself to the proper officer, as the case may be, according to the terms of the recognizance by reason of sickness or some other cause which shall satisfy the court that such principal has not been guilty of any laches or negligence: Provided, that no such forfeiture of a recognizance shall be set aside until the principal in such recognizance shall pay the costs of the action.

Sec. 688. NEGLECTS OR OMISSIONS NOT TO BAR ACTION WHEN.] No action on a recognizance shall be barred or defeated by reason of neglect or omission to note or record the default of any principal or surety at the term when it happens, nor by reason of a defect in the form of the recognizance, if it sufficiently appears from the tenor thereof at what court the principal therein was

6 bound to appear and that the court or magistrate before whom it was taken was 7 authorized by law to require and take such recognizance.

Sec. 689. ACT OF GOD TO DISCHARGE SURETIES.] If by the act of God sure-2 ties are unable, without their fault, to surrender their principal, they shall, on 3 motion before final judgment in the action on the recognizance, be exonerated 4 and discharged by the court with or without costs, as the court may deem equit-5 able.

Sec. 692. HOW JUDGMENT ENTERED—EFFECT.] Upon the filing of such 2 praecipe, warrant of attorney, affidavit or affidavits and confession, the clerk 3 may present the same to one of the judges of the court or to some other judge 4 authorized by law to enter judgment, who shall thereupon cause such judgment 5 to be entered, or the clerk may, of his own motion, enter such judgment. When 6 such judgment is entered by direction of the judge the same shall be presumed, 7 in any collateral proceeding, to have been duly and properly entered, unless the 8 contrary shall affirmatively appear from the judgment itself; but in case such 9 judgment be entered by the clerk without any order of any judge, such judg-10 ment shall be presumed to have been improperly entered, unless the contrary 11 shall appear from such judgment, praecipe, warrant of attorney, affidavit and 12 confession. In every case the judgment entry shall show whether such judg-13 ment was entered by the judge, or by the clerk of his own motion.

Sec. 693. JUDGMENT AGAINST CO-PARTNERSHIP.] A judgment by confession
 2 in pursuance of a warrant of attorney can only be entered against the mem-3 bers of a co-partnership when each of the members of the co-partnership 4 against whom such judgment is proposed to be rendered has joined in the exe-5 cution of the warrant of attorney, or has authorized or ratified the execution 6 thereof in the firm name. But when any such warrant of attorney has been 7 executed in the firm name by one or more members of a co-partnership, but the 8 same has not been executed or the execution thereof authorized or ratified by 9 all the members of such co-partnership, judgment by confession in pursuance 10 thereof may be entered against the individual partner or partners by whom 11 such warrant of attorney has been executed, or by whom the execution of the 12 same has been authorized or ratified as aforesaid.

Sec. 694. WARRANT OF ATTORNEY JOINT AND SEVERAL.] A joint warrant of 2 attorney for the confession of judgment shall, as against the persons execut-3 ing the same, be deemed to be joint or several, and to authorize the confession

4 of a joint judgment against all the makers of such warrant of attorney, or of 5 several judgments against one or more of them.

Sec. 695. JUDGMENT AGAINST CORPORATION.] A warrant of attorney to con-2 fess judgment against a corporation may be executed by the president or any 3 other officer of the corporation authorized thereto by a resolution of the board 4 of directors of such corporation or by the by-laws thereof.

Sec. 696. SEAL NOT NECESSARY.] It shall not be necessary that a warrant 2 of attorney be under seal, but it shall be sufficient that the same be signed by 3 the party to be bound thereby or in his name, or in the name of a co-partnership 4 of which he was a member at the time of signing the same, by his direction 5 or with his consent, or that after the same was signed it was ratified by him.

Sec. 697. JUDGMENT TO OPERATE AS RELEASE OF ERRORS—PROCEEDINGS TO VA-2 CATE.] Every judgment by confession entered in pursuance of this act shall 3 operate as a release of all errors in the record thereof, excepting as is herein 4 otherwise provided, and no appeal or writ of error shall be prosecuted to re-5 verse the same, but at any time not later than sixty days after service upon the 6 defendant of a certified or sworn copy of such judgment and a copy of the 7 praecipe, warrant of attorney, affidavit and confession, the defendant may 8 move the court in which the judgment has been rendered to vacate the same 9 and the method of procedure with respect thereto shall be substantially as 10 follows:

11 First—DEFENDANT TO FILE APPEARANCE, MOTION, AFFIDAVIT, ETC.] The de-12 fendant shall file with the clerk of the court his appearance in writing and his 13 motion to vacate the judgment, and, if he demands a trial by jury, he shall so 14 specify, and shall also file an affidavit setting forth the facts which he may 15 claim to entitle him to have the judgment vacated, and, if he claims a defense 16 or defenses, he shall also file a specification thereof, and shall cause a copy of 17 the papers so filed to be served upon the plaintiff with a notice of the time 18 when, place where and judge before whom the motion will be brought on for 19 hearing.

20 Second—PROCEDURE WHEN DEFENDANT DOES NOT DEMAND JURY.] If the de-21 fendant shall not have demanded a trial by jury the court, if the affidavit of 22 the defendant does not set forth facts entitling the defendant to a vacation of 23 the judgment and the defendant does not file an additional or amended affidavit 24 sufficient to entitle him to such vacation, shall deny the motion to vacate the 25 judgment, but, if the affidavit of the defendant sets forth facts entitling the de-26 fendant to a vacation of the judgment the court shall proceed to hear the evi-27 dence introduced by the respective parties, and decide the action upon its merits 28 and the judgment shall be as follows:

29 a—If the court finds the judgment by confession was duly authorized and 30 that it was entered, if for the recovery of money, for the amount then bona 31 fide due from the defendant to the plaintiff, or, if for the possession of prem-32 ises, that the plaintiff was entitled to recover such possession from the de-33 fendant, the court shall enter an order confirming the judgment and the same 34 shall thereupon stand, in all respects and be enforced as if the same had been 35 duly entered in an action commenced by summons.

36 b—If the court finds a judgment by confession was duly authorized, but 37 that it was entered for the recovery of more money than, or the recovery of 38 premises, in whole or in part, different from, the amount of money or the 39 premises the plaintiff was entitled to recover, the court shall correct the judg-40 ment, by such a credit thereon or deduction therefrom or change thereof, as 41 shall make the same conform to the finding of the court as to the rights of the 42 parties, and the same shall thereupon stand as if the same had been correctly 43 entered in the first instance.

44 c—If the court finds no judgment by confession was authorized, it shall 45 vacate and set aside the judgment absolutely, but, in such case, if the court finds that the plaintiff, either at the time of the entry of such judgment was, or at the time of the finding is, entitled to a judgment against the defendant upon the cause of action which was the cause or supposed cause of action for which such judgment was attempted to be entered by the plaintiff, the court shall enter such judgment as the plaintiff appears to be entitled to at the time of the trial, excepting that all the costs of the action shall be paid by the plaintiff.

Third—PROCEDURE WHEN DEFENDANT DEMANDS JURY.] If the defendant shall have demanded a trial by jury, the court shall cause the issues between the parties to be tried by jury and shall enter upon the verdict of the jury, when the same shall have been approved by the court, such one of the forms of judgment provided for in the preceding clause as such verdict may, in conformity therewith, require.

Sec. 698. EXECUTION OF WRIT OF POSSESSION.] No writ of possession under any such judgment by confession in an action of forcible detainer shall be executed by the sheriff or other officer until the lapse of forty-eight hours after the delivery of a copy thereof by the sheriff to the defendant, if the defendant may be found by the sheriff or other officer, or to such other person as may be in actual possession of such premises, nor, if the same be occupied as a place of residence by the defendant or his family, shall the writ of possession be executed by such sheriff or other officer until the lapse of five days after the delivery of such copy to the defendant or to some member of his family of the age of fifteen years or upwards and informing the defendant or such member of his family of the purport and nature thereof, and not then without a further order of the court when, on account of the sickness of any member of the family residing thereon or on account of the inclemency of the weather, the same cannot be executed without danger or inhumanity to some one or more of the occupants thereof.

Sec. 699. SALE OF PROPERTY UNDER EXECUTION.] No sale of property, whether real or personal, shall be made under any execution issued upon a judgment by confession until a copy of such execution shall have been delivered to the defendant therein and until ten days shall have elapsed after such delivery, in case such defendant shall be found by the sheriff of the county in which such property is levied upon or in which he may reside, or, if such defendant is not so found, until such notice shall be given in respect to such execution as the court out of which the same is issued shall direct.

 8 of such defendant in and to said other premises is disputed by the plaintiff, and 9 in every case where any person not made a party to the action shall, as herein-

10 after provided file a petition of intervention, the court, before causing the com-11 pensation to be ascertained by a jury, shall hear the allegations and proofs of the 12 parties and shall enter an order declaring and fixing their respective rights. In 13 case the court shall find that the plaintiff has no right to exercise the right of 14 eminent domain with respect to the premises described in the petition the peti-15 tion shall be dismissed at the costs of the plaintiff, but if the court finds that 16 the plaintiff has such right the court shall declare and fix by its decree the re-

Sec. 707. (GUARDIAN AD LITEM FOR INFANT DEFENDANT.) When an infant or 2 other person under disability is made a party defendant, the court shall cause

 8 upon be fully considered and determined and his right to and interest in the 9 premises described in the petition of intervention shall be ascertained as herein-10 before provided, and his damages shall be assessed by the jury as hereinafter pro-11 vided. All the parties to the petition of intervention and any party who may de-12 sire to controvert the allegation of such petition of intervention may answer 13 the same in the manner hereinbefore provided with respect to an answer to the 14 petition of the plaintiff.

Sec. 710. DIFFERENT TRACTS IN SAME PETITION.] Any number of separate 2 parcels of property, situated in the same county, may be included in one petition, 3 and the compensation for each shall be assessed separately, by the same or diff-

Sec. 711. AMENDMENT TO PETITION.] Amendments to the petition, or to any 2 other paper or record in the action, may be permitted whenever necessary to a 3 fair trial and final determination of the questions involved.

Sec. 712. BRINGING IN NEW PARTIES.] Should it become necessary at any 2 stage of the proceedings to bring a new party before the court, the court shall

 3 and described in the petition, he shall so allege in his answer and when such 4 damages are so alleged in the answer and are established by the evidence such 5 defendant shall be entitled to recover the same.

Sec. 714. TRIAL BY JURY.] When the defendants have all been duly served 2 with summons or duly notified by publication and the time or times for entering 3 their appearance or appearances has expired, and the rights of the respective 4 parties have been declared and fixed as hereinbefore provided, the court shall set 5 the cause for trial and shall proceed to try the same by jury.

Sec. 715. OATH TO JURY.] When the jury shall have been selected the court 2 shall cause the following oath to be administered to the jurors:

3 You and each of you do solemnly swear that you will well and truly ascer-

 7 the evidence, and that you will truly report such compensation so ascertained; 8 so help you God.

 2 jury shall, at the request of either party, go upon the lands sought to be taken or 3 damaged in person and examine the same, and after hearing the proof offered 4 make their report in writing and the same shall be subject to amendments by the 5 jury under the directions of the court so as to clearly set forth and show the 6 compensation ascertained to each person thereto entitled and the said verdict 7 shall thereupon be entered: Provided, however, that no benefits or advantages 8 which may accrue to lands or property affected shall be set off against or de-9 ducted from such compensation in any case.

Sec. 717. JUDGMENT—DISMISSAL OF PETITION BEFORE ENTRY—FAILURE TO MAKE

 5 ment of full compensation as ascertained as aforesaid, within a reasonable time to 6 be fixed by the court, and such order, with evidence of such payment, shall consti-

 8 case the petitioner shall dismiss said petition before the entry of such order, or 9 shall fail to make payment of full compensation within the time named in such or-

 11 or either of them, make such order in such action for the payment by the petition-

5 such child, issue a citation to the principal and sureties in said bond requiring 6 them to appear on some day in said citation mentioned, which shall be some 7 Monday at least five (5) days and not more than twenty (20) days after the date

16 judgment in favor of the People of the State of Illinois against the principal and 17 sureties who have been served with such citation for the amount unpaid on 18 the installment or installments due on said bond and the costs of said proceed-19 ing, and such judgment may be enforced by execution in the same manner as a 20 judgment for money in an action at law. The petition and citation provided for 11 it shall be credited to him as of the first payment or payments: and, provided,

Sec. 742. AMENDMENTS TO BE ALLOWED—ADJUDICATION OF COURT CONCLUSIVE.]

2 At any time before final judgment or decree in any civil or quasi criminal 3 action or proceeding amendments may be allowed, on such terms as are just 4 and reasonable, introducing any party necessary to be joined as plaintiff or 5 defendant, discontinuing as to any joint plaintiff or joint defendant, changing 6 the form of the action or any matter either of form or substance in any pro-7 cess, statement of claim, specification of defense or defenses, petition, bill 8 answer, or other pleadings, or any other paper filed or any proceeding had, 9 which amendment or amendments may enable the plaintiff or cross-plaintiff 10 to maintain the action, counterclaim or cross-bill for the claim or claims for 11 which it was intended to be brought, asserted or prosecuted, or the defendant or 12 cross-defendant to make a good and sufficient defense. The adjudication of the 13 court allowing an amendment shall be conclusive evidence of the identity of the 14 cause of action.

Sec. 743. AMENDMENTS BY COURT OF ITS OWN MOTION.] The court may, at 2 any time before final judgment or decree in any civil action or proceeding, 3 upon its own motion, and upon such terms as the court may deem just, amend 4 any defect or error in any proceeding and make all necessary amendments for 5 the purpose of determining the real controversy between the parties according 6 to the very right and justice thereof.

Sec. 744. SUMMONS TO ADDITIONAL PARTY DEFENDANT.] In case, by any such 2 amendment, any person is made an additional party defendant, a summons or 3 writ may be issued to such defendant requiring him to appear on some Monday 4 not less than five (5) nor more than fifteen (15) days from the date thereof, 5 and upon service of such summons or writ he may be proceeded against in the 6 same manner as if he had been made a defendant at the commencement of the 7 action.

Sec. 745. AMENDMENTS AFTER FINAL JUDGMENT.] After final judgment or 2 decree rendered or entered in any action, whether at law or in equity, or 3 whether civil or quasi criminal, any defect or imperfection in matter of form 4 contained in the record entries or in any paper filed may be rectified and 5 amended by the court in affirmance of the judgment or decree, so that such 6 judgment or decree shall not be reversed or annulled; and any variance in the 7 record from any process, pleading or other paper or proceeding had in such 8 action may be reformed and amended according to such original process, plead-9 ing or other paper or proceeding.

Sec 746. AMENDMENT OF INFORMATION.] Every information in a criminal 2 action shall be amendable, as a matter of course, either in form or in substance, 3 upon application being made therefor to the court at any time before trial, and 4 at any time during or after the trial, whether before or after judgment, every 5 information shall be amendable, in the discretion of the court in which the trial 6 is had: Provided, however, that no amendment shall be allowed after trial, 7 whether before or after judgment, unless the court allowing the amendment is 8 satisfied beyond all reasonable doubt from the evidence introduced at the trial 9 that the defendant is guilty of the offense charged in the information as pro-10 posed to be amended, and the court is further satisfied that the defendant has 11 had a fair and impartial trial and that the proposed amendment is in further-12 ance of justice.

Sec. 747. OTHER AMENDMENTS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS.] The court in which a 2 criminal action is pending or has been determined may allow an amendment of 3 any paper other than an information, or of any record entry, whenever, in its 4 opinion, such amendment will be in furtherance of justice and whenever it is 5 clear beyond all reasonable doubt that such amendment will in no manner tend 6 to defeat the right of the defendant to a fair and impartial trial.

Sec. 748. AMENDMENTS HERETOFORE ALLOWABLE.] Any court of record shall 2 have power to allow any other amendment in addition to those in this act par-3 ticularly specified which it would have had power to allow under any law here-4 tofore in force.

Sec. 749. AMENDMENT UPON APPEAL OR WRIT OF ERROR.] The supreme court, 2 or any appellate court, when any action is pending therein upon an appeal or 3 writ of error, may, in its discretion, allow or make any amendment pertaining 4 to its own proceedings which it may deem in furtherance of justice and may 5 likewise allow or make any amendment of any paper or record entry contained 6 in the authenticated record of the court from which the appeal or to which the 7 writ of error has been prosecuted, or in which the action was originally heard 8 and determined, which it would have been in the power of such last mentioned 9 court to have allowed or made.

Sec. 750. CLERICAL MISTAKES.] Clerical mistakes in orders, judgments and 2 decrees, or errors arising therein from any accidental slip or omission, may at 3 any time be corrected by the court, of its own motion or otherwise, after reason-4 able notice to the parties to the action, or to such of them as may be affected by 5 such mistakes or errors.

Sec. 751. EVIDENCE COMPETENT TO PROVE MISTAKE.] For the purpose of 2 ascertaining and correcting any mistake or omission in the record of any action

3 the court may receive any evidence, oral or documentary, which would be compe-4 tent to establish a mistake in any other writing.

Sec. 752. AMENDMENTS—HOW FRAMED — AMENDMENTS BY INTERLINEATION.]

2 An amendment to any paper previously filed may either change the reading of 3 such paper so as to make it conform to the facts as they existed at the time such 4 paper was filed, or it may introduce new matter omitted from such previous 5 paper. In the framing of amendments the following rules shall apply:

6 First—AMENDMENT CHANGING READING OF PAPER DIVIDED INTO PARAGRAPHS.]

7 An amendment changing the reading of any paragraph or paragraphs of a 8 paper previously filed which is divided into paragraphs, other than an amend-9 ment by interlineation as hereinafter provided, shall embody in full such para-10 graph or paragraphs as they read after being amended.

11 Second—AMENDMENT CHANGING READING OF PAPER NOT DIVIDED INTO PARA-12 GRAPHS.] An amendment changing the reading of a paper not divided into para-13 graphs, other than an amendment by interlineation as hereinafter provided, 14 shall embody in full such paper as it reads after being amended.

15 Third—AMENDMENT INTRODUCING NEW MATTER.] An amendment of any 16 paper, when such amendment introduces new matter, shall embody such new 17 matter in additional paragraphs properly numbered of such paper, if the same 18 be divided into paragraphs, or, if the same be not divided into paragraphs, 19 such amendment shall specify that it is an addition to the matters contained 20 in the paper amended.

21 Fourth—WHEN AMENDMENTS NUMEROUS.] When amendments made to any 22 paper are numerous, the party whose paper is amended may, in place of filing 23 amendments thereto, file an amended paper in lieu of the original paper and 24 the amendments thereto, or the court may, of its own motion, direct such 25 amended paper to be so filed, in either of which cases such amended paper 26 shall be framed, as near as may be, in accordance with the rules in this act pre-27 scribed with respect to the paper so amended.

28 Fifth—AMENDMENTS BY INTERLINEATION.] The court may, in its discretion, 29 allow amendments by interlineation in papers filed, when such interlineations 30 are not so numerous or of such a nature that the making of them in writing 31 would render the paper difficult or inconvenient to read, but in all such cases 32 the party making the amendments shall, at the request of the opposite party, 33 make the corresponding interlineations in such opposite party's copy of such 34 paper, or furnish to such opposite party a copy of such paper as amended.

 6 to real estate, regardless of whether the plaintiff is in or out of possession there-

7 of, or whether the land in controversy is improved or unimproved, occupied or 8 unoccupied.

9 Second—TO ADJUDICATE OTHER THAN PROPERTY RIGHTS.] To obtain an 10 adjudication concerning a right which is not a property right, when the remedy 11 by action in equity may seem to be more expeditious or more suitable to a 14 may be obtained.

15 Third—TO OBTAIN DECLARATION OF RIGHTS, ETC.] To obtain a declaration

33 lic welfare or be advantageous to any party to the action.

Sec. 754. BY WHOM ACTIONS IN EQUITY MAY BE MAINTAINED.] Actions in 2 equity may be maintained by the following persons:

3 First—ACTIONS HERETOFORE MAINTAINABLE.] Actions embraced within the 5 be maintained by all persons who might have maintained the same prior to the 6 taking effect of this act.

7 Second—ACTION TO QUIET TITLE.] An action to quiet title and to remove 8 clouds from the title to real estate may be maintained by any person having 10 tingent, in the premises the title to which is in question.

11 Third—ACTION TO ADJUDICATE OTHER THAN PROPERTY RIGHTS.] An action to 19 and testament, or as to any other matter in which they, or any or either of 20 them, are, or claim to be, interested, may be maintained by any person having 21 any interest, financial or otherwise, in such declaration, or whose interests, 22 financial or otherwise, might be affected by any declaration which might be 23 made.

24 Fifth—ACTION TO TEST VALIDITY OF LAW, CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT, OR ORDI-25 NANCE.] An action to obtain an adjudication respecting the validity of an act 26 of the General Assembly of this State, or of any amendment to the constitution 27 of this State, or of any ordinance of a municipal corporation of this State, may 28 be maintained by any citizen of this State.

Sec. 755. DUTY OF ATTORNEY GENERAL IN ACTION TO TEST VALIDITY OF LAW OR 2 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.] Whenever any action is brought against the 3 Secretary of State to obtain an adjudication respecting the validity of an act of 4 the General Assembly of this State, or of any amendment to the constitution 5 of this State, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to forthwith notify 6 the attorney general of the bringing of such action and it shall thereupon be-7 come the duty of the Attorney General to take such steps as may be necessary 8 for the presentation to the court in which the action is brought, or to which the 9 same is removed by appeal or writ of error, of such suggestions and arguments 10 as the Attorney General may deem conducive to a proper determination of the 11 action.

Sec. 756. HOW ACTION IN EQUITY COMMENCED.] Every action in equity shall 2 be commenced by the filing by the plaintiff with the clerk of the court in which 3 the action is brought of a bill of complaint framed substantially as hereinafter 4 provided.

Sec. 757. PLEADINGS.] The pleadings in actions in equity shall be known 2 as bills of complaint, cross-bills of complaint, supplemental bills of complaint, 3 bills of intervention, bills of review, exceptions, demurrers, pleas and answers.

Sec. 758. REQUISITES OF BILL OF COMPLAINT.] A bill of complaint shall 2 specify the court in which the action is brought, the names of the parties thereto 3 and its classification and number and shall contain an introduction stating that 4 the plaintiff brings his action in equity against the defendant and thereafter a 5 narrative of the material facts on which the plaintiff relies, such narrative to 6 be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively and each paragraph to con-7 tain, as nearly as may be, a separate and distinct allegation. Its language shall 8 be as brief and concise as is consistent with the understanding by the court of 9 the case intended to be stated by the plaintiff and to that end it shall be liber-10 ally construed in the plaintiff's favor. It shall omit all general charges of fraud, 11 combination and confederacy. It shall not contain any recital of matters of 12 evidence nor of matters of law. It shall be complete in itself and shall contain no reference to any exhibits, but when any paper, document or record of any kind is material to the statement of the plaintiff's case the substance and effect thereof, or of the portion thereof which is material to the plaintiff's case, shall be stated, or the entire paper, document or record shall be embodied, in a paragraph of the bill. It shall pray specifically, but, as far as may be practicable, by the use of abbreviated forms the meaning of which may be readily understood by the court, for the relief to which the plaintiff may conceive himself entitled and also for general relief, and the prayer shall be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively, each praying separate relief; but it shall contain no prayer for process, but such process shall be issued, or such notice shall be given to the defendants, as may be required by the plaintiff by a note at the foot thereof.

Sec. 759. RULES FOR DETERMINING SUFFICIENCY OF BILL.] In the determination of the sufficiency of a bill of complaint in equity the following rules, among others, shall prevail:

First—OFFER TO DO EQUITY UNNECESSARY.] It shall be unnecessary to set forth therein any offer in the nature of an offer on the part of the plaintiff to do equity on his part in case he shall be granted the relief he prays for, but such offer shall be presumed from the filing of the plaintiff's bill of complaint.

Second—GENERAL ALLEGATION OF PERFORMANCE SUFFICIENT.] In all cases where it is necessary to entitle the plaintiff to relief that it appear that he has performed or tendered performance of a contract on his part, it shall be sufficient to allege generally that he has performed or tendered performance of the contract on his part and such general allegation shall be taken to mean that the plaintiff has performed every act necessary to constitute such performance or tender of performance.

Third—CONCLUSIONS SUFFICIENT—EXCEPTION AS TO INVALIDITY, FRAUD, ACCIDENT AND MISTAKE.] In general, it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff to state conclusions in lieu of setting forth the facts from which such conclusions are to be ad-

18 duced, excepting that charges of invalidity, fraud, accident or mistake, shall be 19 accompanied by statements of the facts relied upon to constitute the invalidity, 20 fraud, accident or mistake.

21 Fourth—FACTS PRESUMED BY LAW OR AS TO WHICH BURDEN IS ON DEFENDANT.]
 22 It shall be unnecessary for the plaintiff to state facts which the law presumes 23 in his favor, or as to which the burden of proof lies upon the defendant.

24 Fifth—WHEN ALLEGATION SUFFICIENTLY EXPLICIT.] Every allegation shall 25 be deemed sufficiently explicit when the language thereof is such as to enable 26 the court to understand the probable meaning thereby intended to be conveyed.

Sec. 760. FRAME OF BILL TO OBTAIN DECLARATION OF RIGHT, ETC., OR TEST
 2 LAW OR ORDINANCE.] In the framing of a bill to obtain a declaration respecting 3 the rights, duties or liabilities of any other party or parties, or to obtain an 4 adjudication respecting the validity of an act of the General Assembly, or of any 5 amendment to the constitution of this State, or of any ordinance of a municipi-6 pal corporation of this State, the following rules shall be observed:

7 First—MATTERS OF FORM.] It shall comply, as to matters of form, with the 8 provisions of this act respecting other bills of complaint in equity.

9 Second—MATTER AS TO WHICH ADJUDICATION IS SOUGHT.] It shall specify 10 distinctly the rights, duties or liabilities respecting which a declaration of the 11 court is sought, or the law or ordinance the validity of which is called in ques-12 tion, with sufficient particularity to enable the same to be clearly identified.

13 Fourth—PARTIES.] If the action be one to obtain a declaration respecting 14 any right, duty or liability, the bill shall name as parties all persons interested 15 in such declaration, or, if it be one to test the validity of a law, or of an 16 amendment to the constitution, it shall name as parties defendant to the action 17 the Secretary of State and such other persons, if any, as the plaintiff may 18 deem proper, or, if the action be one to test the validity of an ordinance, it 19 shall name as parties defendant the municipal corporation by which the ordinance has been adopted and such persons in addition thereto as the plaintiff may deem proper.

Fifth—VERIFICATION.] It shall be verified by the affidavit of the plaintiff, or one of the plaintiffs in case there are several plaintiffs, that the allegations thereof are true in substance and in fact.

Sec. 761. PROCEDURE WHEN PAPER OBJECTIONABLE IN FORM.] If a bill of complaint or other pleading is not divided into paragraphs as provided in this act, or is unnecessarily voluminous or is otherwise objectionable in form, the court may, on motion of any party to the action, or of its own motion, rule the party whose paper it is to reform the same in such manner as to obviate all objections respecting the form thereof, and for non-compliance with such rule may order the paper to be taken off the file.

Sec. 762. BILL TO OPERATE AS NOTICE WHEN.] Every bill of complaint shall operate as notice to all persons of the pendency of the action from the date of the service of the summons upon the defendant in case the summons shall be thus served, or from the date of the first publication of notice, in case the defendant shall be notified by publication.

Sec. 763. FORMS OF BILLS.] The following forms of bills of complaint shall be deemed to sufficiently comply with the provisions of the preceding sections and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other bills of complaint may be properly framed:

The plaintiff brings this his action in equity against the defendant and says:

1. On December 1, 1901, defendant Richard Roe, for a valuable consideration, made and delivered to plaintiff his promissory note as follows:

(Here insert copy of note.)

85 2. To secure the payment of said note the defendant Richard Roe and the 86 defendant Mary Roe, who then was and still is the wife of said Richard Roe,

113

BILL OF COMPLAINT.

114 The plaintiff brings this his action in equity against the defendant and 115 says:

116 1. On September 1, 1907, plaintiff was the owner in fee simple of the south-117 west quarter of section twenty (20), township nineteen (19), north, range two 118 (2) east of the Third Principal Meridian in Cook county, Illinois, of the value 119 of about thirty-two thousand dollars ($32,000), which was substantially all the 120 property plaintiff then owned.

2. On said last mentioned date plaintiff executed and delivered to the defendant, who is the plaintiff's son, a warranty deed conveying said premises to said defendant, which said deed was duly acknowledged and recorded as indicated by the certificates of acknowledgment and recording indorsed thereon and the same and the said indorsements were and are as follows:

126 (Here insert copy of deed and endorsements.)

127 3. Plaintiff at the time of the execution and delivery of said deed was sev-128 enty-five years of age and in feeble health.

129 4. The consideration of said deed, and the only consideration therefor, was 130 that said defendant should support and maintain plaintiff comfortably for and 131 during plaintiff's natural life, and provide him with proper food and clothing 132 and necessary care and medical attention, so long as the plaintiff should 133 live.

134 5. Immediately after the execution of the deed defendant went into pos-135 session of said premises and has ever since retained and still retains possession 136 thereof and has received all the rents, issues and profits thereof.

137 6. Defendant has failed to carry out his agreement with the plaintiff in 138 this, that the defendant has not comfortably supported and maintained plaintiff 139 nor provided him with proper food and clothing, but has wholly neglected and 140 refused so to do.

141 Wherefore the plaintiff prays:

163 2. On September 5, 1903, there was filed for record in the office of the re-
 164 corder of Cook county, Illinois, and recorded therein in book 1,000, page 600, a 165 certain tax deed, of which the following is a copy:

166 (Here insert copy of deed.)

167 3. Said deed was and is invalid because, first, no notice was published by 168 the collector as required by law of the sale of the property described therein; 169 and, second, the purchaser at the sale did not serve or cause to be served a 170 written or printed, or partly written or printed notice of his purchase on the 171 plaintiff who was in actual possession and occupancy of such premises.

172 4. Plaintiff prior to the commencement of his action and on December 1, 173 1907, tendered to the defendant the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75), which 174 sum was in excess of the amount paid by the defendant for the premises at the 175 tax sale, with interest thereon down to the time of such tender, and demanded 176 of the defendant that he execute and deliver to plaintiff a quit claim deed convey-177 ing to plaintiff defendant's title acquired by said tax deed, and then and there 178 tendered defendant the sum of five dollars ($5) as compensation for the mak-179 ing of said deed, but defendant refused and still refuses to execute the deed.

180 5. Said tax deed is a cloud upon the title of plaintiff to the premises.

181 Wherefore plaintiff prays:

274 says:

275 1. Joseph Doe died in Cook county, Illinois, on February 1, 1908, leaving 276 the plaintiff, John Doe, and the defendants, William Doe, Henry Doe and Mary 277 Doe, his sons and daughter, and the defendant Jane Doe, his widow, his only 284 3. After his death and on March 10, 1908, an instrument purporting to be 293 5. The making of said instrument was procured by the defendants, Wil-294 liam Doe, Henry Doe and Mary Doe by undue influence practiced by them upon 295 said Joseph Doe in this, that said William Doe, Henry Doe and Mary Doe, prior 296 to the making of said instrument, caused it to be represented to said Joseph Doe

320 The plaintiff brings this his action in equity against the defendant and 321 says:

322 1. On July 1, 1907, the defendant commenced an action at law against the 323 plaintiff in the superior court of Cook county to recover the sum of $1,000, 324 which he claimed to be due from plaintiff upon the following promissory note:

325 (Here insert copy of note.)

2. Said action was Contract No. 27, in said superior court and judgment therein was rendered in favor of said Richard Roe, the defendant herein, and against the plaintiff herein for the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) and costs of the action on the first day of December, 1907.

3. After the commencement of said action and before judgment was entered, the plaintiff had duly entered his appearance and filed a specification of his defenses therein and said case was set for trial on November 25, 1907.

4. On November 24, 1907, on the application of the plaintiff herein and after due notice to the defendant herein, the said superior court entered an order in said action postponing the trial thereof until March 1, 1908.

5. Said judgment so entered on December 1, 1907, was entered without the knowledge or consent of the plaintiff herein by means of a fraudulent concealment by the defendant herein from said superior court of the entry of the order postponing the trial of said action.

6. The plaintiff herein, relying on the said postponement, paid no further attention to the said action and remained in entire ignorance of the entry of said judgment until February 15, 1908, when he learned thereof by reason of the service upon him by the sheriff of Cook county, Illinois, of an execution issued out of said superior court on said judgment on February 1, 1908.

7. The plaintiff herein was not at the time of the commencement of the said action by said Richard Roe aforesaid, nor at the time of the entry of said judgment, nor is he now, in any manner indebted to said Richard Roe upon said promissory note or otherwise, the amount of said promissory note having been paid by the plaintiff herein to the defendant herein on June 1, 1907.

Wherefore plaintiff prays:

First—For a decree vacating and setting aside the judgment.

Second—For an injunction against the enforcement of the judgment.

Third—For a decree for the cancelation and delivery up of the said promissory note.

Fourth—For general relief.

549 writing of co-partnership in the words and figures following, to-wit:

550 (Here insert copy of agreement.)

551 2. In pursuance of said agreement the copartnership business was entered 552 upon and has ever since continued to be carried on by the plaintiff and the de 553 fendants under and in pursuance thereof.

554 3. On February 1, 1908, plaintiff served a notice in writing upon the de 555 fendants of a dissolution of the co-partnership, said notice being as follows:

556 (Here insert copy of notice.)

557 4. From the commencement of the co-partnership down to the present time 558 each of the defendants has appropriated to his own individual use large sums of 559 money in excess of what he was entitled to out of the receipts and profits of the 560 business, and both are largely indebted to the co-partnership, the indebtedness 561 of the defendant Richard Roe being over ten thousand dollars ($10,000), and 562 that of the defendant William Jones being over twenty thousand dollars ($20,- 563 000).

564 5. Both of the defendants are insolvent.

565 6. Both of the defendants have refused to discontinue the carrying on of 566 the partnership business and insist upon still carrying on the same, notwith-

675 JAMES SMITH, Cerk.

676 The clerk will issue a summons to the defendant for his appearance on Mon-677 day, July 18, 1910.

Sec. 764. WHEN BILL NOT TO BE DEEMED MULTIFARIOUS—DIVISION OF ACTION.]

2 No bill of complaint or cross-bill of complaint in an action in equity shall be 3 hereafter deemed multifarious, if it shall appear therefrom that the matters 4 therein set forth have such relation to each other that it is advantageous to the 5 plaintiff to litigate the same in one action, or if, in the opinion of the court, 6 such matters may be conveniently and expeditiously litigated in one action.
 7 When any party to the action shall object that any such bill or cross-bill is mul-8 tifarious, the court may proceed as provided in section one hundred seventy-9 three (173) of this act. The objection of multifariousness must be made by the 10 defendant before the filing of any other pleading.

Sec. 765. OBJECTION OF WANT OF PROPER PARTIES—HOW AND WHEN MADE.]

2 When any defendant to any bill of complaint or cross-bill of complaint shall 3 object that persons have not been made parties to the action who ought to have 4 been joined as plaintiffs or defendants, as the case may be, the procedure shall 5 be as prescribed in section one hundred sixty-two (162) of this act.

Sec. 766. ADEQUATE REMEDY AT LAW NOT GOOD OBJECTION.] It shall not be 2 a good objection to a bill of complaint in equity that the matters therein sought 3 to be litigated are matters with respect to which, or any of which, the plaintiff 4 has a full, adequate and complete remedy at law; but, as to any such matters, 5 the defendant shall be entitled to a trial by jury of all issues of fact if, at the 6 time he enters his appearance, if he be a defendant to the original bill, or at the 7 time he files his first pleading, if he be a defendant to the cross-bill, he files a 8 demand in writing of a trial by jury.

Sec. 767. MATTERS WHICH MAY BE LITIGATED BY BILL TO CONTEST WILL.] In 2 any action in equity to contest the validity of any last will and testament the 3 plaintiff shall be entitled to pray relief respecting property affected by such 4 last will and testament, if the relief so prayed for be such as the plaintiff might 5 be entitled to in case such last will and testament should be adjudged invalid, 6 and for that purpose the plaintiff may allege such matters in his bill of com-7 plaint and may make such parties' defendant thereto as may be necessary to the 8 granting of the relief prayed for.

Sec. 768. MATTERS WHICH MAY BE LITIGATED IN FORECLOSURE ACTION.] In a 2 bill to foreclose a mortgage or deed of trust or to enforce any other lien the 3 plaintiff may make any person interested in the premises subject to the mort-4 gage, deed of trust or other lien, a party defendant, whether such person claims 5 an interest in such premises prior or superior, or subsequent or subject, to such 6 mortgage, deed of trust or lien, and the court in such action may determine all 7 questions of conflicting titles and interests and may, by its decree, establish and 8 fix the respective titles and interests of all the parties to the action.

Sec. 769. COURT MAY GRANT COMPLETE RELIEF.] In every action in equity

2 the court may grant to the respective parties all such relief as they may appear 3 to be entitled to, whether the same be of an equitable or legal nature.

Sec. 770. TO WHAT EXTENT DECREE IN EQUITY RES ADJUDICATA.] No decree

2 hereafter entered in any action in equity in this state shall be deemed or treated 3 as an adjudication with respect to any matter not actually litigated in such 4 action.

Sec. 771. EXCEPTIONS TO BILL—FORM.] Exceptions may be taken to allega-

2 tions of a bill of complaint which are scandalous or impertinent. If an ex-3 ception be taken to an entire paragraph of the bill, the exception shall so specify, 4 without repeating the language of such paragraph. If the exception be taken 5 to a portion of a paragraph of the bill, the same shall set forth either the 6 language of the portion excepted to of such paragraph or that such paragraph 7 is excepted to saving the portion thereof set out in the exception. Exceptions 8 to a bill shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the defendant's attorney, or one 9 of the defendant's attorneys, that the same are not interposed for delay and 10 that he believes the same to be well founded in law. The clerk shall refuse to 11 receive or file any exceptions not accompanied by such affidavit. The follow-12 ing form, with a specification of the court and the title, classification and num-13 ber of the action, shall be deemed a sufficient form of exceptions and shall be 14 taken as furnishing suggestions from which other exceptions may be properly 15 framed:

16 EXCEPTIONS TO BILL OF COMPLAINT.

17 The defendant excepts to the following portions of the bill of complaint:

18 1. Paragraphs 3, 9 and 10.

19 2. That portion of paragraph 4 which reads as follows: (Here insert 20 language excepted to.)

21 3. All of paragraph 11 excepting the following portion thereof: (Here 22 insert portion of paragraph not excepted to.)

THOMAS JONES.

Attorney for Defendant.

AFFIDAVIT.

26 Thomas Jones, the attorney for the defendant, on his oath says that the 27 foregoing exceptions are not interposed for delay and that he believes the same 28 to be well founded in law.

THOMAS JONES.

30 Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of July, 1910.

Sec. 772. DEMURRER—FORM.] If the defendant conceives the bill of complaint to be insufficient in law he may file a demurrer to the same, either without filing exceptions thereto, or after such exceptions have been filed and the judgment of the court taken thereon. Every demurrer shall state that the defendant demurs to the bill and shall specify, by the use of abbreviated forms, the grounds of the demurrer. The grounds of demurrer to a bill shall be known and stated in abbreviated forms as insufficiency in law, statute of limitations and statute of frauds. A demurrer for insufficiency in law will be deemed sufficient to reach any defect in the substance of a bill, other than either of those expressed in the other grounds of demurrer above specified. Every de-murrer shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the defendant's attorney, or one of the defendant's attorneys, that the same is not interposed for delay and that he believes the same to be well founded in law. The clerk shall refuse to receive or file any demurrer not accompanied by such affidavit. The following form, with a specification of the court and the title, classification and number of the action, shall be deemed a sufficient form of demurrer and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other forms of demurrers may be properly framed:

DEMURRER TO BILL OF COMPLAINT.

The defendant demurs to the bill on the following grounds:

1. Insufficiency in law.
2. Statute of limitations of five years.
3. Statute of frauds.

THOMAS JONES,

Attorney for Defendant.

AFFIDAVIT.

Thomas Jones, the attorney for the defendant, on his oath says that the foregoing demurrer is not interposed for delay and that he believes the same to be well founded in law.

THOMAS JONES.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of July, 1911.

Sec. 773. PLEADINGS AFTER EXCEPTIONS AND DEMURRER.] If the defendant does not except or demur to the bill of complaint, or if his exceptions or demurrer thereto, or both, as the case may be, are overruled, he shall file a plea or answer thereto.

Sec. 774. REQUISITES OF PLEA—FORM.] Every plea shall state that the defendant pleads to the bill, or to some portion thereof, specifying the portion by giving the numbers of the paragraphs, if the plea is to entire paragraphs, or, if to portions of paragraphs, specifying the language of the portions pleaded to, or that such paragraphs are pleaded to saving the portions set out in the plea, and shall set forth the facts pleaded by the defendant and shall be verified by the affidavit of the defendant, or, if the defendant be a corporation, by some officer having knowledge of the facts, unless the plea is one to the jurisdiction of the court or to the disability of the person of the plaintiff or the facts therein set forth are matters of record or matters recorded. It shall omit the 11 common protestation clause and the common conclusion heretofore in use. The 12 following form, with a specification of the court and the title, classification and 13 number of the action, shall be deemed a sufficient form of plea:

14 PLEA TO BILL OF COMPLAINT.

15 The defendant pleads to the bill (or, if the plea be to a portion of the bill, 16 the portion pleaded to shall be specified in the manner above indicated,) the fol-17 lowing facts:

18 (Here set forth facts pleaded.)

19 THOMAS JONES,

20 Attorneys for Defendant.

21 Richard Roe, the above named defendant, on his oath says that the foregoing 22 plea by him pleaded is true in substance and in fact.

23 RICHARD ROE.

24 Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of January, 1908.

25 JOHN SMITH, Clerk.

Sec. 775. REQUISITES OF ANSWER—FORM.] Every answer shall state that 2 the defendant answers the bill, or so much of the bill, specifying it, as the defend-3 ant elects to answer. It shall answer fully all the allegations except such as are 4 not required to be answered by reason of exceptions, demurrer or plea thereto 5 allowed. It shall contain not only the defendant's answer to the several para-6 graphs of the bill, but thereafter such statement of his case as he may deem it 7 necessary or advisable to make. It shall also be divided into paragraphs num-8 bered consecutively, each paragraph containing, as nearly as may be, a separate 9 and distinct allegation; and such answer must be full and explicit and distinct to 10 each separate paragraph of the bill before it enters upon any statement of the 11 defendant's case. When the answer admits or denies any entire paragraph of a 12 bill, it shall state the number of the paragraph so admitted or denied without re-13 peating the language of such paragraph or any portion thereof. When it admits

14 a portion of a paragraph and denies the residue, it shall set forth that it admits 15 a portion thereof, setting forth the portion admitted, and denies the residue, or 16 that it denies a portion thereof, setting forth the portion denied, and admits the 17 residue. The language of that portion of the answer, if any, which sets forth 18 facts, matters and circumstances on which the defendant relies shall be as brief 19 and concise as is consistent with the understanding by the court of the case in-20 tended to be stated by the defendant, and it shall be liberally construed in the 21 defendant's favor. It shall be complete in itself and shall contain no reference 22 to any exhibits, but when any paper, document or record of any kind is material 23 to the statement of the defendant's case, the substance thereof, or of the portion 24 thereof which is material to the defendant's case shall be stated, or the entire 25 paper, document or record shall be embodied in a paragraph of the answer. The 26 common commencing clause reserving exceptions and containing protestations 27 and the common concluding clause denying combination and the general trav-28 erse and the common repetitions "this defendant further answering saith," and 29 the like, shall be omitted. The following form, with a specification of the court 30 and the title, classification and number of the action, shall be deemed a sufficient 31 form of answer.

32 ANSWER TO BILL OF COMPLAINT.

33 The defendant answering to the bill says:

34 1. That he admits paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 7 and 8 thereof.

35 2. That he denies paragraphs 4, 5 and 9 thereof.

36 3. That he admits so much of paragraph 6 thereof as states (here insert the 37 said part admitted) and denies the residue of said paragraph.

38 4. That he denies so much of paragraph 10 thereof as states that (here in-39 sert part denied) and admits the residue of said paragraph.

40 5. That (in this and in subsequent paragraphs, each alleging a single and 41 distinct fact, set forth briefly and concisely additional matters of defense ex-42 planatory of, or in addition to, the matters set forth in the preceding para-43 graphs).

44 RICHARD ROE,

45 BY THOMAS JONES,

46 His Attorney.

Sec. 776. WHEN ANSWER MUST EITHER ADMIT OR DENY MATTERS ALLEGED IN 2 BILL.] It shall not be permissible for the defendant in his answer to allege that 3 he has no knowledge concerning the matters, or concerning any particular matter 4 or matters, alleged in the bill of complaint, or that he can neither admit nor deny 5 the same, unless such matter or matters are such that the defendant cannot, by 6 reasonable diligence, ascertain the facts in reference thereto. When any matter 7 is alleged in a bill of complaint as a matter of record and the record pertaining 8 thereto is within the county in which the action is brought, and is accessible to 9 the defendant, or when such record, though out of such county, is accessible to 10 the defendant and may be inspected without serious inconvenience, it shall be 11 the duty of the defendant to examine the same and to admit or deny the allega-12 tion of the bill of complaint in respect thereto in accordance with the truth as 13 the same may be ascertained by him from such investigation. When any matter 14 not of record concerning which the defendant has no knowledge is alleged in the 15 bill of complaint, it shall be the duty of the defendant, before answering the same, 16 to ascertain, if practicable, the facts pertaining to such matter, and to admit or 17 deny the allegations of the bill of complaint in reference thereto in accordance 18 with the truth as the same may be ascertained by such defendant.

Sec. 777. WHEN ANSWER TO BE UNDER OATH—EFFECT AS EVIDENCE.] When-2 ever any complainant shall verify his bill by an affidavit that the matters and 3 things therein contained are true in substance and in fact, excepting such matters 4 as are therein stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and that as to 5 such matters so stated he believes them to be true, the defendant, unless he de-6 fends as the trustee or conservator of an idiot, habitual drunkard, lunatic or dis-7 tracted person or as the executor, administrator, heir, legatee or devisee of any 8 deceased person, or as the guardian or trustee of any such heir, legatee or de-9 visee, and has not obtained and can not obtain such knowledge of the matters al-10 leged in the bill as to enable him so to do, shall verify his answer by an affidavit

11 setting forth that the same is true in substance and in fact, except such matters 12 as are therein stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and that as to such 13 matters he believes the same to be true. But no such answer shall be evidence ex-14 cepting as against such defendant.

Sec. 778. DEMURRER, PLEA OR ANSWER TO PART—FORM.] The defendant may, 2 as heretofore, demur to part and plead to or answer the residue of a bill, or may 3 plead to part and answer the residue, or may demur to part, plead to part and 4 answer the residue; and in such case such demurrer and plea or answer, or such 5 plea and answer, or such demurrer, plea and answer, as the case may be, shall 6 conform, as near as may be, to the forms of demurrer, plea and answer herein-7 before prescribed. The following form of demurrer to a part, plea to a part and 8 answer to the residue of a bill of complaint, with a specification of the court, the 9 title, classification and number of the action, shall be deemed a sufficient form 10 of demurrer to part, plea to part and demurrer to the residue of a bill of com-11 plaint and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other such papers 12 may be properly framed:

13 DEMURRER TO PART, PLEA TO PART AND ANSWER TO RESIDUE OF BILL OF COMPLAINT.

14 First—To paragraphs 3, 9 and 10, and to that portion of paragraph 4 which 15 reads as follows (here insert language of that part of paragraph 4 demurred 16 to), the plaintiff demurs on the following grounds:

- 17 1. Insufficiency in law.
- 18 2. Statute of frauds. (Here insert affidavit of attorney.)

19 Second—To paragraphs 5, 6 and 7 and to paragraph 11, excepting the fol-20 lowing portion thereof (here insert portion of paragraph 11 not pleaded to), the 21 defendant pleads the following facts: (Here set forth facts pleaded, the same 22 to be signed and verified by the affidavit of the defendant.)

Third—To the residue of the bill plaintiff answers as follows:

1. That he admits paragraphs 1, 2 and 8.

2. That he admits so much of paragraph 4 as is not above demurred to.

3. That he denies all of paragraph 11 excepting the portion above pleaded to.

4. That he denies paragraphs 12 and 13.

5. That (in this and in subsequent paragraphs, each alleging a single and distinct fact, set forth briefly and concisely additional matters of defense explanatory of or in addition to the matters set forth in the preceding paragraphs).

By THOMAS JONES,

His Attorney.

Sec. 779. EXCEPTIONS TO ANSWER—FORM.] Exceptions may be taken to an answer for scandal or impertinence, or for insufficiency, and shall be filed within seven days after the filing of the answer and the service of a copy thereof upon the plaintiff, unless the time for the filing of the same shall be extended by the court or by the agreement of the parties. They shall be in the form, as near as may be, prescribed for exceptions taken to a bill of complaint, excepting that every exception for insufficiency shall set forth wherein the paragraph or portion thereof excepted to is insufficient. Exceptions for scandal or impertinence may be filed before exceptions for insufficiency and, if not so filed, shall be deemed waived. If an exception be to an answer to an interrogatory the same shall set forth the number of the interrogatory and shall state wherein the answer is insufficient. Exceptions to an answer shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the plaintiff's attorney, or one of the plaintiff's attorneys, that the same are not interposed for delay and that he believes the same to be well founded in law. The clerk shall refuse to receive or file any exceptions not accompanied by such affidavit. The following form, with a specification of the court and the title,

19

20 The plaintiff excepts to the following portions of the answer of the defendant 21 for insufficiency:

1. Paragraph 3 is insufficient because (here state in what the insufficiency consists).

24 2. That portion of paragraph 4 which reads as follows: (here insert lan-25 guage excepted to) is insufficient because (here state in what the insufficiency 26 consists).

3. All of paragraph 11, excepting the following portion thereof (here inserted the portion of paragraph not excepted to) is insufficient because (here state in what the insufficiency consists).

30 4. The answer to interrogatory 10 is insufficient because (here state in what 31 respect the answer is insufficient).

32 HENRY SMITH,
33 Plaintiff's Attorney.

34 AFFIDAVIT.

Sec. 780. FRIVOLOUS OR VEXATIOUS PLEADING.] When any objection taken to 2 the form of any pleading, or any demurrer or exception, is overruled, the court, 3 if, in its opinion, such objection has been made, or such demurrer or exception 4 has been filed, frivolously or vexatiously, may award the party to whose pleading

5 such objection has been made, or such demurrer or exception filed, and against 6 the party by whom the same has been made or filed, a sum not exceeding ten 7 dollars ($10) as costs, and whenever any objection taken to the form of any 8 pleading, or any demurrer or exception, has been sustained, the court, if, in its 9 opinion, the pleading, or portion thereof, to which such objection, demurrer or 10 exception has been sustained was frivolous or vexatious, may award, in favor of 11 the party making such objection or filing such demurrer or exception, and 12 against the party to whose pleading, or portion thereof, it has been sustained, 13 a sum not exceeding ten dollars ($10) as costs.

Sec. 781. REPLICATIONS ABOLISHED—AMENDMENT OF BILL TO MEET ALLEGA-2 TIONS OF ANSWER—WHEN CAUSE DEEMED AT ISSUE—HEARING ON BILL AND ANSWER.]
 3 Hereafter it shall be unnecessary to file any replication to an answer. When 4 the answer contains matters which the plaintiff deems it necessary or expedi-5 ent to confess and avoid, or meet otherwise than by denial, he may set up such 6 matters of confession and avoidance or other matters by an amendment or 7 amendments of his bill. Upon the filing of the answer the cause shall be deemed 8 at issue and stand for hearing, unless exceptions shall be filed thereto, or unless 9 the plaintiff shall amend his bill, in which case the cause shall be deemed at 10 issue upon the filing of the amendment or amendments to the bill, unless the 11 court shall otherwise direct. Upon the application of the plaintiff the cause 12 may be set for hearing upon the bill and answer, in which case the answer shall 13 be taken as true and no evidence shall be received unless it be a matter of 14 record to which the answer refers.

Sec. 782. BILLS OF REVIVOR ABOLISHED—SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES.] Bills of re-
 2 vivor are hereby abolished. Upon the death of any party plaintiff or any party 3 defendant, or upon the resignation or removal of any party acting as executor, 4 administrator, guardian, conservator, trustee or in any other representative ca-5 pacity, the death, resignation or removal, as the case may be, may be suggested

6 and made to appear to the court and the heir, devisee, administrator, executor or 7 successor in office of such party may be substituted by an order of the court in 8 place of such party as a plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be, and the ac-9 tion thereupon proceed and be determined as if the party or parties so substituted 10 had been originally a party or parties to such action.

Sec. 783. SUPPLEMENTAL BILL—WHEN FILED—REQUISITES—FORM.] A supple-2 mental bill may be filed for the purpose of bringing before the court material 3 matters which have occurred since the filing of the original bill, but no such bill 4 shall be filed without leave of court. It shall contain an introduction stating that 5 the plaintiff in the original bill, or, if an additional party plaintiff is made by 6 such supplemental bill, that the original plaintiff, together with such additional 7 plaintiff, brings or bring his or their supplemental bill of complaint by leave of 8 court, against the defendant in the original bill, or if an additional party de-9 fendant is made by such supplemental bill, the same shall recite that it is brought 10 by the plaintiff against the original defendant and such additional defendant, 11 naming him, and thereafter a narrative of the supplemental matters on which 12 the plaintiff relies, and a prayer, such narrative and prayer to be framed, as 13 near as may be, in accordance with the rules hereinbefore prescribed for an or-14 iginal bill. It shall omit any recital of the previous pleadings or proceedings and 15 no instrument correctly set out in substance or embodied in full in any previous 16 pleading, whether of the plaintiff or of any other party, shall be again set out, 17 either in substance or in full, in a supplemental bill, but if such instrument be a 18 necessary part of such supplemental bill it shall be made a part thereof by ap-19 propriate reference to such previous pleading. The following form shall be 20 deemed a sufficient form of supplemental bill and shall be taken as furnishing 21 suggestions from which other supplemental bills may be properly framed:

 4 tory and supplemental bill. The following form shall be deemed a sufficient form 5 of amendatory and supplemental bill and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions

Sec. 786. BILL OF REVIEW—WHEN LEAVE OF COURT TO FILE NECESSARY.] A bill 2 of review may be filed for the purpose of reversing or modifying a final order or 3 decree previously entered for error in law apparent upon the face of such order 4 or decree, or on account of new facts discovered subsequently to the entry thereof, 5 and which could not, by the exercise of due diligence, have been discovered or 6 used before the decree was made: Provided, however, that no bill of review 7 shall be filed to reverse or modify a final order or decree for error in law appa-8 rent upon the face of such order or decree after the prosecution of an appeal or 9 writ of error to reverse the same and the entry of the judgment of the supreme 10 court, or the appellate court, as the case may be, upon such appeal or writ of 11 error affirming such final order or decree, and that no bill of review on account of 12 new facts discovered shall be filed without leave of court.

Sec. 787. FORM AND REQUISITES OF BILL OF REVIEW — UNITING DIFFERENT 2 GROUNDS IN SAME BILL.] A bill of review shall be framed in the form, as near as 3 may be, in this act prescribed for other bills of complaint in equity. It shall state 4 the former bill and the proceedings thereon; the decree and the point in which the 5 party exhibiting the bill conceives himself aggrieved by it, and the ground of law 6 or matter discovered upon which he seeks to impeach it. There may be united in 7 one bill of complaint a bill of review for error in law, a bill of review on account 8 of new facts discovered and an original bill to impeach the decree for fraud, or 9 any two of them, but when one of the grounds of such bill is new facts discover-10 ed the same shall not be filed without leave of court.

Sec. 788. CROSS-BILL—LEAVE TO FILE UNNECESSARY—NO DISMISSAL OF ORIGINAL 2 BILL WITHOUT CONSENT—NEW PARTIES.] Any defendant may, after filing his an-3 swer and without leave of court, file his cross-bill, but the plaintiff shall not be 4 compelled to file his answer to any cross-bill until the defendant shall have filed 5 a sufficient answer to the plaintiff's bill. No plaintiff shall be allowed to dis-6 miss his bill after a cross-bill has been filed without the consent of the defendant.
 7 Where it is necessary for the defendant to bring a new party before the court by 8 his cross-bill he shall so state therein and such new party may be summoned or 9 otherwise notified of the pendency of the action as the cross-plaintiff may indi-10 cate by a note at the foot of the cross-bill, and other proceedings may be had 11 against such new party as in the case of other defendants.

Sec. 789. REQUISITES OF CROSS-BILL—SUBSEQUENT PLEADINGS.] A cross-bill of 2 complaint shall contain an introduction stating that the cross-plaintiff, naming 3 him, brings his cross-bill of complaint against one or more of the other par-

4 ties to the action or against one or more of the other parties to the action and 5 other persons, as the case may be, naming or otherwise describing him or them, 6 as cross-defendant, or cross-defendants, and thereafter a narrative of the ma-7 terial facts, matters and circumstances on which the cross-plaintiff relies, and 8 the form thereof in other particulars shall be the same, as near as may be, as 9 that hereinbefore prescribed with respect to a bill of complaint filed by the plain-10 tiff. It shall omit any recital of the previous pleadings or proceedings and no 11 instrument correctly set forth in substance or embodied in full in the original 12 bill or other previous pleading shall be again set out, either in substance or in 13 full, in a cross-bill, but if such instrument be a necessary part of such cross-bill 14 it shall be made a part thereof by appropriate reference to the original bill or 15 other previous pleadings. The pleadings subsequent to the cross-bill and per-16 taining to the case made thereby and the forms, force and effect of such pleadings 17 shall be the same, as near as may be, as those of the pleadings subsequent to 18 the original bill pertaining to the case made thereby. The following forms of 19 introductions to cross-bills of complaint shall be deemed sufficient and shall be 20 taken as furnishing suggestions from which other introductions to cross-bills may 21 be properly framed:

22 1. INTRODUCTION TO CROSS BILL BROUGHT BY THE SOLE DEFENDANT AGAINST THE 23 SOLE PLAINTIFF.

24 CROSS BILL OF COMPLAINT.

25 The defendant, as cross plaintiff, brings this his cross-bill of complaint 26 against the plaintiff, as cross-defendant, and says:

27 2. INTRODUCTION TO CROSS BILL BROUGHT BY ONE OF SEVERAL DEFENDANTS 28 AGAINST THE PLAINTIFF AND ALL OF THE OTHER DEFENDANTS.

29 CROSS BILL OF COMPLAINT.

30 The defendant Richard Roe, as cross plaintiff, brings this, his cross-bill of 31 complaint against the plaintiff and all of the other defendants to the action, as 32 cross-defendants, and says:

3. INTRODUCTION TO CROSS BILL BROUGHT BY ONE DEFENDANT AGAINST THE PLAINTIFF, A PORTION OF THE OTHER DEFENDANTS AND THIRD PERSONS.

CROSS BILL OF COMPLAINT.

The defendant Richard Roe, as cross plaintiff, brings this his cross-bill of complaint against the plaintiff, the defendants, Henry Roe and Jane Roe, and also James Smith and Henry Brown, as cross defendants, and says:

Sec. 790. CROSS-BILL CONTAINING MATTERS NOT GERMANE TO ORIGINAL BILL—

RIGHT OF CROSS-PLAINTIFF.] Hereafter it shall not be a valid objection to any cross-bill that the matters therein sought to be litigated, or any portion thereof, are not germane to the matters sought to be litigated in the original bill, but it shall be the right of any cross-plaintiff to seek any relief by his cross-bill with respect to the property or any portion thereof which is in controversy under the original bill, when such relief may be more conveniently obtained by such cross-plaintiff by such cross-bill than by an independent action.

Sec. 791. CROSS-BILL MAY BE UNITED WITH ANSWER—HOW FRAMED—PLAINTIFF

TO ANSWER.] The defendant, if he so elect, may unite a cross-bill with his answer as one pleading, in which case, after the conclusion of that portion of such pleading which constitutes the answer, the subsequent portion thereof shall specify that it is a cross-bill and that the defendant, as cross-plaintiff, brings his cross-bill against the plaintiff, as cross-defendant (or, if other parties to the action or other persons not parties to the action are made cross-defendants, it shall be so specified), and thereafter shall follow a narrative of the material facts, matters and circumstances on which the cross-plaintiff relies and a prayer for relief, such narrative and prayer to be framed, as near as may be, in accordance with the rules in this act prescribed for the framing of the narrative and prayer of the bill of complaint; but the narrative shall contain no repetition of facts, matters and circumstances previously set forth in the answer, but such facts, matters and circumstances so set forth shall, without further allegation,

15 be taken and treated as a part of such cross-bill. When any such cross-bill is 16 united with an answer the complainant shall be bound to except, demur, plead 17 or answer thereto in the same manner as if it had been filed as a separate 18 pleading.

Sec. 792. FORM OF ANSWER COMBINED WITH CROSS-BILL.] The following form 2 of answer combined with a cross-bill shall be deemed a sufficient form therefor 3 and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other forms of such 4 pleadings may be properly framed:

5 IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

6 John Doe
 7 v. Richard Roe et al. } In Equity. No. 650.
 8 ANSWER TO BILL OF COMPLAINT.

9 The defendant Richard Roe, answering to the bill, says:

- 10 1. That he admits paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 7 and 8 thereof.
 11 2. That he denies paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 thereof.
 12 3. That (in this and in subsequent paragraphs, each alleging a single and 13 distinct fact, set forth briefly and concisely additional matters of defense ex-
 14 planatory of, or in addition to, the matters set forth in the preceding para-15 graphs).

16 CROSS-BILL OF COMPLAINT.

17 The defendant Richard Roe, as cross-plaintiff, also brings this his cross-18 bill of complaint against the plaintiff, the defendants William Roe and Henry 19 Roe and also Thomas Jones, as cross-defendants, and says:

- 20 1. That (in this and in subsequent paragraphs, each alleging a single and 21 distinct fact, set forth briefly and concisely the facts and circumstances in addi-22 tion to those specified in the answer upon which the cross-plaintiff relies for 23 relief).

24 Wherefore the cross-plaintiff prays as follows:

25 (Here set forth prayer.)
 26

27 RICHARD ROE,
 28 By THOMAS JONES,
 His Attorney.

NOTE.

29

30 The clerk will issue a summons to the cross-defendant Thomas Jones for 31 his appearance on August 16, 1908.

Sec. 793. PERSON NOT A PARTY NOT TO BECOME PARTY WITHOUT CONSENT—BILL
2 OF INTERVENTION—REQUISITES—FORM.] No person not made a party to a bill of 3 complaint or cross-bill of complaint shall be permitted, of his own motion, to 4 become a party to such bill without the consent of the plaintiff or cross-5 plaintiff, as the case may be, but when any person not made a party to an ac-6 tion in equity conceives himself to be interested in the subject matter thereof, he 7 may, by leave of the court in which such action is pending, be permitted to in-8 tervene therein by filing therein a bill of intervention, and thereafter such pro-9 ceedings shall be had, as near as may be, as if such party had been made a party 10 defendant in such action and had filed a cross-bill. Such bill of intervention 11 shall contain an introduction stating that the intervening plaintiff files his bill 12 of intervention, by leave of court, against the defendants, which defendants shall 13 be all the parties to the action, and such other persons as the intervening plain-14 tiff may elect to make defendants to such bill of intervention, and thereupon it 15 shall be framed in compliance, as near as may be, with the rules in this act pre-16 scribed for the framing of a cross-bill. If new parties are made defendants 17 and are to be summoned or notified by publication of the pendency of the action, 18 the intervening plaintiff shall so specify in a note at the end of such bill of inter-19 vention. The following form shall be deemed a sufficient form of a bill of in-20 tervention and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other bills 21 of intervention may be properly framed:

22 IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

23 John Doe
24 v.
24 Richard Roe et al. } In Equity. No. 650.

25

BILL OF INTERVENTION.

26 The intervention plaintiff, Thomas Smith, by leave of court, brings this his 27 bill of intervention against the plaintiff and the defendants in the action, and 28 also against Thomas Jones, as intervention defendants, and says:

29 1. That (in this and in subsequent paragraphs, each alleging a single and 30 distinct fact, set forth briefly and concisely the facts and circumstances upon 31 which the intervention plaintiff relies for relief).

32 Wherefore the intervention plaintiff prays as follows:

33 (Here set forth prayer.)

34 THOMAS SMITH,

35 By SOLOMON WRIGHT,

36 His Attorney.

37 Thomas Smith on his oath says that the matters and things alleged in the 38 foregoing bill are true to the best of his knowledge, information and belief.

39 THOMAS SMITH.

40 Subscribed and sworn to before me this 24th day of February, 1908.

41 JOHN SMITH, Clerk.

42 NOTE.

43 The clerk will issue a summons to the intervention defendant Thomas Jones 44 for his appearance on August 27, 1908.

Sec. 794. COPIES OF PLEADINGS TO BE SERVED.] Upon the filing by any party 2 of a pleading subsequent to the original bill of complaint of the plaintiff, the 3 party filing the same shall forthwith cause notice of such filing, together with a 4 copy of the pleading so filed, to be served upon the adverse party, or upon each 5 group of adverse parties who shall have entered separate appearances.

Sec. 795. TIME FOR FILING PLEADINGS SUBSEQUENT TO SUPPLEMENTAL OR CROSS-2 BILL—TIME MAY BE ENLARGED OR SHORTENED.] Every pleading subsequent and 3 pertaining to any amended bill, supplemental bill, cross-bill or bill of interven-4 tion shall be filed within ten days after the filing of the previous pleading, or, 5 in case such previous pleading consists of exceptions or a demurrer, within ten 6 days after the disposition thereof by the court: Provided, however, that the 7 court may, in its discretion, upon reasonable notice to the party to be affected 8 thereby, either enlarge or shorten the time in which the pleading shall be filed; 9 and, provided further, that any person made a party to such amended bill, sup-10 plemental bill, cross-bill or bill of intervention who was not previously thereto a 11 party to the action shall be allowed the same time for pleading thereto as is al-12 lowed by this act to a party to an original bill for pleading to the same.

Sec. 796. TIME FOR EXCEPTING, ETC., MAY BE EXTENDED OR SHORTENED.] The 2 court may, by special order or by general rules, extend or shorten the time for 3 excepting, demurring, pleading or answering.

Sec. 797. REPETITIONS PROHIBITED—ELECTION TO TREAT PREVIOUS PLEADINGS AS 2 ANSWER—WRITTEN INSTRUMENTS NOT TO BE REPEATED—FORM.] Any party required 3 to answer any amended bill, supplemental bill, cross-bill, bill of intervention or 4 other pleading requiring an answer, shall not repeat therein any matters alleged 5 in any previous pleading filed by him. When the previous pleadings of such 6 party set forth all the facts and circumstances relied upon by him as an answer 7 to such amended bill, supplemental bill, cross-bill, bill of intervention, or other 8 pleading requiring an answer, he may, when an answer on oath is not required, 9 elect that his previous pleadings stand as such answer, and his failure to file an 10 answer, in addition to such previous pleadings, within the time hereinbefore pre-11 scribed for the filing of the same, shall, without any order of court, be treated 12 as such election by him. When such party elects to file an answer in addition 13 to his previous pleadings and there are any facts or circumstances set forth in 14 his previous pleadings which are material in such answer, such answer may 15 refer to such previous pleadings by specifying either such pleadings in their en-16 tirety or such paragraphs thereof as are material in such answer, and the same 17 shall thereupon be treated as a part of such answer. No written instrument cor-18 rectly set out in substance or embodied in any previous pleading of such party 19 or of any other party shall be again set out in such answer, but if such written instrument be a necessary part of such answer it shall be made a part thereof by appropriate reference to the pleadings in which it is so correctly set out in substance or embodied. The following shall be deemed a sufficient form of answer provided for by this section, and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other answers may be properly framed:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

John Doe
v.
Richard Roe. } In Equity. No. 540.

ANSWER TO CROSS-BILL OF RICHARD ROE.

The cross-defendant, John Doe, answering to the cross-bill says:

1. That he relies upon all the facts and circumstances set forth in his original bill of complaint.

2. That he admits paragraphs 8, 9 and 10 of the cross-bill.

3. That he denies paragraphs 11, 12 and 13 thereof.

4. That (in this and in subsequent paragraphs, each alleging a single and distinct fact, set forth briefly and concisely, additional matters of defense explanatory of or in addition to the matters set forth in the preceding paragraphs).

JOHN DOE,

By HENRY SMITH,

His Attorney.

Sec. 798. COURT SUSTAINING DEMURRER TO POINT OUT DEFECTS—REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS—DUTY OF APPELLATE COURT OR SUPREME COURT UPON ERROR OR APPEAL.]

Before any demurrer to a bill of complaint, whether the same be an original bill, an amended bill, a cross-bill, a supplemental bill, a bill of review, or a bill of intervention, is sustained, the court, at the request of the plaintiff therein, shall, unless such bill is one incapable of being made good by amendment, specify the defects therein on account of which such demurrer is to be sustained and shall

8 afford the plaintiff an opportunity to amend the same, if he shall so elect, and, 9 in such case, if the plaintiff shall not elect to amend his bill to remedy such 10 defects, but shall tender to the judge a report of the proceedings specifying the 11 defects pointed out by the court, the judge shall sign the same, and the supreme 12 court or appellate court, as the case may be, upon appeal or writ of error taken 13 or brought by such plaintiff, shall reverse the decree unless it shall appear to 14 the reviewing court that the defects in the bill of complaint thus specified, or 15 some one or more of them, are sufficient to justify the sustaining of such de-16 murrer, or that the said bill of complaint is incapable of being made good by 17 an amendment.

Sec. 799. PROCEEDINGS AGAINST DEFENDANT NOT APPEARING OR ANSWERING.] If 2 any defendant in any proceeding in equity, having been served with summons or 3 personally notified as provided in this act, shall fail or refuse to appear or 4 answer the bill of complaint, he may be attached or otherwise proceeded against 5 according to the practice in equity in cases of contempt.

Sec. 800. VARIANCE BETWEEN PLEADINGS AND PROOFS NOT TO DEFEAT RELIEF—
 2 RIGHTS OF PARTIES TO BE DETERMINED FROM EVIDENCE—POWER OF COURT.] The plain-3 tiff, cross-plaintiff or intervention plaintiff, in an action in equity shall not be de-4 nied relief nor the defendant, cross-defendant, or intervention defendant, denied 5 the benefit of any defense to which the evidence, including the admissions of the 6 parties by their pleadings or otherwise, may show such plaintiff or defendant to 7 be entitled to, because of any variance between the pleadings and the evidence, 8 but in every such action the rights of the parties upon the final hearing shall be 9 determined in accordance with the evidence, unless it be evidence of facts wholly 10 foreign to the transactions involved in the controversy between the parties. In 11 case there be a substantial variance between the pleadings and the evidence the 12 court may, of its own motion, or at the request of either party, cause the plead-13 ings to be properly amended so as to conform to the evidence, or may, when the 14 proper protection of the rights of either party may seem to so require, postpone 15 the hearing or permit the introduction of further evidence. But nothing herein 16 contained shall be held to entitle any party to the benefit of the statute of lim-17 itations or statute of frauds unless he shall have claimed the benefit thereof by 18 his pleadings.

Sec. 801. PRO CONFESSO ORDER AS TO DEFENDANT NOT APPEARING.] If any de-2 fendant who shall have been served with a summons or otherwise notified of the 3 pendency of an action in equity shall fail to enter his appearance within the time 4 prescribed by this act for such entry of appearance, or any defendant, after hav-5 ing entered his appearance, shall fail to file with the clerk, within ten days after 6 the expiration of the time within which he is required to enter his appearance, 7 exceptions, a demurrer, a plea or an answer to the bill of complaint, such bill of 8 complaint may be taken as confessed by him, but no order taking the bill of com-9 plaint as confessed shall be entered as to any defendant who shall have entered 10 his appearance without reasonable notice thereof, or upon its being made satis-11 factorily to appear to the court that service of such notice has been impracticable.

Sec. 802. PROOF WHEN BILL TAKEN AS CONFESSED — DECREE TO CONFORM TO 2 PLEADING.] Where a bill is taken for confessed the court, before a final decree is 3 made, if deemed requisite, may require the plaintiff to produce documents and 4 witnesses to prove the allegations of his bill of complaint or may examine him on 5 oath or affirmation touching the facts therein alleged. Such decree shall be made 6 in either case as the court shall consider equitable and proper, but in any such 7 case no decree shall be made which is not justified by the allegations of the plain-8 tiff's bill of complaint.

Sec. 803. PERMITTING DEFENDANT TO ANSWER AFTER DECREE PRO CONFESSO.]
 2 If any defendant, as to whom the bill of complaint has been taken pro confesso, 3 shall appear within forty days thereafter and offer to file his answer to the bill

4 of complaint the court may permit him to do so upon his showing sufficient cause 5 and paying all the costs of the action incurred by the plaintiff prior thereto. In 6 such case the decree shall be vacated and the action may be proceeded in as in 7 other cases.

Sec. 804. RIGHTS OF PARTIES NOT SUMMONED OR NOT RECEIVING NOTICE—POW-2 ER OF COURT.] When any final decree shall be entered against any defendant who 3 shall not have been served with summons, or, if notified by publication of notice 4 only, shall not have received the notice required to be sent him by mail and such 5 person, his heirs, devisees, executors, administrators or other legal representa-6 tives, as the case may require, shall, within one year after notice in writing given 7 him or them of such decree, or within three years after such decree, if no such 8 notice shall have been given aforesaid, appear in open court and petition to be 9 heard touching the matter of such decree and shall pay such costs as the court 10 shall deem reasonable in that behalf, the person so petitioning may appear and 11 answer the plaintiff's bill of complaint and thereupon such proceedings shall be 12 had as if such defendant had appeared in due season and no decree had been 13 made. And if it shall appear, upon the hearing, that such decree ought not to 14 have been made against such defendant, the same shall be set aside, altered or 15 amended as shall appear just; otherwise the same shall be ordered to stand con-16 firmed against said defendant. The decree shall, after three years from the mak-17 ing thereof, if not set aside in the manner aforesaid, be deemed and adjudged 18 confirmed against such defendant and all persons claiming under him by virtue 19 of any act done subsequent to the commencement of such action; and at the end 20 of the said three years the court may make such further order in the premises as 21 shall be required to carry the same into effect.

Sec. 805. HEARING UPON BILL AND ANSWER—REFERENCE TO MASTER—TRIAL BY 2 JURY.] When an action shall be at issue by the filing of the answer the same 3 may, upon the application of the plaintiff, be set for hearing upon the bill and 4 answer, in which case the answer shall be taken as true, and no evidence shall be 5 received unless it be a matter of record to which the answer refers. If the action 6 be not set for hearing upon bill and answer, the court shall proceed to hear the 7 same upon pleadings and proofs heard in open court, or may refer the action to 8 a master in chancery or special commissioner to take and report the evidence, 9 with or without his conclusions thereon. The court may also, in its discretion, 10 when any action is at issue, direct an issue or issues to be tried by a jury when-11 ever it shall be judged necessary in any action in equity pending therein. In all 12 other actions in equity the mode of trial shall be the same as has been heretofore 13 practiced in courts of equity.

Sec. 806. EVIDENCE HEARD TO BE AVAILABLE UNDER SUBSEQUENT PLEADINGS—

2 RIGHTS OF PARTIES.] Whenever, in any action in equity, evidence shall be heard 3 respecting the issues made under the original bill of complaint, or under any sub-4 sequent pleadings, such evidence shall be considered in the determination of the 5 issues under any subsequent supplemental bill, cross-bill or amended pleading, 6 so far as such evidence may be pertinent to such issues, reserving to the respec-7 tive parties, both those properly before the court at the time such evidence was 8 heard and those subsequently brought before the court, the right to supplement 9 the same by such further examination or cross-examination of the witnesses al-10 ready heard, or by the testimony of such additional witnesses as may appear to 11 be necessary and proper.

Sec. 807. PROCEDURE IN ACTION TO OBTAIN DECLARATION OF RIGHTS, ETC.] In

2 an action in equity to obtain a declaration respecting the rights, duties or lia-3 bilities of any one or more of the parties to the action with respect to any other 4 party or parties as to any contract in writing, whether under seal or not under 5 seal, or as to any last will and testament, or as to any other matter in which 6 they, or any or either of them, are or claim to be interested, the court in which 7 the same is pending shall observe, as near as may be, the following rules:

8 First—ACTION BROUGHT IN BAD FAITH OR COLLUSIVELY.] Whenever the 9 court is satisfied that the action is brought in bad faith and not for the sole pur-10 pose of obtaining a declaration respecting the rights, duties or liabilities specified 11 in the bill, the court shall dismiss the same.

12 Second—COURT TO MAKE DECLARATION.] Unless the action be dismissed as 13 having been brought in bad faith and not for the sole purpose of obtaining such 14 declaration, or unless the same be dismissed for other good cause, the court 15 shall, on final hearing, enter a decree declaratory of the rights, duties or liabili-16 ties of the respective parties with respect to the matters set forth in the bill as 17 to which such declaration is sought.

18 Third—EFFECT OF DECREE.] The decree thus declaring the rights, duties 19 and liabilities of the respective parties shall be conclusive, in all subsequent ac-20 tions, whether at law or in equity, as to the rights, duties and liabilities of the 21 respective parties with respect to the matters in question embraced in such 22 decree.

23 Fourth—OTHER MATTERS OF PROCEDURE.] Excepting as is in this act other-24 wise provided, the procedure in any such action, so far as the same is not regu-25 lated by this section, shall be the same, as near as may be, as in other actions 26 in equity, with such variations therefrom as the court in which the action is 27 pending may deem necessary to a speedy determination of the action upon its 28 merits.

Sec. 808. PROCEDURE IN ACTION TO TEST VALIDITY OF LAW, CONSTITUTIONAL
 2 AMENDMENT OR ORDINANCE.] In an action in equity brought to test the validity
 3 of a law passed, or claimed to have been passed, by the General Assembly, a 4 constitutional amendment adopted, or claimed to have been adopted, by the 5 people of this state, or of an ordinance adopted, or claimed to have been adopted, 6 by any municipal corporation of this state, the court in which the same is 7 brought originally, or to which the same has come by appeal or writ of error, 8 shall observe, as near as may be, the following rules:

9 First—ACTION BROUGHT IN BAD FAITH OR COLLUSIVELY.] Whenever the 10 court is satisfied that the action is brought in bad faith, or that the same has 11 been brought collusively, the court shall dismiss the same, unless the court 12 shall be satisfied that the public good will be subserved by a declaration of the 13 court respecting the matters sought to be litigated in the action.

14 Second—WHEN SUPREME COURT MAY REQUIRE NOTICE TO BE GIVEN.] When the 15 action is pending in the supreme court the court may, in its discretion, require 16 such notice to be given or published of the pendency of the action and of the 17 question involved therein as the court may deem proper or expedient.

18 Third—THIRD PARTIES TO BE PERMITTED TO PRESENT ARGUMENTS.] When 19 the action is pending in the supreme court the court may permit third persons to 20 present and file arguments therein to such an extent as the court may deem 21 necessary to secure a full and complete argument and investigation of the case 22 in said court.

23 Fourth—COURT TO MAKE DECLARATION.] Unless the action shall be dismissed 24 as having been brought in bad faith, or as having been collusively brought, or 25 unless the same be dismissed for other good cause, the court shall, on final hear-26 ing, enter a decree declaring such law, constitutional amendment or ordinance 27 in question in the suit to be valid, if the same is wholly valid, or declaring it in-28 valid, if the same is wholly invalid, or declaring it partly valid, specifying in 29 the decree the valid part or parts, and partly invalid, specifying in the decree 30 the invalid part or parts.

31 Fifth—EFFECT OF DECREE.] A decree of a court of original jurisdiction, 32 other than the supreme court, declaring valid or invalid, in whole or in part, such 33 law, constitutional amendment or ordinance, shall have no force or effect ex-34 cepting as between the immediate parties to the action; but a decree of the su-35 preme court, in an action brought therein by virtue of its original jurisdiction 36 or by appeal or writ of error, declaring such law, constitutional amendment or 37 ordinance valid or invalid, in whole or in part, or, a judgment of the supreme 38 court affirming upon appeal or writ of error a decree of a court of original juris-39 diction declaring such law, constitutional amendment or ordinance valid or in-40 valid, in whole or in part, or reversing a decree of a court of original jurisdic-41 tion and entering in lieu thereof a decree declaring such law, constitutional 42 amendment or ordinance valid or invalid, in whole or in part, shall be final and 43 conclusive as to all contracts made, acts done or rights or liabilities accruing 44 under such law, constitutional amendment or ordinance subsequent to the entry 45 of such final decree or judgment of the supreme court, such judgment, however, 46 to be without prejudice to any subsequent adjudication by any court of this 47 state respecting any contracts made, act done or right or liability accruing 48 prior to the entry of such judgment.

49 Sixth—OTHER MATTERS OF PROCEDURE.] Excepting as is in this act otherwise 50 provided, the procedure in any such action, so far as the same is not regulated 51 by this section, shall be the same, as near as may be, as in other actions in equity, 52 with such variations therefrom as the court in which the action is pending may 53 deem necessary to a speedy determination of the action upon its merits.

Sec. 809. HEARING IN CAMERA.] Any court having jurisdiction of actions 2 in equity may order that the papers in any such action brought therein be 3 sealed and the inspection thereof by third persons prohibited, and the action 4 may be heard and determined by the court in private.

Sec. 810. PROCEDURE IN MATTERS NOT PROVIDED FOR.] In all matters not pro-2 vided for by this act, the procedure shall be in accordance with such rules as 3 may be adopted by the respective courts in accordance with the provisions of this 4 act, and, when no provision is made by this act or by such rules, then as 5 nearly in accordance with the general usage and practice of courts of equity as is 6 consistent with the general spirit and intention of this act.

47 and determined by a reference to a master than without such reference.

Sec. 812. PROCEDURE BEFORE MASTER—NOTICE TO PARTIES—POSTPONEMENTS.]

2 Upon the hearing before a master in any matter which may be referred to him 3 as hereinbefore provided the master shall proceed in like manner, as near as 4 may be, as if the matter were heard in open court, giving such notice to the 5 parties of the hearings before him as he may deem reasonable and necessary 6 and allowing such postponements as he may deem proper.

Sec. 813. DUTY OF MASTER—CONFINING EVIDENCE TO MATTERS IN DISPUTE—

2 DUTY OF PARTIES—VEXATIOUS CONDUCT—PENALTY.] Before the introduction of 3 any evidence in an action in which the reference directs the master to take the 4 evidence and report the same, or to take the evidence and report his conclu-5 sions as to the facts, or as to the law and the facts, the master shall ascertain 6 from the pleadings and other papers in the action, first, the facts admitted by 7 the respective parties, and, second, the facts in dispute between them as shown 8 by the pleadings and other papers, and shall endeavor to secure from the 9 parties such admissions respecting facts in dispute by the pleadings or other 10 papers, or of material evidentiary facts, as may be practicable, and shall limit 11 the evidence to such as may be pertinent to the facts actually in dispute. If 12 facts appearing from the pleadings or other papers to be in dispute are agreed 13 upon before the master, the master shall so note and shall not receive any evi-14 dence respecting such facts, unless the same be competent with respect to other 15 facts in dispute. If, upon the final hearing, it shall appear that any party has 16 vexatiously and wilfully refused to admit any fact respecting which there was 17 no real or substantial dispute, the court may award against such party and in 18 favor of the opposite party as costs, in addition to the costs of the action, such 19 sum, not exceeding fifty dollars ($50), as the court may deem reasonable, and 20 may enforce the payment thereof by attachment or other appropriate process.

 21 Evidence heard before the master may be taken down stenographically and a 22 transcript thereof, with the requisite number of carbon copies, thereafter 23 made, or it may be written, with the requisite number of carbon copies, upon 24 the type-writer in the first instance without being taken down stenographically, 25 as the parties to the action may agree, or, in case of disagreement, as the master 26 may determine: Provided, however, that no transcript of the evidence heard 27 before the master when the same is taken down stenographically need be made, 28 unless the same be ordered by the parties to the action, or by one or more of 29 them, or by the master, of his own motion, or unless the order of reference di-30 rects the master to take the evidence and report the same.

Sec. 814. WHEN TAKING OF EVIDENCE NOT TO BE POSTPONED ON ACCOUNT OF 2 ENGAGEMENTS OF MASTER.] Upon a reference to any master to take evidence and 3 report the same without his conclusions, the taking of such evidence shall not 4 be delayed on account of other engagements, or the inability, from any cause, 5 of such master to hear the same, but in any such case the taking of the evi-6 dence shall, at the demand of either party, proceed, at the time appointed 7 therefor, or at such other time or times as may appear to be practicable, before 8 any other master of the county who may be able to hear the same, or before 9 any court stenographer who, in the opinion of the master, may be able to 10 properly take the same under such supervision as other engagements of the 11 master may enable the master to exercise.

Sec. 815. HOW MASTER'S REPORT FRAMED.] In the framing of his report made 2 upon a reference the master shall observe, as nearly as may be practicable, the 3 following rules:

4 First—SPECIFICATION OF COURT, TITLE, CLASSIFICATION, ETC.] The report 5 shall specify the court in which the action is pending and the title, classification 6 and number of the action, and shall state that it is the master's report in such 7 action in pursuance of an order or decree of which it shall give the date.

8 Second—OMISSION OF RECITALS AS TO ORDER.] The report shall omit all re-9 citals concerning the order or decree of reference, other than the date thereof, 10 and shall likewise omit all recitals of the hearings before the master: Pro- 11 vided, however, that when, in the same action, there are several references of 12 the same date, the master may add such further description of the order as may 13 be necessary to clearly identify it.

14 Third—WHEN REFERENCE IS MERELY TO TAKE AND REPORT EVIDENCE.] If the 15 reference be merely to take the evidence and report the same, the report shall 16 be limited to a statement that the master has taken the evidence in accordance 17 with the reference and that the same is thereto attached, and the evidence shall 18 be accordingly attached to the report and returned therewith.

19 Fourth—WHEN REFERENCE IS TO TAKE EVIDENCE AND REPORT CONCLUSIONS IN 20 ACTION IN EQUITY.] If the reference be to take the evidence and report the 21 master's conclusions as to the facts only in an action in equity, the report shall 22 be limited to a statement of the master's conclusions as to the facts, or, if the 23 reference be to take the evidence and report his conclusions as to the law and 24 the facts, the report shall be limited to a statement of the master's conclusions, 25 (a) as to the facts, and, (b) as to the law of the case, without any argument 26 in support thereof, and, in either case, it shall be divided into paragraphs 27 numbered consecutively, each paragraph to contain the master's conclusions as 28 to some one fact in issue between the parties, and, in case the reference re-29 quires the master to report his conclusions as to the law, the last paragraph 30 shall contain a statement of the relief the master finds should be granted the 31 parties, or such of them as the master may find to be entitled to relief, and, in 32 case different items of relief are to be granted, the statement shall be sub-

33 divided into subdivisions numbered consecutively, each subdivision to specify a 34 single item of relief.

35 Fifth—WHEN REFERENCE IS TO TAKE EVIDENCE AND DETERMINE ISSUES IN AC-36 TION AT LAW.] If the reference be to take the evidence and determine the 37 issues, or any of them, in an action at law, the report shall be limited to a state-38 ment of the finding or findings of the master as to the issue or issues so re-39 ferred to him.

40 Sixth—WHEN REFERENCE PERTAINS TO INTERLOCUTORY MATTER.] If the refer-41 ence be for the hearing and determination of any interlocutory matter not in-42 cluded in the foregoing, the report shall be limited to a brief statement of the 43 finding or determination of the master framed, as near as may be, in accord-44 ance with the forms hereinafter prescribed.

45 Seventh—WHEN EVIDENCE NOT TO BE RETURNED.] Excepting where the 46 reference is one merely to take the evidence and report the same, the evidence 47 shall not be returned with the report unless one or more of the parties shall so 48 request, or unless some party to the action, whose rights may be affected by 49 such report, is an infant, lunatic or other person not sui juris.

Sec. 816. DOCUMENTS, PAPERS, BOOKS OF ACCOUNTS, ETC.—HOW SET FORTH IN 2 REPORT—DUTY OF MASTER.] When any paper or document correctly set forth in 3 any pleading, or other paper constituting a part of the record, is referred to 4 in the evidence given before the master, such document shall not be set forth 5 at large in the report of the evidence, but shall be identified by appropriate 6 reference to the pleading or other paper, and the paragraph therein in which it 7 is contained. When any document not set forth in any pleading, or other 8 paper constituting a part of the record, is introduced before the master, 9 the master shall not embody such document in full in his report of 10 the evidence, but shall state the legal effect thereof: Provided, how- 11 ever, that when there is any dispute between the parties as to the legal effect 12 of such document, or as to the genuineness thereof, the master shall, upon the de-

13 mand of either party, embody a complete copy thereof in his report. When 14 books of account are introduced in evidence the master shall not copy the same at 15 large in his report, but shall state the result thereof: Provided, however, that if 16 either party shall be dissatisfied with such conclusions the master shall copy in his 17 report of the evidence such books of account or portions thereof as the party so 18 dissatisfied may require, unless, in the opinion of the master, the demand of such 19 party for the copying of such books or portions thereof is frivolous and vex-20 ations, in which case the master shall cause the matter to be submitted to the 21 court for its consideration and the parties shall abide such order as the court 22 may make in the premises.

Sec. 817. EXHIBITS OR DOCUMENTS NOT TO BE RETURNED WITH REPORT—EXCEP-
 2 TION.] The master shall not return with his report any exhibits or documents 3 introduced in evidence, unless the genuineness of such exhibits or docu-4 ments is in dispute between the parties, but all such exhibits or documents, as 5 to the genuineness of which there is no dispute between the parties, shall be men-6 tioned or embodied or otherwise specified in the report of the evidence in the man-7 ner hereinbefore stated.

Sec. 818. REPORT TO BE TYPEWRITTEN, ETC.] Every report shall be plainly 2 typewritten and, when completed and signed by the master, shall be covered 3 with a suitable cover upon which shall be written the court in which the action 4 is pending, the title, classification and number of the action and the statement that 5 it is a master's report under a reference, giving the date of such reference and 6 also the date of the report, and shall be securely fastened together with the 7 evidence, if any, accompanying the same. A carbon copy of such report shall 8 be delivered by the master to each party to the action, or to each group of parties 9 entering a separate appearance.

Sec. 819. FORMS OF MASTER'S REPORTS UNDER ORDERS OF REFERENCE.] The fol-

Sec. 820. WHEN MASTER'S REPORT TO BE ACCOMPANIED BY DRAFT OF ORDER, 2 JUDGMENT, OR DECREE, OR INJUNCTION OR RECEIVERSHIP BOND.] Every master's 3 report under a reference requiring him to hear and determine any matter, when 4 such report is of such character that, if the same be approved, an order, judg-5 ment or decree will be entered in accordance therewith, shall be accompanied 6 by a draft made by or under the direction of the master, copies of which are to 7 be delivered by the master to the respective parties, of the order, judgment or 8 decree to be entered in pursuance thereof, unless the same be one of such 9 character that the same can be conveniently entered by the clerk in an abbrevi-10 ated form. Every such order, judgment or decree shall be framed, as near as 11 may be, in accordance with the rules prescribed in the division of this act deal-12 ing with files, records and record entries. When the order is an injunction 13 order, or an order for the appointment of a receiver, the master shall pass 14 upon the sufficiency of the bond, if any, required of the plaintiff and return the 15 same with his report.

Sec. 821. MATTERS TO BE HEARD BY MASTER WITHOUT REFERENCE.] The court
 2 may, by rule or rules, provide that certain motions and matters, to be particu-

3 larly specified in such rule or rules, may be presented to and heard by a master 4 in the first instance, without a previous order of reference, and a court in which 5 there are two or more masters may designate the master by or before whom 6 particular classes of motions are to be heard and determined. A master's re-7 port in any such case shall be in the same form as hereinbefore prescribed for 8 a similar report made upon a reference, except that, in place of stating that 9 it is the master's report in pursuance of an order or decree, it shall state that 10 it is a master's report upon a motion or matter in the action, describing such 11 motion or matter with sufficient certainty to identify it.

Sec. 822. OBJECTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS TO MASTER'S REPORT UNNECESSARY—ALL 2 MERITORIOUS OBJECTIONS PRESERVED—EXCEPTION AS TO STATEMENT OF ACCOUNT.]
 3 Hereafter it shall not be necessary to file before any master, to whom any ref-4 erence has been taken, objections to his report, nor shall it be necessary, when 5 any such report has been returned into court and filed therein, that either party 6 file exceptions thereto, but without such exceptions all meritorious objections to 7 the rulings of the master upon the hearing before him, which appear to have 8 been made against the objection of the party complaining thereof, and all meri-9 torious objections to the conclusions and each of them of the master as to the 10 law and the facts, shall be deemed preserved for the consideration and determ-11 ination of the court: Provided, however, that no conclusion of the master as to 12 any fact shall be reviewed by the court in any case in which the evidence heard 13 by the master is not returned with his report. The court may, however, upon 14 a motion to approve or disapprove the master's report, when such report is, 15 in whole or in part, a statement of an account embracing different items, re-16 quire either party dissatisfied with the report to specify the items of the account 17 with respect to which the conclusions of the master are objected to.

Sec. 823. CORRECTION OF IRREGULAR PROCEEDINGS BEFORE MASTER.] When.
 2 upon the hearing of objections made to a master's report, it shall appear that

3 the master has excluded competent evidence, or has otherwise proceeded irregu-4 larly to the injury of either of the parties, the court shall not on that account 5 again refer the action to the master, but shall hear the evidence improperly ex-6 cluded by the master or take such other steps as may appear to be necessary 7 to correct any other proceeding of the master which the court may find to have 8 been irregular. When any such additional evidence is heard or other steps 9 taken the same shall, at the request of either party, be embodied in a report of 10 the proceedings to be settled and signed by the judge as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 824. DIVISION OF BUSINESS AMONG MASTERS.] When there is more than 2 one regular master in chancery of any court in any county the business of the 3 master's office shall be divided among them in such manner as may be provided 4 by the rules of such court: Provided, however, that, whenever all the parties 5 to the action are persons not infants or under other disability and they shall 6 designate the master to whom a reference is to be made, the reference shall be 7 had to the master so designated, unless it shall appear to the court that the 8 amount of business pending and undisposed of before the master to whom such 9 reference is sought is such as to render a reference to some other master con- 10 ducive to a more speedy determination of the action.

Sec. 825. DEPOSIT OF COSTS OF REFERENCES—MASTER NOT TO WITHHOLD RE-
 2 PORT—COMPELLING PAYMENT OF FEES.] The party obtaining any order of refer-4 thereto, shall, excepting in the cases hereinafter specified, deposit with the 5 master, before the taking by the master of any steps therein, such sum as may 6 be fixed by the court, to secure the payment of the costs of such reference and 7 thereafter, from time to time, shall make such additional deposits as may be 8 ordered by the court for that purpose: Provided, however, that no deposit or 9 payment of costs specified in this act shall be demanded of any party to an 10 action who shall have been admitted to prosecute or defend the same as a poor

11 person. When an order of reference is made by the court of its own motion, 12 such deposit shall likewise be required and the amount thereof to be made by 13 the respective parties shall be fixed by the court. No master shall withhold any 14 report on account of non-payment of his fees with respect thereto, but the pay-15 ment of such fees, if payment thereof be refused by the party liable therefor, 16 may be enforced by the court by an attachment. But no deposit of costs shall 17 be required upon a reference in either of the following cases:

18 First—ACTIONS NOT INVOLVING OVER $1,000.] In an action in which the sum 19 or value in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, does not exceed $1,000.

20 Second—MOTION TO POSTPONE.] For the hearing and determination of a 27 press interrogatories already filed, or motion for an order for the appearance 28 of any person to answer interrogatories, or any other matter pertaining to 29 interrogatories.

30 Fifth—MOTION AS TO EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES OR INSPECTION OF PREMISES.] 31 For the hearing and determination of a motion for the taking of testimony or 32 the inspection of machinery, buildings or premises.

33 Sixth—MOTION AS TO COSTS.] For the hearing and determination of a 34 motion to re-tax costs.

35 Seventh—MOTION AS TO ALIMONY OR SOLICITOR'S FEES.] For the hearing and 37 maintenance pertaining to the allowance, disallowance, increase or diminution 38 of alimony, or for the allowance of solicitor's fees, or pertaining to the enforce-39 ment, by attachment or otherwise, of any order pertaining to the payment of 40 alimony or solicitor's fees.

41 Eighth—MOTION OR MATTER NOT REQUIRING TAKING OF EVIDENCE.] For the 42 hearing and determination of a motion or matter, the hearing and determina-43 tion of which do not require the taking before the master of oral testimony.

44 Ninth—OTHER MOTION OR MATTER.] For the hearing and determination of 45 a motion or matter the hearing and determination of which, because of the 46 financial circumstances of the parties, or otherwise, ought in the opinion of the 47 court to be had before the master without requiring an advance payment of 48 costs.

Sec. 826. PARTY REQUESTING MASTER TO RETURN EVIDENCE TO PAY COSTS.]

2 Whenever any party shall request the master to return with his report the 3 evidence heard by him, in any case in which, by the terms of this act, the mas-4 ter is not authorized to return the evidence without such request, such party 5 shall pay to the master the stenographer's fees for transcribing such evidence, 6 in case the same shall have been taken down stenographically, within such 7 time as may be fixed by the master for such payment, and in default of such 8 payment the master shall return his report without the evidence: Provided, 9 however, that no such payment shall be required to be made by any party to 10 the action who shall have been admitted to prosecute or defend the same as a 11 poor person, or when the court shall, by special order, direct that such pay-12 ment be not required.

Sec. 827. MASTER'S REPORT OF SALE—REQUISITES — FORMS.] Every master's 2 report of sale of property in pursuance of any order or decree shall specify the 3 court in which the action is pending, and the title, classification and number of the 4 action, and shall state that it is a master's report in such action of a sale in 5 pursuance of an order or decree of which it shall give the date. It shall omit 6 any recitals concerning the order or decree of sale, other than the date thereof, 7 or of the proceedings of the master with respect to the giving or publication of 8 notice of the sale, and shall be limited to a statement of the making of the sale.

9 of the date and place thereof, of the property sold and the name of the pur-

Sec. 830. WHEN AND HOW PARTITION MAY BE COMPELLED.] When lands, tenements or hereditaments are held in joint tenancy, tenancy in common or coparcenary, whether such right or title is derived by purchase, devise or descent, or whether any or all of the claimants are minors or of full age, any one or more of the persons interested therein may compel a partition thereof by a bill of complaint in equity filed in the proper court of the county in which the premises, or some part thereof, are situated.

Sec. 831. REQUISITES OF BILL.] The bill shall particularly describe the premises sought to be divided, and shall set forth the interests of all parties interested therein, so far as the same are known to the plaintiff, including tenants for years, for life, or in dower, and of all persons entitled to the reversion, remainder or inheritance, and of every person who, upon any contingency, may be or become entitled to any beneficiary interest in the premises, so far as the same are known to the plaintiff, and shall pray for a partition of the premises.

Sec. 832. PROCEDURE TO BE AS IN EQUITY.] The practice and mode of proceeding in every such case shall, excepting as hereinafter provided, be the same as near as may be, as in other actions in equity.

Sec. 833. DECLARATORY DECREE, ETC.] Upon the hearing of the action upon the pleadings and proofs or otherwise, the court shall enter a decree declaring and fixing the rights, titles and interests of all parties to the action, and when it shall decree a partition of any premises it shall appoint three commissioners, not connected with any of the parties, either by consanguinity or affinity, and entirely disinterested, to make partition of the premises.

Sec. 834. OATH OF COMMISSIONERS.] Such commissioners shall each take and subscribe an oath or affirmation fairly and impartially to make partition of the premises, according to the rights and interests of the parties, as declared by the decree of the court, if the same can be done consistently with the interests of the

5 parties, or, if the same cannot be so divided without manifest prejudice to the 6 parties in interest, that they will fairly and impartially appraise the value of 7 each piece or parcel of the premises sought to be divided and a true report make 8 to the court.

Sec. 835. DUTIES OF COMMISSIONERS.] The commissioners shall go upon the 2 premises, and, if the same are susceptible of division, they shall make partition 3 thereof, allotting the several shares to the respective parties, quality and quan-4 tity relatively considered, according to their respective rights and interests as 5 adjudged by the court, designating the respective shares by metes and bounds, 6 or other proper description, and they may employ a surveyor with necessary as-7 sistants to aid therein; and if the premises are not susceptible of division with-8 out manifest prejudice to the parties in interest, they shall value each piece or 9 parcel separately.

Sec. 836. REPORT OF COMMISSIONERS.] The commissioners shall make report, 2 in writing, signed by at least two of them, showing what they have done and if 3 they shall have made a division, describing the premises divided and the shares 4 of each party by metes and bounds or other proper description; or if they find 5 that the lands can not be divided they shall so report, and shall report their val-6 uation of each piece or tract separately.

Sec. 837. COMMISSIONERS SUBJECT TO DIRECTION OF AND REMOVAL BY COURT.]
 2 The commissioners shall, at all times, be subject to the direction of the court; and 3 any one or more of them may, before the final determination of the report, be 4 removed, and others appointed in their stead.

Sec. 838. PROCEDURE WHEN LAND IN DIFFERENT COUNTIES.] If the lands lie 2 in different counties, the court may appoint separate sets of commissioners for 3 each county, or one set for all of them, as may seem most for the benefit of the 4 parties interested.

Sec. 839. ALLOTING DOWER OR SETTING OFF HOMESTEAD.] If dower has not 2 been allotted to the person entitled thereto, or the homestead set off, in case any 3 party to the action is entitled to an estate of homestead in the premises, or any 4 part thereof, such dower may be allotted and such homestead set off by the com-5 missioners; and, if the court shall so direct, the premises so allotted or set off 6 may be partitioned among the claimants, subject thereto.

Sec. 840. SHARES MAY BE SET OFF TOGETHER OR IN SEVERALTY.] Several par-2 ties interested in the premises may, if they shall so elect, have their shares set off 3 together or in severalty.

Sec. 841. MORTGAGES, ATTACHMENTS AND OTHER LIENS.] A person having a 2 mortgage, attachment or other lien on the share of a part owner, shall be con-3 cluded by the decree in partition so far as it respects the partition and the assign-4 ment of the shares, but his lien shall remain in full force upon the part assigned 5 to or left for such part owner.

Sec. 842. NEW PARTITION OR CONTRIBUTION FOR PERSON EVICTED.] If a person 2 to whom any share has been allotted is evicted by a person who, at the time of the 3 partition, had a title older and better than the title of those who were parties 4 to the action, the person so evicted may have a new partition of the residue as if 5 no partition had been made, if such new partition can be justly made, or he may 6 have contribution from the others, so as to make his share just and equal to the 7 others, according to his rights in the premises.

Sec. 843. SALE WHEN PREMISES NOT SUSCEPTIBLE OF DIVISION.] When the 2 whole or any of the premises sought to be partitioned cannot be divided with-3 out manifest prejudice to the owners thereof, and the commissioners appointed 4 to divide the same shall so report, the court shall order the premises so not be-5 ing susceptible of division to be sold at public vendue, upon such terms and notice 6 of sale as the court shall direct.

Sec. 844. PROCEDURE WHEN PREMISES DO NOT BRING APPRAISED VALUE.] But

2 no piece or parcel of the premises shall be sold, if it will not bring at least two-3 thirds as much as it shall have been valued by the commissioners, unless the other 4 pieces will, at the same time, sell for enough to make the total amount of the sales 5 equal to two-thirds the total amount of the valuation of all the premises to be 6 sold: Provided, that if it shall appear to the court that any of the premises will 7 not sell for two-thirds the amount of the valuation thereof, the court may appoint 8 other commissioners to revalue such premises, and their valuation shall be taken 9 instead of the valuation of the commissioners first appointed.

Sec. 845. SALE FOR CASH OR ON CREDIT.] The court may direct the sale to be

2 made for cash or on such credit as may be deemed most for the interest of all the 3 parties.

Sec. 846. REPORT OF OFFICER MAKING SALE.] The master, special commis-

2 sioner or other officer making such sale shall, within ten days (10) thereafter, 3 file a report of his doings in the matter in the office of the clerk of the court de-4 creeing such sale. Upon the filing of such report the court may, in its discretion, 5 at once approve such report and confirm the sale reported, if no exceptions to 6 said report have been filed, or, if exceptions to said report have been filed, may, 7 in its discretion, at once proceed to hear such exceptions and sustain or overrule 8 the same.

Sec. 847. EXCEPTIONS TO REPORT—FORM.] Exceptions to a report shall be in 2 writing and immediately upon the filing of the same a copy thereof, together 3 with copies of all affidavits to be read in evidence in support thereof, shall be 4 served upon all the other parties to the action or upon their attorneys. The fol-5 lowing form of exceptions shall be deemed sufficient and shall be taken as fur-6 nishing suggestions from which other exceptions may be properly framed:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

John Doe et al,
 v.
 Henry Doe et al. } In Equity. No. 217.

EXCEPTIONS TO MASTER'S REPORT OF SALE.

The defendant Mary Doe excepts to the master's report of sale filed herein on the 27th day of August, 1908, on the following grounds:

First—That (in this and in subsequent paragraphs numbered consecutively and each alleging a single and distinct ground of exception set forth briefly and concisely the matters relied upon as ground of exception.)

MARY DOE,

By THOMAS JONES,

Her Attorney.

Sec. 848. CONVEYANCE TO PURCHASER.] Upon the confirmation of the report the master, special commissioner or other officer making the same, or some person specially appointed thereto, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers of the premises sold, proper conveyances thereof, taking, in case of sale on credit, security as required by the decree, which conveyances shall operate as an effectual bar against all parties and privies to said action and all persons claiming under them.

Sec. 849. DISTRIBUTION.] Upon the approval of the report, the proceeds of the sale shall be distributed by the master, special commissioner or other person making the sale, to the persons entitled thereto, according to their interests, as directed by the court.

Sec. 850. WHEN DOWER, HOMESTEAD, ETC., TO BE SOLD.] In case of sale the court may, with the assent of the person entitled to an estate in dower, or by the courtesy or for life, or for years, or of homestead, to the whole or any part of the premises, who is a party to the action, sell such estate with the rest. But such

5 assent shall be in writing, and signed by such person, and filed in the court 6 wherein the said action for partition is pending.

Sec. 851. PROCEDURE WHEN PERSON INCAPABLE OF ASSENT.] If such persons 2 are incapable of giving assent, the court may determine, taking into view the 3 interests of all parties, whether such estate ought to be excepted from the sale 4 or sold.

Sec. 852. PAYMENT OF VALUE IN GROSS OR INVESTMENT.] When any such in-2 terest is sold, the value thereof may be ascertained and paid over in gross, or the 3 proper proportion of the funds invested, and the income paid over to the party 4 entitled thereto, during the continuance of the estate.

Sec. 853. COURT TO ACT FOR PERSON UNKNOWN.] If the person entitled 2 to any such estate is unknown, the court may determine whether the estate shall 4 be sold or not, as in case of persons under disability, and, in the event of sale, 5 make such order for the protection of the rights of such person, in the same 6 manner, as far as may be, as if the person were known and had appeared.

Sec. 854. DEPOSIT OF MONEY UNCLAIMED.] When a sale of premises is made 2 and no person appears to claim such portion of the money as may belong to any 3 non-resident, or person whose name is unknown, the court shall require such 4 money to be deposited in the county treasury, subject to the further order of the 5 court. All money so required to be deposited shall be received by the county 6 treasurer and paid upon the order of the said court.

Sec. 855. HOW MONEY DEPOSITED IN COUNTY TREASURY MAY BE OBTAINED.]
2 When money is deposited in the county treasury under the provisions of this 3 act, the person or persons entitled to the same may at any time apply to the court 4 making the order of sale, and obtain an order for the same upon making satisfac-5 tory proof to the court of his or her right thereto.

Sec. 856. POWER OF COURT AS TO CONFLICTING TITLES, CLOUDS, ETC.] In all 2 actions for the partition of real estate under this act, the court may investigate 3 and determine all questions of conflicting or controverted titles and remove 4 clouds upon the titles of any of the premises sought to be partitioned, invest 5 titles, by their decrees, in the parties to whom the premises are allotted, without 6 the forms of conveyances by infants or unknown heirs or other parties to the 7 action, assign dower, and order a sale of the premises for the purpose of divid-8 ing the premises in proper cases, and by its decree invest the purchaser with 9 title, and apportion incumbrances among the parties to whom the incumbered 10 premises are allotted.

Sec. 857. COSTS AND ATTORNEY'S FEES.] In all actions for the partition of 2 real estate, when the rights and interests of all the parties in interest are prop-3 erly set forth in the bill, the court shall apportion the costs, including the rea-4 sonable attorneys' fees, among the parties in interest in the action, so that each 5 party shall pay his or her equitable portion thereof, unless the defendants, or 6 some one of them, shall interpose a good and substantial defense to said bill. In 7 such case the party or parties making such substantial defense shall recover 8 their costs against the plaintiff according to equity.

 3 in any lands or estate of which any person is entitled to dower, to lay off and as-4 sign such dower as soon as practicable after the death of the husband or wife 5 of such person so entitled to dower.

Sec. 859. WHEN DOWER MAY BE RECOVERED BY BILL IN EQUITY.] If such heir
 2 or other person shall not, within one month next after such death, satisfactor-
 3 ily assign and set over to the surviving husband or wife dower in and to all

Sec. 860. PRACTICE TO BE AS IN EQUITY.] The practice and mode of proceed-

 3 shall be tried by the court without a jury, and either with or without a refer-

 9 Whenever the court is satisfied that the interests of the defendant require it, 10 the court may order such additional notice as equity may seem to require.

Sec. 881. EFFECT OF CONFESSION OF DEFENDANT.] No confession of the de-2 fendant shall be taken as evidence unless the court, if the issues be tried by the

And in every action for a divorce the wife, when it is just and equitable, shall be entitled to alimony during the pendency of the action. In case of appeal or writ of error by the husband, the court in which the decree or order is rendered may grant and enforce the payment of such money for her defense and such equitable alimony during the pendency of the appeal or writ of error as to the court shall seem reasonable and proper, and when any order is made by the court for the payment by the husband of money to the wife to enable her to defend an appeal or writ of error prosecuted by him, no appeal shall be allowed from such order, but the same shall be reviewed by writ of error only, and no stay of proceedings shall be granted in such writ of error excepting by the court from which the writ of error is prosecuted.

9 apply to the printing or publishing of any notice or advertisement required or 10 authorized by any statute of the State of Illinois.

Sec. 894. SUPPORT—MAINTENANCE—COSTS.] Married women, who, without 4 their said husbands in the circuit court of the county where the husband re-5 sides, for a reasonable support and maintenance, while they so live or have so

41 JOHN JONES, Judge.

Sec. 906. INJUNCTION BOND TO BE FILED.] Every injunction bond shall be 2 filed with the clerk of the court before the entry by such clerk of the minute of 3 the injunction order.

Sec. 907. SERVICE OF INJUNCTION ORDER—FEES.] Any interlocutory injunction order may be served upon the defendant by any sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner or deputy coroner of the county in which such service is had or by the bailiff or deputy bailiff of any court of record of such county or by any person over the age of eighteen years, not a party to the action, by delivering to the defendant a certified or sworn copy thereof, together with copies of the plaintiff's bill of complaint, the affidavit verifying the same and the other affidavits filed in support thereof and also a copy of the plaintiff's bond, if any, and informing such defendant of the contents of such certified or sworn copy: Provided, however, such copies need not be served with the copy of the order if they shall have been previously delivered to the defendant or to his attorney. But no injunction order need be served upon the defendant if he shall have been present in court by himself or attorney at the time of the granting of such order. When service of any injunction order is made by any sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner, deputy coroner, bailiff or deputy bailiff, proof of such service may be made by the return of such officer endorsed upon a copy thereof. When service of any such injunction order is made by any person other than a sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner, deputy coroner, bailiff, or deputy bailiff, proof of such service shall be made by the affidavit of the person making such service endorsed on a copy of such order or attached thereto, which affidavit shall state the name, place of residence, age and occupation of the person making such service and the fact that he is not a party to the action, and shall set forth the date, place and manner of such service. The fees of any sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner, deputy coroner, bailiff or deputy bailiff, for the service of any injunction order shall be such as may now or hereafter be provided by law for the service of a summons and whenever any injunction order is served by any person other than a sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner, deputy coroner, bailiff or deputy bailiff, the plaintiff shall be entitled to have taxed as costs in the action, in his favor an amount equal to one half of the fees allowed by law to any sheriff for such service.

Sec. 908. DISSOLUTION OF INJUNCTION—ASSESSMENT OF DAMAGES.] In all 2 cases where an interlocutory injunction order is dissolved by any court of 3 equity in this State the court, after dissolving such injunction, and before finally 4 disposing of the action, upon the party claiming damages by reason of such 5 injunction suggesting in writing the nature and amount thereof, shall hear evi-6 dence and assess such damages as the nature of the case may require and to 7 equity appertain to the party damnified by such injunction and may award ex-8 ecution to collect the same: Provided, a failure so to assess damages shall not 9 operate as a bar to an action upon the injunction bond.

Sec. 909. VIOLATION OF INJUNCTION — PUNISHMENT.] Upon satisfactory 2 proof being made that an injunction order has been violated the court granting 3 the same may issue an attachment and cause the party violating the injunction 4 order to be brought before the court and upon his being brought before the 5 court, unless he shall disprove or purge the said contempt, the court may punish 6 him therefor in the manner provided by law with respect to other civil con-7 tempts of court.

Sec. 910. AMENDMENT NOT TO OPERATE AS DISSOLUTION.] No amendment of 2 any bill of complaint, cross-bill of complaint, supplemental bill of complaint, or 3 bill of intervention, shall operate as a dissolution of an injunction order previ-4 ously granted unless the court shall expressly so order.

Sec. 911. MOTION TO DISSOLVE—PROCEDURE.] A motion to dissolve an 2 injunction may be made at any time upon answer or for want of equity 3 on the face of the plaintiff's bill of complaint. Upon a motion to dissolve an 4 injunction after answer the court shall not be bound to take the answer as ab-5 solutely true, but shall decide the motion upon the weight of the testimony.
 6 The plaintiff may support his bill of complaint and the defendant may sup-7 port his answer by affidavits filed with the same, which may be read in evidence 8 on the hearing of the motion to dissolve the injunction, but the court, in its 9 discretion, may refuse to receive in evidence affidavits and may require the 10 respective parties to introduce oral evidence in open court in support of and 11 against such motion. The party moving a dissolution of an injunction shall be 12 entitled to an immediate hearing thereof unless the opposite party shall show 13 good and sufficient cause for a postponement of such hearing, and it shall not 14 be good cause for such postponement that the judge before whom such motion 15 is to be heard is engaged in the transaction of other business, unless such other 16 business be another motion for the dissolution of an injunction or for the grant-17 ing of an injunction, or the appointment or discharge of a receiver, or the dis-18 position of an action of habeas corpus.

Sec. 912. APPEAL NOT TO CONTINUE INJUNCTION IN FORCE—EXCEPTION—POWER
 2 OF SUPREME COURT OR APPELLATE COURT.] No appeal from a decree dissolving an 3 injunction shall have the effect to continue in force the injunction, unless the 4 court from which the appeal is taken shall so order, or unless the party taking 5 the appeal shall, within ten days after the appeal is taken, procure from the 5 supreme court or the appellate court, as the case may be, or a judge thereof, an 7 order directing that the appeal shall have the effect to continue such injunction 8 in force; and no such order shall be granted except for good cause appearing 9 in the record, nor when the bill is dismissed by the plaintiff. The supreme 10 court or appellate court, as the case may be, or a judge thereof, may, for good 11 cause, extend the time for procuring such order.

Sec. 913. BOND FOR CONTINUANCE OF INJUNCTION.] The court or judge
 2 granting the order for the continuance in force of any such injunction may re-3 quire, as a condition of granting the same, such further bond and security to 4 be filed with the clerk of the supreme court or appellate court, as the case may 5 be, as may be deemed equitable.

Sec. 914. APPLICATION ON SUNDAY—PROCEDURE.] When an application shall 1 be made on a Sunday for an interlocutory injunction order and there shall be

3 presented with the bill of complaint an affidavit of the plaintiff, or his or her 4 agent or attorney, stating that the benefit of an injunction will be lost or endan-5 gered, or irremediable damage occasioned, unless such injunction be immediate-6 ly issued and giving the reasons for such statement, then it shall be lawful for 7 any judge or officer who is authorized by any law of this State to grant injunc-8 tion orders, if it appears to him from such affidavit that the benefits of an in-9 junction will be lost or endangered or irremediable damages occasioned unless 10 such injunction order be immediately granted, and if the plaintiff otherwise be 11 entitled to such order under the law, to grant an injunction order on a Sunday; 12 and it shall be lawful for the clerk to enter, and for the sheriff, or other officer or 13 person, to serve such injunction order on a Sunday as on any other day, and 14 all affidavits and bonds made and proceedings had in such case shall have the 15 same force and effect as if made or had on any other day, and such order may 16 be served in the same manner as in other cases, without the bill of complaint 17 being filed or a minute of such order being entered until the following day, but 18 such bill of complaint shall thereupon be filed and a minute of such order en-19 tered at or before ten o'clock A. M. of the succeeding day.

Sec. 915. MANDATORY INJUNCTION MAY BE GRANTED.] The court shall have 2 power to grant a mandatory injunction order, either upon an interlocutory ap-3 plication or upon a final hearing, whenever, in its opinion, justice will be pro-4 moted thereby.

Sec. 916. PROCEDURE WHEN ACTS SOUGHT TO BE ENJOINED HAVE BEEN ALREADY 2 DONE.] When, before the filing of the plaintiff's bill of complaint, or after the 3 filing of the same, but before notice of an application for an interlocutory in-4 junction, the defendant shall have done the act or any one or more of several 5 acts sought to be enjoined by such bill of complaint, the court may, upon the 6 final hearing, require the defendant, if practicable, to undo the act or acts thus 7 done or may award the plaintiff any other appropriate relief with respect there-

8 to, and when such act or acts shall have been done by the defendant after the 9 filing of the plaintiff's bill of complaint and after notice of an application for 10 an interlocutory injunction order, the court may, in its discretion, upon such 11 facts being made to appear, grant an interlocutory mandatory injunction or-12 der requiring the defendant to undo, if practicable, such act or acts or may 13 grant the plaintiff such other interlocutory remedial relief as justice may re-14 quire.

Sec. 917. WHEN MANDATORY INJUNCTION MAY BE ENFORCED.] No manda-2 tory injunction order shall be enforced until the lapse of ten days after the 3 granting of the order unless it shall appear that irreparable injury will result to 4 the plaintiff from such delay.

Sec. 918. PROCEDURE WHEN PLAINTIFF MAY BE PROTECTED BY BOND—FORM OF 2 BOND.] No interlocutory injunction order shall be granted upon an application 3 made after notice to the defendant, when it shall appear to the satisfaction of 4 the court that the plaintiff may be amply and properly secured against injury 5 from the act or acts sought to be enjoined by means of a bond with good and 6 sufficient security, unless the defendant shall refuse to give such bond in such 7 amount and with such security as may be approved by the court. Such bond 8 may be in substantially the following form:

9 IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

10 John Doe. }
 v. } In Equity. No. 500.
 11 Richard Roe. }

12 BOND IN LIEU OF INJUNCTION ORDER.

13 KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we, Richard Roe, as principal, and 14 Henry Smith and Thomas Jones, as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto 15 John Doe in the penal sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), for the payment 16 of which, well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, ad-17 ministrators and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

18 Witness our hands and seals this 10th day of February, 1908.

19 The condition of this obligation is such that whereas the above bounden 20 John Doe hath, on the day of the date hereof, applied in the above entitled 21 action to the circuit court of Cook county, Illinois, for an injunction order en-22 joining and restraining the said Richard Roe from (here insert the things sought 23 to be enjoined and restrained by the proposed order) until the further order of 24 said circuit court, and whereas said circuit court hath declined to enter the order 25 applied for on condition that the said Richard Roe execute and file in said ac-26 tion a bond with good and sufficient security to secure the said John Doe against 27 injury from the acts thus sought to be enjoined.

Now, if the said Richard Roe shall pay to said John Doe all costs and damages which may be awarded to said John Doe from the doing by said Richard Roe of the acts, or any of them, thus sought to be enjoined or restrained, if said acts or any of them shall be done by said Richard Roe during the pendency of the above entitled action, then this obligation is to be void; otherwise the same is to be and remain in full force and effect.

37 Approved February 10, 1908.

38 JOHN JONES, Judge.

39 NOTE.

40 If the injunction order sought is a mandatory injunction order, the above 41 form may be varied from accordingly.

Sec. 919. INTERLOCUTORY ORDERS APPEALABLE—DUTY OF JUDGE.] All interlocutory orders granting, refusing, modifying, enlarging or otherwise changing or dissolving injunctions may be reviewed by appeal in the manner hereinafter provided in this act. For the purpose of facilitating the prosecution of any such appeal the judge by whom the order appealed from has been entered shall,

6 upon the demand of the party prosecuting such appeal, proceed forthwith to 7 settle and sign the report of the proceedings by this act provided for, and the 8 settling and signing of such report shall take precedence over all other business 9 pending before such judge.

Sec. 920. INJUNCTIONS IN ELECTION CASES.] In addition to the matters with 2 respect to which courts of equity have heretofore been authorized to grant in-3 junctions, the circuit courts and the superior court of Cook county shall have 4 power, upon the application of any citizen or citizens of this State, to grant in-5 junction orders, both preventive and mandatory, in all cases where such orders 6 may appear to be convenient and speedy remedies to prevent neglects or vio-7 lations by public officers of the provisions of the constitution and laws of this 8 State pertaining to elections, whether primary or otherwise, or to compel the 9 observance by public officers of such provisions. But no such order shall be 10 granted without at least two days previous notice in writing to the officer or 11 officers sought to be enjoined and to the state's attorney of the county in which 12 the order is sought of the application therefor, nor shall any such order be-13 come effective until the lapse of at least ten days from the date thereof or 14 such further time as the court granting the order may direct.

Sec. 921. REQUISITES OF BILL IN ELECTION MATTERS—NOTICE.] A bill of com-2 plaint for an injunction under the preceding section, if in the form, as near as 3 may be, hereinbefore prescribed for a bill of complaint in equity, shall be deemed 4 sufficient, when it sets forth that the plaintiff is a citizen of this State, describes 5 the official positions of the defendants, specifies the constitutional or statutory 6 provision or provisions sought to be enforced and that, in the opinion of the 7 plaintiff, the defendants are about to neglect or violate the same and shall 8 pray for the enforcement of such provisions by injunction and for general re-9 lief and shall be verified by the affidavit of the plaintiff that he believes the alle-10 gations of the same to be true and that the bill is exhibited in good faith, and 11 for the sole purpose of securing compliance by the defendants with the pro-12 visions of the constitution and laws of the State. No service of summons upon 13 the defendants shall be necessary in any such action, but the defendants and the 14 state's attorney, upon being served with notice of the application for the in-15 junction order and a copy of the bill of complaint, shall be bound to enter their 16 appearance in such action at the time specified in such notice.

Sec. 922. PROCEDURE IN ACTION FOR INJUNCTION AS TO ELECTION.] Every 2 such bill of complaint, when the relief sought thereby pertains to an election 3 to be thereafter held, shall be filed at least thirty days prior to the date fixed 4 by law for the election with respect to which the plaintiff seeks the enforcement 5 of the constitutional or statutory provisions referred to therein, and when any 6 such bill of complaint is filed it shall be the duty of the court in which the same 7 is filed to give the same precedence over the other business of the court and to 8 determine the same speedily and without unnecessary delay. When the injunc-9 tion order sought for by such bill is denied the court shall at the same time dis-10 miss the bill of complaint for want of equity. If the relief prayed for by the 11 plaintiff, or any portion thereof, is granted by the court the order granting the 12 same shall be deemed a final decree. The plaintiff may, if he so elect, prosecute 13 an appeal to the supreme court from the decree rendered in such action by 14 filing with the clerk of the court, within five days after rendition of such decree, 15 a notice of appeal and making the deposit hereinafter required. In case the 16 plaintiff shall not within five days from the entry of the decree perfect an ap-17 peal therefrom as hereinbefore provided any other citizen of this state may, at 18 any time within the succeeding five days prosecute an appeal from such decree 19 to the supreme court by filing with the clerk of the court by which the decree is 20 rendered a notice of appeal and making the deposit hereinafter provided for, 21 and such appeal shall be heard and determined as if the party prosecuting the 22 same were a party to the action. When, in any such action, any decree is ren-23 dered other than one dismissing the bill of complaint for want of equity, the 24 court, as a part of such decree, shall enter an order allowing to the defendants 25 an appeal therefrom to the supreme court and it shall be the duty of the de-26 defendants to prosecute such appeal. Upon the allowance of such appeal to the 27 defendants or the filing of such notice of appeal and the making of the deposit 28 aforesaid by the plaintiff or other citizen of the State, it shall be the duty of the 29 clerk of the court in which the decree is entered to forthwith transmit to the 30 clerk of the supreme court the authenticated record hereinafter provided for 31 and the clerk of the supreme court shall docket the same and it shall thereupon 32 be the duty of the supreme court to forthwith hear and determine such appeal: 33 Provided, however, that, when it shall be necessary for either party to prepare 34 a report of the proceedings to be settled and signed by the judge, the trans-35 mission of such authenticated record may be delayed by the clerk until such re-36 port of the proceedings shall be settled and signed.

Sec. 930. ORDER TO SPECIFY CLASS OF RECEIVER APPOINTED.] It shall not be 2 necessary or permissible in any order appointing a receiver to recite at length 3 the powers and duties of such receiver, but it shall be sufficient to specify the 4 property with respect to which the appointment is made and to specify the class 5 to which the receiver belongs and the person so appointed shall thereupon possess 6 all the powers and perform all the duties of a receiver of such class. But the 7 court may, by a subsequent order, change the classification of the receivership, or 8 may confer upon the receiver powers in addition to those specified in this act.

 7 will account for and pay and deliver over all money and property which may come 8 into his hands as such receiver in accordance with the orders of the court or as 9 may be required by law: Provided, however, that no bond need be required of 10 any official receiver of the court appointed as hereinafter provided other than 11 the bond required of him as such official receiver. The following form of bond 12 provided for by this section shall be deemed sufficient and shall be taken as fur-

 10 is discharged according to law.

11 Second—DOING SOMETHING FORBIDDEN TO BE DONE.] When the contempt con-12 sists in the doing by the defendant of something which he is forbidden by the 13 order to do, the punishment shall be a fine in such sum as, in the opinion of the 14 court, will compensate the party in whose favor the order has been entered for 15 the wrongful act of the defendant, which fine when collected shall be paid to the 16 plaintiff, and, in addition to such fine the court may sentence the defendant to 17 imprisonment in the county jail, house of correction or workhouse, for not ex-

27 such officer or officers, agent or agents, appoint a receiver of the property of 28 such corporation during such time as may be necessary to secure compliance

 8 court may find to be responsible for the commission of the contempt.

Sec. 961. ACTION OF CONTEMPT—JURISDICTION.] Punishment of a party
 2 guilty of contempt of court may be obtained by an action brought in the court 3 with respect to which the misbehavior, disobedience or resistance constituting 4 the contempt has been committed, and every court of record shall have juris-5 diction of the action of contempt.

Sec. 962. IN WHOSE NAME ACTION COMMENCED.] When the contempt sought 2 to be punished is a civil contempt the action shall be commenced in the name of the

Sec. 966. PROCEDURE WHEN DEFENDANT APPEARS AND DENIES, ETC.—FORM OF

JUDGMENT.] If the defendant appears at the time specified in the notice and denies the truth of the facts set forth in the affidavit by counter-affidavit, and the court is of the opinion that the facts set forth in the affidavit of the plaintiff constitute a contempt, the court shall proceed to hear the evidence produced by the respective parties, and, at the request of either party, shall require such evidence to be given by the testimony of witnesses in open court, and, if the court finds the defendant guilty of the contempt charged, the court shall enter an order adjudging the defendant guilty of such contempt and imposing upon him the punishment hereinafter provided, which order may be in substantially the following form:

John Doe, In Equity, No. 87, on the 10th day of February, 1908, or until the defendant is discharged according to law.

Sec. 967. PROCEDURE WHEN DEFENDANT NOT GUILTY—FORM OF ORDER.] If the defendant appears at the time specified in the notice and the court is of the opinion that the facts set forth in the affidavit do not constitute a contempt of court, or if the defendant denies the facts set forth in such affidavit by counter-affidavit and, upon the trial, the court finds the defendant not guilty of the contempt charged, the court shall enter an order adjudging the defendant not guilty of such contempt and rendering judgment against the plaintiff for costs, and, if the court finds the prosecution of the charge of contempt was vexatious, the court may also render judgment against the plaintiff for such damages, not exceeding fifty dollars ($50), as the court may deem proper. 4 without the filing of any affidavit or other paper or the hearing of witnesses. It 5 shall be unnecessary in any such case for the judgment to recite the facts con-6 stituting the contempt but the court shall, immediately upon the entry 7 of the order, when requested so to do by the defendant, sign and place 8 on file, as a part of the record of the action, a report of the proceedings in 9 which shall be correctly set forth the evidentiary facts establishing such con-

 6 plaintiff for a rule upon the defendant to show cause why the defendant should 7 not be punished for a contempt of court, accompanied by a complaint ver-8 ified by an affidavit of some credible person setting forth the facts relied upon 9 by the plaintiff in support of the motion with proof of the service upon the de-10 fendant of notice of the motion and a copy of the complaint, or the court may, 11 in the first instance, in its discretion, issue a writ of attachment to bring the 12 defendant before the court. Upon the appearance of the defendant the same 13 proceedings shall be had substantially as hereinbefore provided for in a case of 14 civil contempt.

 2 of a county court, or circuit court, or of the criminal court of Cook county, or 3 of the superior court of Cook county, when the amount due thereon exclusive of 4 interest and costs exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000), shall be a lien on the real 11 the same is rendered or revived for the like period and no longer: Provided, 12 however, that there shall be no priority of the lien of one judgment over that 13 of another rendered in the same county within the same calendar month; and, 14 upon the filing in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of any county in this 15 state of a transcript of a judgment rendered by a court of record in any other 16 county of this state, such judgment shall have the like force and effect and shall be 17 a lien upon the real estate of the party against whom the same is obtained in said 18 county where filed to the same extent, as if the same had been rendered, upon 19 the day on which such transcript is filed, by a county court or circuit court in 20 the county where filed and execution may issue thereon out of the circuit court of 21 said county in like manner as in the county where originally obtained: Provid-

 10 same shall not be vacated, set aside or modified excepting upon appeal, or writ 11 of error, or by a bill in equity, or by a petition to the court having entered such 14 set aside or modified by a bill in equity: Provided, however, that all errors in 15 fact in the proceedings in which such order, judgment or decree has been en-16 tered or rendered, which might have been corrected at common law by the writ

5 when the same is authorized by law.

2 defendant in any action of attachment has been served with the writ of attach-3 ment or appears to the action, the judgment shall have the same force and ef-4 fect as in actions commenced by summons, and execution may issue thereon not 5 only against the property attached but against the other property of the defend-6 ant, but when the defendant has not been served with the writ of attachment 7 and has not appeared and answered the action the judgment shall bind only the 8 property, credits and effects attached and a special execution shall issue 9 against such property, credits and effects attached and no execution shall be is-10 sued against any other property of the defendant, nor shall such judgment be 11 any evidence of debt against the defendant in any subsequent action.

Sec. 981. PROPERTY ATTACHED MAY BE LEVIED ON WHEN.] In case of attach-2 ment the property attached may be levied upon by execution issued in the at-3 tachment action, or in the action in aid of which an attachment writ has been 4 issued, whether in the hands of the officer or secured by bond as provided in this 5 act, and shall be sold as other property levied upon by execution.

Sec. 982. PRO-RATING OF JUDGMENTS IN CASES OF ATTACHMENT.] All judgments in actions of attachment against the same defendant commenced in the same calendar month in which is the day fixed for the appearance of the defendant in the praecipe in the first attachment action commenced, and all judgments in actions by summons, capias or attachment against such defendant recovered in such calendar month, or in the calendar month when the judgment in the first attachment action upon which judgment shall be recovered is rendered, whether such judgments be rendered in the same or in different courts in the same county, shall share pro rata according to the amount of the several judgments in the proceeds of the property attached either in the hands of a garnishee or otherwise: Provided, that when the property is attached while the defendant is removing the same, or after the same has been removed from the county, and the same is overtaken and returned, or while the same is secreted by the defendant, or put out of his hands, for the purpose of defrauding his creditors, or the property attached has been discovered by the diligence of the first attaching creditor, the court may allow the creditor or creditors through whose diligence the same shall have been secured a priority over other attachments of judgment creditors.

Sec. 983. WHAT COURT TO MAKE DISTRIBUTION.] The distribution of the proceeds of the property levied upon as provided for in the preceding section shall be made by the court out of which has issued the writ of attachment under which the property was first seized and shall be made upon the application of the sheriff after notice given by him to the plaintiffs in all actions who may appear from the records of the courts of his county to be entitled to participate in the distribution of the fund.

Sec. 984. NO EXECUTION AFTER SEVEN YEARS—VENDITIO EXPONAS.] No execution shall issue upon any judgment after the expiration of seven years from the time the same becomes a lien, except upon the revival of the same by scire facias; but real estate levied upon within said seven years may be sold upon a venditio rei exonas at any time within one year after the expiration of said seven years.

Sec. 985. Sec. 986. WHEN EXECUTIONS, ETC., RETURNABLE.] Executions and writs of venditio rei exonas shall be returnable ninety (90) days after the date thereof: Provided, however, that the officer to whom the same is delivered shall, upon the order of the plaintiff, return the same prior to the expiration of said ninety days, whenever payment of such execution has been demanded by such officer from the defendant and such defendant has neglected or refused to make such payment or to deliver over or to turn out to such officer property out of which the same may be satisfied, in whole or in part, or when such officer shall have endeavored to make such demand but shall have been unable to do so because of his inability to find the defendant or of the refusal of the defendant to permit such demand to be made; and such return shall not prejudice the right of the plaintiff to exhibit a creditor's bill or prosecute supplementary proceedings as hereinafter provided. Such officer shall also, upon demand of the plaintiff, return such execution prior to the expiration of said ninety days without such demand or endeavor to make demand, but in such case such return shall be a defense to the exhibition by the plaintiff of a creditor's bill, or the prosecution of the supplementary proceedings hereinafter allowed after the return of execution in whole or in part unsatisfied, if the defendant in such creditor's bill or supplementary proceedings shall allege in his answer or other paper

20 and, upon the hearing shall prove, that the retention of such execution by said 21 sheriff would have enabled the sheriff to make collection of such judgment.

Sec. 987. WHEN EXECUTION TO BIND GOODS AND CHATTELS.] No execution 2 shall bind the goods and chattels of the person against whom it is issued until 3 it is delivered to the sheriff or other proper officer to be executed; and for the 5 such writ, indorse thereon the day of the month and the year and hour when he 6 received the same.

Sec. 988. WHAT PROPERTY SUBJECT TO EXECUTION.] All and singular the 4 shall be hereafter obtained in any court of record for any debt, damages, costs 5 or other sum of money shall be liable to be sold upon execution to be issued 6 upon such judgment.

Sec. 989. PLAINTIFF MAY ELECT PROPERTY, ETC.] The person in whose favor 2 execution is issued may elect on what property not exempt from execution he 3 will have the same levied, provided personal property shall be last taken.

Sec. 990. PROCEDURE WHEN PROPERTY SUSCEPTIBLE OF DIVISION.] When any 2 real or personal property is taken in execution, if the same is susceptible of 3 division, it shall be sold in separate tracts, lots or articles and only so much 4 shall be sold as is necessary to satisfy the execution.

Sec. 991. PRO RATA DISTRIBUTION WHEN LIENS CONCURRENT.] When the lien 2 of several judgments is concurrent and execution issued upon any one of such 3 judgments is levied upon property subject to such lien, the property so levied 4 upon shall be sold for the benefit of all executions issued upon such judgments 5 and delivered to the same officer or any of his deputies before the sale; and the 6 proceeds of such sale shall be divided upon the several executions pro rata, 7 according to their several amounts.

Sec. 992. PUBLIC SALE OF REAL ESTATE—NOTICE.] No real estate shall be 2 sold by virtue of any execution aforesaid, nor by virtue of any decree in an action 3 in equity, except at public vendue, between the hours of nine in the morning 4 and five in the afternoon of the same day, nor unless the time (specifying the 5 particular hour of said day at which said sale shall commence) and the place 6 of holding such sale shall have been previously advertised three successive 7 weeks, once in each week, in a public newspaper printed and published in the 8 county where said sale shall be made (if there be any newspaper printed and 9 published in said county), and by putting up written or printed notices thereof 10 in at least three of the most public places in the county where the real estate is 11 situated, specifying the name of the plaintiff and defendant in the execution 12 —in all of which said notices the real estate to be sold shall be described with 13 reasonable certainty, and if there shall be more than one newspaper published 14 in such county, the judgment creditor or his attorney may designate the news-

Sec. 993. PENALTY FOR ILLEGAL SALE BY OFFICER.] If any sheriff or other 2 officer shall sell any real estate by virtue of any such execution, otherwise than 3 in the manner aforesaid, or without such previous notice, the officer so offend-4 ing shall, for every offense, forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars ($50), to be 5 recovered with the costs of the action, by the person whose property is sold: 6 Provided, however, that no such offense, nor shall any irregularity on the part 7 of the sheriff, or other officer having the execution, be deemed to affect the val-8 idity of any sale made under it, unless it shall be made to appear that the pur-9 chaser had notice thereof.

Sec. 994. OFFICER TO ISSUE CERTIFICATE OF PURCHASE WHEN.] When any 2 real estate is sold by virtue of an execution, judgment or decree of foreclosure 3 of mortgage, or enforcement of mechanic's lien, or vendor's lien, or for the pay-

 5 officer, instead of executing a deed for the premises sold, to give to the purchas-6 er a certificate describing the premises purchased by him, showing the amount 7 paid therefor, or if purchased by the person in whose favor the execution or de-8 cree is, the amount of his bid, the time when the purchaser will be entitled to a 4 a duplicate of such certificate, which shall be recorded by such recorder, and 5 such certificate or duplicate, or record, and certified copy of the record thereof, 6 shall be evidence of the facts therein stated.

Sec. 996. REDEMPTION BY DEFENDANT, ETC.] Any defendant, his heirs, ad-2 ministrators, assigns, or any person interested in the premises, through or under 3 the defendant, may, within twelve months from said sale, redeem the real estate 4 so sold by paying to the purchaser thereof, his executors, administrators or as-5 signs, or to the sheriff or master in chancery, or other officer who sold the same, 6 or his successor in office, for the benefit of such purchaser, his executors, admin-7 istrators or assigns, the sum of money for which the premises were sold or bid 8 off, with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the time 9 of such sale, whereupon such sale and certificate shall be null and void.

Sec. 997. CERTIFICATE OF REDEMPTION.] In all cases of redemption of land 2 from sale had under any execution, judgment, order or decree, it shall be the duty 3 of the purchaser, sheriff, master in chancery, or other officer or person from 4 whom said redemption takes place, to make out an instrument in writing, under 5 his hand and seal, evidencing said redemption, which shall be recorded in the re-6 corder's office of the proper county, in like manner as other writings affecting 7 the title to real estate are filed and recorded, which recording shall be paid for 8 by the party redeeming.

Sec. 998. REDEMPTION BY CREDITORS.] If such redemption is not made, any 2 decree or judgment creditor, his executors, administrators or assigns may, after 3 the sale, redeem the premises in the following manner: Such creditor, his ex-

 6 to execute the same, who shall indorse upon the same a levy of the premises de-7 sired to be redeemed; and the person desiring to make such redemption shall pay 8 to such officer the amount for which the premises to be redeemed were sold, 9 with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date of 10 the sale, for the use of the purchaser of such premises, his executors, adminis-11 trators or assigns, whereupon such officer shall make and file in the office of the 12 recorder of the county in which the premises are situated a certificate of such re-13 demption, and shall advertise and offer the premises for sale under said execution 14 as in other cases of sale on execution.

Sec. 999. PROCEDURE AT SALE AFTER REDEMPTION WHEN NO BID IN EXCESS OF 2 REDEMPTION MONEY.] The creditor, his executors, administrators or assigns, hav-3 ing so redeemed, shall be considered as having bid at such sale the amount of 4 the redemption money so paid by him, with interest thereon at the rate of six per 5 centum per annum from the date of such redemption to the day of sale, with the 6 cost of such redemption and sale; and if no greater amount is bid at such sale 7 the premises shall be struck off to the person making such redemption and the 8 officer shall forthwith execute a deed of the premises to him, and no other re-9 demption shall be allowed.

Sec. 1000. PROCEDURE AT SALE WHEN BID EXCEEDS REDEMPTION MONEY.] If

2 a greater amount shall be bid and the premises are sold for more than the amount 3 of such redemption money, interest and costs, the excess shall be applied on the 4 execution under which the redemption was made; and a certificate of the pur-

Sec. 1001. SUCCESSIVE REDEMPTIONS—HOW MADE.] Successive redemptions

2 may be made of the premises at any time within sixty days of the last sale at 2 which they were sold for more than the amount of the redemption money, interest 4 and costs, and the premises again sold in the same manner and upon the same 5 terms and conditions, and a certificate shall be made in like form and manner as 6 upon the sale on the first redemption, and the person redeeming shall be con-7 sidered to have bid the amount of his redemption money, interest and costs; and 8 if at any such sale the premises are not sold for a greater sum, the sheriff or 9 other officer shall forthwith execute a deed to the purchaser, and no other re-10 demption shall be allowed.

Sec. 1002. ORDER OF PREFERENCE IN REDEMPTIONS.] When there are several 2 decree or judgment creditors, the creditor having the senior judgment or decree 3 shall have the preference to redeem during the first two days next after the expira-4 tion of the twelve months, and the other creditors shall respectively have prefer-5 ence to redeem during a like time, in the order of seniority of their several 6 judgments or decrees; but where two or more judgments or decrees bear equal 7 date, the creditor first paying the redemption money shall have preference.

Sec. 1003. REDEMPTION IN DISTINCT PARCELS.] Any person entitled to redeem

2 may redeem the whole or any part of the premises sold, in like distinct parcels or 3 quantities in which the same were sold.

Sec. 1004. REDEMPTION OF INTEREST OF JOINT OWNER.] Any joint owner, his 2 executors, administrators or assigns, or a decree or judgment creditor of such 3 joint owner, may redeem the interest of such joint owner in the premises sold on 4 execution or decree, in the manner and upon the conditions hereinbefore provid-5 ed, upon the payment of his proportion of the amount which would be necessary 6 to redeem the whole.

Sec. 1005. REDEMPTION ON PROBATED CLAIM.] For the purpose of redemp-2 tion from the sale of real estate of a deceased debtor, any person whose claim 3 shall have been probated and allowed against the estate of such deceased debtor, 4 shall be considered a judgment creditor, and for the purpose of enabling such 5 creditor to redeem from such sale, it shall be lawful for the clerk of the court 6 wherein a certificate of administration was granted to issue a special execution 7 to the sheriff of the proper county, commanding him, upon redemption being 8 made, to levy and sell the premises, so sought to be redeemed, and like proceed-9 ings shall be had as upon other executions.

Sec. 1006. PAYMENT OF TAXES, ETC., BY HOLDER OF CERTIFICATE, ETC.] When-2 ever any real estate is sold under any judgment or decree of any court, the hold-3 er of the certificate of such sale shall have the right to pay all taxes and assess-4 ments which are or may become a lien on such real estate during the time of re-5 demption running on such sale, and whenever redemption is made from such sale 6 the party or parties entitled to redeem shall pay to the holder of such certificate 7 of sale, or to the sheriff, master in chancery or other officer who sold the same 8 or his successor in office, in addition to the amount due on such certificate, the 9 amount paid by the holder thereof for such taxes and assessments, together with 10 interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum, if before such redemp-

Sec. 1007. NO COMMISSION ON REDEMPTION MONEY.] No commission upon the 2 amount of the redemption money paid in any case shall be allowed to the officer

 6 sale, or by his successor in office, or by some person specially appointed by the 7 court for the purpose. If the time of redemption shall have elapsed before the 8 taking effect of this act, a deed may be given within two years from the time this 9 act shall take effect. When such deed is not taken within the time limited by 10 this act the certificate of purchase shall be null and void; but if such deed is 11 wrongfully withheld by the officer whose duty it is to execute the same, or if the 12 execution of such deed is restrained by injunction or order of a court or judge, 13 the time during which the deed is so withheld or the execution thereof restrained 14 shall not be taken as any part of the five years within which said holder shall 15 take a deed.

If the property is not delivered according to the condition of the bond the officer having such execution may proceed to execute the same in the same manner as if no levy had been made. If the officer does not obtain satisfaction of the execution, he shall return the bond with such execution, and the creditor shall be allowed to recover thereon the amount of his judgment with interest and costs, or, if the value of the property so levied upon shall be shown by the defendant to be less than such judgment and costs, the value thereof with ten per cent. damages for delay. 13 left and shall be sold in like manner as goods and chattels. If the shares of stock 14 are already attached in the same action the officer shall proceed in seizing and 15 selling them on the execution in the same manner as in selling goods and chat-16 tels. No assignment, transfer or pledge of any such shares of stock made by the 17 judgment debtor after an attested copy of the execution shall have been left with 18 the clerk, treasurer, cashier or other officer of the company as aforesaid shall 19 be of any validity as against such execution.

Sec. 1026. OFFICER OF COMPANY TO GIVE CERTIFICATE — PROCEDURE.] The of-2 ficer of the company who keeps a record or account of the shares of stock or in-3 terests of the stockholders therein shall, upon the exhibiting to him of the execu-4 tion, be bound to give to the officer a certificate of the number of shares of stock 5 or amount of the interest held by the judgment debtor. If he refuse to do so, or 6 if he wilfully give a false certificate thereof, he shall be liable for double the 7 amount of all damages occasioned by such refusal or false certificate, to be re-8 covered in any proper action, unless the judgment is satisfied by the original de-9 fendant. In case of the refusal of the officer of the company who keeps the rec-10 ord or account of the shares of stock or interests of the stockholders therein to 11 give the certificate above provided for, the plaintiff in the execution may, upon 12 application to the court out of which the execution has issued, obtain a citation 13 against such corporation requiring it, through its proper officer, to appear be-14 fore the court, at a time and place specified in such citation, and be examined 15 under oath with respect to the number of shares of stock or amount of interest 16 held by the judgment debtor in such corporation, and the court shall have power 17 to compel such officer to testify under oath fully with respect thereto, and, if it 18 appears by the testimony of such officer, that the judgment debtor holds any num-19 ber of shares of stock or any amount of interest in such corporation, such of-

20 ficer thereof may be required by the order of the court to make a proper certifi-21 cate as to such holding by the judgment debtor and to deliver the same to the 22 officer.

Sec. 1027. CITATIONS TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR AND THIRD PERSONS—FIXING RIGHTS
 2 OF THIRD PERSONS.] Whenever it appears by the certificate of the proper officer 3 of the corporation that the judgment debtor holds any number of shares of stock 4 or amount of interest in such corporation, the court, on the application of the 5 plaintiff in the execution, may order the issuance of a citation to the judgment 6 debtor requiring him to appear before the court at a time and place fixed there-7 for in such citation and be examined under oath with respect to such holding of 8 shares of stock or amount of interest in such corporation, and, in case such judg-9 ment debtor may have in his possession the certificates, or any of them, for his 10 shares of stock or interest in such corporation, the court may require him to de-11 liver such certificates to the officer holding the execution and to assign such shares 12 to such officer. If it appears from the examination of the judgment debtor that 13 such certificates or any of them are not in the possession of the judgment debtor 14 the court may require the judgment debtor to testify respecting the disposition 15 made by him of such certificate or certificates and the court shall have power, upon 16 the application of the judgment creditor, to issue a citation to any person, or to 17 any officer of a corporation, appearing to have received such certificate or certifi-18 cates from the judgment debtor, requiring such person or officer of a corporation 19 to appear before the court at a time and place fixed in such citation and then and 20 there testify respecting the interest of such person or corporation in such certifi-21 cate or certificates, and may fix and determine the right or interest of such per-22 son or corporation in and to such certificate or certificates and, if necessary for 23 such purpose, may cause proper issues to be made up, as near as may be, as in 24 an action in equity, and may enter such order, judgment or decree respecting 25 such certificate or certificates of stock as the law and the evidence may require.

Sec. 1028. PROCEDURE TO OBTAIN STOCK FOR PURCHASER AT SALE.] When any

2 such shares of stock or interest of the judgment debtor in a corporation have 3 been sold under an execution an attested copy of the execution and of the return 4 thereon shall, within fifteen days after the sale, be left with the officer of the 5 company whose duty it is to record transfers or shares. If the certificates for such 6 shares have been received by the officer from the defendant as above provided, 7 the purchaser at the execution sale shall thereupon be entitled to a certificate or 8 certificates of the shares bought by him upon his paying the fees therefor and 9 for recording the transfer and the delivery to the proper officer of the corpora-10 tion of the certificate or certificates received from the judgment debtor as afore-11 said. If such certificate or certificates shall not have been received by the officer 12 from the judgment debtor, but shall be in the possession of a third person or cor-13 poration the purchaser shall be entitled to receive from the officer of the cor-14 poration a certificate showing his right to such share or shares of stock subject 15 to the rights of such third person or corporation as they may be fixed and be de-16 termined by the court, and if it appear that such third person or corporation 17 holds such shares of stock as security for an indebtedness of the judgment debtor 18 to such third person or corporation, or as security for any other liability, the 19 purchaser at such execution sale shall have the right, upon the payment to such 20 third person or corporation of the amount of such indebtedness, or the satisfac-21 tion of such liability, to receive from such third person or corporation such cer-22 tificate or certificates of stock.

Sec. 1029. DIVIDENDS AFTER LEVY OF ATTACHMENT.] If the shares of stock

2 or interest of the judgment debtor sold under execution have been attached in 3 the action in which the execution issued, the purchaser shall be entitled to all the 4 dividends which have accrued after the attachment.

Sec. 1030. SET OFF OF EXCEPTIONS.] Executions between the same parties 2 may be set off one against another if required by either party as prescribed in 3 the following section.

Sec. 1031. METHOD OF SETTING OFF EXECUTIONS.] When one of the executions 2 is delivered to an officer to be executed, the debtor therein may deliver his execu-3 tion to the same officer whether the second execution is directed to the same or to 4 any other officer; and the officer shall apply it, as far as it will extend, to the sat-5 isfaction of the first execution, and the balance due on the larger execution may 6 be collected and paid in the same manner as if there had been no such set off.

Sec. 1032. WHEN SET OFF OF EXECUTIONS NOT ALLOWED.] Such set off shall 2 not be allowed in the following cases:

3 First—When the creditor in one of the executions is not in the same capacity 4 and trust as the debtor in the other.

5 Second—When the sum due on the first execution was lawfully and in 6 good faith assigned to another person before the creditor in the second execution 7 became entitled to the sum due thereon.

8 Third—When there are several creditors in one execution and the sum due 9 on the other is due from a part of them only.

10 Fourth—When there are several debtors in one execution and the sum due on 11 the other is due to a part of them only.

12 Fifth—It shall not be allowed as to so much of the first execution as is due 13 to the attorney in that action for his fees and disbursements therein.

Sec. 1033. COURT MAY SETTLE SUMMARILY QUESTIONS OF SET OFF.] The court 2 out of which the first execution has issued with respect to which any set off is 3 claimed shall have power, upon the application of either party or of any person 4 interested in either judgment, to settle in a summary way the rights of all parties 5 and persons with respect to such set off.

Sec. 1034. UNJUST REFUSAL TO SURRENDER ESTATE—EXECUTION AGAINST BODY.]

2 If, upon the return of an execution unsatisfied, in whole or in part, the judgment 3 creditor, or his agent or attorney, shall make an affidavit stating that demand has 4 been made upon the debtor for the surrender of his estate, goods, chattels, lands 5 and tenements for the satisfaction of such execution and that he verily believes 6 such debtor has such estate, goods, chattels, lands and tenements not exempt from 7 execution or garnishment which he unjustly refuses to surrender, or that since 8 the debt was contracted or the cause of action accrued, the debtor has fraudulent-9 ly conveyed, concealed or otherwise disposed of some part of his estate, with a 10 design to secure the same to his own use, or defraud his creditors; and also set-11 ting forth, upon his knowledge, information and belief, in either case, the facts 12 tending to show that such belief is well founded and shall procure the order of 13 the court from which execution issued, or of any judge or master in chancery of 14 the same county, certifying that probable cause is shown in such affidavit to au-15 thorize the issuing of an execution against the body of the debtor, and ordering 16 that such writ be issued; upon the filing of such affidavit and order with the 17 clerk, he shall issue an execution against the body of such judgment debtor.

Sec. 1035. OFFICER TO MAKE DEMAND.] For the purpose of enabling the judg-

2 ment creditor to make such affidavit the officer having the execution against the 3 property of the defendant may demand any estate of the defendant not exempt 4 from execution, whether the same is of such nature that it may be levied upon 5 and sold on execution or not.

Sec. 1036. ESCAPE OF DEBTOR.] If the debtor shall escape from arrest upon

2 an execution against his body he may be re-arrested upon the same or another 3 warrant in the same case; and, for the purpose of arrest or re-arrest, he may be 4 pursued into any county in this state into which he may flee.

Sec. 1037. IMPRISONMENT OF DEBTOR—LIMITATION.] When a debtor shall be 2 arrested by virtue of an execution against his body, he shall be conveyed to the 3 county jail of the county of the officer who made the arrest, and kept in safe cus-
 4 tody until he shall satisfy the execution or be discharged according to law. Im-5 mediately upon the arrest of the defendant the officer making the same shall 6 give notice thereof to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, if in the county: Pro- 7 vided, that no person heretofore or hereafter imprisoned under the provisions of 8 this act shall be imprisoned for a longer period than six months from the date of 9 arrest; and, provided, further, that no person shall be released from imprison-10 ment under this act who neglects or refuses to schedule in manner and form as 11 hereinafter provided.

Sec. 1038. DISCHARGE OF DEFENDANT FROM IMPRISONMENT—PROCEDURE.] When 2 any person is imprisoned upon any capias ad respondendum, or upon any execu-3 tion against his body in an action other than one for a libel, a slander, a malicious 4 prosecution, a false imprisonment, an assault and battery, the commission of a 5 fraud, a seduction, a criminal conversation or other injury wilfully inflicted, such 6 person may obtain his discharge from such imprisonment in the following 7 manner:

8 First—APPLICATION IN WRITING FOR DISCHARGE.] He shall make an applica-9 tion in writing for his discharge to the court out of which such capias ad respond- 10 endum or execution against his body shall have issued, which said application 11 shall be filed in the action in which said capias ad respondendum or execution 12 against the body shall have issued and shall specify the court in which the action 13 is pending, the names of the parties thereto, the classification and number of the 14 action, and shall set forth the nature of the process under which such person is 15 imprisoned, the date on which his imprisonment commenced and the facts en-16 titling such person to his discharge from such imprisonment.

17 Second—NOTICE OF APPLICATION.] Reasonable notice of such application 18 shall be given to the creditor at whose instance such person was arrested or im-19 prisoned, or to his agent or attorney, if in the county; if not, to the officer who 20 made the arrest, and reasonable notice within the meaning of this clause shall 21 be not less than one hour before application and time for travel at the rate 22 of not less than one day for every twenty-four miles traveled.

23 Third—DEFENDANT TO BE BROUGHT BEFORE COURT—HEARING.] At the time 24 appointed in such notice it shall be the duty of the officer in whose custody such 25 person shall be to convey him before the court out of which the writ under which 26 he is imprisoned has been issued and the court shall thereupon proceed to deter-27 mine such application in a summary manner.

28 Fourth—ORDERS TO BE MADE.] When such person is imprisoned for debt 29 upon a charge of fraud, or upon execution on a charge of refusal to surrender 30 his estate for the payment of any judgment, and the court shall find such person 31 not guilty of such fraud or refusal, as the case may be, he shall be discharged 32 from the arrest or imprisonment, and the creditor at whose instance he was ar-33 rested or imprisoned shall be adjudged to pay the costs of the arrest or impris-
 34 onment and of such proceeding. If the person imprisoned shall be found guilty 35 of such fraud or refusal he shall be remanded to the custody of the proper 36 officer.

37 Fifth—DISCLOSURE AND ASSIGNMENT.] When such person is not discharged 38 by the court pursuant to the preceding clause, the court shall require him to make 39 a full and complete disclosure of all of his estate, real or personal, and to con-40 vey, assign, transfer and deliver the same, excepting so much thereof as shall be 41 exempt from execution or garnishment, to the sheriff to be held by the sheriff 42 subject to the further order of the court.

43 Sixth—DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY.] If such person is imprisoned under a 44 capias ad respondendum the property mentioned in the preceding clause shall be

45 held by such sheriff to abide the event of the action in which such capias ad 46 respondendum has been issued and to be disposed of as the court may direct, but 47 if such person is imprisoned under an execution against the body such property 48 shall be applied under the direction of the court to the satisfaction, so far as the 49 same may extend, of such execution.

50 Seventh—WHEN DEFENDANT MAY BE DISCHARGED — EFFECT OF DISCHARGE.]
 51 Whenever it shall appear to the court that the debtor has conveyed, assigned, 52 transferred and delivered to the sheriff all of his estate, real or personal, not ex-53 empt from execution or garnishment, and that he has not fraudulently conveyed, 54 concealed or otherwise disposed of some part of his estate with a design to secure 55 the same to his own use or defraud his creditors, or has not wilfully misused or 56 expended his goods or estate or some part thereof, the court shall enter an order 57 discharging such person from arrest or imprisonment, but such discharge shall 58 be no discharge or satisfaction of the claim, judgment or costs upon which such 59 person was imprisoned.

Sec. 1039. PAYMENT OF JUDGMENT ETC., MAY BE MADE TO CLERK, ETC.] Any 2 judgment or decree for the payment of money, when no execution issued thereon 3 is outstanding, may be satisfied by the payment by the party against whom the 4 same has been rendered or entered, or any person in his behalf, of the amount 5 thereof to the clerk of the court in which such judgment or decree has been ren-6 dered or entered, who, upon payment being made, shall enter satisfaction there-7 of and shall, upon demand, pay over the money received to the person, or his at-8 torney, appearing of record to be entitled to receive such payment. Whenever 9 payment of any judgment or decree is made to the clerk as aforesaid, he shall 10 forthwith notify the person, or his attorney entitled to receive the same as afore-11 said, of such payment.

5 sioners shall make and sign an appraisal of the value thereof and deliver the 6 same to the officer who shall deliver a copy thereof to the execution debtor or 7 to some one of the family of suitable age to understand the nature thereof, with 8 a notice thereof attached that, unless the execution debtor shall pay to said 9 officer the surplus over and above the sum fixed by this act as the value of the 10 homestead estate on the amount due on said execution within sixty days there-11 after, such premises will be sold.

Sec. 1052. SALE FOR NON-PAYMENT OF SURPLUS.] In case such surplus, or 2 the amount due on said execution, shall not be paid within sixty days the officer 3 may advertise and sell the said premises and out of the proceeds of such sale pay 4 to such execution debtor the said sum fixed by this act as the value of the home-5 stead estate and apply the balance on said execution.

Sec. 1053. OFFICER TO MAKE INQUIRY INTO FACTS—PROCEDURE.] Before any 2 officer shall take any proceedings for the appraisal of the premises in which an 3 estate of homestead is claimed such officer shall make inquiry of the householder 4 or other person claiming such estate of homestead as to the facts specified in 5 section two (2) above pertaining to the extent in value of such estate of home-6 stead, and shall cause the statement of such householder or other person with 7 respect thereto to be reduced to writing and signed by such householder or 8 other person, and shall furnish to the plaintiff in the execution a copy there-9 of. If the plaintiff in the execution shall not dispute the facts set forth in such 10 statement, the same shall be taken by such officer as true and such officer shall 11 estimate the value of such homestead estate in accordance therewith. If the 12 plaintiff in the execution shall dispute the facts set forth in such statement such 13 officer shall forthwith submit the matter to the court out of which such execution 14 has issued, and such court shall thereupon proceed in a summary manner to 15 hear the evidence and to determine the facts bearing upon the extent in value of 16 the householder's estate of homestead and shall enter an order fixing the value 17 thereof, which order shall be final and conclusive, both upon the plaintiff in 18 the execution and upon such householder, in all subsequent proceedings under 19 such execution.

13 Third—OTHER PROPERTY.] Other property to be selected by the debtor from 14 property other than money, salary or wages due him or her from any person 15 or persons or corporation whatever, the property to be thus selected not to ex-16 ceed the following amounts:

17 a—When the debtor is not the head of a family residing with the same, 18 such amount shall be the sum of one hundred dollars ($100).

19 b—When the debtor is the head of a family consisting of a husband and 20 wife only, such amount shall be the sum of five hundred dollars ($500).

21 c—When such debtor is the head of a family consisting of a husband and 22 wife, or a widower or widow, and children, such amount shall be the sum of five 23 hundred dollars ($500), and an additional one hundred dollars ($100) for each 24 child under the age of seventeen years.

27 of such debtor, incapable of self-support and dependent upon such debtor for 28 support, such amount shall be increased by the sum of two hundred dollars 29 ($200) for every such father, mother, child, brother or sister.

Sec. 1055. MONEY DUE FROM SALE OF EXEMPT PROPERTY ALSO EXEMPT.] Money

2 due the debtor from the sale of any personal property which was exempt from 3 execution, writ of attachment or distress for rent at the time of such sale shall 4 be exempt from execution, attachment, garnishment and other legal process, to 5 the same extent as such property would be exempt had the same not been sold 6 by such debtor.

Sec. 1056. TO WHAT EXTENT WAGES EXEMPT.] The wages for services of a 2 wage-earner, who is the head of a family and residing with the same, shall be ex-3 empt from all legal process for the application thereof to the payment of any 4 judgment to the following extent:

5 First—WHEN FAMILY HUSBAND AND WIFE ONLY.] When the family consists 6 of a husband and wife only, the amount so exempt shall be fifteen dollars ($15).

7 Second—WHEN FAMILY HUSBAND, AND WIFE, WIDOWER OR WIDOW, AND CHIL-8 DREN.] When the family consists of a husband and wife, or a widower or 9 widow, and children, the amount so exempt shall be fifteen dollars ($15) and one 10 dollar ($1) in addition thereto for each child under the age of seventeen 11 years.

12 Third—WHEN FAMILY CONTAINS A DEPENDENT PERSON.] When there shall 13 be, as a part of the family, a father, mother, a child above the age of seventeen 14 years, a brother or a sister of such debtor, incapable of self-support and de-15 pendent upon such debtor for support, such amount shall be increased by the 16 sum of two dollars ($2) for every such dependent father, mother, child, brother 17 or sister.

Sec. 1057. DEBTOR TO SCHEDULE.] Whenever any debtor against whom an 2 execution, writ of attachment or distress warrant has been issued desires to avail 3 himself of the benefit of this act he shall, within ten days after a copy of the 4 execution, attachment or distress warrant is served upon him, make a schedule 5 of all his personal property of every kind and character, including money on 6 hand and debts due and owing to the debtor, together with a statement of the 7 facts hereinbefore specified necessary for the determination of the amount of 8 such debtor's exemption and shall deliver the same to the officer or other person

9 having the execution, writ of attachment or distress warrant, which said sched-10 ule and statement shall be subscribed and sworn to by the debtor and any prop-11 erty owned by the debtor and not included in said schedule shall not be exempt 12 as aforesaid, and thereupon the officer having the execution, writ of attachment 13 or distress warrant shall summon three householders who, after being first duly 14 sworn to fairly and impartially appraise the property of the debtor, shall fix a 15 fair valuation upon each article contained in said schedule and the debtor shall 16 then select from said schedule the articles he or she may desire to retain, the 17 aggregate amount of which shall not exceed the amount exempted to which he 18 or she may be entitled, and deliver the remainder to the officer having the writ; 19 and the officer having such writ is hereby authorized to administer the oaths 20 required herein of the debtor and appraisers. When the judgment debtor has 21 presented a sufficient schedule of all his personal estate, the return of such ex-22 ecution unsatisfied and the issuing of an alias or subsequent execution shall not 23 render it necessary for such judgment debtor, for the purpose of availing him-24 self of the benefits of the exemption laws of this state, to present an additional 25 schedule unless additional property has been acquired before ninety (90) days 26 from the date of the writ. If the plaintiff in the execution, attachment or dis-27 tress warrant shall dispute the facts set forth in the statement hereinbefore pro-28 vided for, the officer or other person executing the writ or distress warrant shall 29 forthwith submit the matter to the court out of which the writ has issued or to 30 which the distress warrant is to be returned, and such court shall thereupon pro-31 ceed in a summary manner to hear the evidence and to determine the facts bear-32 ing upon the amount of such debtor's exemption and shall enter an order fixing 33 the value thereof, which order shall be final and conclusive both upon the plain-34 tiff in the execution, writ of attachment or distress warrant and upon such 35 householder in all subsequent proceedings under such execution, writ of attach-36 ment or distress warrant.

Sec. 1058. OFFICER TO DELIVER COPY OF EXECUTION, ETC.] Every officer or 2 other person levying an execution, writ of attachment, or distress warrant, shall, 3 at or prior to such levy, deliver to the debtor personally, if the debtor is then 4 found by such officer or other person, a copy of such execution, writ of attach-5 ment or distress warrant, together with a suitable blank for the schedule and 6 statement above provided for, on which shall be printed the three next preceding 7 sections of this act and shall inform such debtor of the contents of such execu-8 tion and of such debtor's rights with respect to such schedule, as defined in said 9 three preceding sections. If such debtor is not then found by such officer or 10 other person, such copy of the execution, writ of attachment and distress war-11 rant and schedule may be delivered by the officer to any member of the family 12 of the debtor above the age of seventeen years and informing such member of 13 the contents thereof and of the rights of said judgment debtor with respect to 14 such schedule, or, if such debtor or such member of his family be not then 15 found, such officer may post up such copy of such execution and schedule in 16 some public place near the place of the levy upon said property.

Sec. 1059. FAMILY ENTITLED TO EXEMPTION WHEN HEAD DIES, DESERTS, ETC.]
 2 When the head of a family shall die, desert or not reside with the same the fam-3 ily shall be entitled to and shall receive all the benefits and privileges which are 4 by this act conferred upon the head of a family residing with the same.

Sec. 1060. NO EXEMPTION AGAINST WAGES OF LABORER OR SERVANT.] No per-2 sonal property shall be exempted from levy of attachment or execution when the 3 debt or judgment is for the wages of any laborer or servant: Provided, the 4 court rendering judgment shall find that the demand so sued for is the wages due 5 such person as laborer or servant, which finding shall be expressed in the rec-6 ord of said judgment and endorsed upon the execution when issued. In all 7 actions brought to recover wages due any laborer or servant, when it shall ap-8 pear to the satisfaction of the court or jury that it was necessary in the perform-

9 ance of said labor that the laborer or servant use his horse or team, then said 10 services shall be included in said wages and become a part of the judgment for 11 said wages and from such judgment nothing shall be exempted.

Sec. 1061. PENALTY FOR SEIZURE OF EXEMPT PROPERTY.] If any officer by 2 virtue of any execution or other process, or any other person by the right of 3 distress, shall take or seize any of the articles or property exempted as herein 4 provided from levy and sale, such officer or person shall be liable to the party 5 injured for double the value of the property so illegally taken or seized to be 6 recovered by an action at law with the costs of the action.

 334 of five hundred dollars ($500) and costs of the action in favor of John Doe.

335 Witness John Smith, clerk of said circuit court and the seal thereof at 336 Chicago, Illinois, this 25th day of May, 1908. JOHN SMITH, Clerk.

Sec. 1065. CITATION BEFORE RETURN OF EXECUTION — FORM OF PETITION.]

2 After the issuance of an execution against the lands, tenements, goods and chat-3 tels of any judgment debtor and before the return thereof, upon petition there-4 for and proof to the satisfaction of the court that there is reasonable ground to 5 believe that the judgment debtor has property which he has unjustly refused to 6 apply towards the satisfaction of the judgment, whether subject to execution or 7 not, the judgment creditor shall be entitled to a like citation. The petition shall 8 conform to the requirements of the preceding section excepting that it shall re-9 cite the steps taken by the officer under the execution and that the same has not 10 been returned and shall specify the ground for the belief that the judgment 11 debtor has property which he unjustly refuses to apply towards the satisfaction 12 of the judgment. Upon the filing of the petition, the court, if satisfied the plain-13 tiff is entitled to a citation, shall order the issuance thereof and the same shall be 14 issued by the clerk accordingly. The following form of petition under this sec-15 tion shall be deemed sufficient and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from 16 which other petitions may be properly framed:

17 IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

18 John Doe	}	Supplementary Proceeding. No. 34.
19 v.
20 Richard Roe.

21 PETITION FOR CITATION.

22 The plaintiff says:

23 1. That on February 10, 1908, he recovered a judgment against said de-24 fendant in said circuit court in the case of John Doe v. Richard Roe, Contract,

No. 42, for the sum of eight hundred dollars ($800), together with costs of the action taxed at eight dollars ($8).

2. That on February 12, 1908, execution was duly issued upon said judgment and delivered to the sheriff of Cook county, who, on February 14, 1908, made demand upon said defendant for the satisfaction of the same, which was refused by said defendant, and that the same has not yet been returned by said sheriff and is wholly unsatisfied.

3. That the amount now due upon said judgment, exclusive of interest and costs, is eight hundred dollars ($800).

4. That plaintiff has reasonable ground to believe that said Richard Roe has property in the county of Cook which he unjustly refuses to apply towards the satisfaction of said judgment and as ground of such belief plaintiff says that one William Smith, the secretary of the Chicago Insurance Company, has informed plaintiff that said Chicago Insurance Company is indebted to said Richard Roe in the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000), and that said Chicago Insurance Company is ready and willing and able to pay said sum to said Richard Roe upon demand.

Wherefore plaintiff prays for a citation to said defendant, Richard Roe, requiring the defendant's appearance for examination at ten o'clock A. M. on Tuesday, March 1, 1908.

JOHN DOE,

By THOMAS JONES,

Plaintiff's Attorney.

(Here add affidavit verifying petition as in first form.)

Sec. 1066. SERVICE OF CITATION.] Every citation issued in a supplementary proceeding shall be served by the delivery of a copy thereof, together with a copy of the plaintiff's petition, to the party to be cited, if such party be an individual or, if such party be a corporation, then to the person to whom a copy of a summons to be served upon such corporation could properly be delivered as provided in this act. Such delivery may be made by any officer or other person authorized by this act to serve a summons and the service thereof may be proven in the manner provided by this act for proof of the service of a summons. Such service shall be made at least two (2) days prior to the time fixed in the citation for the appearance of the party cited. In case the citation is not returned served two (2) days or more prior to the time therein fixed for the appearance of the party cited the clerk shall, upon the application of the petitioner, issue an alias citation for the appearance of the party cited at such time as may be specified by the petitioner or as may be prescribed by the rules of the court in which the party cited is required to appear: Provided, however, that such time shall be not less than three (3) nor more than fifteen (15) days from the issuance of such citation, and a pluries citation may also be issued, upon the application of the petitioner, when any previous citation has not been returned served within the time hereinbefore prescribed. When the person or corporation to be cited is not the judgment debtor and such judgment debtor is not also cited, notice in writing of the examination shall be given to the judgment debtor, or his attorney, at least one day prior to the day fixed therefor, but when such notice has once been given of such examination the judgment debtor shall be bound to take notice of all subsequent postponements or adjournments thereof: Provided, however, that no such notice need be given if neither the defendant nor his attorney is a resident of this State, or if neither of them can be conveniently found.

Sec. 1067. AVERMENTS OF PETITION WHICH NEED NOT BE PROVEN.] Upon the hearing of any supplementary proceeding it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to make proof of the recovery of the judgment, the issuance of the execution and the proceedings had thereon or the amount due the plaintiff on the judgment, or any other fact necessary to entitle the plaintiff to a citation, as alleged in the petition, unless the defendant or other person cited shall, at the time of his ap pearance, or within such time thereafter as may be allowed by the court, file an affidavit denying such facts or one or more of them, in which case it shall be necessary for the plaintiff to prove the fact or facts so denied. When the party cited is a corporation such affidavit may be made by any officer or agent thereof cognizant of the facts.

Sec. 1068. EXAMINATION — ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY, ETC.—FORMS.]

Where it appears from the examination or testimony taken pursuant to the provisions of this act that the judgment debtor has in his possession or under his control moneys or other property belonging to him and not exempt from execution, or that money, choses in action, or one or more articles of personal property, capable of delivery and the right of possession of which in said judgment debtor is not substantially disputed, and which are not exempt by law from execution or garnishment, are in the possession or under the control of such other person or corporation, the court before which the examination is held may, in its discretion, make an order directing the judgment debtor or such other person or corporation, immediately to pay the money, assign the choses in action or deliver the articles of personal property to the sheriff of the county in which such court is held, to be by him collected or sold at public sale and the proceeds thereof applied towards the satisfaction of said execution, and if the amount of money or the proceeds of such collection or sale shall exceed the amount due upon such execution and the costs accrued thereon, the overplus shall be paid to the said judgment debtor. BILL OF COMPLAINT.

The plaintiff, as receiver of the property of Richard Roe, brings this his action in equity against the defendants and says:

1. Plaintiff was, on February 10, 1908, duly appointed by this court as receiver of the property of the defendant, Richard Roe, with the powers of a receiver of the fourth class.

2. Said appointment was made in a supplementary proceeding in said court to enforce a judgment rendered by said court on December 10, 1907, in favor of one John Doe and against said Richard Roe for the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000) and the costs of the action.

3. The indebtedness upon which said judgment was founded accrued prior to July 1, 1907.

4. No part of the judgment has been paid or otherwise satisfied.

5. Other judgment creditors of said Richard Roe have intervened in said supplementary proceeding as follows:

a—John Jones, whose judgment is for one thousand dollars ($1,000) and costs recovered December 17, 1907, in said circuit court, upon an indebtedness which accrued prior to August 1, 1907.

b—George Thomas, whose judgment is for eight hundred dollars ($800) and costs recovered December 20, 1907, in the superior court of Cook county, upon indebtedness which accrued prior to August 1, 1907.

6. No part of either of said judgments of said John Jones or George Thomas has been paid or otherwise satisfied.

7. The defendants Mary Roe, William Roe and Thomas Jones, have each received from the defendant Richard Roe since August 1, 1907, large amounts of 46 real and personal estate belonging to said Richard Roe without any valuable 47 consideration for the purpose of aiding said Richard Roe in hindering, delaying 48 and defrauding his creditors.

49 8. On August 17, 1907, said defendant Richard Roe conveyed by warranty
 50 deed to said Mary Roe, William Roe, and Thomas Jones, the Northwest Quar-
 51 ter of the Northeast Quarter of Section Eighteen (18), Township Twenty-nine 52 (29) North, Range Three (3) East of Third P. M. in Cook county, Illinois, for 53 a pretended consideration of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), whereas there was 54 no consideration in fact for such conveyance, but the same was made without 55 any valuable consideration for the purpose of aiding said Richard Roe in hinder-56 ing, delaying and defrauding his said creditors.

57 Wherefore plaintiff prays as follows:

58 First—For a discovery from the defendants and each of them concerning 59 the matters above set forth.

60 Second—For a decree setting aside the aforesaid conveyance and subject-61 ing the property to the payment of the above named judgments.

62 Third—For general relief.

HENRY BROWN,

63 As receiver for the property of Richard Roe.

64 By WILLIAM SMITH,

65 His Attorney.

66 NOTE.

67 The clerk will issue four summonses to defendants for their appearance on 68 Monday, March 8, 1908.

Sec 1071. ORDER FOR WARRANT—FORMS.] Upon proof entitling the judgment
 2 creditor to a citation before the return of an execution and also proof to the sat-3 isfaction of the court that there is danger that the judgment debtor will leave 4 the state or conceal himself and that there is reason to believe that he has prop-5 erty which he unjustly refuses to apply to the payment of the judgment, the 6 court, instead of making an order for the issuance of a citation, may make an

7 order for the issuance of a warrant by the clerk, under the seal of the court, re-8 quiring the sheriff or coroner of any county where the judgment debtor may be 9 found to arrest him and bring him before the court, if he be a resident of or 10 have a place of business in the county in which the judgment is rendered, or, 11 if he be not a resident of the county in which the judgment is rendered, and 12 have no place of business therein, to bring him before the county court of the 13 county in which he may reside or may be found, there to be examined in the 14 same manner as if a citation had issued as hereinbefore provided. The follow-15 ing forms of petitions, orders and warrants under this section shall be deemed 16 sufficient and shall be taken as furnishing suggestions from which other peti-

Sec. 1074. ASSIGNMENT TO SHERIFF—ACTION—EXPENSES—FORMS.] When,

2 from the examination or testimony taken pursuant to the provisions of this sec-3 tion, there is reason to believe that any other person or corporation than the 4 judgment debtor has personal property of the debtor not exempt from execution 5 or garnishment, or is indebted to such judgment debtor in a sum exceeding the 6 amount exempt by law from garnishment, but such other person or corporation 7 substantially disputes that such personal property belongs to the debtor or that 8 such other person or corporation is indebted to the judgment debtor, or when 9 it appears that such judgment debtor claims that such other person or corpora-10 tion has personal property belonging to him, the debtor, or is indebted to him, 11 the court shall require such judgment debtor to make a proper transfer or as-12 signment of such personal property or chose in action to the sheriff of the county 13 in which such court is held, or the court may, by its order, without any such 14 transfer or assignment, vest the equitable title to such personal property or 15 chose in action in said sheriff, and thereupon the sheriff shall, at the request of 16 the plaintiff in the judgment and at the expense of such plaintiff, prosecute, in 17 the name of the judgment debtor, for the use of such sheriff, a proper action 18 for the recovery of such personal property, or the amount of such indebtedness, 19 and, in case no property is recovered thereby, all the costs, expenses and attor-20 ney's fees of such action shall be paid by such plaintiff, unless other property or 21 money of the judgment debtor is recovered out of which the plaintiff may be re-22 imburSED for such costs, expenses and attorney's fees, in which case the plaintiff 23 shall be so reimbursed. In case, by means of such action, any money or other prop-24 erty is recovered to be applied in satisfaction of the judgment, or of such judg-25 ment and such other judgments as may be rendered against the same judgment 26 debtor, all the reasonable costs and expenses of the action, including reasonable 27 attorney's fees, to be audited by the court in which the judgment has been ren-28 dered, shall be paid to the plaintiff out of the proceeds of the property recov-29 ered and any balance of such proceeds remaining after the payment of the plain-

30 tiff's judgment, and of such other judgments as may be entitled to be paid there-31 from, shall be paid over to the judgment debtor. The following forms of orders
